AUGUSTISSIME IMPERATOR.

AEgyptios olim, ne unquam ſcientiae ſuae hieroglyphicae memoria excideret, in operoſis Obeliſcorum Pyramidumque molibus, tum & apparatiſſimis templorum valvis, ſymbolorum ſuorum monumenta conſecrare ſolitos fuiſſe, hiſtoriâ temporum teſte & vetuſtatis nuncia accepimus. Naturae Curioſorum Academia, quae Obſervationum, experimentorum & inventorum notabilium in novum volumen collegit ſeriem, non in Aeſculapii fano ſuſpendere, ſed ad CAESAREAE VESTRAE MAJESTATIS

Sapientiam, quæ Deo placet, & quæ ad Deum ducit, ostendit. Quæ sapientia, quia non humana, sed divina, Christiana dicitur, ut ab illa, quæ humana est, distinguatur. Hæc autem sapientia, quæ Christiana dicitur, quia Deo placet, & ad Deum ducit, ostendit, quid sit, quod Deo placeat, & ad Deum ducat.

CAP. II. EXPLICIT, QUOD SAPIENTIA CHRISTIANA ORIGINE CARNEM, ET SUB EA HOMINEM ASSUMPSERIT, ET QUOD IN HOMINE CHRISTO, QUI EST VERUS DEUS, ET VERUS HOMO, SIT VERA SAPIENTIA, QUÆ DEO PLACET, ET AD DEUM DUCIT.

Sapientia Christiana, quæ Deo placet, & ad Deum ducit, originem carnis sibique, id est, sub carne hominem assumpsit, ut in homine Christo, qui est verus Deus, & verus homo, sit vera sapientia, quæ Deo placet, & ad Deum ducit. Quæ sapientia, quia non humana, sed divina, Christiana dicitur, ut ab illa, quæ humana est, distinguatur. Hæc autem sapientia, quæ Christiana dicitur, quia Deo placet, & ad Deum ducit, ostendit, quid sit, quod Deo placeat, & ad Deum ducat.

CAP. III. EXPLICIT, QUOD SAPIENTIA CHRISTIANA ORIGINE CARNEM, ET SUB EA HOMINEM ASSUMPSERIT, ET QUOD IN HOMINE CHRISTO, QUI EST VERUS DEUS, ET VERUS HOMO, SIT VERA SAPIENTIA, QUÆ DEO PLACET, ET AD DEUM DUCIT.

Sapientia Christiana, quæ Deo placet, & ad Deum ducit, originem carnis sibique, id est, sub carne hominem assumpsit, ut in homine Christo, qui est verus Deus, & verus homo, sit vera sapientia, quæ Deo placet, & ad Deum ducit. culo perceperat, ſe aquilam in nubibus, & reliquis avibus ſuperiorem fore. Jam vero dum antehac depopulatarum regionum, urbium dirutarum, arcium expugnatarum, agrorum devaſtatorum, exundantium profuſo ſanguine camporum, triſtis adhuc nos manet memoria, imminens adverſitatum tempeſtas, bellicorum apparatuum gravitas, armorumque ſtrepitus ſeriis nos precari precibus jubent, o utinam pax miſſa per orbem ferrea belligeri compeſcat limina Jani, & poſtibus auguſtis lauro nobilior quercus prætexatur, illaque victos hoſtes, hæc cives ſervatos oſtentet.

Votorum igitur noſtrorum ſumma eſt, ut ſupremus mundi Arbiter SACRÆ CÆSAREÆ MAIESTATI VESTRÆ porro pacatum Imperium, tranquillam REGNORVM AVITORVM poſſeſſionem, Cognationum Pactorumq;, qui cum Regibus intercedunt, uberrimos fructus, cæli aſtrorumque beneficos aſpectus, gentium concordiam, terrarum fecunditatem, & cum primis Maſculam Progeniem Aureæque ſtirpis Aureum Ramum in Auſtriacæ Domus columen & ſeculi delicium largiatur!

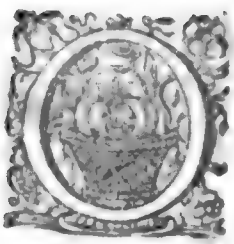
PRAEFATIO.



Bſervationum noſtrarum millenario, quas ab anno ſaeculi hujus duodecimo centuriatim collectas ediderамus, jam ante qvinqvennium colophon fuit impoſitus. Nunc ACTA haec Tuo, Lector Benevole, fauori commendamus, eodem filo poſthac telas induſtriae noſtrae contexturi, ſi vitam ac vires conceſſerit DEUS Soſpitator. Animus erat volumen haut paullo ceteris ſpiſſius nunc condere, cum apparatu eſſemus inſtructi obſervationum, quarum numerus ad quartam usque centuriam produceretur. Aſt vero cum Bibliopola neqvaqvam e re fore ſua putaret eam in molem opus exſurgere, cujus pretium repelleret magis emtores, qvam alliceret, obſecundandum vel invitis nobis fuit hujus deſiderio, & bona pars, quae reſtabat, tam obſervationum, quam opuſculorum appendici deſtinatorum, in forulos recondenda. Quod heic exponendum fuit, ne ſuccenſeant nobis Honoratiſſimi Collegae, quorum penſa noviſſime allata heic nondum comparent. Comparebunt haec, ſi DEUS votis annuerit, proxime, & novi Actorum tomi, quem paramus, auſpicia dabunt praeclara & luculenta. Valete Lectores & pronae noſtrae ad ſtudia veſtra voluntati oculis porro animisque favete.

nos de nobis cogitamus. Quod si quis nostrum
quam sese esse putat, humilior fuerit, tanto erit sublimior, et quo se ipse minorem fecerit, tanto erit a Deo exaltatior. Hoc primum est a nobis cavendum, ne quis nostrum sibi ipse placeat, ne quis superbus, ne quis ingratus, ne quis impius sit, ne quis sibi ipse tribuat, quod non sit, ne

OBSERVATIO III.

DN. D. BENEDICTI GUILLMANNI.

Gravida tonitru perculsa, edit fœtum mortuum membris convulsis rigidisque.

FEmina 34. annorum, temperamenti robusti, aliquatenus plethorica, octavo mense ingravidationis suæ, tempore matutino sacra frequentatura, ante Templi ingressum tonitru improviso, magno percutitur terrore; hanc animi commutationem, embryonisque hinc dependentem alterationem vilipendens, devotionem nihilominus continuat, & per duos horas inibi moras nectit, domum reversa nullis quidem de doloribus, nec aliis supervenientibus symptomatibus conqueritur; & quamvis imminutam calcitrationem infantis perceperit, nullius tamen Medici opem expetebat, nec ipsa medicamenti aliquid confortantis assumebat, sed per 8. dies negotiis suis domesticis absque ullo impedimento præerat. Die vero insequente tàm insigni corripiebatur uteri hæmorrhagia, ut de vita periclitaretur gravida ob omnimodam & tam subitaneam virium prostrationem. Medicus illicò accersitus, ex relatione adstantium, & historiæ circumstantiis instantem abortum præsagiens, analeptica cum lenibus adstringentibus præscripsit, quibus nimius fluxus paululum quidem mitigabatur, tertiâ vero abhinc horâ regrediebatur, tanta violentia, ut syncoptica jacens nunc animam esse efflatura videretur; hoc in statu ancipiti edidit partum suum, mortuum, convulsis rigidisque membris constantem. Resuscitata vero per medicamenta spirituosa, & refocillata per analeptica vires sensim recuperavit, puerperium feliciter transegit, & nunc per DEI gratiam athletice vivit.

Quod Reverendissimus S. D. magnificus Cardinalis Magnanus, Cosmedini abbas, Benedictinæ religionis decus, ornamentum, & columen, ut ex ejus vitæ ratione, & gestis, tum ecclesiasticis, tum civilibus, tum literariis, tum denique publicis, & privatis, quibus ante, & post cardinalatus dignitatem, ad hanc usque ætatem, ita se gessit, ut omnium, qui ejus vitam, & mores, vel ex parte cognoverunt, existimationem, & laudem, quam maximam, sibi compararit, nemo non videt, & fatetur, ita ut nihil fere desiderari possit, quod ad ejus laudem, & gloriam pertinere videatur, quæ ab ejus virtutibus, & meritis, quæ sunt plurima, & maxima, non sit consequuta. Quæ cum ita sint, ut sunt profecto, nemo est, qui dubitet, quin ejus virtutes cognoscere, & prædicare, nemini sit difficile, & laudes ejus, quæ sunt infinitæ, & immortales, nemini sit obscurum, & ignotum. Quamobrem, ut ejus virtutes, & laudes, quæ sunt omnium, ita sunt cuique notissimæ, & perspectæ, omittam, ne videar, quod aiunt, Athenas, Minervam, & Romam, Romulum, & Quirinum, & Cosmedin abbatiam, Magnanum cardinalem, & abbatem, velle dicere, ac potius ad ea, quæ ad hanc orationem pertinent, convertam orationem.

BREVIS ARTIS
DEFINITIO ET DIVISIONES QUÆDAM.

Musica definitio.

MUSICA est ars recte canendi scientia, quæ cantum ex arithmetica ratione cognoscendum docet. Itaque ars est, quæ ex certis & propriis constat præceptis, quæque finem aliquem habet, ad quem omnia, quæ in ea tractantur, referuntur. Scientia est habitus animi, quo ea, quæ sunt, ita esse cognoscimus, ut aliter esse non possint. Recte canere est, quod & arte & scientia constat. Cantus est vocum ordinatio, quæ ex gravitate & acumine constituitur. Arithmetica ratio est, quæ numeris constat, quæque in sonis reperitur.

Musicæ divisiones.

Musica dividitur in tres partes, in Harmonicam, Rhythmicam, & Metricam. Harmonica est, quæ de sonis, id est, de gravibus & acutis, deque eorum modis tractat. Rhythmica est, quæ de tempore, id est, de longis & brevibus, deque eorum modis tractat. Metrica est, quæ de pedibus & versibus tractat. Harmonica dividitur in tres partes, in Organicam, Theoricam, & Practicam. Organica est, quæ omnia instrumenta musica, quæ ad cantum sunt apta, tractat. Theorica est, quæ omnia, quæ in cantu sunt, speculatur. Practica est, quæ omnia, quæ ad cantum sunt necessaria, operatur. Organica dividitur in duas partes, in Pneumaticam, & Chordalem. Pneumatica est, quæ per flatum agitur, ut Tibia, Fistula, Cornu, Tuba, Organum. Chordalis est, quæ per chordas agitur, ut Cithara, Lyra, Psalterium, Monochordum.

Quæsumus Domine, nos famulos tuos, quos tuæ pietatis dono tribuis sperare, fac tuæ semper gratiæ munere gaudere.

Deus, qui nos ad principium hujus diei pervenire voluisti, tribue nobis hodie virtutis auxilio, ut nec in quo impellimur, cadamus, sed ad tuæ justitiæ semper operibus dirigamur. Per Dominum dissentio, nihil addo. Solebat dicendi, quae in foro pro quoque aut contra quemque habuerat, secum ipse meditari, et quidquid mutasset in iudicio, quidquid praetermisisset, quidquid adiecisset, reputare. Hoc studium, hoc exercitatio, hoc stilus praestat, ut quae quis bene dixerit, bene cogitaverit. Ego quidem ita semper existimavi, ita hodie existimo, ita existimabo, ut quemque videro quam maxime laborantem. Nec ignoro quosdam, qui se ingeniosos existimari volunt, dicere sine cura, sine adhibitione studii velle, quia sit turpe diligentiam, quia sit molestum laborem impendere. Ego tales non ingeniosos, sed inertes, non disertos, sed desides iudico.

Es ist auch der Wald in dieser Gegend sehr schön, und mannigfaltig, und gewährt viele angenehme Spaziergänge.
Man findet darinn auch einige Ueberbleibsel von Gebäuden, welche ehemahls Lustgebäude seyn mögen, und die gegenwärtig zu Wohnungen für Leute, welche Glas machen, eingerichtet worden sind.

Die Glashütten, welche in diesem Walde sind, sind die sogenannte Hüttenhütte, in welcher, wie ehemahls die
Glashütte zu Neuhaus, Fensterglas gemacht wird, und

Hüttenhütte, ist ein Gebäude, worinn Glas gemacht wird. Es besteht aus einem Ofen, worinn das Glas geschmolzen wird, und aus einem Gewölbe, worinn es abgekühlet wird. Der Ofen ist rund, und hat in der Mitte einen Rost, auf welchen das Holz geworfen wird. Um diesen Rost herum sind 12
Oeffnungen, durch welche das Glas gemacht wird. Diese Oeffnungen sind mit Thüren versehen, damit die Hitze nicht zu sehr ausgelassen werde. Ueber diesen Oeffnungen sind 12 Häfen, in welchen das Glas geschmolzen wird. Diese
Häfen werden durch eine Oeffnung, welche sich über dem Rost befindet, mit Glas angefüllet. Wenn das Glas geschmolzen ist, so wird es durch eine Oeffnung, welche sich über dem Rost befindet, mit einer Stange herausgenommen, und in das Gewölbe gebracht. Dieses Gewölbe ist rund, und hat in der Mitte einen Ofen, welcher mit Steinkohlen geheizet wird. Um diesen Ofen herum sind 12 Oeffnungen, sind 12 Häfen, in welchen das Glas abgekühlet wird.

Diese Häfen werden durch eine Oeffnung, welche sich über dem Ofen befindet, mit Glas angefüllet. Wenn das Glas abgekühlet ist, so wird es durch eine Oeffnung, welche sich über dem Ofen befindet, mit einer Stange herausgenommen, und in die Stube gebracht. Diese Stube

Aer dilatatur, & contrahitur, quibus mutationibus mutat vocis, & soni tonos, ut videre est in fidibus, & tibiis, quæ ut breviores, & angustiores fiunt, ita alti tonum, reddunt aliquem gravibus duris, quæ tales non sunt. Quæ autem sit causa, cur aer dilatatus, & contractus hoc quasi tonos mutet, & quomodo id fiat, non satis
explicatum est.

Ego autem existimo, quod aer, quo tempore dilatatur, & contrahitur, non mutet tonos, sed quo tempore dilatatur, & contrahitur, ut ostendimus, tunc ipse aer non est, sed alius, & alius aer subrogatur. In tuba plena revolat per tubam aer, qui ante non erat, & ille aer, qui revolat, non potest non variare tonos, quia non est idem, qui ante erat, sed alius, & alius, ut ostendimus paulo ante.

Quod autem aer non moveatur in tuba dumtaxat, sed etiam extra tubam, patet ex eo, quod tubæ sonus non solum in tuba, sed etiam extra tubam percipitur, quod manifestum est, tubam, quæ extra tubam est, esse aerem, qui ante non erat in tuba, sed qui ex tuba revolat, ut ostendimus.
Quod autem aer, qui ante non erat in tuba, ex tuba fit aer, ita ut aeris variatio tonum faciat, ita ut ille aer, qui ante non erat in tuba, ex tuba fiat aer, qui tonum faciat, patet ex eo, quod aer, qui ante non erat in tuba, ex tuba fit aer, qui tonum faciat, nisi tuba fuerit aperta, ut tuba
plena, quæ aperta non est.

Quod autem aer, qui ante non erat in tuba,
ex tuba fiat aer, qui tonum faciat, patet ex eo, quod tubæ sonus, & tonus, qui in tuba, & extra tubam percipitur, non percipitur, nisi tuba fuerit aperta, ut tuba plena, quæ aperta non est.

culi chyli, ac ductus thoracici tractus, ejusque diviſiones, (quas ex aliarum partium mira diverſitate raras flexuras credidi) in conſpectum venirent. Vidimus autem nihilominus prædicti receptaculi notabilem quantitatem paulo altius ſub rene ſiniſtro, ejusque ſuccenturiato locatam, & diffracto thorace ductus thoracici unicum ſaltem tractum ad aortæ latus ſiniſtrum, ex cujus diametro mediocri alias adhuc ſub hac arteria magna latentes ramificationes colligere quidem mente, at illas, ob rationes adductas, denudare non licuit.

Motus cordis ejusque auricularum reciprocus erat validus & per longum tempus durabat. Diſtincte autem obſervavimus auriculas bis pulſantes omni temporis intervallo quando cor erat in diaſtole.

Vaſa lymphatica non ſolum ſub hepate & circa principium venæ portæ, ſed etiam in aliis corporis regionibus tum temporis quoque obſervavimus.

Muſculi ratione nominis, ſitus & officii ad muſculos canis ordinarii quadantenus accedunt, pauciſſimi vero ratione formæ. Omnes ſunt flaccidi, atri coloris, atque aſpectu ingrati, qui propter fibrarum mollitiem, membranarum muſculos involventium tenuitatem, atque pinguedinis abſentiam inter ſe difficulter diſtinguuntur: illi in trunco lati, extenſi, minime vero craſſi, quorum plurimi ob fibrarum laxam cohæſionem complexorum more in plures partes dilatantur, ſic v. gr. Muſculus latiſſimus dorſi in triginta fortaſſis ventres & caudas minores facillimo negotio dirimi poſſet: in pedibus autem & capite breviores & robuſti, præcipue circa articulationes exiſtunt.

Muſculi Pſoas omnium ſunt validiſſimi, ut animal hoc ex raptu victitans horum remigio eo velocius prædam in undis venari queat. Muſculi pectorales etiam validi ſunt, quorum cauda prioribus quatuor coſtis veris, ſterno & ejus cartilagini enſiformi ſuperiori (de qua infra) firmiter annectitur.

Ad oſſa phocarum quod attinet, illa ad ſoliditatem aliorum minime accedunt, ſed poroſiora atque ob id fragiliora exiſtunt; quod vero ab Ariſtotele mera cartilaginea dicantur, illud cum veritate nequaquam congruit in adultis. Plane autem ſingularis ſtructuræ ſunt oſſa artuum quibus etiam plures epiphyſes apponuntur, reliqua haud adeo multum diſcrepant; ſpeciatim vero capitis oſſa cranio alicujus felis propius quam canis ordinarii terreſtris accedunt.

Cuncta cranii oſſa tenuiora & multis in locis plane pellucida deprehenduntur; quæ rectius harmoniis quam veris futuris diſtinguuntur. Sutura ſic dicta ſagittalis in phoca ab occipite ad apicem naſi rectilinea decurrit atque os frontis in duo peculiaria dividit. In interna oſſis occipitis parte ſepto oſſeo horizontali (latiori, quam in canibus terreſtribus) aliud ſeptum perpendiculare inſiſtit, quibus ſinguli cerebelli lobi ab invicem diſtinguuntur.

Oſſi cuneiformi quatuor proceſſus alares & anterior eminentia ſellæ turcicæ plane deſunt. Proceſſus criſta galli cum annexis oſſiculis ſpongioſis narium proprium os conſtituunt & ab oſſe cribroſo, cui harmonicè jungitur, facillimo negotio divelli poteſt: proceſſus ipſe elatius prominet, & foraminula, quibus ad latera ſtipatur, majora atque copioſiora quam in homine inveniuntur; oſſa vero ſpongioſa mirifice contexta favis apum aliqua ex parte comparari poſſunt. Alia oſſa nova in anteriore maxillæ ſuperioris parte animadvertuntur, quæ ab oſſibus naſi in utroque latere ad palati anteriora decurrunt, dentesque inciſores ſuis alveolis includunt.

Oſſa temporum ea parte, qua cerebrum reſpiciunt variis cavernulis atque eminentiis & peculiari ſulco gaudent, quæ vaſis & nervulis tranſitum concedunt. Proceſſus eorum maſtoideus ingens excavatus, & ſupra jam deſcriptus ſpongioſa ſua porti uncula plane deſtituitur.

Dentes numero 34., priores 6. inciſores maxillæ ſuperioris à ſequentibus duobus caninis ſola magnitudine non vero figura differunt, reliqui 10. molares ſerrati ut plurimum tricuſpidales exiſtunt. Maxilla inferior, cujus duo oſſa, quibus conſtat, in

Lebensalter, welches unsere Altvordern das Greisenalter, das Alter des Greises nannten, ist nicht mehr so häufig, wie es einst war. Es ist eine Seltenheit geworden, und wird es immer mehr. Es ist eine Seltenheit, daß ein Mensch sein Leben bis zu dem Punkte bringt, wo er sagen kann: Ich habe genug gelebt, ich bin des Lebens satt, ich habe keine Freude mehr daran, ich sehne mich nach dem Tode

ARTICLE I.

THE stile of this confederacy shall be "The United States of America."

ARTICLE II.

Each state retains its sovereignty, freedom and independence, and every power, jurisdiction and right, which is not by this confederation expressly delegated to the United States, in congress assembled.

ARTICLE III.

The said states hereby severally enter into a firm league of friendship with each other, for their common defence, the security of their liberties, and their mutual and general welfare, binding themselves to assist each other, against all force offered to, or attacks made upon them, or any of them, on account of religion, sovereignty, trade, or any other pretence whatever.

ARTICLE IV.

The better to secure and perpetuate mutual friendship and intercourse among the people of the different states in this union, the free inhabitants of each of these states, paupers, vagabonds and fugitives from justice excepted, shall be entitled to all privileges and immunities of free citizens in the several states; and the people of each state shall have free ingress and regress to and from any other state, and shall enjoy therein all the privileges of trade and commerce, subject to the same duties, impositions and restrictions as the inhabitants thereof respectively, provided that such restrictions shall not extend so far as to prevent the removal of property imported into any state, to any other state of which the owner is an inhabitant; provided also that no imposition, duties or restriction shall be laid by any state, on the property of the united states, or either of them.

If any person guilty of, or charged with treason, felony, or other high misdemeanor in any state, shall flee from justice, and be found in any of the united states, he shall, upon demand of the governor or executive power, of the state from which he fled, be delivered up and removed to the state having jurisdiction of his offence.

Full faith and credit shall be given in each of these states to the records, acts and judicial proceedings of the courts and magistrates of every other state.

ARTICLE V.

For the more convenient management of the general interests of the united states, delegates shall be annually appointed in such manner as the legislature of each state shall direct, to meet on the first monday in november, in every year, with a power reserved to each state to recall its delegates, or any of them, at any time within the year, and to send others in their stead, for the remainder of the year.

No state shall be represented in congress by less than two, nor by more than seven members; and no person shall be capable of being a delegate for more than three years in any term of six years; nor shall any person, while he acts as a delegate, be capable of holding any office under the united states, for which he, or another for his benefit, receives any salary, fees or emolument of any kind.

Each state shall maintain its own delegates in a meeting of the states, and while they act as members of the committee of the states.

In determining questions in the united states, in congress assembled, each state shall have one vote.

Freedom of speech and debate in congress shall not be impeached or questioned in any court or place out of congress, and the members of congress shall be protected in their persons from arrests and imprisonments, during the time of their going to and from, and attendance on congress, except for treason, felony, or breach of the peace.

ARTICLE VI.

No state, without the consent of the united states, in congress assembled, shall send any embassy to, or receive any embassy from, or enter into any conference, agreement, alliance or treaty with any king, prince or state; nor shall any person holding any office of profit or trust under the united states, or any of them, accept of any present, emolument, office or title of any kind whatever from any king, prince or foreign state; nor shall the united states, in congress assembled, or any of them, grant any title of nobility.

No two or more states shall enter into any treaty, confederation or alliance whatever between them, without the consent of the united states, in congress assembled, specifying accurately the purposes for which the same is to be entered into, and how long it shall continue.

No state shall lay any imposts or duties, which may interfere with any stipulations in treaties, entered into by the united states, in congress assembled, with any king, prince or state, in pursuance of any treaties already proposed by congress, to the courts of france and spain.

No vessels of war shall be kept up in time of peace by any state, except such number only, as shall be deemed necessary by the united states, in congress assembled, for the defence of such state, or its trade; nor shall any body of forces be kept up by any state, in time of peace, except such number only, as in the judgment of the united states, in congress assembled, shall be deemed requisite to garrison the forts necessary for the defence of such state; but every state shall always keep up a well regulated and disciplined militia, sufficiently armed and accoutred, and shall provide and constantly have ready for use, in public stores, a due number of field pieces and tents, and a proper quantity of arms, ammunition and camp equipage.

No state shall engage in any war without the consent of the united states, in congress assembled, unless such state be actually invaded by enemies, or shall have received certain advice of a resolution being formed by some nation of indian, to invade such state, and the danger is so imminent as not to admit of a delay, till the united states, in congress assembled, can be consulted: nor shall any state grant commissions to any ships or vessels of war, nor letters of marque or reprisal, except it be after a declaration of war by the united states, in congress assembled, and then only against the kingdom or state and the subjects thereof, against which war has been so declared, and under such regulations as shall be established by the united states, in congress assembled, unless such state be infested by pirates, in which case vessels of war may be fitted out for that occasion, and kept so long as the danger shall continue, or until the united states, in congress assembled, shall determine otherwise.

ARTICLE VII.

When land forces are raised by any state for the common defence, all officers of or under the rank of colonel, shall be appointed by the legislature of each state respectively, by whom such forces shall be raised, or in such manner as such state shall direct, and all vacancies shall be filled up by the state which first made the appointment.

ARTICLE VIII.

All charges of war, and all other expences that shall be incurred for the common defence or general welfare, and allowed by the united states, in congress assembled, shall be defrayed out of a common treasury, which shall be supplied by the several states, in proportion to the value of all land within each state, granted to or surveyed for any person, as such land and the buildings and improvements thereon shall be estimated according to such mode as the united states, in congress assembled, shall from time to time direct and appoint.

The taxes for paying that proportion shall be laid and levied by the authority and direction of the legislatures of the several states within the time agreed upon by the united states, in congress assembled.

ARTICLE IX.

The united states, in congress assembled, shall have the sole and exclusive right and power of determining on peace and war, except in the cases mentioned in the sixth article—of sending and receiving ambassadors—entering into treaties and alliances, provided that no treaty of commerce shall be made whereby the legislative power of the respective states shall be restrained from imposing such imposts and duties on foreigners, as their own people are subjected to, or from prohibiting the exportation or importation of any species of goods or commodities whatsoever—of establishing rules for deciding in all cases, what captures on land or water shall be legal, and in what manner prizes taken by land or naval forces in the service of the united states shall be divided or appropriated—of granting letters of marque and reprisal in times of peace—appointing courts for the trial of piracies and felonies committed on the high seas and establishing courts for receiving and determining finally appeals in all cases of captures, provided that no member of congress shall be appointed a judge of any of the said courts.

The united states, in congress assembled, shall also be the last resort on appeal in all disputes and differences now subsisting or that hereafter may arise between two or more states concerning boundary, jurisdiction or any other cause whatever; which authority shall always be exercised in the manner following. Whenever the legislative or executive authority or lawful agent of any state in controversy with another shall present a petition to congress, stating the matter in question and praying for a hearing, notice thereof shall be given by order of congress to the legislative or executive authority of the other state in controversy, and a day assigned for the appearance of the parties by their lawful agents, who shall then be directed to appoint by joint consent, commissioners or judges to constitute a court for hearing and determining the matter in question: but if they cannot agree, congress shall name three persons out of each of the united states, and from the list of such persons each party shall alternately strike out one, the petitioners beginning, until the number shall be reduced to thirteen; and from that number not less than seven, nor more than nine names as congress shall direct, shall in the presence of congress be drawn out by lot, and the persons whose names shall be so drawn or any five of them, shall be commissioners or judges, to hear and finally determine the controversy, so always as a majority of the judges who shall hear the cause agree in the determination: and if either party shall neglect to attend at the day appointed, without showing reasons, which congress shall judge sufficient, or being present shall refuse to strike, the congress shall proceed to nominate three persons out of each state, and the secretary of congress shall strike in behalf of such party absent or refusing; and the judgment and sentence of the court to be appointed, in the manner before prescribed, shall be final and conclusive; and if any of the parties shall refuse to submit to the authority of such court, or to appear or defend their claim or cause, the court shall nevertheless proceed to pronounce sentence or judgment, which shall in like manner be final and decisive, the judgment or sentence and other proceedings being in either case transmitted to congress, and lodged among the acts of congress for the security of the parties concerned: provided that every commissioner, before he sits in judgment, shall take an oath to be administered by one of the judges of the supreme or superior court of the state where the cause shall be tried, "well and truly to hear and determine the matter in question, according to the best of his judgment, without favour, affection or hope of reward:" provided also that no state shall be deprived of territory for the benefit of the united states.

All controversies concerning the private right of soil claimed under different grants of two or more states, whose jurisdictions as they may respect such lands, and the states which passed such grants are adjusted, the said grants or either of them being at the time of one or more of the states, and the others claiming bottom or jurisdiction as well of the owners of the soil as to the states in which the same shall be, to the common benefit of such of the owners as shall apply, shall be finally determined as near as may be in the same manner as is before prescribed for deciding disputes respecting territorial jurisdiction between different states.

The united states, in congress assembled, shall also have the sole and exclusive right and power of regulating the alloy and value of coin struck by their own authority, or by that of the respective states—fixing the standard of weights and measures throughout the united states—regulating the trade and managing all affairs with the indians, not members of any of the states, provided that the legislative right of any state within its own limits be not infringed or violated—establishing or regulating post offices from one state to another, throughout all the united states, and exacting such postage on the papers passing through the same as may be requisite to defray the expences of the said office—appointing all officers of the land forces, in the service of the united states, excepting regimental officers—appointing all the officers of the naval forces, and commissioning all officers whatever in the service of the united states—making rules for the government and regulation of the said land and naval forces, and directing their operations.

The united states, in congress assembled, shall have authority to appoint a committee, to sit in the recess of congress, to be denominated "A committee of the states," and to consist of one delegate from each state; and to appoint such other committees and civil officers as may be necessary for managing the general affairs of the united states under their direction—to appoint one of their number to preside, provided that no person be allowed to serve in the office of president more than one year in any term of three years; to ascertain the necessary sums of money to be raised for the service of the united states, and to appropriate and apply the same for defraying the public expences—to borrow money, or emit bills on the credit of the united states, transmitting every half year to the respective states an account of the sums of money so borrowed or emitted—to build and equip a navy—to agree upon the number of land forces, and to make requisitions from each state for its quota, in proportion to the number of white inhabitants in such state, which requisition shall be binding, and thereupon the legislature of each state shall appoint the regimental officers, raise the men and cloath, arm and equip them in a soldier like manner, at the expence of the united states; and the officers and men so cloathed, armed and equipped shall march to the place appointed, and within the time agreed on by the united states, in congress assembled: but if the united states, in congress assembled, shall on consideration of circumstances judge proper that any state should not raise men, or should raise a smaller number than its quota, and that any other state should raise a greater number of men than the quota thereof, such extra number shall be raised, officered, cloathed, armed and equipped in the same manner as the quota of such state, unless the legislature of such state shall judge that such extra number cannot be safely spared out of the same, in which case they shall raise, officer, cloath, arm and equip as many of such extra number as they judge can be safely spared. And the officers and men so cloathed, armed and equipped shall march to the place appointed, and within the time agreed on by the united states, in congress assembled.

The united states, in congress assembled, shall never engage in a war, nor grant letters of marque and reprisal in time of peace, nor enter into any treaties or alliances, nor coin money, nor regulate the value thereof, nor ascertain the sums and expences necessary for the defence and welfare of the united states, or any of them, nor emit bills, nor borrow money on the credit of the united states, nor appropriate money, nor agree upon the number of vessels of war to be built or purchased, or the number of land or sea forces to be raised, nor appoint a commander in chief of the army or navy, unless nine states assent to the same: nor shall a question on any other point, except for adjourning from day to day, be determined, unless by the votes of a majority of the united states, in congress assembled.

The congress of the united states shall have power to adjourn to any time within the year, and to any place within the united states, so that no period of adjournment be for a longer duration than the space of six months, and shall publish the journal of their proceedings monthly, except such parts thereof relating to treaties, alliances or military operations, as in their judgment require secrecy, and the yeas and nays of the delegates of each state on any question shall be entered on the journal, when it is desired by any delegate of a state, or any of them, at his or their request shall be furnished with a transcript of the said journal, except such parts as are above excepted, to lay before the legislatures of the several states.

ARTICLE X.

The committee of the states, or any nine of them, shall be authorized to execute, in the recess of congress, such of the powers of congress as the united states, in congress assembled, with the consent of nine states, shall from time to time think expedient to vest them with; provided that no power be delegated to the said committee, for the exercise of which, by the articles of confederation, the voice of nine states in the congress of the united states assembled is requisite.

ARTICLE XI.

Canada acceding to this confederation, and joining in the measures of the united states, shall be admitted into, and entitled to all the advantages of this union: but no other colony shall be admitted into the same, unless such admission be agreed to by nine states.

ARTICLE XII.

All bills of credit emitted, monies borrowed and debts contracted by or under the authority of congress, before the assembling of the united states, in pursuance of the present confederation, shall be deemed and considered as a charge against the united states, for payment and satisfaction whereof the said united states, and the public faith are solemnly pledged.

ARTICLE XIII.

Every state shall abide by the determinations of the united states, in congress assembled, on all questions which by this confederation are submitted to them. And the articles of this confederation shall be inviolably observed by the states, and the union shall be perpetual; nor shall any alteration at any time hereafter be made in any of them, unless such alteration be agreed to in a congress of the united states, and be afterwards confirmed by the legislatures of every state.

And whereas it hath pleased the great governor of the world to incline the hearts of the legislatures we respectively represent in congress, to approve of, and to authorize us to ratify the said articles of confederation and perpetual union, know ye that we the undersigned delegates, by virtue of the power and authority to us given for that purpose, do by these presents, in the name and in behalf of our respective constituents, fully and entirely ratify and confirm each and every of the said articles of confederation and perpetual union, and all and singular the matters and things therein contained: and we do further solemnly plight and engage the faith of our respective constituents, that they shall abide by the determinations of the united states, in congress assembled, on all questions which by the said confederation are submitted to them. And that the articles thereof shall be inviolably observed by the states we respectively represent, and that the union shall be perpetual.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands in congress. Done at philadelphia in the state of pennsylvania the ninth day of july in the year of our lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy eight, and in the third year of the independence of america.

ON A GANGUE OF ORTHOCLASE.

Within small cavities in a specimen from the Gold Queen Mine, Rossland, B.C., there occur numerous crystals of orthoclase, which, although they have the habit of the ordinary orthoclase crystals of the district, are of a pale green colour. Some of the crystals are simple, but the majority are twins according to the Carlsbad law. The crystals are associated with a little quartz, and are implanted upon a gangue of orthoclase, which is of a white colour, and is made up of small grains and irregular patches. Under the microscope the gangue is seen to be composed of orthoclase, with a little quartz and a few small flakes of muscovite. The orthoclase is clouded with minute inclusions, and is in places altered to kaolin. The quartz is in irregular grains, and contains numerous cavities with liquid inclusions. The muscovite is in small flakes, which are scattered irregularly through the rock. The gangue is traversed by veinlets of quartz, which are sometimes accompanied by a little calcite. The veinlets are in places bordered by a narrow zone of sericite.

Ich habe mich bemüht, die Ursache dieser Erscheinung zu finden. Ich vermute, daß sie durch die Anwesenheit des Eisens bedingt wird.

Eigene Versuche. Ammoniak reduziert Eisenoxyd. Ich habe gefunden, daß Ammoniak Eisenoxyd reduziert. Ich habe Eisenoxyd in Ammoniak gelöst und die Lösung in einem Kolben mit Gummistopfen aufbewahrt. Nach einiger Zeit bemerkte ich, daß sich die Lösung entfärbte und daß sich ein schwarzer Niederschlag bildete. Ich habe diesen Niederschlag abfiltriert und mit Salzsäure behandelt. Dabei ist Wasserstoff entwichen. Ich habe daraus geschlossen, daß der Niederschlag Eisen ist. Ich habe Eisenoxyd in Ammoniak gelöst und die Lösung in einem Kolben mit Gummistopfen aufbewahrt. Ich habe mich bemühet, die Sprache so rein zu halten, als es möglich gewesen, und habe mich nicht gescheuet, auch Wörter, die in Meißen nicht gebräuchlich sind, zu gebrauchen, wenn sie nur in Preußen gebräuchlich sind. Denn ich habe mich nicht nach Meißen, sondern nach Preußen gerichtet, weil ich in Preußen geschrieben habe. Ich habe auch nicht gewußt, daß es in Meißen gebräuchlich ist, und habe es nicht gewußt

Reagent Grade Chemicals

Alpha Beta Chemical Laboratories is pleased to announce the publication of its new catalog of reagent grade chemicals. Our catalog lists over 1,200 chemicals, all of which meet or exceed the specifications of the American Chemical Society. Each chemical is packaged in a container appropriate to its stability and purity requirements. Glass bottles are used for most liquids and solutions, while polyethylene bottles are used for alkaline solutions and for solutions containing trace metals. Solid chemicals are packaged in glass bottles with polyethylene-lined caps.

Our catalog includes a table of atomic weights, a table of molecular weights, and a table of solubilities of common salts in water at various temperatures. It also includes a section on the preparation of standard solutions, with detailed instructions for the preparation of normal, molar, and molal solutions. Each entry in the catalog gives the chemical name, the chemical formula, the molecular weight, the assay, the maximum impurity limits, and the catalog number.

Orders may be placed by mail, by telephone, or by facsimile. Our telephone number is (555) 0142, and our facsimile number is (555) 0143. Orders received before 2:00 P.M. Eastern Time are shipped the same day. Orders received after 2:00 P.M. are shipped the next business day. Standard shipping is by United Parcel Service ground. Express shipping is available at additional cost.

Minimum order is $25.00. Orders below the minimum are subject to a small-order handling charge of $5.00. Quantity discounts are available for orders of 10 or more units of the same catalog number. Discounts are 5% for 10 to 24 units, 10% for 25 to 49 units, and 15% for 50 or more units.

Hazardous chemicals are shipped in accordance with Department of Transportation regulations. Customers must provide a valid street address for delivery; we cannot ship hazardous chemicals to post office boxes. Customers are responsible for compliance with local, state, and federal regulations governing the storage and disposal of chemicals.

Material Safety Data Sheets (MSDS) are available for all chemicals in our catalog. MSDS may be requested by mail, by telephone, or by facsimile. They are also available on our World Wide Web site at http://www.alphabeta-chem.com/msds. We update our MSDS whenever we receive new information from the manufacturer.

Our quality control laboratory tests a sample from every lot of every chemical we sell. Lot numbers appear on the label and on the certificate of analysis that accompanies each shipment. Certificates of analysis may be requested for any lot shipped within the past two years.

Ein 31. Oxidationszustand des Vanadins

Anders Magnéli

Received 1 December 1950

Bei der Reduktion von Vanadinsäure mit Wasserstoff bei 600–700° C wurde eine Phase gefunden, deren Zusammensetzung der Formel V_2O_3 entspricht. Sie ist isomorph mit Titansesquioxyd und hat ein tetragonales Gitter mit den Dimensionen $a = 5.03$ Å, $c = 13.83$ Å. Die Dichte ist 4.87 g/cm³. Die Phase ist bei Zimmertemperatur paramagnetisch und hat ein magnetisches Moment, das dem Spinwert 1 entspricht. Sie ist bei Zimmertemperatur gegen Luft und Wasser beständig, oxydiert sich aber bei Erhitzen an Luft zu V_2O_5. Sie ist in Salzsäure und Schwefelsäure unlöslich, wird aber von Salpetersäure und Königswasser angegriffen.

Beweis. Es sei α ein Winkel, β sein Nebenwinkel, γ ein dritter Winkel, $\alpha + \gamma = R$, $\beta + \gamma = R$. Dann ist $\alpha + \gamma = \beta + \gamma$, und wenn man beiderseits γ abzieht, $\alpha = \beta$.

Anmerkung. Der Satz gilt auch, wenn γ ein stumpfer Winkel ist.

Lehrsatz XIV.

Wenn zwei Winkel einem dritten gleich sind, so sind sie auch einander gleich.

Beweis. Es sei $\alpha + \gamma = R$, $\beta + \gamma = R$. Dann ist $\alpha + \gamma = \beta + \gamma$, und wenn man beiderseits γ abzieht, $\alpha = \beta$.

Anmerkung. Der Satz gilt auch, wenn γ ein stumpfer Winkel ist.

DR. LANGHORNE'S TRANSLATION OF PLUTARCH.

Some account of this new work.

IN 1683 the celebrated author of the Moralia FOUCHE, of Rheims, published a translation of Plutarch's Lives, which has been ever since the standard translation of that work. It is now become so antiquated, that it is almost unintelligible to the generality of readers; and the translation of Dacier, though more modern, is not much better. Dr. LANGHORNE, therefore, has undertaken a new translation, which he has executed with great success. He has corrected the errors of his predecessors, and has given the sense of the author in a clear and elegant style. The work is now in the press, and will be published in a few months.

tum, nec minus contenta hæc ſulphurea certo modo fuiſſe compulſa ac in fluido humidiori præcipitata, uti chymici loqui amant, ſive condenſata magisque expedita & ſui juris facta ut liberius ferri, agitari, eluctari (& quidem verſus ſuperiora, ex legibus naturalibus, ſecundum quas fluidum levius in graviore aſcendit) potuerint. Eleganti hoc ipſum experimento illuſtrare & commonſtrare licet. Quando enim phosphorus animalis in ſpiritu vini dephlegmato ſolvitur atque hæc ſolutio aquæ, in tenebris, infunditur, aut aqua ſolutioni ſuperfunditur, materia ſulphurea, ex cauſis ſatis notis & perſpectis, actutum præcipitata ſive a ſpiritu vini liberata ſuique juris facta eluctatur, lumenque per aquam diffundens mirandis fulgurum in aqua aſcendentium luſibus curioſum intuentibus ſpectaculum præbet, & tandem inſtar nebulæ albicantis ſuperiori aquæ parti inſidet & innatat. Hoc experimur cum pauxillo materiæ ſulphureæ: quid fiet in mari aëreo, ubi ſimilis fere materia in maxima copia reperitur, condenſatur vento contrario, compellitur, compulſa agitatur, atque in aëre humido, & quidem ſucceſſive in nebulas ac nubes condenſato, ſucceſſive quoque præcipitatur atque eluctatur?

IV. Materiam hanc eo loci cumprimis præcipitari, eluctari atque lumen ſpargere, ubi a vento contrario compellitur, id eſt in plaga boreali; quæ regio cœli cum ſit frigidior atque aër in illa etiam magis depreſſus, non adeo mirum, ſi ibidem congeratur hæc materia, ibidemque aëris concurrente varia agitatione, miro ſchematum diſcrimine, ex legibus opticis, oculos percellat.

Hæc omnia ſi curatius conſideremus atque rationes ſubducamus, facile apparebit: ipſam illam materiam halituoſam ſulphuream, quæ tempore æſtivo nubes fulguribus & fulminibus impiere ſolet, pro temporis & aëris ventorumque conditionibus, hiſce ſæpe phænomenis impendi. In qua ſententia eo magis confirmatus ſui, quum die vigeſimo ſecundo Septembr. 1721. circa horam pomeridianam primam ex improviſo tempeſtas cum fulguribus & tonitruis hic locorum obſervaretur, & cum circa veſperam ventus contrarius nempe ſeptentrioanlis cœlum ſerenaret atque aëri frigus induceret, circa horam 9. 10. 11. ad 12. ex reliquiis hujus tempeſtatis, illuſtre ejusmodi cœli ardentis, in plaga boreali, phænomenon exſplendeſceret, ita quidem ut tota illa cœli plaga nubeculis albicantibus & lucentibus illuminaretur, nec aliam cœlum ibi faciem exhiberet, quam qualis eſt in orientali plaga quando aurora diem annunciat. Anno 1722. die tertio Octobr. nec non die nono Novembr. circa octavam veſpertinam ſimilia phænomena obſervavi, ubi arcus lucidi in dicta ſæpe plaga boreali apparebant; conditiones ſtatus aëris ita utrobique comparatæ erant, ut auſtrinam conſtitutionem, mitioremque temperiem, exciperet Euro-borealis atque frigidior conſtitutio. Sed paucis & ſtrictim hæc propoſuiſſe hic ſuffecerit.

Itaque conſilio inito rem aggredimur & corpore prius laxantibus ac diaphoreticis præparato, quum ligaturam, pro tumoris conditionibus, convenientiſſimam indicaremus, chirurgus modo laudatus acum ancipitem, qualem figura oſtendit, duplici filo, coloribus diſtincto, inſtructam, per tumorem, immediate ſupra metacarpum transprimere contendit, in primo tamen conamine reſiſtentiam quandam duriorem offendit, hac tamen non obſtante, acum ulterius adigit, & licet ab altera extremitate rurſus reſiſtentia quædam occurreret, pertundit, quo facto pauxillum materiæ gelatinoſæ ſpiſſioris cum guttis aliquot ſanguinis effluit. Interea fila utrinque nectit atque ſtringit Chirurgus, non ſine dolore, quem puer ſentiebat, ſed tamen tolerabili. Poſtea ſingulis diebus fortius adſtringit filum, eo cum effectu, ut tumor quoad integumenta externa flacceſcere inciperet atque nigricante colore cum gravi fœtore inficeretur. Sed cum plures jam dies ligaturam ulterius adſtringere conaretur, parum tamen effeciſſe viſus eſt. Interea, cute circumcirca per ligaturam diſciſſa, cum cauſam reſiſtentiæ perquireremus, oſſea ſubſtantia cingi tumorem deprehendimus: quamobrem continuatis remediis internis diaphoreticis totique brachio applicitis defenſivis, ſtuppa linea vulnus circumcirca dilatavimus, atque ſerræ aliquot reciprocationibus lenioribus, ac ſuſpenſa manu inſtitutis, oſſeum involucrum in uno latere perſcidimus, quo facto dimidium tumoris penitus ſeparatum erat. Hæmorrhagiam ſola ſtuppa repreſſimus. Poſt aliquot dies, quod puer diuturnis ligaturæ doloribus debilitatus eſſet, denuo ab altera parte ſimili modo ſerra rem peregimus, eo cum ſucceſſu, ut tumorem plane aufferremus, vulnere relicto rubicundo, ſine inflammatione, puro, niſi quod oſſicula aliquot, a cruſta oſſea, jam ſæpius memorata, relicta ſupra pra metacarpum hærerent, quæ poſt aliquot dies ſponte ſeparata volſella eximere licebat; tum medicamentis digeſtivis ac conſolidantibus vulnus tractavimus illudque tandem perſanavimus nullo ſymptomate aut incommodo ſuperveniente.

Ipſa vero tumoris maſſa conſtabat materia denſa ſteatomatoſo-carnoſa, coloris albicantis, ſtriis ac maculis rubicundis diſtincti, plane ut farciminis illud genus, quod Brat-Magen vocare ſolent, referret; cruſta oſſea circum circa obducta. Vid. Tabul. VIII.

Fig. I. exhibet manum ſiniſtram, cui tumor inſidet, nec non acum ac ligamenta, prout a nobis fuerunt applicata.

Fig. II. ſiſtit tumorem ablatum cultro diſciſſum. AA AA eſt pars inferior quæ manui inſedit. BBBB interior ſubſtantia. CCCC folliculus oſſeus tumorem involvens.

Qua ratione tumor ille prognatus fuerit? inprimis unde cyſtis illa, vel folliculus oſſeus originem duxerit? an ab exoſtoſi, vel ſeparatione fortaſſis lamellæ cujusdam oſſeæ, in oſſe quodam metacarpi, cum manus a lapſu læderetur, aut ſimili quadam cauſa? illud fuſius hic perſequi nolo; ſed aliis diſquirendum relinquo.

Mania ex vulnere capitis curata.

VIsam mulierem, ait Rondeletius de cur. morb. lib. 1. maniacam, cui ob casum fuit apertum cranium, ab insania sanatam. Ego etiam anno 1709. observavi juvenem mania laborantem, qui caput proximo muro allisit, non sine vitæ discrimine, cranium enim fractum fuerat; ligato autem ægro, & juxta artem curato, una cum vulnere etiam mania sanata fuit.

Quartana in ſurditatem converſa.

SUrditates intermittentibus febribus ſuccedentes, earum diſceſſum prænunciare, ait Jo. Jones in ſuo de febb. interm. tractatu, quia fit metaſtaſis materiæ morbificæ à cruore in partes auris. Sic ego vidi civem ſexagenarium, duplici quartana correptum, quæ febris poſt nonum paroxyſmum in ſurditatem totalem fuit mutata, adeo ut nec campanæ ſonum, nec bombardæ ictum audiret. Et quamvis multa fuerint tentata remedia, auditum non recuperavit, ſanus alias nunc vivens.

OF THE CHRISTIAN DOCTRINE.

MOREOVER, we will speak of the Christian doctrine, which is the true and only way to salvation, and which alone can give to the soul that peace and tranquillity which it seeks in vain in the pleasures of this world.

CHAPTER XXVI.

OF A CHRISTIAN FESTIVAL.

UPON the festivals of the Christians, they assemble together in the churches, and there they pray, and read the holy scriptures, and sing hymns to the glory of God. Then they return to their houses, and eat and drink together, and give alms to the poor, and to widows, and to orphans, and to strangers, and to all who are in need.

OBSERVATIO LIII.

DN. D. ALEXANDRI CAMERARII.

Anatome Rhachitici, cum albâ ossium carie singulari.

VIdetur omninò locum mereri etiam in hoc Observationum Medicarum promptuario Sutoris Puer Rhachiticus (quales etiam ejus fratres & sorores tantum non omnes) capite magno, facie turgidâ, corporis autem habitu consumto, pedibus gracilibus debilibus, neque tamen curvis aut distortis, diu admodum respirans difficulter, cum abdomine magno & tenso, æstu & sudore continuo, durante tamen per omnes has, & dicendas adhuc, symptomatum alternationes mirabili voracitate, jacens diu pedibus ad corpus retractis, usque dum octo ante mortem diebus istos iterum extenderet, eandem satis acutè mortuus, anno ætatis quinto proximè complendo, scil. d. 27. Junii, 1720. ante tertiam matutinam, in lectulo suo jacens vocavit patrem, proximè accumbentem atque dormientem, osculum ab ipso petens & in latus converti volens; quod ipsum pater dum exsequitur, puer exsertâ linguâ improviso expiravit.

Principium malorum dictorum dicendorumque omnium voluit adscribi fracturæ ossis femoris dextri, quam contraxerat lapsus super planam hypocausti aream, cujus autem curatio protracta fuit in quartum ferè mensem usque, puero abhinc ne pedibus quidem ampliùs insistere, multò minùs ambulare vel audente vel potente; cùm tamen priùs, diu ante ossis fracturam, & variolas superasset feliciter, & omninò sanus videretur suis, matrique sese socium ubique ferè jungeret, in hortum ipsam frequenter comitari solitus. Addendum tamen & hoc: progressu temporis pes iste dexter factus usque melior, sinister verò postea correptus modo dubio, statim dicendo.

Alexander of Tralles, a celebrated physician, was born at Tralles, in Lydia, about the beginning of the sixth century. He was the brother of Anthemius, the architect of the church of St. Sophia at Constantinople, and of Metrodorus, a grammarian and philosopher. He practised medicine at Rome, and died there, according to Agathias, in the pontificate of Pelagius, who succeeded Vigilius in 555. Alexander was a man of extensive learning, and a diligent observer of nature. He was a zealous adherent of the Methodic sect, and his work is chiefly a compilation from the writings of Soranus, Rufus, Archigenes, Dioscorides, Galen, and Aretæus. He is the author of twelve books of medicine, which are extant in Greek, and have been published in various editions. The first book treats of fevers; the second of headache, vertigo, epilepsy, and apoplexy; the third of ophthalmia, and other diseases of the eyes; the fourth of diseases of the ears, nose, mouth, throat, and lungs; the fifth of pleurisy, peripneumony, and other diseases of the chest; the sixth of diseases of the liver, spleen, and stomach; the seventh of diseases of the intestines; the eighth of diseases of the bladder, kidneys, and genital organs; the ninth of diseases of the joints; the tenth of diseases of the whole body; the eleventh of poisons and their antidotes; and the twelfth of cosmetics. The work is written in a clear and concise style, and is free from the affectation of learning which characterises the writings of many of his contemporaries. It was translated into Latin by Cornarius, and published at Basle in 1533, and has been frequently reprinted. The best edition is that of Puschmann, published at Vienna in 1878–1879, in two volumes, with a German translation and notes. Alexander also wrote a treatise on the pulse, which is lost, and a commentary on the Aphorisms of Hippocrates, which is extant in Arabic, and has been translated into Latin by Musa de Brixia, and published at Venice in 1527.

Decubitus commodior super latus dextrum ; situs corporis sedentis inclinatus antrorsum. Decubitus supinus & sinister vel non, vel ægrè ferendus. Progressu tamen in sinistrum latus cubatura prius comprimendo manu illum locum, & tumorem fulciendo quiescere potuit, tumorem sub costas ferè occultari observans.

Bonaparte and Wife, Plaintiffs in Error, vs. Peter Camp, Defendant in Error.

This was a writ of error to the Circuit Court of the United States for the District of New Jersey, in an action of ejectment, brought by the defendant in error against the plaintiffs in error, to recover a tract of land in the county of Hudson, in the state of New Jersey, containing about 1,000 acres. The cause was tried at the circuit court held at Trenton, in the district of New Jersey, in June, 1795, before the Hon. James Wilson, one of the associate justices of the supreme court of the United States, and the Hon. Richard Stockton, district judge of the district of New Jersey, when a verdict was found for the defendant in error, and judgment rendered thereon.

ARGUMENT OF JOSEPH HOPKINSON, ESQ. FOR THE PLAINTIFFS IN ERROR.

The plaintiffs in error claim under a patent from the state of New Jersey, dated the 10th of March, 1773, to Jacob Bonaparte, the husband of the plaintiff, Elizabeth Bonaparte, for the land in question. The defendant in error claims under a patent from the state of New Jersey, dated the 10th of March, 1773, to Peter Camp, the father of the defendant in error, for the same land. The plaintiffs in error claim under a patent of prior date to that under which the defendant in error claims. The plaintiffs in error claim under a patent of prior date to that under which the defendant in error claims.

MAGNUS Alexander, rex Macedonum, cum omnes terras sibi subjugasset, et ad ultimum Indiam, quæ est ad orientem, pervenisset, ibique quosdam lapides pretiosos, qui in Macedonia non inveniuntur, reperisset, ad Aristotelem, magistrum suum, scripsit, ut ei de lapidibus pretiosis librum componeret. Quod ille libenter fecit, et librum ei transmisit. Sed quia liber ille nimis prolixus erat, et rex occupatus, librum legere non potuit. Quidam autem clericus, nomine Philippus, librum illum in compendium redegit, et regi Alexandro transmisit. Sed quia rex occupatus erat

Hyssopus Ratisponensis crescens è maceria,

DIsceptatum hactenus multum fuit inter Botanicos & alios eruditos, utrum Hyssopus nostras eadem sit, quæ olim Hebræorum fuit, cujus fit mentio in Veteri ac Novo Testamento, pluribus locis. Negantibus hoc ansam dedit locus Bibliorum 1. Reg. c. 4. v. 33. ubi Spiritus Sanctus dicit Salomonem disseruisse à Cedro Libani usque ad Hyssopum, quæ in muris crescit, sive, ut alii vertunt, quæ egreditur de pariete. Hinc inferunt, Hyssopus nostrarum Officinarum non crescit in muris, sed in hortis colitur, ergo non est ea, quæ olim fuit Hebræorum. Consuluimus inter alios Commentatores in hunc locum etiam Cornel. à Lapide, Polyhistorem certe egregium, Virum multæ eruditionis & indefessi studii, quem caute se gessisse deprehendimus in explicatione eorum, quæ non sunt sui fori; ad Botanicos enim statim provocat, & per Hyssopum à quibusdam intelligi dicit origanum, ab aliis adianthum. Utrumque falsum esse credimus. Non abeundum est à communi sententia, nisi necessitas urgeat, vetus est dicterium, quod & hîc locum habet. Quæ vero necessitas nos urgeat, ut credamus, per Hyssopum Hebræorum à Spiritu Sancto aliam herbam intelligi, quam quæ hodie nota est in Pharmacopoliis nostris sub hoc titulo? Si nihil obstat, quam τὸ crescere è muro, sufficientem Hyssopi quantitatem tibi suppeditabo, prope Ratisponam reperiundæ, ut probem, etiam apud nos Hyssopum egredi è muro, quod forte ubique locorum succederet, si recte instituatur. As Power	to	Weight
So Weight	to	Power

Example. Suppose the weight of the wheel and axle, in the last figure, to be 100 pounds, the radius of the wheel 10 inches, and the radius of the axle 2 inches; what power will be sufficient to support the weight?

Here, as 10 inches : 2 inches :: 100 pounds : 20 pounds, the power required.

Corollary 1. Hence, the power is to the weight, as the radius of the axle is to the radius of the wheel.

Corollary 2. Hence, the power multiplied by the radius of the wheel, is equal to the weight multiplied by the radius of the axle.

Corollary 3. Hence, the power multiplied by the number of revolutions which it makes, is equal to the weight multiplied by the number of revolutions which it makes.

Corollary 4. Hence, the power multiplied by the velocity with which it moves, is equal to the weight multiplied by the velocity with which it moves.

Corollary 5. Hence, the power multiplied by the number of revolutions which it makes, and by the radius of the wheel, is equal to the weight multiplied by the number of revolutions which it makes, and by the radius of the axle.

Corollary 6. Hence, the power multiplied by the velocity with which it moves, and by the radius of the wheel, is equal to the weight multiplied by the velocity with which it moves, and by the radius of the axle.

Corollary 7. Hence, the power multiplied by the number of revolutions which it makes, and by the velocity with which it moves, and by the radius of the wheel, is equal to the weight multiplied by the number of revolutions which it makes, and by the velocity with which it moves, and by the radius of the axle.

Corollary 8. Hence, the power multiplied by the number of revolutions which it makes, and by the velocity with which it moves, and by the radius of the wheel, and by the number of teeth in the wheel, is equal to the weight multiplied by the number of revolutions which it makes, and by the velocity with which it moves, and by the radius of the axle, and by the number of teeth in the axle.

Corollary 9. officium Sacerdotis, & alia quæ regulæ tradunt. Et quia ad officium Sacerdotis pertinet Missam celebrare, ideo de Missa primo dicendum est.

Missa dicitur a Missione, quia Missa est finis Sacrificii, & Missio Catechumenorum, & fidelium, qui non communicant, ut dicit Rabanus. Vel dicitur Missa, quia Missa est Sacramentum, quod mittit homines in cœlum, ut dicit Isidorus. Vel dicitur Missa, quia Missa est oratio, quæ mittitur ad Deum, ut dicit Amalarius.

Missa autem est Sacramentum Corporis & Sanguinis Christi, quod in altari a Sacerdote rite consecratum, & sumptum, & populo distributum, Deo offertur pro vivis, & defunctis. Et dicitur Sacramentum, quia sub velamento rerum visibilium invisibilis gratia operatur. Et dicitur Corporis & Sanguinis Christi, quia Christus est principalis materia hujus Sacramenti. Et dicitur rite consecratum, quia si non rite consecratur, non est Sacramentum. Et dicitur sumptum, quia si non sumitur, non est Sacramentum. Et dicitur populo distributum, quia si non distribuitur, non est Sacramentum. Et dicitur Deo offertur, quia Missa est Sacrificium, & oblatio, quæ Deo offertur. Et dicitur pro vivis, & defunctis, quia Missa est communis oratio pro omnibus fidelibus, ut dicit Augustinus.

Missa autem habet quatuor nomina, scilicet Sacrificium, Oblatio, Hostia, & Eucharistia. Sacrificium dicitur, quia Sacrificium est, quod Deo offertur. Oblatio dicitur, quia Oblatio est, quæ Deo offertur. Hostia dicitur, quia Hostia est, quæ Deo offertur. Eucharistia dicitur, quia Eucharistia est, quæ Deo offertur. Et sic patet, quod Missa habet quatuor nomina, scilicet Sacrificium, Oblatio, Hostia, & Eucharistia.

OBSERVATIO LXXX.

DN. D. THEODORI ZVINGERI.

Uteri prolapſi exſectio non lethalis.

PRocidentiæ Vaginæ uterinæ exempla apud Morborum Hiſtoriographos occurrunt frequentia; ſed rarius eſt, quando Matrix non quidem in vaginam tantùm ſuam, verùm planè extra ſinum pudoris prolabitur: imò rariſſimùm, quando truncatâ quadam portione illius Mulier nihilominus ſana & incolumis evadit. Recenti enim memoriâ adhuc tenemus, quod ante plus quàm triginta annos contigit in Rhætiâ, in quâ Fœmina quædam honeſtiſſima, poſt exactos graviditatis menſes, ſuum urgentibus parturiendi teneſmis fœtum ſponte eniti tentans, ſed id effectui dare prorſus impotens, ob defectum obſtetricis idoneæ Chirurgum arceſſere peritum jubet, ejusque auxilium anxia implorat; hic ergo promtè accedens, audito & explorato rei ſtatu, fœtum manu ſuâ extrahere conatus eſt, ſed fruſtraneo auſu, quamobrem inſtrumenta, quæ quidem in promtu habuit ſecum allata, adhibuit, iisque Fœtum primò, deinceps verò etiam ſecundinam, Uteri ſubſtantiæ firmiter adnatam, tantâ cum violentiâ extraxit, ut Fundus Uteri ſimul prodiret, atque Capitis infantilis magnitudine extra Vulvam delapſus propenderet, molam quandam primo intuitu mentiens vel referens. Requiſito hinc Medici, qui tum in viciniâ apud Ægrotantem peregrè vocatus aderat, celeberrimi conſilio, molem illam nonnihil rubentem filo prius forti ligatam, reſcindit, atque Epithemata Gangrænam impedientia diligenter quidem, ſed ſine ſucceſſu applicat ſperato, quin Sphacelus ſuperveniens inemendabilis miſeram bidui ſpatio è vivis ſuſtulit; in cujus cadavere, permiſſù Mariti deprehendit Medicus cum Chirurgo, mediam prolapſæ Matricis partem fuiſſe reſectam. Hunc in finem Chirurgus in Urbem ſe conferens mihi retulit, totam propemodum ſubſtantiam uteri prolapſi penitus ſideratam, nigram, inſenſibilem atque adeo mortuam apparere, nullum amplius ſanguinem jam ab aliquot diebus ex Utero promanâre, Fœminam continuè febricitare, ſubinde debilem reddi, ſitire, & appetitu carere. Conſultatione hinc cum ipſo inſtitutâ concluſum inter nos fuit, in periculoſiſſimo hocce caſu minimè cunctandum, ſed mox anceps auxilium eſſe ſuſcipiendum, atque ſphacelatam elapſæ partis ſubſtantiam ſectione exſtirpandam, & hoc modo ſanitatem ſperari adhuc poſſe, ſi DEus operationi benedicere voluerit. Chirurgus itaque hoc ſuffultus conſilio domum redux factus opitulante adhuc commilitone ſuo, Joh. Wilhelmo Krug, Chirurgo itidem experto, maſſam illam Uteri prolapſi ſideratam acu perfodit, funiculo apto, quousque intra vaginam penetrare potuit, (ſtudiosè evitatâ Urethræ intactæ vicinià) ligavit, quotidie ligaturam fortius conſtrinxit, idque omnino præſtitit, ut quartâ poſt die moles ligata, quæ tres cum dimidiâ libras pondere ſuo æquavit, tota quanta excideret; dum interim Fœmina ſuam perpetim Urinam haud difficulter reddere potuit. Sed & Fomentationes debitæ juxta hæc continuò & ſollicitâ cura fuerunt adhibitæ, nec non reliqua curata omnia, quæ quidem neceſſaria fuêrunt judicata ad Vulnus & Ulcus tantæ conſiderationis extergendum, ſuppurandum, conſolidandum. DESCRIPTIO LECTIONIS
QUAE IN CODICE BASILEENSI EXSTAT.

§ 1. Codex Basileensis, saeculi circiter xi, litteris minusculis, in membrana, constat foliis 229, quae in duas columnas dispertita sunt. Continet autem Evangelia quattuor, sed Matthaeum et Lucam tantum integra, Marcum et Ioannem mutila. Scripsit eum, ut videtur, librarius Graecus, qui in Italia vixerit. Nam et ductus litterarum et accentuum et spirituum ratio et orthographia Italicum librarium produnt. Quae quidem omnia ex ipsa codicis inspectione facile cognoscuntur. Sed etiam ex ipsa lectionis natura, quae in hoc codice exstat, eadem colligi possunt. Nam cum in Italia scriptus sit, non mirum est, quod cum Latinis codicibus, qui in Italia scripti sunt, plurimum consentit. Quod quidem ita est, ut, si quis Latinum codicem Italicum ad Graecum exemplar emendare velit, hoc codice maxime uti debeat. Quamquam autem Latinis codicibus Italicis plurimum consentit, tamen non ita ei adhaeret, ut non saepe cum Graecis codicibus, qui in Graecia scripti sunt, consentiat. HORATIUS ALBIO TIBULLO.

Albi, ne doleas plus nimio memor
Immitis Glycerae, neu miserabilis
Decantes elegos, cur tibi janua
Clausa, quodque pati frigora nocte
Cogaris gelida saepe sub arbore
Sidente Haemoniae, quae nive candidum
Pindum quaeque nivosa contegit
Pangaea, Threiciae Bistonis incolae
Quae regit Hebrus, et ultima
Thule barbaraque impia numina
Quae nec fata sinunt cognita noscere.

Vesica Bovis gemina.

Decembris, obtinui Vesicam è Bove recens mactato, lotio adhuc turgidam, sed geminatam, ita ut altera ponè alteram distinctè appareret, quarum quidem una situ anterior & major, tanquam primaria, nihil à naturali bovina vesica discrepare videbatur, altera verò situ posterior & minor, velut secundaria priori Appendicis instar, parte postica & superna cohærebat, sed nulla Ureterum vestigia habens, quorum meatu Urinæ è Renibus descendenti in ejus cavum aditus pateret, sic ut colligerem, hanc Vesicæ appendicem nonnisi ex altera primaria accessum, vel introitum lotio præbuisse; à fundo enim hujus, in corpus alterius canalis membranaceus, digiti minoris diametro, pervius excurrebat, quem ultro citroque liquori commeatum permisisse conjeci, sic ut utraque cavitas Urinæ colligendæ, & excernendæ idonea videretur, altera illam immediatè aperta cervice sua in Urethram derivante, altera verò eandem, qua via accesserat, rursus in primariam Vesicam deponente, adjuvante scilicet fibrarum motricium, quæ nequaquam deficiebant, constrictione. Cùm effusa Urina flatum collo primariæ Vesicæ immitterem, hæc quidem in omnem dimensionem expansa fuit, sed appendix altera nequaquam, ita ut opus fuerit, inciso communicationis collo, demum illam inflare, quod putaverim sphincteri illius corrugato, vel constricto adscribendum esse. Hæc autem in subjecta figura ad vivum delineantur.

Explicatio Figuræ.

Hac figura exhibetur Vesica bubula geminata, altera primaria & anterior, naturali simillima, altera secundaria & posterior,

DISPUTATIO LXXXIII.

DE FIDE ECCLESIÆ SPONSÆ.

Fides Ecclesiæ quadruplex, alia in cælo, alia in Ecclesia militante, alia in Ecclesia triumphante, alia in Ecclesia patiente.

1. Fides Ecclesiæ, quæ est Sponsa Christi, est quadruplex, Ecclesiæ, quæ est in cælo, triumphante, quæ est in terra militante, quæ est in purgatorio patiente, & quæ est in Inferno damnata. Ecclesia in cælo triumphante habet fidem, quæ est visio, Ecclesia militans habet fidem, quæ est obscura cognitio, Ecclesia patiens habet fidem, quæ est spes, Ecclesia damnata habet fidem, quæ est desperatio.

Accesserunt brevi dolores ac nisus uterini, velut in parturiente, quorum vi & efficacia præter opinionem, prodiit ex Uteri vagina, corpus mole pugnum superans, externè membranaceum, molle, sed intra quod digitorum tactu aliquid duriusculi percipiebatur, necdum verò hoc corpus excussum erat penitus, sed hucusque de sinu muliebri pendulum. In his angustiis accita obstetrix sine mora accurrit, & explorando pudenda, deprehendit molem extra Vaginæ orificium pendulam, quæ tamen neque conatibus Mulieris afflictæ, neque manibus prehensa cedere velle videbatur. Subdubitans autem de indole hujus Fœtus, quanquam intellectis imprægnationis prægressæ indiciis, meum in hoc casu Obstetrix consilium petiit, & quo pacto huic Fœminæ subveniendum existimarem, rogavit. Cognitis itaque circumstantiis respondi, pro Abortu hunc casum esse habendum, ac proin, sive Fœtus suis involutus membranis, sive Mola quædam è sinu pudoris promineret, operam esse dandam, ut commodè extrahatur, nisi dato adhuc aliquo temporis spatio, natura propriis ipsamet conatibus id præstitisset, ceu quæ cum in quovis casu, tum vel præcipuè in partu sibi auxiliari, & mirificè ad conservationem vitæ suos motus dirigere soleat; suasi igitur Cardiaco quodam vires conservandas, cætera negotium nonnihil ulterius naturæ mediatrici permittendum. Successit res pro voto, dum parturiens cumulatis nisibus frequenti intervallo, tandem una cum mole pendula simul placentam uterinam feliciter excrevit, quanquam non sine gravi sanguinis profluvio, & insigni virium jactura. Corpus ab Obstetrice ægrè impetratum, aliquamdiu aqua tepida maceravi, dein cultello explorandum suscepi. Fœtus erat circiter quadrimestris, suis adhuc membranis, Chorio & Amnio involutus, cum adnexa placenta, multo sanguine grumoso, qua parte Uterum respiciebat, obducta. Apertis autem involucris apparuit Fœtus humanus, à naturali configuratione, quoad Sternum, Regionem umbilicalem aliasque nonnullas partes alienus, prout

OBSERVATIO LXXXVI.

DN. D. JOH. MELCHIORIS VERDRIES.

Abſceſſus ſpinæ dorſi.

Miles gregarius duos ultra viginti annos natus, conſtitutionis ſatis vegetæ & validæ, cum, ante biennium, cubitum iturus in eo eſſet ut lectum in altiori & præter morem elevato loco poſitum ope ſcalæ conſcenderet, infelici ac gravi lapſu in terram ruens regionem lumborum inprimis offendit, ita tamen ut præter tenſiones & dolores tolerabiles brevique temporis ſpatio evaneſcentes, nil mali ſentiret aut pertimeſceret. Decem vero ante mortem, quæ ineunte vere hujus anni contigit, hebdomadis male habere cœpit, tumque non ſolum lumborum tenſiones dorſique dolores eidem maximè moleſti fuerunt, ſed & viribus defecit, habitu ſimul flaccеſcente & quaſi exareſcente, ita ut phthiſici inſtar & hectici emaciaretur: prodit ſimul in conſpectum protuberantia in ſpina dorſi circa regionem lumborum ut gibbum hic imminere & jam, quod dicitur, in fieri eſſe judicarent omnes. EIN. 3. DES GELEHRTEN VERDIENST.

Neckische Abhandlung.

Es ist kaum zu glauben, was für Mühe, Arbeit und Fleiß dazu gehöret, um ein recht gelehrter Mann zu werden. Ich habe mir vorgenommen, eine Abhandlung von dem Verdienste eines gelehrten Mannes zu schreiben, und habe mir dabey vorgestellet, daß ich alles, was dazu gehöret, aus der Natur selbst, die mir vor Augen ist, nehmen müsse. Da ich nun mir vorgenommen hatte, eine Abhandlung von dem Verdienste eines gelehrten Mannes zu schreiben, und mir dabey vorgestellet hatte, daß ich alles, was dazu gehöret, aus der Natur selbst, die mir vor Augen ist, nehmen müsse. Mary, whose daughter, by another husband, Mrs. Hutchinson, was the mother of Colonel Hutchinson, the regicide. Mrs. Hutchinson's memoirs of her husband are well known, and have been frequently published. Lucy Hutchinson, the daughter of Sir Allen Apsley, was born in the Tower, where her father was governor, and married Colonel Hutchinson, who was governor of Nottingham Castle, and one of the judges who condemned Charles I. to death. Mrs. Hutchinson survived her husband many years, and died in 1681. She was the author of several works, which remain in manuscript, and of a translation of Lucretius, published in 1675. Her memoirs of her husband, which are the most interesting of her productions, were published in 1806, by her descendant, the present Sir Allen Apsley.

ORATIO AD SUOS.

Quam ob rem, quoniam ita res se habet, ut neque pro dignitate maximis, neque pro meis erga vos officiis, quibus me devinctum habetis, gratiam referre possim, neque quicquam sit, quod quisquam amplius a fortuna petere debeat, quam ut illi detur, quod ipsa secum ferat, quod sine illa habeat, quod nemo nisi sibi ipse eripere possit, quod nemo unquam virtute adeptus amittat, vobis, qui mihi omnia fuistis, quique estis, quique futuri estis, hoc unum reliquum est, ut, quod ego vobis, quod vos mihi semper fuistis, id invicem nos alteri simus.

Aleister Crowley, 1909 gegen die Lehre Mohammeds. Begründet, daß Mohammed in Mekka gelebt habe, wo es keine Juden gab, und daß er nur Juden und Christen kannte, die ihn verachteten. Seine Lehre sei daher eine Mischung von Judentum und Christentum, wie sie in Arabien möglich war. Mohammed verbreitete sie durch Gewalt und Betrug. Er war ein Lügner, Ehebrecher, Verräter, Mörder, Räuber, Sklavenhändler, Sodomit, Epileptiker und Hysteriker. Sein Gott ist ein Dämon, sein Paradies ein Bordell, seine Hölle ein Irrenhaus. Der Koran ist voll Widersprüche, Unsinn und Plagiate. Mohammed ist der Antichrist, der Vorläufer des Tieres 666. Er ist der Prophet der Bestie, der Mann der Sünde, der Sohn des Verderbens, der Gegner Christi, der Feind Gottes, der Lehrer der Abscheulichkeiten der Erde, der Mutter der Hurerei. Er ist der Mann, der sich selbst über alles erhebt, was Gott heißt oder angebetet wird, der sich in den Tempel Gottes setzt und sich selbst für Gott ausgibt Sermo II. de Sancto Ioanne Baptista. Quod Ioannes Baptista sanctificatus fuerit in utero matris suæ, & de eius nativitate. Luc. 1. Et multi in nativitate eius gaudebunt. Et vos filii gaudebitis in Domino Deo vestro, & Spiritu Sancto replebitur adhuc ex utero matris suæ. Et multos filiorum Israel convertet ad Dominum Deum ipsorum. Et ipse præcedet ante illum in spiritu & virtute Eliæ, ut convertat corda patrum in filios, & incredulos ad prudentiam iustorum, parare Domino plebem perfectam. Et dixit Zacharias ad angelum: Unde hoc sciam? ego enim sum senex, & uxor mea processit in diebus suis. Et respondens angelus dixit ei: Ego sum Gabriel, qui adsto ante Deum, & missus sum loqui ad te, & hæc tibi evangelizare. Et ecce eris tacens, & non valens loqui usque in diem, quo hæc fiant, pro eo quod non credideris verbis meis, quæ implebuntur in tempore suo. Et erat plebs exspectans Zachariam, & mirabantur quod tardaret in templo. Egressus autem non poterat loqui ad illos: & intellexerunt quod visionem vidisset in templo. Et ipse erat innuens eis, & permansit mutus. Et factum est, ut impleti sunt dies ministerii eius, abiit in domum suam. Post dies autem illos concepit Elisabeth uxor eius, & occultabat se mensibus quinque, dicens quia sic fecit mihi Dominus in diebus, quibus respexit auferre opprobrium meum inter homines.

SERMO II.

DE S. IOH. BAPTISTA NATIVITATE.

Quidnam sit Ioannes quidve futurus, ostendit divina vox.

Et multi in nativitate eius gaudebunt. Et vos filii gaudebitis in Domino Deo vestro, & Spiritu Sancto replebitur adhuc ex utero matris suæ. Et multos filiorum Israel convertet ad Dominum Deum ipsorum. Et ipse præcedet ante illum in spiritu & virtute Eliæ, ut convertat corda patrum in filios, & incredulos ad prudentiam iustorum, parare Domino plebem perfectam.

Kirche, Schlösser, Regierungen und Gerichtsbehörden und der Verfasser hat sich bemüht, alles, was in diesen Beziehungen Merkwürdiges vorkommt, zu sammeln und zu ordnen. Wir können nicht sagen, daß uns diese Arbeit sehr angesprochen hat, denn sie ist nicht nur trocken, sondern auch ungenau und unvollständig. Wir wollen nur einige Beispiele anführen. Bei Gelegenheit der Beschreibung des Schlosses Hohenstein wird auch der Geschichte des Geschlechtes der Herren von Hohenstein gedacht, und es wird dabei gesagt, daß Ulrich von Hohenstein, der Stammvater dieses Geschlechtes, im Jahre 1100 gelebt habe. Dieß ist aber unrichtig, denn Ulrich von Hohenstein lebte nicht vor 1200, wie aus den Urkunden hervorgeht. Bei Gelegenheit der Beschreibung des Schlosses Lichtenstein wird auch der Geschichte des Geschlechtes der Herren von Lichtenstein gedacht, und es wird dabei gesagt, daß Ulrich von Lichtenstein, der Stammvater dieses Geschlechtes, im Jahre 1100 gelebt habe. Dieß ist aber unrichtig, denn Ulrich von Lichtenstein lebte nicht vor 1200, wie aus den Urkunden hervorgeht. Bei Gelegenheit der Beschreibung des Schlosses Rosenberg wird auch der Geschichte des Geschlechtes der Herren von Rosenberg gedacht, und es wird dabei gesagt, daß Ulrich von Rosenberg, der Stammvater dieses Geschlechtes, im Jahre 1100 gelebt habe. Dieß ist aber unrichtig, denn Ulrich von Rosenberg

Ex Lithonephritide, quæ Renum, & Vesicæ Calculos, Ischuriam, Dysuriam, Tenesmum, Hæmaturiam, Pyuriam, Nephritidem, Hydropem, Tabem, Mortem, & alia mala gignit, Dn. D. Petrus Antonius Nicellatti, Medicus apud Gallipolim, Observationes quasdam, & Curationes, quæ ad Lithonephritidem pertinent, Anno 1683. ad Dn. Antonium Maglianum, Medicum Neapolitanum, Amicum suum, scripsit, quæ ille Lectori communicavit. Ego ex Epistola, quam ad me dedit, quæ ad Lithonephritidem pertinent, excerpsi, & Latine reddidi.

Quæ quidem ratio, ut ad Geometriam pertinens, ita ad Astronomiam, Geographiam, Opticam, Architecturam, Mechanicam, & omnes fere Mathematicas disciplinas, quæ ad humanum usum inventæ sunt, maximè necessaria est. Quod ut ostendamus, primum ea quæ ad Astronomiam pertinent, explicabimus. Deinde ea quæ ad Geographiam, Opticam, Architecturam, Mechanicam, & reliquas disciplinas, quæ ad humanum usum inventæ sunt, pertinent, explicabimus. Ea verò quæ ad Astronomiam pertinent, ita explicabimus. Primum ostendemus, quomodo ratio inter duas magnitudines, quæ ad Astronomiam pertinent, inveniatur. Deinde quomodo ratio inter tres magnitudines, quæ ad Astronomiam pertinent, inveniatur. Postea quomodo ratio inter quatuor magnitudines, quæ ad Astronomiam pertinent, inveniatur. Ea verò quæ ad Geographiam, Opticam, Architecturam, Mechanicam, & reliquas disciplinas, quæ ad humanum usum inventæ sunt, pertinent, ita explicabimus. EX eo, quod orientalibus ante hac Gentibus uſitata potio Coffee noſtris etiam Europæis aſſiduo illo & frequenti uſu cœpit aſſuefieri, quo factum ut non ſolum vilioris fortunæ Cives in Urbibus, ſed plebeji etiam agminis calones & ſqualor ſeculi, ſervæ & lotrices, ipſique demum ruricolæ, quamlibet rariores, eam ipſam ſorbere incipiant: Accidit, ut jam nulli fere homini tam nota ſua domus ſit, quam decocti illius indoles, & pro ſtatu temporis, ſucceſſuque ſegetis de ſurgente cadenteque fabarum valore, tantum non eodem more, ac de frumentis ſuis judicent, inque ſinu gaudeant delicatuli, ſi quando prolixæ meſſis fama patriam percrebuit, annonæ contra caritatem miſere deplorent, quaſi quidem hoc nectare carere ſine vitæ diſpendio non poſſint, aut majores noſtri non caruiſſent, quibus videlicet ne pictæ quidem, ut ajunt, fabarum imagines fuerunt cognitæ. In hanc morum viciſſitudinem noſtros abripuit decurſus ſeculi. Antiquis temporibus ſola Mecha, & quæ hanc ſuſtinet, felix Arabia, de felici fabarum meſſe gloriari potuit, quibus nempe ſolis ſuos natales debere conſtat. Quadrilaterum autem ita describitur, ut Terra, quæ Globus est, in quatuor partes æquales dividatur, per duos circulos maximos, qui se mutuo ad angulos rectos secent, quorum alter per Ferri insulam, alter per Canariam transeat. Ita enim fiet, ut Ferri insula sit polus unius circuli, Canaria vero unius ex reliquis tribus. Quare cum Ferri insula sit polus circuli, qui per Canariam transit, omnes circuli maximi, qui per Ferri insulam transeunt, ipsum circulum per Canariam transeuntem ad angulos rectos secabunt.
Quamobrem si ab Ferri insula ad Canariam ducatur quadrans circuli maximi, ab hoc autem quadrante ad Canariam ducatur alius quadrans circuli maximi, ita ut cum priore quadrante angulum rectum constituat, ab hoc denique quadrante ad Ferri insulam ducatur alius quadrans circuli maximi, ita ut cum posteriore quadrante angulum rectum constituat, figura quadrilatera, quæ ex his quatuor quadrantibus circulorum maximorum constituitur, erit quadrilaterum, quod quæritur. Ejus enim latera quatuor sunt quadrantes circulorum maximorum, qui se mutuo ad angulos rectos secant, quorum duo per Ferri insulam, duo per Canariam transeunt.
Quare quatuor anguli quadrilateri hujus sunt anguli recti, et quatuor latera sunt quadrantes circulorum maximorum, qui se mutuo ad angulos rectos secant.
Quadrilaterum igitur hoc est, quod quæritur.

Regierung, die er, wie es scheint, ziemlich unruhig, obgleich nicht ohne Ehre, führte. Er starb 1667 und hinterließ von seiner Gemahlin, Sophie Amalie, Tochter des Herzogs Friedrich III. von Holstein-Gottorp, einen Sohn, Christian Albrecht, der ihm folgte, und eine Tochter, Sophie Hedwig, die 1685 mit dem Herzog Ernst August von Braunschweig-Lüneburg, nachmaligem Kurfürsten von Hannover, vermählt wurde.

& viginti lacertas. Dec. I. Ann. III. p. 456. dicitur: Cereviſiam hauſtiſſe molitorem, aquis, implendo forte dolii vacuo, ſuperinfuſis miſtam, neque ita multo poſt lacertam per vomitum rejeciſſe unam, per alvum alteram. Centur. V. & VI. p. 127. Paganus ruri dicatus non temnendam aquæ portionem imbibit, atque eo ipſo ſemina animalculi ſcil. lacertæ deglutivit, & decurſu temporis vivam magnam & robuſtam lacertam beneficio fracedinis putredinoſæ maturatam prodidit. His Caſum noviter auditum adjungemus, qui abhinc anno Roethaviæ, oppidulo, duobus a Lipſia milliaribus, diſtante, contigit.

Fabri cujusdam lignarii conjux varias ſubinde moleſtias ex morbo Epileptico ſuſtinuit, & accitas ſtomacho vellicationes vehementer queſta eſt, eſu ciborum acidorum graviter exaſperatas, dulcium autem quodammodo mitigatas, lactis vero preſſi copia, & coagulo caſeis conficiendis accommodato, penitus ſopitas. Accidit autem, ut, cum cereviſiam dulcem recens coctam potaret, lacerta quæpiam per œſophagum egredi moliens, poſt longas titillationes in lucem prodiret, quam poſt aliquot dies duæ aliæ ſunt ſecutæ. Plures ſtomacho ineſſe hariolata eſt mulier, quia nunquam non cibo acido irritatæ, per eosdem colli parietes, aſcenderunt, nec ſine notabili ſono præcipites ſe dederunt in Stomachum. Tollendis vellicationum inſultibus primùm varia Mithridatii copia intenta fuit, ſed fruſtraneis jugiter ſucceſſibus, donec primam lacertarum modo dictarum animadvertit, & quo morbi genere laboret. Aut me fallunt omnia, aut pauperis conditionis mulier plus aquæ quam cereviſiæ haurire ſolita, cum ipſis aquis ovula imbibit, quæ in corpore excluſit, eſt enim ordinaria lacertæ aquaticæ ſpecies, quemadmodum ex Fig. VI. Tab. I. ſubjuncta animadvertere eſt, juxta formam magnitudinemque ſuam accuratiori penicillo deſignata.

DN. D. MICH. ERNESTI ETTMULLERI.

De Scroti, Penis, & Pedum Scirrho ex Erysipelate contracto.

CHriſtianus Kettwig, ætatis 49. annorum, menſe Julio ſuperioris anni in Noſocomio Lipſienſi recipiebatur, manuum opera panem hactenus lucratus, nunc ad quempiam ſuſtinendum laborem ob pravam corporis diſpoſitionem ineptus. Scrotum hic habet ſecundum omnes dimenſiones magnum, ad genua usque propendens, coloris naturalis, ubi vero femoribus adjacet, glabrum atque rubicundum, indolens interim atque durum. Teſticuli ad latera in ſuperiori parte latent, qui contrectati aut compreſſi doloris ſenſum excitant. Membrum virile ex medio loco ſcroti emergit, itidem elongatum, durum atque tumidum. Tota diſtantia ab inguine ad præputii extremitatem unius ulnæ eſt cum octava parte. Inguina naturaliter ſe habent, nullo tumore conſpicua. Femora & pedes ſunt tumida, dura, & circa genua & talos in rugas & ſulcos complicata. Cæteroquin ſanus degit, omnis doloris expers, optimo ciborum appetitu præditus, dum vero mingit, difficulter lotium profluit.

SCHOLIUM.

In dignoſcendis tumorum ſpeciebus, quæ ſcrotum occupant, facile falli poſſe Medicos, præter quotidianam experientiam teſtatur, variisque ex exemplis probat Salomon Reiſelius. (a) Variæ enim ſunt cauſæ, quæ ad extraordinariam illud magnitudinem elevant. Solent communiter ſcroti tumores herniæ ſalutari. Licet enim Galenus (b) triplices tantum ſtatuat accidat,) testiculis inferat, atque adeo in Hydro-Sarcocelen degeneret. In nostro ægro erysipelas ad interiora repulsum non fuit, siquidem, præter ipsius confessionem, ob rem angustam domi omnibus destitutus remediis, vel refrigerantibus, vel repellentibus, id efficere haud potuit, nec de aliis unquam symptomatibus, quæ hac occasione oriuntur, conquestus est, sed prima alterave forsan vice penitus naturæ robore vel etiam atmosphæræ benignitate materia tenuis fuit difflata. Et quoniam de natura erysipelatis est, ut ad partes vicinas serpat, facili negotio fieri potuit, ut à pedibus & cruribus ad scrotum & membrum virile propter cutis continuitatem progressum fecerit. Simile exemplum refert Heinricus à Mœnichen (gg) de viro, qui post sudationem aërem ambientem improvide admittens, ut cruris sinistri erysipelas ad scrotum, ob enterocelen jam dum maxime expansum, non sine vitæ periculo se receperit, ansam dedit. Successu vero temporis postquam ob reiteratos erysipelatis reditus magis debilitatæ sunt partes, ac pori & canaliculi turbati, sanguis, qui per arterias sub novo paroxysmo copiosius affluxit, totus remeare non potuit, sed purpura ejus sola refluente per venas, glutinosus post se atque crassius serum reliquit, atque scirrhum constituit. Est enim scirrhus tumor durus ac indolens cum sensu vel exiguo vel plane nullo, & ejus indolis, ut licet externas partes occupet, plerumque tamen interiora aliqua in consensum trahat, contagio in eodem corpore serpente, quod tale est, ut etiam lactantes mulieres alumnos suos inficiant, referente Hildano. (hh) Membrum virile in nostro ægro excessiva pariter notatur magnitudine. Certa equidem huic mensura constitui haud potest, quæ omnibus atque singulis viris æque competat. Ut enim de ætate nihil dicam, quæ differentiam aliquam affert, homines παχυσωματους εις & obesi, quemadmodum quoad cæteras partes magis torosi sunt, ſunt, atque viſcera artusque obtinent inſigni magnitudine conſpicua, ita & penis eandem cum reliquo corpore ſervat proportionem Talem deſcribit Hildanus (ii) in generoſo juvene robuſto, & corporis proceritate multis aliis elatiore. Et ridiculam nobis reliquit hiſtoriam, dummodo vera eſſet, Nicolaus Neander: Rabbi Eleazar, inquiens, & Rabbi Iſmaël habuerunt ventres tam groſſos, ut cum ſtarent erecti converſis faciebus & ventribus contiguis, duo validi boves potuerint inter eos tranſire, neutrum contingendo. Iſmaëlis membrum genitale ſimile erat magnitudine ſacco cuidam novem modiorum, Eleazaris vero octo modiorum. Sic Johannes Conradus Peyerus (ll) virum commemorat tanti mutonis, ut vel priapum longe ſuperaverit, pavorique fuerit mulierum fortiſſimis; & Johannes Fridericus Blaw (mm) militem refert, qui ob membri virilis gravitatem vix incedere poterat. rus (yy) tumorem deſcribit ſcroti à ſubſiſtentibus humoribus horrendum in modum inflatum cum penis diſparentia. Verum quando hos caſus cum noſtro conferimus, videmus, ſcrotum horum ægrorum diſtenſum undique fuiſſe, absque eo ut in mali conſortium tracta fuerit cutis penis ſeu præputium, quod membrum virile tegit. Medicus quidam Hagienſis, natione Auſtriacus, eo jam tempore ſenex, vir eruditus, & rerum naturalium curioſus, cujus humanitatem hic publicè laudo, nomine SCHMIDTBERGER, mihi varia notatu digna de his ceſpitibus narravit, quæ noſtris Ephemeridibus inſeruiſſe non pigebit. Sic autem ille: ſunt ruricolæ certi, qui in ericetis, ſterilibusve & paludoſis agris fodiunt, remotaque exteriore cruſta, quum terram hanc bituminoſam invenerunt, cavitatem, loco remotæ illius cruſtæ, aqua ad ſummum replent, ſic ut ille diſtrictus 2. 3. vel 4. quoque jugerum, intuentibus lacum quendam ſive piſcinam referat. Elapſis aliquot ſeptimanis, operarii iſti, lintribus eo vecti, reti piſcatorio terram limoſam extrahunt, aquam ad certam terræ conſiſtentiam exſtillare faciunt, ipſam vero terram in colles ac acervos congerunt, quam pedibus depſendo, a filamentis rudioribus, radicibus arborum, lignis, lapillis, aliisque quisquiliis, quantum poſſibile, repurgant, ferreis quibusdam inſtrumentis, in formam oblonge-quadratam compingunt, exſiccant, ac venum exponunt. DN. LIC. ROSINI LENTILII.

De Carbone foſſili ſeu lithanthrace, alimento focorum Anglicorum, tum & aliorum.

NOn ingratum, ſpero, lectori futurum, nobiliſſimisque Dominis Collegis, ubi, propter materiæ affinitatem, pauca quoque de Carbone foſſili ſeu lithanthrace dixero. Notum iſto Carbone Londinenſium focos communiter inſtrui. CAMDENUS Hiſt. Britann. p. m. 599. eum ita deſcribit: Bitumen aliqui volunt eſſe terrenum, nigrum, alii gagatem, alii Thracium lapidem; ſe autem, ait, credere, nil aliud eſſe, quam bitumen calore ſub terra induratum & excoctum, bituminis enim odorem reddere, &, ſi aqua adſpergatur, acrius & luculentius ardere.

Relicta pauliſper natura carbonis foſſilis, prius eum non eſſe ſolius Britanniæ peculium, demonſtratum ibimus. Sic apud Scotos quoque in Tifa lapidem nigrum naſci ſcribit OTELIUS, ad ignem non ſecus, ac lignum, aptum, referente MAJOLO Dier. Canic. Tom. I. Coll. 18. p. m. 310. qui ibid. quoque ex PLIN. Hiſt. nat. lib. II. cap. 107. recenſet, apud eos, qui fere nobis ſunt Antipodes, in Cattaja genus lapidis eſſe, in quo ipſa carbonum natura apparet; admoto enim carbone accenſo igneſcit lapis e parva ſcintilla, ſenſimque totus igneſcit, ac quaſi ingens carbo incenſus noctem ſua luce illuſtrat, ardore quoque calefacit adſtantes. A Talcaguana, à l'Irequin & dans la ville même de Conception on trouve de tres-bonnes mines de Charbon de terre, ſans creuſer plus d'un ou deux pieds, ſcribit FREZIER relat. du Voyage de la mer du Sud, aux côtes de Chili p. 146. Ubi inſuper addit Americanos iſtos tali carbone uti neſcire & valde miratos eſſe, cum Europæos vidiſſent, pabulum alendo igni e terra eruere. In Chinæ quoque regionibus Xenſi & Peking carbo foſſilis effoditur, teſte FRANCISCI im Oſt-Indiſchen Luſt-Garten p. 1151. Carbones foſſiles ubique paſſim reperiuntur, potiſſimum in Territorio Leodienſi, in Bohemia, Saxonia, Italiæ variis locis, it. in Elva inſula, in Sicilia ut refert KIRCHERUS mund ſubterr. Tom. II. lib. VIII. ſect. II. p. 66. b. Idem Lib. X. Sect. III. p. 189. integrum montem e ſolo lithanthrace conſtantem nobis deſcribit inter Neoſolium & Cremnitium, quibus tamen nemo utatur pro mineris liquandis, neque fabros ferrarios pro ſuis officinis, aut ullum alium. Cauſſam quæſitos reſpondiſſe: nimis vehementem ſuſcitare calorem, ita, ut ferrum conſumat & omnem liquationem deſtruat. Plures quoque in quibusdam Gallia tractibus generantur, cumprimis in Avernia (Auvergne) & in agro Seguſiano (Forez) ut eſt apud MISSON Voyage d' Italie Tom. II. p. 255. In fodinis Nivernenſibus, Burgundicis, LEMERY Diction. des Drogues p. m. 493. in montibus Provinciæ Gallicæ (Provence) Hiſtoir. de l'Acad. Royale des Sciençes An. 1710. p. 33. In agro Leodienſi maximus eſt horum proventus, ibique ab Inventore, Mareſchallo PRUDHOMME le HOUILLEUX, appellantur Houilles. Immo fama quoque fert, ſpectrum quoddam, ſeniculum nempe alba veſte indutum, iſti Mareſchallo mineram hujus Carbonis primum oſtendiſſe. Totus ager Leodienſis, quin vel ipſa urbs, teſte ANSELMO BOETIO DE BOODT, cauſſa lucri, quod ex hiſce lithanthracibus captant, (non ſine periculo, eam aliquando ſubrutum iri) quaſi cuniculis ſuffoſſa eſt, eod. KIRCHERO teſte loc. cit. Hic lapis, quem MARCUS POLUS, ap. MAJOLUM loco dicto, vocat, Carbonum vicem Belgarum domeſticis neceſſitatibus præbet. Cum lignis abundet Ducatus, quieti ſuæ relicti carbones. Inde mihi tamen problema natum: Cum paſſim circa hanc urbem vina colligantur, quæ ſaporem quodammodo piceum, non tamen propterea nauſeoſum, referunt, idiomate noſtro pächſende Weine, dicta, annon talismodi ſapor a CARBONE FOSSILI, ſub iſtis vinetis latente ſit arceſſendus. Satis autem de locis lithanthracum feracibus. Deſcribuntur autem a KIRCHERO loc. cit. iſti carbones, *quod ſint maſſæ quædam bituminoſæ, cum ſulphure, quod olent, permiſtæ, vel juxta ETTMULL. Opp. Tom. II. p. m. 288. edit. De noxio Radicum eſu.

VEnenorum indoles nondum hactenus ea claritate atque evidentia radiat, ut acquieſcere in acquiſita eorundem cognitione ſedulis abditorum ſcrutatoribus liceat, cum nec numeroſa ſatis, nec ſatis perſpicua ſuppetant in re intricatiſſima phænomena, nec rationes omnium reddere ſufficientes in promptu ſit Phyſicæ Medicæque rei aſſiduis promotoribus. Ut enim nihil dicamus de lentis occultisque venenis, quorum & natura & agendi ratio profundiſſimè hactenus latuit Eruditos, etſi proh dolor maleferiatis hominibus plus æquo innotuerit in perniciem mortalium; ipſa etiam illa venena, quæ apertius innotuere, & quorum effectus funeſtos frequentius licuit obſervare, multum adhuc recondunt obſcuri abſtruſique, non ſolum quà agendi modum ſed & quà effectus ſuos funeſtiſſimos, atque in oculos incurrentes, qui non non ideò eam ſcrutantibus certitudinem offerunt, ut cum certitudine ſemper plenâ de veneno exhibito liceat pronunciare, poſtquam tot exemplis evictum eſt, gigni haud raro in corpore noſtro ſuccos ea pravitate atque erodendi vi præditos, quæ cum venenorum atrocia certare queat. Quicquid vero horum ſit, ipſa illa rei tam difficilis intricatio atque difficultas animum nobis merito addit ad ſcrutanda ſemper majori attentione atque contentionis ardore tam deleteria generis humani nocumenta. Exiſtimamus hinc phænomenorum nunquam heic nimium fore, & ne ea quidem hic excludi ab animo veritatis avido, quæ etſi nulla ſeſe raritate commendent, etſi ſimilia frequentiſſimè etiam obſervata fuerint, aliquid tamen ſenſim ſenſimque ad majorem evidentiam valeant contribuere. Atque ipſa hæc ratio me movet, ut aliqueus fore ſequentibus obſervationibus hic locum ſperare auſim, cum multitudo omnis generis phænomenorum majorem ſubinde claritatem in re tam incerta promittere queat. Vir annorum 64. frequentibus olim Eryſipelatis inſultibus ac podagræ dehinc tormentis obnoxius comedit in prandio bubulam carnem cum radicibus paſtinacæ coctam, ejusque juſculum copia radicum abundans, quæ quidem radicum abundantia Patrifamilias honoris ergò plenè ex integro ceſſit, non excluſa tamen penitus familia; vix abſoluto prandio omnes de oris ſiccitate, faucium quaſi coaleſcentia, nebula oculis obverſante conquerebantur, turbati omnes, ancilla largiter evomebat aſſumta, uxor easdem ventriculi everſiones paſſa eſt, marito filioque à vomitu liberis. Eo tamen major Viri turbatio fuit, quam ut diſcuteret, mox à prandio urbe egreſſus eſt, liberiori aëre campique deliciis nebulas iſtas atque ſtrangulationes diſcuſſurus; tantum verò abeſt, ut ſcopo ſuo ſit potitus, ut potius ea malum vehementia increverit, quæ ipſum compulit domum ſe greſſu titubante qua poterat celeritate conferre, ibi vacillatio ſpirituum atque objectorum, turbulentusque capitis ſtatus quovis momento cepit incrementa formidan-midanda, vox faucibus hæsit, aphonia quali ex linguæ immobilitate ac paralysi succedit; reliqua familia luctatur cum molestiis fuit, ac minius tolerabilisque, utpote fercula prava non tam largiter palla. Ipse vero semper gravius affligitur, mens incipit laborare, sui, fuique status vix amplius conscia, novis equidem adfunctes, at delirat tamen, mira garrit atque insana, hinc in lectum a tua confringitur, multo nubi cum menti agitatur, profpicit torvo vultu, inter deliria sentitur, fixis in certam plagam oculis meticulosis, tenax e lecto perpetuo fugam. Medicus post fextam vespertinam de turbis illis certior factus haud cunctet fimetico purgatione illi fimulatur, ipsi in pede fecare venam, præscribit insuras binas alternatim frequentissime exhibendas, unam bezoardicis refertam, alteram antispasmodicis ac volatilibus; negligunt adfunctes Venæsectionem, remedia adhuc infundum interim remigrare, atque absurda continuo effutiente per totam noctem, vixque adfantium robore in lecto coercendo; perpetuo strubus conatu omni laborabat, ac si in alium per parietem repere jamjam parares; semper manibus pectoris ut pulsare ac flimulare urina, nil tamen valuit excernere. Remediis fedulo exhibitis fenfim fenfimque aurora illucescente rationis fese recolligentia quosdam emicare radiolos videbantur fibi advertere adfantes prout sub ultis terroribus atque anguftiis examinata, obrepit hinc somnus brevisculus, major dehinc emicat ferenitas mentis, dissipantur nebulæ, horaque matutina fexta evanescit delirium, gestorum antea haud recordatur, nec eorum qui toti tota noctis precibus curisque adfiterant, monitur cum demum Medico jubente vena, exhibentur porro nervina, analepticæ, vires animumque fenfim recipit æger, hactenus priftinæ fanitati plene restitutus. Familia hæc tanta implicita turbis ac molestiis omnem non indignationem fuam lamentatis, pilforem, apud quem panem ea die emerant, at Medicus inthiruto examine panis innocentiam facile agnovit, postquam pistinacæ comeltæ copiam recenseruerant. Petroselini rafuisse admixtas percognoscant, de quibus vel ideo felicitabatur Medicus, quod recordaretur Viri alias, Ordinis Senatorii, qui in prandio cum bubula carne coctas petrofolini, ut credidit, radices comedit, ac poſt meridiem interfuit exequiis, ea tamen ori's fuscinabque ſuccisae fenilmque obrutae, ut omnimodam ſtranguiationem imminere ſibi pertimeſceret, res eo usque plena fauchum conſtrictione invaluit ut meru ſuffocationis turbatique & obnubilati capitis pondere, ex tempore ſubſidio opportuno carere, domique humectantibus, fauxcesque demulcendibus vitam illam liberiorem, lubricamque reddere, donec accepta a Medico Bezoardicis ac nervuis maturis molestiae tantae pedetentim ceſſarent. Difficile eſt in talibus caſibus indicium, quo ſimpla eorum loca petrofolini incauté coctae ingeſtaque plurima paſſim proſtent, nec annoſae nocumenta paſſinaceae Medicorum ſcholis ignota ſint. Cujus quidem rei exemplum inter nos obrulit opifex, qui cum conjuge ſua radicibus paſſinaceae largius in prandio paſtus in mox obruebatur ſymptomatibus, torminibus, inflatione abdominis enormi, ſpaſmisque, ut præſentem omnia viderentur interitare mortem, procuratо tamen vomitu, clauique alexipharmacis quibusdam mali incrementa ſiſtere haud adeò fuit difficile.

Aliae radices aliam nobis aperiunt ſcenam. Uti ſalent non rarò preſs pauperate homines radicibus gubiusdam ſponte in agro provenientibus ſecuré veſci, in quo genere nuper, infantes bini eiusdem matris in campum egreſſi deprehenderent in via plantam ibi incognitam, quam credebant eſſe genere ſicuentarum, puella natu paulo major non ipſa quidem ea iis comedit, at tanti tamen ſex annorum puello eas & mundavit & ſuabendo præparavit ad eſum, qui & neſcio quid ibi delicium deprehendit ſe putans, largiter ſatis ipſa paſcebatur, revocabat infantes apropinquans vespera domum, cumque ad matrem accederet puella tanti ſe putans, fubito ante aedes patrias in terram violenter proſtertitur, accurrit perterrita rita mater, puerumque vide consultum alternis terram qualare pedibus, delatum per apoculum lectulo imponit, ibi summi major fit vexatio: vas enim, ortumque ideationes corporis enormes, spasmi violenti, tendinum non modo, sed & ipsius corpusculi in alium sublevati projectique subitulus horribiles, spumante ore, torvis oculis cortisque cervicisque invido furidoque passore oborta facies, ad tantas percordias, reciprocatio reciprocis agre crahitur rhonchis, intantemque minari mortem omnia videbantur. Subjicio mox mare infelicissime ac meticulose operatus est de fulcino veneficisque infanti illato, ut fortem plebeii hominis primas absque cognitionibus in eventibus funestis eò concedere, fed eventus meni pavida protinus error iteffuit. Jacebat, agitabaturque ore semper hiante puellus, infundatur faucibus cannulum rapidi lactis, deglutit gravem liquorem puellus, vel fidem ipsimus parum ad mortalium urget, propellitque; affundur ille largius, hinc majores precordiorum labores, violentiores corpusculi laborantis anhelantisque conatus ac cruciatus, donec tandem fuffuso largius hauftoque facile ingrediens vomitus ejecientes cibum integrè exiguam radicum fuspectarum; quaritur ex forore adstante, an ille ipsi cognitæ fint radices, promittit ille se mox allaturam abjecta omnesque radicis folia, procurrentesque extra opposita reportat illico funestarum impudentium radicum documentum, tryceyami folia; fic verò dato uberius largiori manu lacte evomit feliciter infans reliquas eduli funelli; datur post vomitus & frequentes & atroces Dialcordii bolus, quo fumto quietentibus, que tenellam Machinam misere hactenus per horas integras intervallum quallaverant, convulsionibus, opprellus fopore gravi conquievit, data funt adhuc mixture alexipharmacæ subinde cochlearia quædam, donque infequente redit ad fanitatem alacritatemque priftinam puer, cum pene & angue radices nunc quavis fibi obvias fugiens atque abhorrens.

De Venenorum Applicatione Externa.

NOn ore solum hausta venena minantur miseris mortalibus necem, sed & externus corpori admota formidandos post se trahunt eventus. Non allegabimus eorum contradictiones specifitas; quibus buforiis ficcum, spumosum, efficiunt, & pestem avertendam amuleti loco cordis regioni jubent admoveri, & qui ex adverso amuleta alia cane pejus & angue detestantes, & rationum pondere, & experientia multa documenta omni conatu & remedium clasis ea proscribunt. Quam adsperium buforis totium aliquid meruere? Nec latere potest quenquam Medicorum Cel. Hac vice in Mercurialibus liber subsistere. Mercurius sublimatus primas fere inter venena, tum agendi celeritate, cum erosionis violentia, jure fuo tenet; cumque fub fchemate dulcis mercurii nat re medium fatis tutum, nemo tamen eft qui ignoret noxas ex preparatione & mistigatione draconis insidiosi tonos oborta, quas anxietates, quas faucium mox erosiones, quas in interioribus necroses subito, mortesque etiam celeres effecerit. Ubi equidem inficiari haud licet frequentissime corrosivum hunc Mercurium Cosmetico scopo adhiberi, ut enim in facie pollenda exornandaque ingeniosæ sunt formiæ, ita mere illas diu haud potuit, acerrimum hoc concretum dilutum aquis congruis aptissimum esse ad minutissimas quasque sordium cutis nitorem obfuscantium molecular petitus eluendas, abstumendasque, quippe cutis tenerrimi gladioli pellem ipsius quæ cuticulam efformant squamulas sese insinuantes acie sua penetrantissima quicquid hærere inter subtilissimas earum commissuras queat peregrini celerrimè perfectissimeque excutiunt abraduntque. OBSERVATIO CXXIV.

DN. D. JOHANNIS DANIELIS GOHLII.

De Pſeudoiſchuria periodica, ſeptimo die Urina hirci pota ſemel, poſtmodum autem ſingulari Autocratia Naturæ ſoluta.

FAber ferrarius 45. annorum, Vir magnus & quadratus, hactenus per ſemeſtria temporum ſpatia periodicè acutè febricitans, ad calculum renum equidem non proclivis, Menſe Februario anni 1722. ex tenuiſſima non ritè fermentata feculenta cereviſia (Kovent) in dolores colicos inciderat. Studebat illos delinire partim per reiteratam aſſerculorum quernorum ad ignem excalefactorum impoſitionem in abdomen, partim per internum allii uſum, initiò minutim conciſi crudi, poſtea quoque cum ſpiritu frumenti remixti. Hujus remedii tertiam fortè doſin die 5. Februarii cubitum iturus patiens aſſumſerat, ubi dolores multum ante jam tum remiſerant, ſuperfluam interim hanc doſin nocere non poſſe, ratus, ſecurus noctem tranſigit, ſaltem Urinam, quam alias aliquot vicibus per noctem reddere conſueverat, jam deficere, attonitus animadvertit. Pro ſontico id capiens phænomeno, domeſtica per inſequentem diem ſibi parat remedia, ſpeciatim aquam petroſelini largiter hauſerat. Cum autem ſuppreſſio Urinæ nihilominus ſtabilis permaneret, eaque ſine ullo ſenſu preſſionis aut aliquo dolore, meum ſibi verſus noctem expetit auxilium.

Ordinabam primò pulveres temperantes diureticos ex Nitro & Tart. Vitriol. largiter cinnabrifatos, aliàs admodum in tali caſu proficuos, per ſingula bihoria iterandos, ſed nihil præter rugitus & borborygmos in abdomine excitarunt, Urinæ progreſſum neutiquam. Deſcendebam hinc ad remedium potentiùs diureticum, (cujus mentionem injeci in Dec. I. Act. Med Bercl. Vol. 5. Sect. 3. p. 92.) præprimis cum nullum obſtaret contraindicans, febris abeſſet, appetitus ſibi adhuc conſtaret, patiens quoque orthoſtadius eſſet, nec de ſenſu alicubi moleſto aut dolore ſuſpecto lancinante quicquam querularetur. Videbatur illud aliquem ſenſum quaſi redituræ Urinæ in regione ſupra pubem excitaſſe, aſt ſine ſucceſſu. Alia interea quoque offerebantur evporiſta, quæ omnia in effectu erant inania & vacua. De Calculo Veſicæ, de ſanguinis grumo aut pure meatum Urinarium obturante nulla ex collectis & penſitatis ægri circumſtantiis dabatur præſumtio. Quod autem renes fortè magis laborarent infarctu calculorum, ſabuli, grumorum ſanguinis aut puris, aut ureteres utrinque iisdem obſtructi eſſent, nec minus in ſuſpicionem cadere volebat. Quod potius infarctus humorum congeſtorius, vel ſpasmodica conſtrictio in his partibus ſubeſſe poſſet, majore cum probabili-tate præſumendum erat. Adeoque ad explendam hanc intentionem patiens ſemicupio ex emollientibus reiterato committebatur, ejusque Lumbi Linimentis, ſaltem temperatis ſecundum ureterum tractum ad pubem verſus utrinque diligenter ab uxore fricabantur, ſed ne hilum quidem his omnibus proficiebatur, patiens potius Abdomen magis intendi animadvertebat, dum, conſtante adhuc appetitu, nihil quicquam excerneretur. Qui rerum ſtatus me movebat, ut ipſi Laxans ordinarem ex * reſinæ præparatæ gr. viij. additô Tartari tartariſati ſcrupulo ſemis. Inde quindecies copioſa ſubviridia mucoſo-aquoſa per alvum ejecit & ſemel etiam per ſuperius os eandem fermè aquoſam materiam, Urinâ inde nihil ſimul commotâ.

Quintus nunc exceſſerat dies, quo, in vanum adhibitis omnibus hactenus remediis, Urina ſubſtiterat, quare, ut tantò magis de ſtatu morbi certior fierem, Catheterem per Balneatorem loci applicari curavi; ſed ne guttula quidem lotii prodiit. Urgebam nunc inſtanter magis venæſectionem in pede, qua Riverium aliquando ſimilem patientem reſtituiſſe, ex Obſervationibus ejus conſtat, ſed per dilationes clandeſtinas ſecus ſentientium, quaſi vires hinc ſaltem magis dilapidarentur, negligebatur. Ut cor flaccidum potius refocilletur, Vinum Hiſpanicum, citra meum conſilium ab officioſis adſtantibus multis elogiis, patienti ad id prono, offerebatur, ſed, proh dolor, cum ſumma dyſphoria. Appetitus enim, qui hactenus benè conſtiterat, nunc penitus proſternebatur, & Ventriculus, qui hucusque nihil mali ſenſerat, nunc magnis ardoribus vexabatur, & cum frequenter recurrentibus everſionibus multa acria eructabat inquinamenta, Hypochondrium etiam dextrum nunc magis dolebat. Interea paulò ante ordinatum remedium ex Terra fol. ♆. 3j. ſoluta in ℞. Tartari acris & Spir. Sal. dulc. ā 3ij. Miſc. paratum, ſingulis bihoriis ad

40. guttas sumendum, ob hoc inconveniens interjectum, reponebatur, & quod nunc Ventriculo nimis sensile & acre esset, incusabatur. Mansit non saltem immutabilis universi morbi facies, sed novis his accessoriis symptomatibus ventriculi læsi, majora potiùs sumserat incrementa. Abdomen perstabat durum & tensum, vomitus materiæ acris continuabant, assumta iterum rejiciebantur, intercursabat Eructatio singultuosa, exterior habitus corporis ultra solitum erat frigidulus & tumor œdematosus descendebat in pedes. Ipse patiens de semetipso desperans & debilis omnem ulteriorem respuebat remediorum ordinationem. Dies autem instabat septimus nec ullum, ne leviſſimum quidem se manifestabat signum apparituri lotii. Unicum præsidium, quo se patiens adhuc conservabat, situm erat in spontanea per periodos eveniente alvi solutione, quam viam abhinc quo primum laxans dederam, natura sibi apertam servaverat. Ne itaque patientem omni consilio vel auxilio destitutum relinquerem, dari evporiston, dicebam, Urinam sc. Hirci quo nonnunquam quendam simili ratione ægrotantem restitutum fuisse, legerim. Vix discesseram & dictum factum Hircus aderat, cujus calentem Urinam patiens confidentiæ plenus, nauseâ omni sepositâ ad unciam fortè semis hauserat, sed hem! etiam vomitu statim reddiderat. Nihilominus tantum effecerat, ut tantillum Urinæ, post completam 6. dierum subsistentiam, sine ullo dolore excreverit. Talis parca Urinæ, sed limpidæ & claræ, excretio vix per biduum perstabat, ubi nova subintrabat Urinæ plenaria subsistentia, cum iisdem, ut ante, symptomatibus vomitoriis, in eo saltem moderatioribus, quod pultem farinaceam & juscula ex avena excorticata parata, nunc retinuerit. Undecimo morbi die cum præter spem, spontè, bono augurio, iterum rediret Urinæ profluxus cum aliquo ardore, & majore, quam nuper, tinctura, successu autem destitueretur, Patiens animum recapessens, novam expetebat ordinationem. Præscribebam ergo Decoctum Foresti in Nephriticis Casibus a Linda-

Lindano aliisque celebribus Practicis admodum commendatum nec præſenti caſui difforme, ut ſingulo ſemihorio ſcutellam hauriret calentem. Quo factum, ut patiens citra conſuetum hactenus morem, preſſiones quaſi ad Urinam mittendam ſenſerit, ſed in eventu vacuas & vanas. Quare ut denuo ſtatus Veſicæ Cathetere exploraretur autor fui & ſuaſor, ſed iterum in vanum, Urina prodiit nulla. In vanum etiam urina hirci iterum potata fuit, quam patiens, prout nuper, vomitu rejecit. Accedebat nunc horridula magis corporis perculſio cum calore interiorum ſtipata, ſingultus frequentior, præprimis poſt ſomnum, ſe exſerebat, habitus etiam corporis leucophlegmaticum induebat, & ſine dubio majora cepiſſet incrementa, ſi alvus retenta liquida excernere ſalutari tenore amplius non continuaſſet. Decoctum Foreſti, quod hactenus patiens ſatis benè ſumſerat, jam accuſabat frigidum nimis eſſe, quale quid in emergente Viſcerum antipraxia patientes prætendere ſolent. Demum die morbi univerſi 14. urina præter expectationem, & quidem ſine ardore, proceſſit iterum limpida & clara, ſine ullis interiorum ardorum, (qui ſaltem latici erant,) caracteribus, ſine ullo etiam ſedimento. Interim recenſita hactenus ſymptomata, febriles alterationes, Aſpectus Levcophlegmaticus, Vomitiones & ſingultus ſub ipſa Urinæ proceſſione nondum quicquam remiſerant. Hærebat adhuc inter ſpem & metum patiens, præprimis cum interno æſtu & hinc ſiti magis affligi videretur, accedebat dextri hypochondrii obtuſus dolor, quem ut palliaret, univerſum corpus in iſtud latus incurvare tenebatur, urina etiam inter emittendum majorem creabat ardorem. Cujus cum inſpicerem conſiſtentiam, limpida iterum erat tenerrimisque floccu-lis innatantibus referta, ut Catheteris immiſſionem, autorem ardentis Urinæ declarare, quam quicquam aliud, debuerim. Die morbi 20. nova & tertia ſupervenicbat Urinæ ſuppreſſio, quæ facilè fatalem terminum rebus ſic ſtantibus accelerare potuiſſet, præſertim dum alvus facta eſſet obſtipatior & inter mussitantes dolores magis Iliacos, quàm colicos, Clisterum emollientium injectiones eluderet, nisi sedula & instans illorum applicatio tandem & hunc nodum dissolvisset. Ad dextrum hypochondrium dolens Emplastrum Miraculosum statim applicari jusseram, quod, cum post applicationem majores, prout quandoque solet, creasset dolores, impatiens illud à corpore avulsum rejecerat. Eventus interim comprobavit, id ipsum Emplastrum, si patientem patientia non deseruisset non leve symbolum ad salutarem effectum contribuisse. Per instantiam enim Clisterum id tandem effectum est ut multa sanguine & pure remixta materia exierit, cujus excretionem etiam morbi & ejus symptomatum remissio ad plenariam patientis Orthostadiam insecuta est.

Perpendens, omnem mali originem pullulare ex geſtatis oneribus, principio quidem condeſcendi in exhibitionem expetiti laxantis, prædicendo, irritam fore ejus in tali ſtatu, ubi fortiora purgantia reſtiterant, totque clyſteres incaſſum injecti erant, efficaciam, quæ cum ſe promiſſis meis conformaverat, ſatius duxi intentionem dirigere ad interiorum alicubi fortè factam rupturam. Præſcripſi hinc Herbam Arnicæ veræ, pro infuſo calente cum Cereviſia reiteratò ſorbillandam. Quâ cum majores crearentur quàm anteà dolores, ut Clyſteres denuò injicerentur, ratum duxi. Specificum Cephalicum Michaelis exhibitum quidem est, quod nobis semper ad manus est, sed nihil præstitit*, quare sine mora accersor, instructus remediis contra paralysin vel Epilepsiam.

Ipse præsens accessiones paroxysmorum ita se habere observavi. Jacebat puer perpetuò soporosus, lenem saltem ducens spiritum, nec expaveſcens, uti alias in ejusmodi casibus solet, somnum tamen profundum non esse, ex eo patescebat, quòd clausis adhuc oculis, Nutricem appellaret aut potum posceret aut de puncturis, rarò saltem venientibus, quiritaret. Expergefactus verè & apertis tum oculis, præmisso uno vel altero suspirio, confestim suo paroxysmo tetanode corripiebatur, qui speciatim in torvis & sinistrorsum versis rigidis oculis cognoscebatur. Respiratio tum erat quasi sufflaminata. Et prout illa fiebat liberior, tum profundo solvebatur suspirio singultuoso, & in intestinis strepitus & borborygmi audiebantur. Tragica talis scena communiter binis se invicem mox excipientibus vicibus in uno ludebatur paroxysmo, quo superato iterum in soporem propendebat patiens & ita inducierum tempus consumebat. Potus, quem interea per vices poscebat, difficulter & quasi restagnans per œsophagum descendebat in Ventriculum. Pulsus erat inæqualis in rythmo & admodum frequenter intermittens. Dextrum brachium, flagelli instar susque deque movebat gnaviter, sinistro quiescente, nec minus pedibus etiam frequenter calcitrabat, ac si tegmina corporis impatienter ferret. De cetero calore febrili destitutus.

Dabam statim post meum accessum pulverem ex auro fulm. gr. iß. cum Magnesiæ gr. vj. cujus effectus, cum retardaret, injiciebatur Clyster. & vix inserta fistulâ, præsto erant fæces deturbatæ, sed strictô anô, retentæ. Recurrebant quidem dem poſthæc acceſſiones, ſed longioribus horarum intervallis, & potus nunc liberius deſcendebat in Ventriculum. Subjungebatur mox pulvis laxans ex Mercurio dulci, acuatus cum reſina præparata, ſed iterum ultra terminum, quaſi nihil acturus, reſtitabat, ut denuo Clyſterem adhibere neceſſarium duxerim. Quô applicato, fæces erant præ foribus. Sequebatur poſt horum remediorum uſum admodum tolerabilis patientis ſtatus, totaque nox inſequens ſine ullo inſultu convulſivo tranſigebatur. Et, ſic magnam parentes ponebant ſpem in filii reconvaleſcentia, egoque meditabar abitum, commendans Eſſentiam dulcem Hallenſium, cujus uſu, magnæ debilitates, in quibus puer à morbo projectus erat, ad ſenſum vinci poſſent, quam etiam per tabellarium ſtatim accerſi curarunt. Sed o caducam & fallacem ſpem! circa Meridiem eadem iterum & magis increbeſcens cum miſero patiente ludebatur tragœdia, antedicta omnia fiebant per momenta pejora, & quæ hactenus interius ſaltem Meſenterium verſus Diaphragma rigidè ſtringebat convulſio, nunc ſe quoque ad extra vertebat, ſiniſtrumque brachium hactenus liberum, immobile & rigidum ad pectus applicatum tenebat per intervalla, ut tum nulla vi avelli poſſet. Nunc etiam pollices in pugnum colligebantur, ambæque manus per vices extenſæ tremulâ convulſione concutiebantur. Imò ipſa reſpiratio mox erat intercepta & quaſi nulla, mox iterum ſonora & ronchoſa ut Mortis hunc eſſe apparatum omnes & ſinguli crederent. Interea non intermittebatur Remediorum, ubi dabatur exhibendi commoditas, uſus, quô autem nihil amplius proficiebatur. In his conclamatis circumſtantiis Tabellarius redux affert Eſſentiam dulcem, cujus 8. guttas ipſemet in Vino opportuno tempore, ubi ſtertor remiſerat, patienti dedi, quas etiam commode deglutiverat. Tempus tum erat ſerotinum nec apparebat ulla dictarum circumſtantiarum mutatio. Præces ad DEus fundebantur ſedulæ quibus impetrare ſperabant ab Eo mitiorem moribundi filii exſolutionem, Nec quicquam aliud, quam certa mortis hac ipſa nocte ingruens hora, ab omnibus & ſingulis expectabatur. Aſt, quod mirum erat, miſellus patiens ſupremam ſuam horam in elapſa nocte nondum attingerat, nihil interea nec in pejus nec in melius mutatus. Jacebat extremè debilis inter pedum & brachii dextri jactationes perpetuas in concatenatis ſui mali acceſſionibus, ronchoſus & moribundus; & cum nunc demum per diem, ſupremum fatum expectandum eſſe omnes confiderent, Ego condolens diſceſſi, die Decembri nono, nec mihi aliud quid perſuaſi, quàm quod patientis fatalis hora non multum poſt meum diſceſſum, acciderit. Sed hem! die ejusdem Decembris undecimo ſequentis tenoris ad me perferuntur Litteræ, à Parente conſcriptæ. Teneor, Te, Domine Doctor, de noſtro ſtatu informare, ubi ſine dubio pro Miraculo habebis, quod & nos pro illo habemus, quod puer noſter non ſaltem adhuc vivat, ſed etiam, poſt agonem per 24. horas & ultra durantem, in tantum immutatus ſit, ut fermè novam de reconvaleſcentia futura ſpem conceperim. Iſto, quo diſceſſeras die, circa horam circiter primam obſervabamus in patiente aliquam mutationem, quare ſex guttas Eſſentiæ dulcis ipſi exhibebamus. Horâ tertiâ major notabatur mutatio, hinc quartâ iterum dabantur guttulæ quinque. Horâ quintâ motus convulſivi remittebant, ronchi ceſſabant & in ſoporem devolvebatur, ſub quo erumpebat ſudor. Per inſequentem noctem binas ſaltem mali expertus eſt acceſſiones, ſed admodum debiles, ſub ipſa ſoporis & ſudoris continuatione. Interea Eſſentia dulcis, primò, per ſingulas, remittente autem malo, per binas ac trinas horas, exhibita fuit. Qua etiam, favente Divinâ benedictione, univerſa mali acceſſio in totum ſublata eſt, ut ab hora quarta matutina diei Decembris decimi, non amplius apparuerit, ipſi etiam reſpirationi, abolito omni roncho, ſua reſtituta ſit libertas, adeoque ad hoc usque tempus, quo litteræ ſcriptæ, ultra 30. exceſſerint horæ ab omni acceſſione vacuæ. Continuè potiùs dormit, luridumque illum ac emortualem faciei colorem iterum amiſit, mucida nonnunquam ſatis vegete tuſſi expectorans. Hanc ob cauſam ipſi quandoque tantillum tillum ſyrupi violarum dedimus aſſumſit iterum etiam aliquid de juſculis cereviſiariis, jura carnium reſpuens. Cum igitur nunc magis de morbo pectorali metuamus præſentiam Domini Doctoris iterum expetimus, Eſſentiæ dulcis uſum interim continuantes divinorumque decretorum curſum patiente reverentiâ placidè expectantes. Accedens circa ſeptimam veſpertinam, omnia in litteris conſignata, vera eſſe, offendi. Appellabat iterum patiens ſuam nutricem, poſcebat potum, aſſumebat Eſſentiam dulcem, alvus ipſi erat ſoluta, comedebat ſimilam ſyrupo violarum imprægnatam, ab omni ſpaſmorum acceſſione erat liber, ſiniſtra ſaltem oculi palpebra ſimul cum dextra non levabatur, quoniam tonus illam magis quam alteram deſtituerat. Pulſus interea & in rythmo factus erat æqualis, & ſine pauſa continuus magis celer potius & frequens, imò verminoſus. Caput hinc etiam magis calebat & manuum volæ. Præſumebam poſſe febriles motus continuos, convulſivos ſolvere & excipere, qualem caſum in propriis meis liberis aliquando habueram, ſuaſi hinc ut Clyſter injiceretur, quod etiam factum erat. Parentes aliquâ ſpe melioris eventus lactati, cubitum ibant ſecurius. Mane inſequente die duodecimi Decembris inter ſextam & ſeptimam, iterum immutabatur univerſus hujus patientis ſtatus, omnesque, quibus intererat, ex plumis advolabant ubi demum verum, emortualem, ſtertentem puer ducebat Spiritum, eique reddebat inter fuſas ad DEum preces, qui dederat.

Epicriſis.

In vero Capitis Clavo Hypochondriaco magnus ſymptomatum offenditur ſymbolismus cum tali infantum meſenterica tetanode convulſione. Utrinque conſpirant Hypochondria cum Meningibus. Quò magis inferiora excretoria præcluduntur ſpaſticè, eò major eſt regurgitatio ad ſuperiora, qua partes tenduntur & extenduntur ſenſibilius. Quantum incarcerati flatus hanc tragœdiam augeant, ipſa morborum hiſtohiſtoria benè obſervata loquitur. Quod in infantibus Natura ad convulſiones faciliùs devolvatur quàm in adultis, ipſius unicæ magis ad vitalia attentioni vigili & hinc valdè ſenſili, imputandum eſt. Quod ceterum Eſſentiam dulcem attinet, fateor, me diu ex quodam inſuperabili præjudicio hæſitaſſe, antequam aliquam in ipſam fiduciam ponere potuerim. Demum vicit cupido tentandi monſtrum illud horrendum præjudicii, quod totum faſcinat mundum, illamque aliquoties in caſibus deploratis, & ubi officinalium pretioſiſſima nos deſtituunt præparata, exhibui cum ſingulari efficacia. Prolixum foret Exempla hic allegare. Id ſaltem breviſſimis dicam, dictam Eſſentiam dulcem in affectibus, quæ deſtitutionem à Tono pro fundamento habent, mira præſtare, ad quæ nunc accedit, quod etiam valeat Toni protervas exacerbationes compeſcere. Adeoque Remedium eſt, quod ſanis exhibendum non eſt, qui ejus efficaciam eludunt, ſed debilibus & verè ægrotis, nec promiſcuè omnibus & ſingulis, ſed illis, quos ordinaria remedia deſtituunt.

Experimentum circa Podagram cum Nephritide.

LAc, natura omnibus deſtinatum alimentum, ſalutare promittit quoque medicamentum: partibus ſanis alendis cùm ſit aptum, ægrotantibus quoque reficiendis erit idoneum. Succum præbet mitem, naturæ gratum, balſamicum, nulli non acceptum, niſi organum guſtus vitiarit lautitiis, ſaporibus, qui ſeculi mos eſt, multifariis & irritamentis pravam conſuetudinem contraxerit.

Lactis

Lactis beneficium cùm in aliis, cum viris Celeberrimis, tum in meipso expertus sum proprio experimento, quod cum aliis communicare publici interesse putavi.

Medicus septuaginta annorum, natus parente podagrico, matre nephritica, non multos, si vis, nullos commisi excessus, studiis addictus, à juventute integra usus sum valetudine; itinera per Germaniam, Galliam, Angliam atque Bataviam studia secutus, bene tuli. Primordia nephritidis sensi anno ætatis vigesimo quarto Parisiis, ubi multum sabuli flavi minxi ac tenuis, postea crassioris, cùm aliàs, tum præsertim quando bibi meracius. Provectior ætate lapillos genui in renibus & excrevi majusculos cum solitis doloribus, præsertim à potu vini albi, Rhenani, Mosellani, Nicrini, multiplici experientia edoctus.

Annum quinquagesimum supergressus podagræ quoque insultus sensi primùm ex pedis dextri radice pollicis; abhinc sinistri; postea genua incessit; inde manus, cubitos humerosque; collum denique & nullam non partem variè afflixit, per intervalla primò longiora, postea breviora, & me muneri obeundo tantùm non inhabilem reddidit; quin interiora identidem affici, stomachum præsertim, timidè sensi. Paroxysmum podagricum plerumque excepit nephriticus, quo calculum excluſi, & fere nunquam non sabulum cum urina reddidi, futuri paroxysmi nuntia. Varia tentavi, nec sine successu. Tandem verò metu graviorum cogitatio subiit de lacte, communi podagricorum, quos intemperies gulæ non subjugavit, solatio. Post multas difficultates nostro seculo insuperabiles vicit tandem amor sanitatis tam propriæ, quam proximi; indignum ratus medico, nemini prodesse & pane vesci, ceu inutile terræ pondus.

Auspicatus sum curam lactis mense Aprili anni quem agimus MDCCXXIII. cum bono Deo & continuavi hucusque XXV. Octobr. quo hæc scribo eo cum successu, ut ab eo tempore neque podagræ, neque nephritidis dolores senserim, qui ante immunis nunquam penitus fui. Appeto ; digero citra moleſtiam ; non ſitio ; egero debito : & quod mirum eſt, ne micam quidem ſabuli ab omni tempore video ; nec hæmorrhoides , quas antehac habui ; dormio bene ; pulſum quem olim habui celerem , nunc tardum , plenum & fortem percipio ; habitus corporis augeſcit , & vires creſcunt ; verbo : integra per Dei gratiam nunc fruor valetudine ; melius quoque ambulo , pedibus manibusque utor , niſi quod partes affectæ ad eam integritatem hactenus quidem non redierint atque robur , quod ante magnum habui , ad actiones peragendas. Quæ quidem bona , Deo benedicente , lacti debeo. Cujus vaccini recens mulcti mane ℔j. circiter haurio ; loco prandii tantundem cum ſimila cocti comedo ; poſtea bibo lactis non calefacti ℔iß. circiter ; hora octava loco cœnæ iterum lactis cum ſimila cocti ℔j. plus minus comedo , & iturus cubitum ℔ß. bibo , cætera contentus nec comedo nec aliud quicquam à ſex menſibus bibo , nec ulla me lubido capit aliis accumbentem , dulci valetudinis fructu contentum. Natura certe paucis contenta , quæ ordinavit. Hæc obſervatio , ut & aliis proſpere eveniat , votorum eſt alterum.

Unum, quod nuper obtigit, innumeris addere liceat experimentis, unde veritas fortè aut falſitas opinionum diluceſcat.

Hebræa viginti quatuor annorum non invenuſta, capillis flavis, facie roſea, ſtatura pumila, à ſeptem annis maritata, duos peperit infantes. Urina rubra, pauca, craſſa, frigore turbata cum ſedimento ſimili, lateritio; abhinc ſine febri diem unum fuit; quarto paroxyſmus, duosque conſecutive dies, uti ante rediit. Quod autem ægram cum propinquis angebat quam maximè, fuit tumor hydropicus ingens, qui crevit & lumbos jam ſuperavit; noctu propter ſpirandi difficultatem, è lecto ad captandum aërem ſeſe proripere coacta fuit. Varii varia, uti pilulas de ammoniaco, millepedum quoque uſum ſuaſere, citra profectum. OBSERVATIO CXXIX.

DN. D. JOHANNIS ADAMI LIMPRECHTI.

Hiſtoria Graminis abſciſſi, radice in loco natali relictâ, filo in faſciculum colligati, in hypocauſto calido, inverſo modo ſuſpenſi, omni aquâ & terrâ deſtituti, media hyeme augmentum capientis.

DEcennium abiit, ex quo Neo-Angermundæ in Marchiâ Uckeranâ, tempore hyemali, in hypocauſto calido Dn. Mülleri Senioris, Pharmacopæi & poſtea Conſulis Oppidi in his oris quondam Celebris, ante ſexennium circiter è viventium numero erepti, conſpiciebam ex ſuperiora ſpeculi parte aliquid pendere ad figuram accedens plumarum quibus Nobiles & militiæ dediti Officiales pileos ſuos olim ornare conſueverunt, de quo mihi referebatur: moris eſſe ibidem ut ex Freyenwaldenſi fonte ſalutifero quatuor Milliaribus Neo-Angermündâ diſtante, tale quid reportarent. Hoc quotidiè obſervabam magis magisque ſeſe explicare, ita ut inverſo etiam modo ſuſpenſum, nec loco ſuo remotum, absque ulla humiditate mediâ hyeme augmentaretur.

Res mihi videbatur ulteriore inquiſitione digna, quare cum Academ. Noſtræ Præſide DN. LUCA SCHROEKIO eam communicabam, 1714. die 6. Dec. qui anno ſeq. die ſeptimo Januarii mihi ita reſpondebat. De Gramine ſine radice per dimidium anni ſpatium & ulterius ſuſpenſo, nihilominus tamen incrementum capiente nihil mihi innotuit. Cum is vero ſequente anno die nono Julii occaſionem commodam indicaſſet, ex Nundinis Francofurti ad Viadrum celebratis, menſe Novembre, eodem adhuc anno, illud ipſi transmiſi, ſed non eodem anno à loco ſuo natali erat ſeparatum, hinc in Epiſtola meâ addidi, de ejus incremento ulteriore me quodammodo dubitare, quare aliud ejusdem exemplar 1717. menſe Julio tempore Vernali anni jam memorati radice in terrâ relictâ, abscissi, oculis ejus curiosis exposui.

Postmodum, nescio quo fato, commercium nostrum litterarium aliquandiu fuit interruptum, usque dum litteræ ejus die 16 Maji 1720. Augustæ Vindelicorum scriptæ ad manus meas pervenerint, in quibus hæc verba continentur: Nescio an ultimas meas die 16. April 1717. exaratas acceperis, in quibus de Gramine illo plumoso mentem meam aperueram. Gramen illud tum noviter collectum examini à me studiosè expositum, germinationem & incrementum in hyeme & alio tempore oculis non exhibuit.

Respondi: Litteras ejus die 16. April 1717. ad me datas, me nondum vidisse, ligaturam graminis de novo missi paulo firmiorem, si non alio modo in itinere longiore læsam, in causa forsan fuisse, cur augmentum ejus percipi non potuerit. Ille vero in litteris die 19. Junii 1721. sequentia regerit: De Graminis Plumosi augmento nihil habeo quod judicem, cum experimentum in eo prorsus arefacto repetitum non successerit, & ita tuam vel aliorum, qui ex oculari accurata inspectione rem melius perquirens sententiam percipere malim. Quæ de Gramine hoc Anno 1717. mense April scripsi, cum litteras istas in via periisse ex tuis perspiciam, repetere hic juvat: In Theatri Botanici l. 1. sect. 16. à Bauhino Gramen sparteum pennatum appellatur, eleganter describitur ac delineatur, meliusque quàm à Car. Clusio in Histor. Plant. qui illud Spartum Austriacum pennatum vocat. Memini etiam circa Urbem Jenensem inveniri, loci tamen specialis non amplius recordor.

Dum hæc inter nos tractantur, aperitur mihi occasio perveniendi in Notitiam Inspectoris Regii Fontis Freyenwaldensis, Nobilissi. & Experientissi. Dn. Doct. Gohlii cum quo Berolini oretenus de hoc gramine multa prolixè confero, qui aliis intentus hucusque de eo non multum fuerat sollicitus, cum vero ulteriorem ejus investigationem in litteris die 22. Aug. 1721.

Freyenwaldam ad ipſum miſſis rem urgerem, & in ſpecie curioſitati ſuæ exponerem: Jam exactè inquirente eſſe, an Ramuſculi graminis tantummodo expandantur, an vero vili ejus laterales in longum & latum creſcant, an utrumque fiat, & omnes ejus partes præcipuæ apices longitudine ſua augeantur, me enim percepiſſe de augmento graminis cum Baineatum Freyenwaldenſium Præparatore Regio & alijs illud fuiſſe confirmatum, ipſique retuliſſem Experimentum Auguſtæ Vindelicorum non ſucceſſiſſe: Momentum reſeriebit die 17. Sept. ejusdem anni attendendum eſſe collectionis hujus granulis, ſi quis velit præſenſum augmentum & incrementum etiam evulſi aridi graminis ſuſpenſi obſervare, nempe tempus quo florere incipiat, ita enim perhibent, ſucceſſu temporis hyberni explicari ſua ſponte magis granulas iſtas, quæ ſtatum floriditatis ejus conſtituunt. Tantum habeo (ſcribit ulterius de hac materia) quod de gramine plumoſo vel pennato de præſenti certificare poſſim, ſi Deus ſtatum concedat, non dubito quin gramen illud accuratius attendam per ſingula ortus & occaſus ſui tempora & ſic certiores ſemus de ipſo vera natura.

Penultimo Septembr. 1721. prænominato Dno Doct. Gohlio ſequentia ſignificanda duxi ſecularia: Ill. Academ. noſtræ Præſidi paucas quasdam graminis hujus miſi particulas, quæ ex convolutis foliis facilè extrahi poterant, in ſubtile acumen aſſurgentes, inferius ubi foliis aſtrictus circumdantur, plumula ornatas in qua ſemen contineri judicarem, niſi inverſo naturæ ordine in inferiore culmi parte illam ſeminis thecam obſervaſſem. In ea tamen ſeminis quoddam analogum inveniri mihi videtur, quod verno tempore, ſi Deus vitam & vires conceſſerit terræ committi curabo, & ut Auguſtæ Vindelicorum hoc etiam fiat deſiderari, expectaturus ulteriora Nova Obſervationibus noſtris occurrentia.

Sequente anno die 10. Julii plura de hoc ſubjecto cum ipſo confluniso & primo quidem communicatorem ſententiæ Magnif. noſtri Præſidis quam his expoſui verbis: De Gramine Plumoſo quæ Nobiliſſ. Dn. D. Gohlius ſcribit, (indicaveram enim Dno Præſidi, ea, quæ Dn. Gohlius de eo ad me ſcripſerat) majorem nonnihil explicationem ſuppeditat atque momentum collectionis tam ſtudiosè obſervandum conjecturam parit, remanentes aliquas ſucci particulas in gramine recenter, ante ſtatum floriditatis collecto ſupereſſe, quæ deinde augmentum illud efficere queunt, quod ſanè ulterior veſtra inquiſitio dubio procul oſtendet, mihi ob arefactum planè quod miſiſti ſpecimen nihil obſervare licuit. Cæterum accuratam hujus graminis deſcriptionem Joh. Scheuchzerus in ſua Agroſtographia 1719. Tiguri edita exhibuit, ex qua fortaſſe Phænomeni hujus explicatio haberi poſſet. Semen in miſſis glumulis nullum invenire potui. Hæc ille: Secundò ſubjungo quæ ego Berolini obſervavi in arido gramine à Te accepto, relicta in terra radice, poſt elapſum efflorescentiæ ejus ſtatum abſciſſo. Hoc in faſciculum filo colligavi & ſpeculo in hypocauſto meo eo modo ſuſpendi ut ſuprema ejus pars pavimentum ſeu terram verſus ſpectaret, ſic foliaceum tegmen, à quo cauliculus undique tegebatur, imò firmiſſimè cum eo cohærebat, ita ut conjunctim ſtramen firmiter judicaſſes, qua figura, eo, quo hæc ſcribo, tempore ſubligatum adhuc conſpicitur, ſine ullo movente externo ſenſim ſeſe aperuit, & tractu temporis Ariſtam tenuiſſimam, digiti longitudine, in apricum protulit. Tales ariſtas quasdam cum aliquali labore primùm extrahebam, poſtea foliaceo illo tegmine magis magisque ſeſe explicante, faciliore ſubinde negotio plures acquirebam. Faſciculum earum ulterius examinandum præſentibus offero.

Obſervabis in altera parte ariſtæ, quæ inferior eſt, tuberculum quoddam oblongum, quod grani thecam tamdiu nominabo, usque dum experientia, aut propria, aut aliena ſemen in illo nullum contineri, licet ſit tenuiſſimum, & vix ac ne vix quidem grani nomen mereatur, me docuerit. Extremitas tuberculi hujus inſtar floſculi Typhæ apparet, (wie ein ein klein Maß-Kölblein,) raceo, quod in hujus extremitatis fine, ſi diligentius eam aſpexeris, oculis tuis ſeſe oſtenſurum ſit quoddam quaſi lanuginoſum album in pappulos forſan cum tempore, ſi rectè hariolor, abiturum.

Nondum deſino de hiſce ariſtis modo dicto formatis ſingularia Tecum communicare obſervata. Has primò extraxi in lineam rectam ſeſe extendentes, poſtquam autem in faſciculum qualem Tibi transmitto, colligatas clavo alicui ferreo mediante filo appendi, exacto paucorum dierum ſpatio, ſuapte natura in teneriore ejus parte, quæ ſuprema eſt, incurvatas conſpexi & longitudine ſua quodammodo auctas. Magis mirum de Ariſtis iſtis Tibi aperiam: Præterito menſe Aprilis in medio faſciculi magni inverſo modo ſpeculo meo appenſi innumeras ferè ejusmodi ariſtas, quas non ſine labore aliquo prima vice extraxeram, rejecto velamine foliaceo quod ſuperius tegmen vocabam, naturali quaſi inſtinctu in publicum prodire avidas, in transverſum jacentes inveni integras & prædictæ longitudinis rectilineares cum tempore circa partem ſuam tenuem, magis magisque criſpandas.

Vix elapſo menſtruo ſpatio die ſc. nono Auguſti obſervationes ſuas ex loco graminis hujus natali Freyenwalda Berolinum mihi transmittit Nobil Dn. D. Gohlius quæ ita ſonant: Quæ porro circa gramen plumoſum notaverim hæc habes: Statim ac fontem (Freywaldenſem ſc.) ſub finem Maji acceſſi, per Balneatricem vetulam manipulum graminis recenter abſciſſi, mihi aſportari curavi, quem nunc florentem eſſe vetula aſſerebat. Per flores autem intelligebat ſeminium illud caudatum, nunc plumulis ornatum quod colligavi in minutum quendam faſciculum quem nunc accipe. Quod ſi oblongam illam portiunculam, ex qua cauda illa crinita procedit, maſticando examinas, nucleum in meditullio reperies, adeoque veram indolem alicujus ſeminis. Adeoque non capio quomodo ſemen ſit ante florem, aut illud plumoſum non debeat vocari flos. Porro: Elapſo anno ſub finem Auguſti idem gramen plumoſum ab eadem vetula mihi aſportari curavi, & hærebat in folliculis gramineis idem illud ſemen caudatum, ſed omni lanugine aut plumulis deſtitutum prout Tibi probam ejus hujus anni transmitto. Ubi oblongam illam baſin pro ſemine reputatam, maſticatum etiam tunc nucleum intus contentum diſtinctè comprehendebam. Quid hoc ſibi vult in eodem gramine hæret ſub æſtatis tempus ſeminium plumoſum, ſub autumni & hyemis tempus autem ſeminium idem glabrum? Nec obſervo qui illud caudatum ſeminium vertus hyemem ſuas plumulas cadere faciat ut ſic fieret glabrum, nam quæ hic vides in faſciculum collecta per æſtatem pependerunt. Ferculum Magicum.

PUer annorum quatuordecim per aliquot septimanarum spatium male habens, nec semper mente sibi benè constans, albos, breves latosque excernere incipiebat vermiculos, convellebantur & distorquebantur miserè artus, imo capiti insistens elatis in altum pedibus subitò obrigescebat instar ligni. Pater hujus ægroti Medicum adiens ex ipso informari cupiebat, anne hicce filii sui morbus naturalis curabilisque ipsi videatur, aut non, suspicari enim, à persona non adeo bonæ famæ datum quid fuisse in pastu, quod causa jam sit hujus tragœdiæ. Responsum accepit, affectum esse convulsivum, omniaque relata symptomata facili negotio à rebus planè naturalibus posse habere originem, difficulter admodum decidi, an suspecti quid lateat, insuper non omnem recuperandæ salutis spem deesse. Octiduo elapso redit pater afferens secum varias lacinias, acus, clavos, stupam, confractæ ollæ figulinæ testulas plures, indicans, omnes hasce reculas per triduum eructâsse puerum, jam nec loqui, nec stare, nec ambulare, nec mingere posse, difficulter quoque audire, intelligere tamen quæ cum ipso loquantur præsentes. Accepit relator pro usu externo suffimigia, pro interno, Oleum hyperici compositum, æger autem ab ipso medico circa vesperam visitatus ad varias formatas quæstiones ne voculam regerere valebat, omni quidem conatu tentabat responsum extorquere, sed utplurimum frustra, interdum autem accidebat, ut post magnum nisum aliquot verbula pronunciaret, sed corrupta & difficulter intelligibilia. Post brevem moram incipiebat aliquot vicibus retro caput ad fenestras flectere, os valdè diducere, & similiter agere, ac si ore aliquid acciperet & manducaret, longè tamen aliter, ac si revera ederet. Præsenti medico adstantibusque quærentibus: Quid ederet? an bonum ferculum? quis illi daret? & ubinam esset illa persona? tandem hoc responsi balbutivit, Knöpfflein, Gut, Weib da, digitis ad fenestram monstrans. Disuadebatur esus globulorum, perseveranter autem defendebat æger sapidam illorum bonitatem. Absoluta mirabili hac cœna denuò interrogabatur, ubinam esset ista fœmina, quæ nodulos asportâsset? & undiquaque circumspiciens per signa illius abitum significabat. Elapsa semihorulâ, cùm lecto se paululum dedisset, impatienter se jectigare valdeque malè habere cœpit, donec post crebras eructationes multum straminis semimanducati & saliva madidi violenter removeret. Denuò sub variis hortationibus serioque esus nodulorum interdicebatur, imò parentes instruebantur, ut ipsi vel vi os manibus comprimerent, & invito quoque doses aliquot supramemorati Ol. hyperic. comp. ingererent, haud neglectis vegetabilibus aliis externis, sine superstitionis macula alias usurpari solitis. Dum hæc agebantur, fastidire incipiebat suos globulos, imo alios quoque cibos, anxiè & unicè desiderans præsentiam fœmiæ, quæ ferculum ipsi primitus asportâsset. Molestum ægri petitum parentes tandem Decano & Præfecto Urbis vicinæ patefaciebant, qui nominatam à patiente, & alias quoque admodum suspectam mulierem statim in locum habitationis ægri deduci jubent, qua conspecta, puer mutilata voce gestibusque significavit, hanc esse suam coquam, quam adoriri quidem appetebat, ob impotentiam ambulandi autem nequibat, adductus verò propius, oculis scintillantibus oreque spumante aggrediebatur illam, unguibus faciem lacerabat, imò adstantis cujusdam gladium prehendens transfodere volebat; retracto autem ab hac violentia suggerebat quidam, ut ternis vicibus propter per DEum veneficæ hujus implorare auxilium, id quod etiam pro viribus præstabat; hoc facto, dum illa tam vehementer instantem manibus quasi retentura, in collo & pectore contrectat, statim articulare & facile loqui incipit æger. Hæc intuens miles quidam Veteranus, sub vehementissimis commirationibus cogit ventilam, ut, licet maxime invita, & inter solennissimas protestationes singulos pueri artus tangere & demulcere, tam mirabili cum eventu, ut pars una post alteram, uti ordine illas tangeret, cum omnium admiratione summa quæ in momento suo vigori pristino restituerentur, sic ut æger ingrum loqui, audire, ambulare, stare & urinam reddere sine difficultate posset, imò statim cum aliis pueris in platea discurrebat, ut vix quisquam credibilet, in tam misero illum statu paulò antea degisse. Dedecus sequenti die in urbem vicinam de levi conquerebatur lassitudine, visus aliquali defectu, & quod nonnunquam adhuc vermiculi ex ore proreperent, & quod antrorsum se inclinare nequeat. Hæc audiens fupra dictus miles denuo puerum ad mulierem inimicam ducit illamque cogit, ut ægri quoque dorsum tangeret, oculos palparet, & digitis delineret, unde & hæ pensius evanuerunt molestiæ, & milellus hic pristinæ suæ sanitati optime fuit restitutus. Cætera conficiebatur postea puer, ventulam hanc folummodo per tres illos dies, in quibus varia illa rejecerit, ipsum adiisse & probibuisse, ut a nemine, nisi ab ipsa sola, quicquam cibi caperet, imò nec interna nec externa medicamenta, cujuscunque sint generis, admitteret, unde herbas quoque illas antimagicas lecto clam subditas quæriverit, inventasque statim rejecerit. PUer IV. annorum variolis confluentibus anno MDCCXXIII. menſe Decembri laborans, circa diem morbi decimum, poſtquam in facie variolas pure turgidas ſcalpendo aperuit & unguibus digitorum abſtulit, atque ita debitam ſuppurationem & exſiccationem puſtularum impedivit, largius urinam limpidam excernere cœpit, ac plus quam potulentorum ac juſculorum quotidie aſſumerat, per vias urinarias emittere ſeri limpidi inſipidi ac inodori, cum magna ſiti, inquietudine & æſtu febrili, accedente tandem alvi fluxu ex potulentorum copia. Pulſus fuit celer, frequens & magnus, ſatisque æqualis. Datum pro potu emulſum amygdalarum dulcium, quod vehiculum quoque fuit pulveris pannonici rubri cum Bezoartico Sennerti & gummi Arabico mane atque veſperi cuſpidatim exhibiti, quibus medicamentis alvi quidem fluxus paulatim diminutus, ſed urina die morbi duodecimo, ad menſuram unam cum dimidia, licet vix tres libras emulſi & juſculorum per viginti quatuor horas aſſumſerit, excreta fuit, die verò decimo tertio ad menſuram unam, die decimo quarto ad libras tres, die decimo quinto ad ℔ij. ceſſante tunc diarrhæa, & ſiti diminuta, appetitu verò ciborum ſenſim redeunte, puſtulisque decidentibus; die morbi XVI. alvus obſtructa fuit, Urina pauca & flaveſcens, pulſusque bonus. Conſimilis diabetes in puero VI. circiter annorum ex morbillis decumbente, in ſtatu morbi poſt potulentorum aquoſorum abuſum obſervata à me fuit & emulſo amygdalarum dulcium cum pulveribus abſorbentibus & diaphoreticis mitioribus ſæpius exhibito ſublata.

Mors repentina ex ſubitanea profuſione ſanguinis in cavum thoracis.

INter varios eosque ſubitaneos ac ſæpè lethales morbos qui præterito autumno anni MDCCXXIII. & ſequente hyeme in Palatinatu à Medicis obſervati fuerunt, notatu dignus mihi videtur ille, qui menſe Novembri Heidelbergæ accidit: Miles 50. circiter annorum, plethoricus & athletici corporis habitus, poſt meridiem tabernam vinariam cum nubili puella, quam ſuam ſponſam vocabat, adiit, ibique cum ea ſaltando vinumque bibendo ita incaluit, ut dum adſtanti cuidam poculum amicitiæ propinavit ſubito mortuus in terram decideret, nec ullum amplius vitæ ſignum præbuerit. Sequente die, diſſecto cadavere, viſcera abdominis apparebant ſana, in utroque verò pectoris cavo plusquam una ſanguinis extra ſua vaſa profuſi libra comparuit, adeo ut toti diphragmati tres ferè libræ ſanguinis coagulati incumberent. Aperto cranio vaſa ſanguifera ipſam calvariæ ſubſtantiam penetrantia ſolito magis diſtenta & varicoſa videbantur, ſinui quoque longitudinali inter duram matrem atque cranium inhærebant ſanguinis congrumati duo ferè cochlearia, ex ipſo verò cerebro diſſecto profluebat parum aquæ ſanguinolentæ, qualis etiam in ventriculis cerebri reperiebatur. Conſimilem ferè caſum militis ſubitanea morte defuncti ob repentinam ſanguinis profuſionem in pectoris cavum annotavit Experientiſſ. D. Zehnerus Med. Doct. Mannheimenſis, quem ſeqq. verbis deſcripſit: Apparitor quadragenarius ex legione Pyrevtarum, Ser. Elect. Palatini Spiritus vini potu ſæpius abutens, Mannhemii menſe Januario MDCCXXIV. malè ſibi eſſe ſentiens aſſumſit vomitorium pro primis viis expurgandis bono cum effectu.

Elapſis autem quinque diebus pomeridiano tempore menſæ aſſidens præter opinionem uxori ſuæ conquerebatur tam malè ſeſe habere, ut verbis illud exprimere nequeat. Hæc ob metum imminentis forſan animi deliquii Chirurgum caſtrenſem, ut venam ſecet, accerſere voluit, ſed à marito impediebatur reſpondente nondum eo perventum eſſe, ut extremum id remedii genus arripiatur. Vix autem hæc verba protulit cum ſubito toto corpore & collapſa facie impalluit, paucisque momentis poſt brachia verſus uxorem extendendo vitam cum morte commutavit. Sequente die prædictæ Legionis Dux cauſam repentini hujus obitus ſcire voluit & cadaver aperiri juſſit, quo facto in thorace obſervatus pulmo haud parum infarctus & ſemicorruptus, dexterque ejus lobus in parte laterali pleuræ firmiter adhærens, inferius autem diaphragmati firmiſſimè connexus, ita ut ſine vi inde ſeparari non potuerit, præterea in ſiniſtro thoracis cavo ſanguis apparenter ex pulmone profuſus & concretus ſedecim ferè unciarum inventus. In cordis quoque dextro ventriculo, præter inſignem ſanguinis grumoſi copiam, quatuor notabiles & diſtincti polypi lateralibus ſuis filamentis interioribus cordis columnis tenaciter adhærentes, extremisque ramulis in vicina vaſa ſanguifera majora cordis protenſi fuerunt reperti. In ſiniſtro autem ventriculo nihil horum deprehenſum. Abdominis viſcera erant ſine labe, præter renes, qui ambo jam corrupti viſi, ita quidem ut ad duriorem digitorum attactum quodammodo diffluxerint, cujus cauſam indicabat membrum virile puſtulis venereis infectum.

infortunatus etiam ebibit, cum maximo ſui detrimento. Nam vix horæ ſpatium tranſiit, cardialgia angi cœpit, cum tali anxietate, ut vix ac ne vix quidem, aliquid vitæ ſupereſſe crederet; hanc inſequebantur vomitus enormes, ſæpeque inanes, aliquando vero, aliquid muci velut bilioſi, efferentes, cum ſumma virium debilitatione. Hæc ſymptomata, ſequenti die, excepit delirium, veluti furioſum, ut laqueis coërceri, intoxicatus debuerit, cum univerſi corporis tumeſcentia. His itaque, cum per tres dies, miſer colluctaſſet, tandem conſilii cauſa, ad me venerunt, petentes, ut quocumque auxilio, miſero ad eſſem. Relata igitur bene perpendens, ſtatim judicavi, rem eſſe periculi plenam, hinc quid actu opus ſit, non diu deliberandum eſſe exiſtimavi, præcipue cum & inſipiens æger, de cardialgia & dolore urente, in ventriculo, querelas, funderet, juſſique ut bonam quantitatem, quantumque potuerit Olei olivarum, vel Lini, epotaret, quod etiam fecit, nullo tamen inſequente vomitu, hinc ſequenti die vomitorium, ex Rad. Non decurrebat medius Annus, à quo hic caſus fuerat notatus, rurſus ejusdem farinæ alter, obſervabatur, in juvene itidem ruſtico, ex Pago Veterna-Poruba dicto, qui etiam ex hauſto ſanguine menſtruo, cum cereviſia bene lupulata, pro more hujus Comitatus conſueto, in pleraque hæc, incidit ſymptomata, graviora autem illa, uti & delilirium, non ita erant intenſa, nec ullus corporis tumor, apparebat. Cauſa autem, quod ſymptomata, non in eo afflixerint miſerculum gradu, celeriori medicationi adſcribenda eſt. Nam primo ac cardialgia angi, atque vomere cœperit, illico etiam auxilium petebatur, quod etiam, prout priori caſu enarratum eſt, confeſtim extradebatur, ne ſymptomata graviora, accederent, hominemque vitæ periculo, exponerent, aut uſu rationis ſpoliarent, hinc etiam factum, quod non tam graviter, decumberet, ſed ad tertiam morbi diem, ferè ſanus, ex DEI, O. Ad hunc Aldrovandi locum magis dilucidandum addo: Murem noſtrum alatum, quem tamen, ut Poëta Patriâ Sulmonenſis canit, pluma non levat, aptius dici Fladdermaus quàm à multis Germaniæ ſuperioris incolis Fledermaus.

Germanis enim Maus idem eſt ac Latinis Mus; fladderen vero ſonum obſcurum ex motu alarum ſæpius repetito ortum ſignificat, qui aliquando in compoſitione alarum ad volandum in aliis avibus, aliquando in volatu meticuloſo, qui veſpertilionibus, adſcribitur, obſervatur. finem optatum, si non per varias ambages vix ac ne vix quidem obtineant, de quibus veré dici possit:

Pluribus intentus minor est ad singula sensus.

Hominem tali ingenio præditum Nationales mei Silesii Fasciculi Ephemeridum Germanicarum vocant, quasi dicas: spiritum sine præsentis rationis ductu hinc inde fere moventem & ut ebriis accidit ferè titubantem grestuque firmo ac stabili rarissime incedentem & res suas tractantem. Vox pladderen non Belgis tantum, sed & aliis Germanium inferiorem inhabitantibus populis in usu est, quando de avibus aquatilibus præcipuè majoribus loquuntur, quæ alis suis aquam verberantibus sonum edunt. Hunc Ruffisi in Silesia per verbum Platschieren exprimunt. Differentia vero inter voces pladderen & fladderen mihi esse videtur, quod dicenda voce priore aquatur quando aqua mediante inflammento qualicunque, & posteriore, quando aër, ut sonus edatur ille obscurus, ab avium alis agitatur. Caterum, quodsi in voce pladderen loco quartæ litteræ d ponatur littera w, legitur pladderen quod Germanis superioribus idem est ac garriire.

Jam ad Realia procedendum:

Anno post Christum natum 1714. die 10. Sept. vespertilionem marem mortuum sub arbore in horto meo inventum, cui cranium quodammodo læsum erat, filia mea nata minima offerebat, quem accuratius considerandum mihi tunc temporis proponebam.

Oculos animadvertebam minimos nigerrimi instar punctuli, qui mihi olim in culpis apparuerant, in anteriore autium radicis parte positos, unde Lusitani vespertilionem jure non possunt nominare lingua sua Morcego vel Murciegalo, i. e. Murem cœcum.

Aures in unoquoque latere videbantur binæ, sed videbantur, exteriores quæ vulgo Auriculæ dicuntur, de quibus in sequenti observatione prolixior ero & accuratior, quadruplo largiores & altiores interioribus.

Maxillæ dentibus minimis acutiſſimis & candidiſſimis repletæ erant, ex quibus præ cæteris eminebant canini dicti, inferior autem maxilla brevior ſuperiore, ambæ in parte antica roſtro ſuillo ſimiles, niſi quod in ſuperiore pili pauci longiores inſtar felis barbæ adeſſent.

Diducta utraque maxilla rictus apparebat amplus cui in exiguo hoc animalculo digitus minimus imponi, hinc lingua cum frenulo ſuo facilè conſpici, imò Os hyoides ad radicem linguæ poſium non difficulter tangi poterat.

Sutura Lambdoidalis hiabat, hinc occiput elatius ſingularis craſſitiei & duritiei in conſpectum veniebat.

Alarum ſubſtantia membranacea nos docet Italos Veſpertilioni inconvenienis dediſſe nomen eum nominantes Ratto pennugo vel penago, i e. Murem pennatum. Penis oculo noſtro ſeſe ſiſtebat longiſſimus, quodammodo exertus & in cadavere adhuc ferè rigidus.

De Interioribus ſemimuris viſceribus in Geſnero & Jonſtono nihil legitur. Aldrovandus æque ac Bellonius ſcribunt, eadem planè convenire cum muribus vulgaribus cum quibus & citatus de Muralto conſentit, niſi quod ex ſuo ſubjecto annotet

In meo subjecto corpusculum integrum in tabula anatomica expansum vix accedebat ad longitudinem dimidii digiti minimi exceptis capite & cauda.

Hepar sat magnum, pari modo ren dexter transversum in modum vertebris lumbaribus superimpositus, longè minor sinister qui circa regionem inguinalem inveniebatur.

Lienis magnitudo dimidia erat Parenchymatis hepatici, ventriculus contra exiguus & vacuus. Intestina septem vicibus tam longa quam totum vespertilionis corpusculum capite & cauda non mensuratis.

Cor quoque insigne, superabat ferè dimidiam hepatis magnitudinem ita ut propè integram thoracis cavitatem impleret & pulmones in posteriorem thoracis partem reprimeret quorum exigua portiuncula in sinistro ejus latere conspiciebatur.

Verum enim vero cum sequenti die in illud inquiro ut observationes inceptas continuare possem, spe mea fructatus, nil nisi alas ejus antecedente die tabulæ clavi culis infixas cum parte capitis postica cerebro & cerebello vacua reperio, nam mures vivi non alati, loco trepani dentibus usi crassum satis cranium perforaverunt ut contentis in eo appetitui inordinato suo satisfieri posset, postquam reliquas pectoris æque ac abdominis partes universas & singulas ita ut ne officulum quidem remanserit, Pica forsan laborantes devorassent.

OBSERVATIO CLVIII.

DN. D. ALEXANDRI CAMERARII.

Vulnus abdomen utrinque penetrans.

IN ultimo Ephemeridum tomo, Cent. sc. IX. Obs. LXX. descriptum legitur vulnus, abdomen utrinque penetrans, intra decem dies persanatum. Mihi priori anno casus obtigit analogus, quem proin exponere, & potiores ejusdem circumstantias paucis recensere, B. L. non ingratum fore confido.

Studiosus juvenis, corpore robustus & sanus, d. 13. Maj. 1723. à meridie cum sociis tibiam inflat, ad tres vini libras bibit, inde cœnatur, & abhinc hypocaustum petiturus suum vulneratur in abdomine supero, nec litigans cum adversario, nec causam ullam cum illo habens, imò ne gladio quidem cinctus suo. Nihilominus ab accepto ictu ambulat adhuc per ædes, advenienti hospiti, quid secum interea actum fuerit, exponit & Chirurgum quietus expectat. Hic venit cito, videt vulnusculum modò parvum, angustum, & indusium satis quidem cruentum, hæmorrhagiam tamen facilè sistendam, nec propriè largam, multò minus enormem. Audit etiam vulneratum alacriter loquentem, nec animo linquentem, nec de molestiis vel doloribus conquerentem. Hinc vulnus deligat de simplici & plano. Ex adstantibus verò aliquis observat maculam indusii cruentam in dorso quoque, &, alterum ibi vulnus esse reputans, chirurgum ejus rei certiorem facit. Hic, remoto indusio, terretur statim cùm videret, secundum hoc vulnusculum posticum primo antico correspondere, ensemque abdomen totum perforasse. Deligat tamen & hoc eadem ratione, maximè quòd hoc nec sanguinem funderet adeò copiosum, nec magnitudine priori accederet, quippe vix subduplum.

Inte-

Interim res Medico & Chirurgo videtur ſuſpecta, qui proin curæ ſocios ſibi eligunt me, cum chirurgo jurato Simonio, lithotomo & embryulco noſtrate. Vocamur uterque cùm jamjam nocteſceret, & accurrimus celeriter.

Deprehendi igitur vulneratum in lecto quidem jacentem, ſed mirum quàm thraſonico & jactabundo modo traducentem ac vilipendentem vulnus ſuum, nihil iſtud importare, nullum undique eſſe periculum. Inquietus erat in lecto, brachia huc illuc, ſurſum deorſum jectigans, vultu rubens, pulſum in utroque carpo plenum magnum offerens. Et cùm quietem ac tranquillam in lecto continentiam ipſi commendarem, loquax regerebat ſtatim, necdum omne vinum tranſpiraſſe. In medio autem hujus loquacitatis ſuæ & diſcurſus noſtri examinatorii, (in quo tamen nihil audivi, niſi unicam de ardoris ſenſu in loco vulneris, ſed tolerabili, querelam) ex improviſo ſeſe erigens, vomere cruenta incipit, benè largiter, facilè, cibis ſemicoctis vinoque permiſta, omnia tamen æqualiter rubentia, æſtimata ferè ad libras duas. Factum hoc ſine alteratione prævia notabili, absque deliquio, absque etiam ſingultu, qualem tamen modò unicum ante horulam audiviſſe voluit Medicus primùm vocatus. Et erigere ſtatim poſtea in lecto ſeſe potuit ad religationem & inſpectionem vulneris ægrotus.

Vulnus anticum igitur vel tandem vidi eſſe in ſiniſtro hypochondrio anteriori, diſtans tantum à papilla ſiniſtra quantum ab umbilico, ſed à linea recta ab utroque hoc extremo duci concipienda deflectens ſiniſtrorſum unius pollicis latitudine, penetrans in cavum abdominis proximè ſub cartilagine coſtæ decimæ. Anguſtum valdè, nec longum, nec latum, ſed reſpondens gladio acuto tereti, einer Stoß-Klinge, uti etiam punctim inflictum eſt. Promanabat ex illo paucus ſanguis fluxilis, & ſtylus ultra pollicis longitudinem adigi facilè poterat. Attactum æger ibidem ægrè tulit, de prius dicto ardoris ſenſu querulus. Nec in loco vulneris, nec alibi per abdomen quidquam tumoris erat. Nulla tussis aderat, respirandi difficultas nulla, nec inter respirationem concitatam, qualem ægro tum injunxerat Medicus alter, candelam ceream interim vulneri admovens, ullum prodeuntis aëris indicium.

Vulnus posticum, antico minus, subduplum ut dixi, prodibat in sinistro dorsi inferioris latere, digitos quatuor latos à medio ejusdem spinâ, sub costa ultima duodecima. Etiam ex hoc profluebat parum sanguinis. Etiam hoc admittebat stylum facilè in profundum.

Incisionem & ampliationem vulneris anterioris, quam primùm vocatus Medicus proposuerat, judicavi ego nec utilem nec necessariam, materiæ cuicunque evasum satis patulum esse & geminum, ad vomitum verò cruentum nihil ipsam penitus conferre, totus reputans. Unde utrumque vulnus, post geminam injectionem decocti travmatici (quod tum ad manus erat, ab altero Medico præscriptum) cum spiritu vini probè remixti, & intrusam turundam emplasticam, deligatum rursus fuit pro more.

Interea verò cùm vix absoluta esset hæc deligatio, vulneratus secundâ, & paulo post tertiâ vice vomit iterum cruenta, benè multa, multis grumis sanguini fluido & florido remixtis. Iterum sine deliquio. Non autem sine pulsu insigniter mutato. Qui enim priùs ante horulam magnus fuerat atque plenus, ut venæsectionem in pede ipsi decreverim, post deligationem & vulneris inspectionem administrandam, à primo statim vomitu cœpit imminui, languere & usque remittere, ut tandem non supereesset, nisi gracilis, debilis, obscurus. Cum facie non amplius turgidâ floridâ & rubicundâ, sed jam pallidâ, collapsâ, tantum non emortuali. Æger etiam non ita loquax amplius, ut antea, sed taciturnus, solicitus, dormire volens, imò somnum anxiè desiderans.

Venerunt ita tres isti vomitus intra unius horulæ spatium, bihorio ferè ab accepto ictu, laudati quidem à vulnerato, quòd evpluriam ipsi tulerint & remissionem anxietatis atque oppressionis sionis in pectore, quæ magna prius fuerit, etiamsi ne verbulo quidem mentionem ejus antea fecerat; sed suspecti admodum mihi æque ac adstantibus reliquis, qui, si per noctem ista quidem omnia continuaverint, ultima ægroto, fateor, imminere credidimus.

Nihilominus ex ancipiti hoc rerum statu divina Soteris Gratiâ servatus & liberatus mane d. 14. Maj. fertur noctem reliquam transegisse insomnem quidem & inquietam, absque tamen ulteriori vomitu; Urinam misisse citrinam naturalem, ad solvendam alvum surrexisse, sed frustra, quippe pedibus admodum infirmus atque genubus tremulus, proin ab Amico in lectum citò iterum deportandus. Cercè pulsum mihi, hora septima matutina ad deligandum venienti, offert non amplius debilem, gracilem, parvum, sed magnum rursus atque plenum; sub ipsa deligatione etiam erectus in lecto, & ab Amico sustentatus, diu sedet, omniaque feliciter sustinet, semper quidem imminere vomitum, adeoque properandum esse inquiens, nec tamen actu vomens, nec singultiens, nec ullum vel deliquii vel spasmi signum exhibens.

Et quid multa? Abhinc benè omnia procedunt. Vulnus utrumque circumcirca leviter intumescere, & laudabile pus fundere incipit. Abdomen nihil quidquam intumescit, nec tenditur. Ventris borborygmi audiuntur, ructibus atque flatibus liberè succedentibus; urina manet citrina, cum nube ad fundum demissa; alvus ordinatè solvitur, nec quidquam cruenti unquam exhibet; cibus & potus sapit; somnus naturalis est; nec præter leve modò caloris incrementum vespertinum, utique febris vulnerariæ indicium, quidquam habet de quo conqueratur vulneratus, intra 14. diem restitutus & plenè sanatus, ut valè universitati dicere & domum proficisci potuerit.

Therapiam si quis desiderat, illam similiter dabo paucis. Venæsectio, pedi primùm destinata, fuit iterum intermissa, ob intervenientes vomitus cruentos, & dictam pulsus mutationem adeò insignem; altero mane judicata abs me non amplius necessaria; instituta nihilominus postea, me inscio, demum à meridie in brachio. Enemata duo intra primum triduum salutariter applicata. Vulneri per siphonem injecta, ægro etiam aliquoties cochlearim propinata, aqua sclopetaria. Diæta ordinata tenuis gelatinosa. Internè verò dati ægro pulvisculi ex nitro, gummi arabico, coralliis rubris, margaritis, ab initio non sine grano camphoræ; per diem cochlearim mixtura ex aquis leniter diapnoicis cum confect. alkermes & pulv. pannonico; ad sorbillandum quoque infusum theiforme ex agrimonia, sanicula, hyperico, veronica, betonica &c. ad noctes denique alternas modo tres pilulæ theriacæ cœlestis, modò emulsio amygdal. dulc. cum sem. melon. &c. Cæterùm turundæ concessus utique locus fuit, secus ac in observ. annotatum est, ut apertum diutius servaretur utrumque vulnus, & procuraretur exitus non modò liquori per siphonem parcè injecto, sed & puri, aut collecto intus liquaminicuicunque.

Quid hic intus sauciatum vulneratumque fuerit, aut quanam iste vomitus cruentus ratione venerit, disputari equidem prolixè posset. Dabitur forsan occasio dicendi de hoc quædam alibi. Hic modo claudam verbis Ill. Hoffmanni, qui in suo de Fato Phys. & Med. schediasmate: „ Peculiarem planè, inquit, „ DEI providentiam atque directionem in graviter vulneratis „ frequentius observare & admirari licet; dum in exemplis „ nobis aliquoties hic loci fuit, quosdam gladio perfossos fuisse „ iis in locis, quæ partes vitali corporis conservationi immediatè servientes custodiunt, illæsis iisdem manentibus, adeò, „ ut exquisitissima partium earumque situs notitia instructus, „ vix destinata opera tam innoxiè telum tra- „ jicere potuisset.

Cùm verò in ſeptimanam modò quartam durarent iſta, ex improviſo inter legendum, circa ipſam meridiem, mirator muſculam ſuam, quæ parva prius nihil ferè hactenus ipſi faſceſſerat moleſtiæ, augeri ſimul & ſemel, ad magnitudinem phaſeoli, prorſus nigri, circumcirca tamen quaſi nube quadam cinctâ clariore, quo ipſo proin literas multas obvelavit, atque viſum ferè omnem iſti oculo intercepit.

Cùm & hæc moleſtia duraſſet per duas ſeptimanas, neque tamen lumen omne iſti oculo ademiſſet, quin legere adhuc isto potuerit utcunque, tandem, simili veloci modo, iterum quasi nihil cogitantem invasit & sinistrum ipsius oculum occupavit nigredo major atque tenebricositas tanta, ut legere amplius vel personam agnoscere, colorevve isto oculo discernere non potuerit, lucis modo atque tenebrarum vicissitudines valens distinguere.

Ira constituras me demum consuluit, atque super variis circumstantias quæsitus seqq. superaddidit: Nullam prorsus causam esse sibi cognitam; Lucubrationes istas non æque fuisse nimias, ad horam modò noctis decimam vel undecimam, rarò ultra, protractas; Nihil constare sibi de ficpata feabie, nihil de emanente vel suppressa narium hæmorrhagia, de catarrhis nihil. Ebriositatem omni modò declinavit, & contra non excessus saltim sed actus omnes venereos & lascivos solenniter protestatus, victu autem semper usus est laudabili, cum reliquis sodalibus eodem, quibus tamen nulla unquam de visus hebetudine querela fuit. Nunquam quidquam in dextro oculo fuisse observatum, sed mansisse huic pristinam visus aciem; nec ex sinistro lachrymas stillare, nec ullum cujuscunque morbi alterius indicium sibi notum esse.

Hisce ita perceptis, tandem oculos etiam inspexi ipsos, & deprehendi, nullum prorsus in affecto sinistro comparere vitium, nisi quòd pupilla ejusdem altera dextri oculi sit paulò amplior: de reliquo utrumque eadem exhibere phænomena, dilatari in tenebris, stringi ad lucem, referre intuentis imaginem.

Reliquum diei nondum quidem de hac visus claritate participare, neque tamen pristinam caliginem superesse. DN. D. ALEXANDRI CAMERARII.

Hydrops Saccatus.

QUod in disputationum academicarum primâ, sub præsidio Parentis Desideratissimi quondam habita, pronunciavi de hydropis specie saccata; scil. illam, dum adhuc est in fieri, plerumque difficulter admodum agnosci, quando autem inveterata & radicata est, adhuc difficilius curari, id experientia non simplici interea edoctus fui. Dabo utriusque specimen ex anatomia practica, quod hoc ipso demum labente anno mihi suppeditavit gemina fœminini cadaveris sectio.

Scil. Obstetrix in vicino pago, quadragenaria, pauperecula, decem liberorum mater, gravidam sese reputaverat tamdiu, donec præterlapso pariendi tempore immota maneret, quin indies increscceret, abdominis moles, tabescente interim & in statum merè sceletiformem redacto reliquo corpusculo. Hæc aliquoties me accesserat consultura, & sententiam exploratura meam super paracentesin, à Chirurgo tantoperè sibi commendatam, facilior ad sustinendam illam, quàm ego quidem ad instituendam, quia ex inæquali abdominis mole, & diverso diversarum regionum renisu credidi, casum hunc similem esse illi, quem in Ephem. Cent. IV. O. 162. descriptum legimus. Unde toties dimisi illam, cum adhortatione de patienti tolerantia, nec tamen sine instructione etiam de curâ palliativâ, & molestiarum ac symptomatum mitigatione possibili. Cùm verò ex instituto meo nuntiaretur mihi, illam diem tandem obiisse suum, operæ pretium fore existimavi, cum Auditoribus quibusdam meis excurrere, & abdomen aperire.

Deprehendimus igitur, abdomen ambitu suo æquare duas ulnas nostrates; propendere quidem & inclinari magis in dextrum latus, protuberare tamen & acuminari in sinistro latere, infra umbilicum, versus pubem; ubi etiam mollius ad tactum fuit, ut fovea digitis potuerit imprimi, cùm in reliquo tractu tensum, durum, digitis ne quidquam cederet.

Incisa cutis illicò corrugari cœpit & contrahi; sub illa perparum membranæ adiposæ superfuit. Ad utrumque verò hypochondrium, inter cutem & abdominis musculos, loco pinguedinis vesicula erant sero plenæ, turgidæ, quod proin copiosè satis promanavit limpidum, flavum, membrana emphysematis instar quasi spumam vel congeriem vesicularum tenuissimarum inflatarum referente.

Inciso suspensa manu modicè peritonæo in lineâ albâ, protuberavit statim massa quædam mollis, tenax, alba, repræsentans intestinum flatu turgidum; quæ tamen nec intestinum fuerat, nec omentum, nec alia pars abdominis; sed ex post facto comparuit, esse mucum tenacem viscidum. Præter hunc nihil hic prodiit; digitis autem & specillo deprehensæ fuerunt variæ cellulæ & cavitates.

Incisione igitur altera opus esse videbatur, ad sinistrum umbilici latus, ubi cultri acie vix leviter adacta profluxit statim, non aqua, nec serosum quidpiam tenue, sed materia faculenta, crassa, spissa, fusco-bruna, quandoque striis tincta cruentis, alias particulis variegata crassioribus candicantibus, quasi pulta ceis vel adiposis.

Cùm effluxisset tenue (si quidem vocare ita licet portionem utcunque adhuc fluidam, utut benè viscidam & spissam) adhæsit tamen parietibus internis undique adhuc multum viscidi & tenacis muci, qui patellis figulinis abradi, & ægrè quidem ac difficulter præ glutinositate obtineri potuit.

Utre hoc ita evacuato nihil tamen in conspectum, prodiit de visceribus abdominis aut intestinis; sed tangebatur modò modò ad utrumque, inprimis verò dextrum, latus magna parietis illius incrassatio atque densitas. Unde cruciatim, à cartilagine xiphoide usque ad ossa pubis, & ab uno lumbo ad alterum facta incisio, & tota cavitas adstantium oculis abs me fuit exposita.

Ita comparuit hic saccus in fin. latere 2. circa umbilicum in medio 3. in dextro autem latere ultra 3. pollices latus vel spissus, multas ubique habens cavernas, majores, minoresque & in his concludens gluten illud albicans, quod supra dictum fuit protrusile à primâ itaque peritonæi punctura.

Hic ipse mucus, quomodocunque nominari velit, bibliopegorum gluten benè crassum colore ad amussim exhibuit, spissior modo adhuc & tenacior, unde integra ejus frusta potuerunt modò manibus ex cavernis illiusmodi premendo protrudi, modò digitis etiam extrahi.

Reliqua utri substantia fuit in locis quidem illis incrassatis fibroso-cellulosa, in cæteris autem membranosa, ordinariam tamen membranarum crassitiem ubique excedens, planè juxta observ. B. Avi in diss. c. t. Anat. Hydrop.

Quia sectio longitudinalis, à cartilagine xiphoide usque ad pubem continuata, processit desuper & infra aliquantum ultra cavitatem hujus utris, hinc desuper quidem abdominis viscera cum intestinis, infra autem uterus cum vesica videri & tangi, digitis autem membrana subtus tota elevari potuit; manifesto indicio, illam jacuisse super intestina in abdominis cavitate, contiguam modò, non continuam nec cohærentem.

Circumcirca autem quatuor istæ laciniæ extrorsum ad musculos abdominis per mutuas fibrarum insertiones ita quidem accreverunt, ut digitis tamen undique potuerint liberari & separari absque cultro.

Quo proinde facto seorsim elevari atque iterum reponi potuit triplex laciniarum quadriga: 1. cutis; 2. integumentum abdominis, sed benè extenuatorum & emaciatorum; 3. illius illius utris, qui ubique ferè admodum ſpiſſus & craſſus, præter parietem quaſi ſuum internum vel poſticum, quo dorſum & abdominis cavitatem reſpexerat, membranoſus tenuis nullibi ferè fuit in anterioribus, niſi ad ſiniſtrum umbilici latus, inter hunc & pubem, ibi præcisè, ubi notabatur ab initio tumidi abdominis protuberantia.

Ita verò in conſpectum venit demum primò quidem cavitas abdominis, cum ejusdem contentis, ſurſum omnino truſis ad thoracem, cætera tamen ſanis, & ſatis benè ſe habentibus, niſi quòd omenti pinguedo omnis fuerit conſumta.

Deinde verò inſignis hujus molis atque utris origo & connexio: ſcil. infra, in pelvi, ad dextrum latus uteri, ubi principium facei adhuc membranoſum, cum ligamentis uteri & ejusdem lateris ovario obliteratis connexum, facili negotio potuit reſecari, atque hoc modo totum ex abdomine removeri.

Uterus ipſe, cum altero ſuo ſiniſtri lateris ovario, erat in ſalvo, ſed contractus, parvus, exiguæ admodum intus cavitatis, & in collo ac orificio interno cartilaginis inſtar induratus; ovarium ſiniſtrum ſimiliter; Oviductui verò ſeu tubæ adhæſit hydatis avellanam ferè æquans magnitudine.

Inſtans ſepulturæ tempus plura non permiſit; unde bilancem modò cum ponderibus afferri curavimus, & ponderavimus tam exemptum utrem, quàm collectam prius fæculentam iſtam materiam. Deprehendimus verò, ſaccum quidem iſtum ſ. utrem 12. & liquamen iſtud fæculentum 35. libras civiles pondere ſuo æquare.

Quemadmodum igitur in caſu hactenus recenſito & eo usque inveterato, therapia omnis fuiſſet fruſtranea, nec in confirmato iſtiusmodi malo curæ locus, niſi palliativæ; ſic etiam altera ſectio, quam priori nunc ſubjungam, ſpecimen dabit hydropis ſaccati fientis atque naſcentis, proin adhuc parvuli, ſed eò etiam difficilius agnoſcendi, quia nec abdomine in tumorem elevato, nec aliis quibusdam signis, imò ne mensium quidem anomaliis, sese priùs manifestavit.

Etenim ancilla juvenis, vix duos ultra 20. annos nata, alacris & sana, nec morbi ullius unquam sibi conscia, ab explosa sclopeto glande plumbea vulnerata, & post 46. horas mortua, erat mihi nuper inspicienda.

Hæc autem curioso admodum, certè non quotidiano, exemplo ovarium uteri sinistrum mihi exhibuit hydropicum. Intelligendo non hydatidem majusculam, ab ovario fortè pendulam, qualis phaseoli magnitudine conspiciebatur extus ad tubam hujus lateris sinistri, & in ovario alterius lateris, dextro; sed stricto sensu, ovarium ipsum liquore intus concluso turgidum & plenum, magnitudine adæquans ovum anserinum, unde ab adstantibus quibusdam, rerum non probè gnaris, diu pro vesica urinaria fuit habitum.

Ex hoc proin, incisione facta, profluxit aqua limpida, colore flava, sapore subsalsa, quantitate ad uncias quatuor æstimata, in cochleari super candelæ flammula statim instar albuminis ovorum albescens & concrescens.

Quod autem membranosus hicce saccus, liquore antea turgidus, hoc modo jam evacuatus, genuinum fuerit ovarium, præter alia inprimis docuerunt & ad oculum demonstrarunt ovula, passim fibris ipsius interspersa, & distinctè adhuc per superficiem conspicienda.

Neque tamen in utero, ejusve partibus reliquis, præter hactenus dicta, quidquam deprehensum fuit, nisi quod à vulnere sclopetario provenit.

Scilicet glans ista plumbea in summo natis sinistræ & musculi glutæi (inter quem & cutem pinguedo aderat fesqui pollicis crassitie) per ipsum ossis sacri foramen supremum in abdominis cavum penetrans, non modò nervum ex spinali medulla ibi prodeuntem avulsit, verùm etiam propè intestinum rectum transiens, mediam uteri substantiam, & abhinc vesicam urinariam pariter in medio, gemino vulnere facto, trajetrajecit (unde etiam urina omnis in cavum abdominis effluxit) indè ad foramen oſſis pubis dextrum pergens de ſuperiori oſſis ambitu feſtucam longiuſculam pariter avulſit, ibi verò in inguine, ſub principio muſculi pectinæi, proximè ad ramum nervi cruralis antici, tandem ſubſtitit.

OBSERVATIO CLXI.

DN. D. JOHANNIS HARTMANNI DEGNERI.

De dolore quodam perraro acerbiſſimoque maxillæ ſiniſtræ partem occupante, & per paroxyſmos recurrente.

VIr plurimum Reverendus, Dnus. Durand, Eccleſiæ gallicanæ, quæ hic eſt, Paſtor, nunc ob ætatem rude donatus, 75. annos natus temperamenti ſanguineo-cholerici, & corporis ſtructuræ valde robuſtæ, a puero exercitiis juvenilibus adſuetus, multis dein bellicorum laborum injuriis & exercitationibus ſtrenue agitatus, ſtationem tandem fixam & tranquilliorem nactus, ſemper proſpera uſus eſt valetudine; nec in hac provecta ætate quinquagenarii viribus inferior, ſolis Venæſectionibus, & his more gentis hujus iteratis, adſuetus, nullas vero hæmorrhagias ſpontaneas expertus, a quinque nunc annis inter venandum alvum deponens, excrementa inopinato adſpicit cruore tincta, quorum adſpectu perterritus, huic excretioni poſtmodum invigilare, & illam, forſan ſibi, inſcio licet, jam a multis annis familiarem, ſingulis exacte menſibus periodice recurrentem, ac duos treſve dies perdurantem, ſatis conſtanter absque ullo incommodo inſenſibiliter plane obſervare cœpit. Ubi vero turbari periodicum hunc fluxum vidit, dolores modo renales, modo hemicranicos aut podagricos, aut torporem omnium membrorum expertus est. Proprio hinc ductu & ausu Pilulas quasdam sibi familiares aloëtico-colocynthiacas, statim assumsit, ex quorum usu & fluxus & prior corporis hilaritas identidem redit. Factum inde, ut a quatuor circiter annis hæmorrhoidum fluxus paulo inordinatior succederet, & vir ille alio præterea malo, eoque molestissimo corriperetur, dolore nimirum maxillæ sinistræ valde acuto & adeo immani, ut omnem viri intrepidi patientiam vinceret, ac ille sibi temperare non posset, quin alta voce exclamando cruciatuum remissiones a Deo peteret. Doloris acerbitatem verbis exprimere haud quidem valet, ita tamen eum describsit, quasi acu ignea se confodi senserit. Primum dolor se manifestabat immediate infra glandulæ lacrymalis situm, ex quo loco ceu unico ictu & fulminis instar per transversum quasi oculi, & musculum, qui palpebram deorsum trahit, ad temporalem pervadebat, & hinc admodum auctus quasi plurimis ac decem velut acuum ictibus iterum juxta oculum per musculum ad nasi alam & superius labrum excurrit, & in hoc ut & in radice dentis canini subsistit, & in labro talem sensum excitat, quasi superiora versus trahatur. Deseruit tamen postea dolor partes superiores, & nunc in musculo superiori labro proprio, zygomatico, sedem maxime fixam tenet, ubi etiam externe tumorem mollem cum inflammatione levi advertere licet, qualem circa arthriticorum articulos observamus, magnitudinem nucis juglandis adæquantem, & dum dolores sentiuntur, valde conspicuum, iis vero remittentibus iterum decrescentem. Dolor hic non est continuus, sed transitorius, & per paroxysmos annuatim recurrit. Dum vero recurrit, haud adeo longæ est durationis, sed per intervalla 4-5-aut sexies per horam, modo minus remissiusque, modo vero intensius pungit, & postquam patientem per mensem aut ultra excruciavit, sensim evanescit, denuo autem post aliquot menses recurrit. Quan-

Quando dolor vehementius sentitur, patiens nec salivam exspuere, nec deglutire, nec cibos aut potum sumere, nec loqui, nec linguam inter dentem & labrum affectum interserere potest, imo ut uno verbo dicam, in memoratis paribus ne minimum quidem motum ciere audet, aliàs intensissimos sibi provocaret dolores. Appetitus tamen & somnus ut & reliqua corporis officia semper sibi satis bene constabant. Observatum porro fuit, adstrictiones alvi dolores fovere imo augere, ejusdem vero laxitatem illos paulo sublevare. Tempestas quoque calido-sicca dolores ferociores, humido-frigida autem leniores illos reddit. Cum meum æger supet hoc affectu consilium expeteret, hæmorrhoidum successum legitimum omnibus viribus conservandum duxi. Et certe, excretio hæc dum instabat, aut rite succedebat, ab initio hujus affectus sensibiliter semper ægrotum levavit, multumque dolores mitigavit. Nunc tamen & in ultimo ejus accessu eundem effectum fluxus ille haud amplius præstitit, quamvis largior per 3, aut 6. dies absque ullo virium detrimento, quin evidenti potius reliquæ sanitatis emolumento duraret. Suasi præterea Venæsectiones universales, juxta ac particulares proxime circa locum affectum prope angulum oculi interiorem, præsertim malo pertinacissime existente, ex qua ultima Venæsectione valde minuebatur, ac per aliquot menses domitus plane dolor videbatur. Hirudinum quoque applicationem in loco affecto suasi, sed quæ, nescio quo casu, effectu suctionis caruit. Recrudescente ante duos circiter menses malo, Venæsectionem in loco affecto iterandam statui, & incisione haud superficialiter facta forte fortuna arteriam incisam multumque sanguinis effusum fuisse retulit Patiens. Cum vero semper gravius laborant ii, qui, cum levati morbo videntur, in eum de integro incidunt, ita & minuebatur quidem paululum inde dolor, sed tamen hæc ultima Venæsectio non æque ac prior expectationi nostræ satisfecit, ad tempus tantummodo levamen afferens. Omisso usu supradictarum Pilularum absorbentia, nitrosa, cinnabarina, æstum sanguinis temperantia, ac æqualem circuitum promoventia, largiter propinavi, interpositis lenioribus laxantibus, in specie mercurialibus, ut & parcius & extra fluxus periodum exhibitis helleboratis, clysteribus, aliisque strictiuram lenientibus. Externe tinctura quædam alcalica cum camphora & croco tincta, ut & emplastrum quoddam mercuriale, itemque saponatum, per vices imposita, in initio mali multum profuerunt, & patiens ultra 6. menses ab hac tortura plane immunis erat. Nunc vero & in ultimo morbi assultu tantum abest, ut ab eorum usu levetur, ut potius immanius vexetur, ac proinde ab eorum applicatione abstinere oporteat. Spiritus volatiles urinosi, tincturæ & olea sic dicta nervina, e. gr. succini, terebinth, junip. eundem prorsus sinistrum edunt effectum. Formulas, quas spiritus vini ingreditur, minime perferre potest, & ab aqua vulneraria, l'eau d'arquebusade dicta, quam ipsi suaserat amicus quidam, tantos cruciatus passus est, quantos antea fere nunquam expertus fuerat. Præterea alia, in specie e lumbricis terrestribus parata, at in casum omnia, applicata fuere, pertinaciter perseverantibus, ac patientem valde excruciantibus doloribus. Ultimum remedium, quod commendavi, fuit applicatio aquæ frigidæ cum linteo, & dein, antiquorum more, guttatim parti affectæ instillatæ, ex quo, ut & si musculo temporali applicabatur, magnum levamen sensit æger, unde propria sua & commoda sine inventione ductus pluviæ tempore stillicidium e tecto majori vi, majorique levamine excepit, & ab hinc satis tolerabiliter vivit. Compressionem porro fortiorem partis affectæ paroxysmi tempore proposui, unde dolorem modo sisti, modo intercipi posse, non sine fructu sensit patiens. Caustici potentialis leniissimi usum ob loci nimiam extensionem suadere commode haud potui, quamvis æger ad ferenda quævis sit paratissimus. Opiata ob majora & funesta, vires frangendo, præprimis in hoc sene metuenda mala interne non admittenda censui, præprimis mis cum externe applicata nil solatii afferrent, nec quidquam solidi ad curam conferre possent. Scorbuticam tandem malignitatem, magnum illud morbonæ idolum, nec accusandum nec oppugnandum censui. Cum enim quondam idem plane affectus Clarissimæ Academiæ Nat. Curiosorum Præsidem Primum, D. D. Bauschium affligeret, scorbutum suspicatus, diu masculæ hunc morbum impugnavit, non vero expugnavit. Cujusmodi historiam, nostræ simillimam, ni dixeris forsan eandem, legisse me memini nullam, præter citatam, quæ extat in Miscellaneis Nat. Cur. Dec. I. Ann. II. in historia succinctæ ortus & progressus dictæ Academiæ &c. Arthritico-spastici autem aliquid hic subesse, & in hanc, (aut data occasione in resolutorium affectum) tendere posse, cum Excell. Archiatro quondam Gothano, Dan. Ludovico, Miscell. Nat. Cur. Dec. I. Ann. III. obs. 252. statuere haud dubitavi. Hæc ita conscripta morbi historia die 8. Augusti 1724. ad Celeberrimum doctissimumque quendam Professorem data est, illam ut examinaret, intricatissimumque hunc affectum aliquo maturiori consilio curandum suaderet. Responsoriæ erant sequentes: „ Fecit exploratio historiæ morbi, ut censeam, locum, qui sedem dat malo, & qui, eo urgente, tumet, sub orbita oculi, „ esse ferro ignito inurendum ad profunditatem unius alterius„ve lineæ geometricæ, id quippe exstirpando radicitus „ malo profore puto. Ad hos Dⁿⁱ Professoris literas ita respondi: Consilium hoc secutus fui, locumque, qui sedem dat malo, & qui eo urgente tumet, ferro ignito tam profunde inurendum curavi, quam licebat. Dolor quidem in loco usto cessat, sed exinde modo infra illum locum, modo supra, modo ad ejus latera immanissime vagari perseverat, adeo ut si totus locus, per quem dolor grassari sentiur, urendus sit, spatium unius pollicis in forma quadrata sumtum expleret. Quod etiamsi fiat, dolorem tamen hac via sisti posse, tantum abest ut credam, ut potius verear, ne is post latius serpat, rursusque idem remedium exposcat. Hæc fuit ratio, quæ me a cauſtico potentiali antea deterruerat, quamvis illud ob loci ſatis largam extenſionem, dolorisque vagi variam mutationem, ferro longe commodius adhiberi poſſe videatur. Exiſtimo tamen, nos non inepte facturos, ſi nervi propaginem eo ipſo foramine, quo ex oſſe maxillari ſub orbita oculi egreditur in genas, aduremus, quamvis ibi neque tumor neque dolor adſit de quo nec non de cauſa genioque morbi, ut ſupra laudatus vir ſententiam & conſilium mecum communicaret, denuo rogavi. Reſponſum ejus hoc fuit: „Malum videtur hærere in oſſe corrupto, cujus acer humor „nervos ea parte transmiſſos rodit. Quum locus, tumor & „doloris ſedes pertinax ſolo ferro ita mutari queant, ut exſtirpetur, id præcipue ſuaſi. Nec aliud vel jam remedii „cerno. Itaque cum ſpe læti eventus inuri poſſe locum, ubi „nervus ex oſſe maxillæ egreditur, & ipſe cenſeo.

Interea dum id reſponſum expectabamus, affectus quotidie in deterius abiit, ac dolor adeo auctus fuit, ut patiens illius atrocitate plane mutus factus ne verbulum amplius proferre valuerit, ſed omnia litteris ſignificare debuerit. Et ſingulare ſane & maxime notabile hoc fuit ſymptoma, quod patiens tamdiu ab omnibus doloribus immunis manſerit, quamdiu totus fuit mutus, ac ab omni cibo, potu, motuque abſtinuit, hinc & totam ſemper noctem lateri utrique, imprimis tamen affecto accumbens absque ulla moleſtia tranquille dormiendo tranſegit, ſupinus vero cubans, & quamprimum edendo, loquendo, caput paululum fortius agitando, per ſolum inæquale ambulando, vel quocunque demum modo motum in parte affecta, vel tantum per conſenſum, concitabat, ſtatim dolores illos revocabat, ut ipſi per jocum ſæpius dixerim, eum forſan tempore miniſterii nimium loquendo & lautius vivendo ea corporis parte multum peccaviſſe, tantusque nunc pœnas debere luere. Veritus interea ſæpius eſt æger, ne maxime latrante ſtomacho fame tandem ob denegatam deglutitionem ſibi perendum foret. Dolor erat pun-punctorius, lancinans, ruptorius, reissende Schmertzen. Dum hæc itaque per octiduum in summa ἀκμῇ durarent, patiens vero novam ustionem subire nunc recusaret, dolor tamen in musculosa illa parte ita hæreret, ut tota summis digitis apprehendi, tolli, & digiti quasi subtus subjici potuerint, ut commodè excidi posse videretur, itaque decrevi, totum illum locum liquore quodam septico, ad exstirpandos tumores cancroideos, aliasque excrescentias mihi familiari, auferre; quo liquore absque ullo sensibili aut molesto symptomate spatio duorum dierum, duas tertias musculosæ dolentis carnis absumsimus, tertiâ cum periostio intactâ manente; secuta est hæmorrhagia levis, effluentibus circiter centum sanguinis guttis, quo facto dolor omnis cessavit, & consolidato dein vulnere adhuc dum cessat, patiensque in integrum restitutus hactenus optime valet.

OBSERVATIO CLXII.

DN. D. BENEDICTI GULLMANNI.

Tussis epidemia Augustana pueriles.

AEris constitutionem plurimorum morborum esse causam, epidemicorum vero præcipuam, nemo hodie facile ibit inficias, qui rationem & experientiam pro cynosura & lapide lydio habet, illiusque naturam cum Physicis penitius est perscrutatus, Hippocrate hoc confirmante §. 7. de flatibus, hisce verbis: qualia sunt tempora, tales sunt morbi constitutiones, & §. 18, ubi aërem dominum vitæ, & fabrum morborum nuncupat. Vita enim nostra potius ab aëre, quam alimentis dependet, dum his ad aliquod tempus, juxta varias observationes, illo vero, ne ad momentum carere nos posse, extra dubium longe est positum, id quod infantes recens nati funesto suo exemplo tota die confirmant, qui certam debent obire mortem, si non à puncto exclusionis suæ aërem inspirant; quidni dicam, quod ipsa alimenta salubritatem vel insalubritatem suam, certo limite, ab ipso acquirere debeant. Non igitur mirandum, si ex varia mutatione & conditione aëris machina nostra sæpius alteretur, variisque morbis afficiatur. Hoc nobis sufficienter demonstravit status præteriti anni 1724. qui ob temperiei inconstantiam fœcunda mater exstitit morborum, quos breviter recensere, animus est.

Per totum Januarium, Februarium & Martium usque ad æquinoctium Vernale vix per septimanam temperatum aërem inspiravimus, ventis enim mox ab Oriente mox Occidente, nunc à Meridie nunc Septentrione flantibus, semper alternabat tempestas humida cum sicca, frigida cum calida, nix cum pluvia, quæ varia mutatio viam sternebat catarrhis, rheumatismis, affectibus hysterico-hypochondriacis, imo apoplecticis. Variolæ etiam ab initio anni epidemicè grassari incipiebant, pauciores vero cum malignitate, & confluentes, methodicè modo tractatæ, regimineque debito observato, omnes feliciter decurrebant, morbillis vix unus & alter laborabat. Mense Aprilis magis constans evasit, & per 14. dies frigus cum ventis Aquilonibus regnavit, quod successive in temperatum calorem, cælique serenitatem se commutavit, quæ catarrhis obicem posuit. Mensis Majus inchoabat cum amœnitate suâ vernali, terramque circa finem Aprilis valde siccam, pluviis suis irrigavit, fluxumque scarabæorum Majalium, in magna copia è terra prodeuntium, cohibuit. Junium & Julium regebat: Syrius, usque ad solstitium æstivum, solisque æstum satis percepimus, & reliqua pars æstatis valde sicca exsistebat, quæ vicibus rubiginem uredinemque inducebant, qua uvarum magna pars hinc inde hortulanis nostris deperdebatur. Variolæ non minus hoc tempore usque in Augustum continuabant; febribus biliosis, Choleri-

cis, Tertianis irregularibus unus & alter sporadicè corripiebatur, sicuti etiam ictterus nonnullos infestabat. Hæc temperies æstuosa perseverabat ferè usque ad æquinoctium autumnale, paucis intermixtis pluviis. In fine hujus æstatis & in principio Autumni, Tussis Infantum singularis, ferina & convulsiva epidemicè sævire cœpit, quæ infantibus in cunis non pepercit, sed illorum aliquos è vita sustulit. Hujus causa primaria absque dubio (salvo aliorum judicio) erat præcedens siccitas æstatis, ferventisque Solis diuturnitas, quâ fiebat, ut transpiratio corporis nimium intenderetur, spiritus animales maximoperè dissiparentur, omnes secretiones labefactarentur, imprimis vero tonus Ventriculi adeo destrueretur, ut ad laudabilem digestionem totus iners redditus fuerit, accedente porro, ad sitim extinguendam, nimia ingurgitatione vel aquæ vel cerevisiæ minus defecatæ, menstruum illius ita vitiabatur, ut loco succi nobilis, blennam viscidam magnam in copia progeneraret. Hâc materia infarctus & onustus ventriculus sæpius sese liberare tentabat, & per antoxpatiet naturæ vomitum per vices instituebat, absque tamen levamine notabili, cum tenacitas materiæ missellos nunquam non obligaret, illam iterum deglutire, & sic illis periculum potius induceret suffocationis, ob interceptam aëris communicationem ex spasmodica contractione fibrarum pulmonalium, & impedito motu diaphragmatis explanatorio. Hæc tussis longè superabat illam, cujus mentionem faciunt Acta Berolinensia Vol. VI. 1720. p. 24. quæ per unius mensis spatium, nostra vero ad finem usque anni perdurabat. Rebellis & contumax hic affectus tandem cedebat exhibitis sæpius laxantibus levioribus, præmissis præparantibus, incidentibus, tonumque ventriculi roborantibus, intermixtis antispasmodicis, sique aliquid febrilis intercurrebat, paucis nitratis. Optimè imprimis audiebant infusa theiformia pauxillùm crocata, Elixir. Aperitiv. Clauder. Essent. Pimpinell. alb. Essent. Succin. Ess. Cort. Cascarill. ℥is. ℈. Autumni maxima pars erat serena, sana, morbisque libera, exceptis paucis diarrhœis & febribus Cholericis. Mensis Novembris præcocem nobis hyemem præsagire voluit, dum Borea spirante frigus superveniret sat vehemens, & remittente illo, nix in magna quantitate terram tegeret, ut trahis vehi potuerit, quicunque volebat, rigor vero hic austerus vix per octo dies duravit, verum sese mutavit in tempestatem pluviosam, quæ fores pandebat iterum coryzis contumacibus, doloribus odontalgicis, febribus catarrhalibus, affectibus apoplecticis atque suffocativis, variolæ vero à principio usque ad finem anni pueros molestare non desinebant.

Difficultas urinandi à prostatis tumefactis.

SEreniſſimus Magnus Dux Hetruriæ, Cosmus III. non tam è provecta ætate, quam indefesso in regendis Dominiis suis studio, summe emaciatus debilitatusque, mane d. 9. mens. Septembr. An. 1723. menſulæ pro more assidens, vehementissime per duas horas durante horrore fuit prehensus: præsens erat D. Josephus del Papa, meritissimus ejus Archiater, qui opportunis remediis occurrebat, à quibus aliquantum ad se rediens Sereniſſimis non de alio aliquo, quam urinæ suppressione querebatur, quamvis notabiles ſtimulos aut molestias inde non perciperet. Post viginti quatuor horas, postquam ne guttula urinæ comparuisset, advocatus fuit Chirurgus, Dn. Antonius Benevoli, ut mediante syringa urinæ eductionem tentaret, quod etiam altero die feliciter præstitit, & 32. circiter uncias urinæ optime constituræ prolicuit; quam operationem usque in duodecimum diem quandoque præfatus Chirurgus rurgus iterare debuit, negotio semper feliciter, & cum beneplacito Serenissimi Ducis succedente; postea vero absque syringæ applicatione urina sponte excerni potuit. Nihilominus considerando qualitatem morbi & reliquas circumstantias, speciatim ætatem provectam, & summam universalem debilitatem, infirmitas hæc incurabilis fuit judicata; prout etiam ultimo mensis Octobris die optimus Princeps, in ætate 81. annor. 2. mens. & 17. dier. placide vitam finiit. Altero die cadaveris apertio & balsamatio fuit instituta. Ubi lobus pulmonis sinister nonnihil lividus fuit observatus, & stomachus charæ instar extenuatus, nec non circa œsophagum adeo corruptus, ut ad primum attactum lacerareturi. Ren sinister urina repletus erat, cujus ureterem calculus magnus instar nuclei dactyli obstruebat, & non tantum in hoc, sed altero etiam in rene magna arenularum & exiguorum calculorum copia latebat. Vesica colore livida, crassa & durior visa fuit; cujus prima & interior tunica prorsus abrasa, inque tota circumferentia illius exulcerata comparuit: id quod ab affectu aliquo erysipelatoso provenisse verisimiliter creditur, à quo etiam vehementissimus ille horror productus fuerit. Tandem prostatæ supra modum crassi occurrerunt, à quibus difficultatem emittendi urinam ortam fuisse judicatum fuit. Reliqua viscera, interque ea cerebrum etiam, optima qualitate & sine ulla alteratione inventa fuerunt.

Mors ex ſuppreſſione urinæ ob tumorem in proſtatis glanduliformem.

EXcellentiſſimus Dn. Antonius Boſi, Medicus, ætatis annorum ſeptuaginta duorum, vir ſtaturæ proceræ, & qui optima valetudine ferme ſemper gaviſus eſt, tumorem, abſceſſum & fiſtulam ad hæmorrhoides paſſus, ſed feliciter curatus eſt. Poſtea febris periodica eum invaſit, à qua, præmiſſis univerſalibus, corticis Peruviani uſu brevi convaluit. Decimo abhinc die violentus egerendi conatus cum omnimoda urinæ ſuppreſſione, & aliquali dolore ad glandem cum aggreſſus eſt, cum febre, quæ ſecunda die poſt phlebotomiam adeo remittebat, ut vix febrim eum tenuiſſe dignoſceretur. Sicuti teneſmus nulli obtemperabat remedio, ita & iſchuria, nullum circa urinarias partes cruciatum ſuſtinens æger; circa vero renes conqueſtus eſt primis diebus de aliquali dolore præcipue vero circa renem ſiniſtrum. Teneſmus ut plurimum irritus erat quamvis frequentiſſimus, excepto pauco cruore, quem aliquoties effundebat. Tertia die pauciſſimæ fæces, quæ in innumeris ejuſmodi conatibus viſæ ſunt, albæ apparuere. Intumeſcere deprehenſus eſt venter, & quarta die guttulæ aliquæ lotii pellucidi defluxere, nec proinde a catheteræ quidquam ejus erupit, quamvis ter alias ad ejusdem auxilium confugerent Medici ad levamen Collegæ accerſiti. Perdurante teneſmo & ſtillicidium perdurabat urinæ cum inſigni urethræ cruciatu, & craſſior aliquantulum ſecernebatur, adeo ut poſtremo viſcoſum aliquod in matulæ fundo obſervaretur. Aucta eſt quotidie abdominis moles, & vires paulatim perfractæ ſunt, ita ut decimo denique crucioſiſſimæ ægritudinis die, teneſmo intolerabili ſemper usque ad extremum mum atrociſſime & frequentiſſime (quinquies enim & ſexies quolibet horæ quadrante) eum torquente, & de quo tantummodo æger conquerebatur, & qui unitus ejus morbus dici poterat, ad ſuperos migravit. Quidquid medicina ſuppeditare potuit conſultum eſt, at omnia incaſſum, adeo ut aptiſſimum in hoc morbo quisque faſſus fuerit illud Cratonis oraculum: Utinam eſſet tam facile morbos curare quam noſcere! Diſſecto abdomine, in fellis cyſtide parva bilis quantitas, & hæc cinereo potius ditata colore obſervata eſt, & ſubſtantiæ glutinoſæ: ſex corpora variis æqualiter donata proceſſibus ab eadem cyſtide extracta ſunt, minime tophaceam naturam gerentia, friabilia, externe nigra, interne vero flava, leviſſimi ponderis & inæqualis magnitudinis, ita autem unum alterum referebat, ac parvus tribulus aquaticus majorem refert. In renibus veſiculæ repertæ ſunt, aliæ in eorum ſuperficie ſparſim poſitæ, aliæ in eorum ſubſtantia delitescentes, in ſiniſtro verò una præ cæteris tumidior. Ureteres verſus pelvim ampliores erant, adeo ut minimi digiti diametrum ſuperarent. Pinguedo copioſiſſime conſpiciebatur, & ut renem quemlibet ferme obrueret, ita in eorum centro in lobulorum interſtitiis reperiebatur, in rene autem ſiniſtro atrofiaveſcens conſpecta eſt. Veſica urina diſtenta erat, & ſex ejusdem libræ in ejus fundo reperiebantur. Tunica ejus interna tribus in locis eroſa aliquantulum; in ejus collo quo catheter attingere compertus eſt, corpus veſicæ intimæ adhærens, & eam elevans, ita ut oſſis pubis partem ſuperiorem comprimens urinæ deſcenſum omnino occluderet. Oriebatur corpus intra veſicam, & rectum inteſtinum inter & proſtatas poſitum erat, figura ejus ovalis, magnitudo nucem juglandem æquabat (ſimile forte erat illud à clariſſimo Tulpio relatum, ut ex obſervatione decima de urinæ ſuppreſſione Theophili Boneti in ſuo ſepulchreto patet) proſtatæ naturalem magnitudinem ſuperabant, cum ovi gallinacei compreſſi figuram ex alterutra parte ſimilem redderent. Apertum fuit tertium hoc corpus, & glanduloſum conſpectum eſt, ejusdem omnino ſubſtantiæ ac illa proſtatarum, adeo ut in tres lobulos diſtinctos proſtatas in hoc cadavere dicendum fuiſſet. Muſculi autem tam ſphineter ani, quam levatores, & extrema recti inteſtini livida & nigricantia omnia prodiere; & hæc ſedula inveſtigatio cadaveris oculis adſtantium ſubjecit, quas inter numerabantur Comes Franciſcus Negriſoli Eques ſcientiarum amori addictiſſimus, Antonius Ottoni, Antonius Stolfini, Jacobus Manangoni, Johannes Maria Antoldi, & Franciſcus Boſſignati Medicinæ Profeſſores, Franciſcus Rinoldi, & Dominicus Gualazzi, Chirurgi.

Polyporum narium rara ſpecies ſanata.

INauditum caſum, inaudita proinde, ut puto, aggreſſum curandi ratione, Chirurgia obtulit. Scilicet: Polypi utrinque cavum naſi totum obſidentes, meatusque ad fauces directos penitus occludentes, intercipientesque muci deſcenſum aërisque tranſitum ac reciprocationem, ita ut reſpirationi, loquelæ, deglutitionique graviter officerent. Labia ſimiliter tumidiora exulcerabantur; verbo: res eo redacta, ut ſuffocatio immineret. Maria Cypriana ſubjectum, Virgo 18. annorum, denatis patre matreque, Baptaleæ, in ſua patria commorans, auxiliis pene omnibus, Medicisque penitus deſtituta, ſæpius admoto igne actuali curatio fruſtra pertentata. Spe jam ſic decollata, inde ſolicitius quæſitum ivit ope, mubicunque ratio ſuaſerat eam poſſe reperiri. Pulſavit Iatrorum nonnullorum fores, audivit mœſta noemata illætabilia prudentum, conſuluit oracula Patavina, nihilque aliud retulit, præter judicium: fore ſuam ægritudinem inſanabilem, nec à quoquam attingendam. Poſtremo & meo quoque ſiſtitur obtutui, quomodocunque poſſem, eidem ut opitularer, enixe obſecrans. Examinata morbi natura, cernensque nihil obſtare, quo minus minus extirpatione tuto negotium abſolvi queat; iis quæ ad corpus diſponendum requiri videbantur, præordinatis, ipſammet, obſervatis obſervandis, audacter aggreſſus ſum. Anſerino roſtro igitur parte magis obvia unius polypi naris dextræ arrepta, firmiterque cochlea, qua, ut & rite, munitum eſt inſtrumentum, conſtricta, vertendo magnam ejusdem portionem, è narium tholo propendentem, extraxi, pauxillulo exeunte ſanguine, quo fluere deſinente, reliquisque opportune executis, complementum extirpaturus differebatur ad ſequentem diem. In obſcuro namque poſita res, & illud ſperare, nec aliud agere permittebat. Ideo luce adventantis diei vivide clarescente, cum expectatum repentinum juvamen ægris jucundum, medentibusque gratum, in hujusmodi caſibus oriri ſolitum, apertio videlicet itineris aëri tranſitum concedentis, cum pediſſequa reſpirandi libertate, non contingeret, inquiſitum exquiſite in cauſam. Incuſatus alter oculis objectus polypus, naſi ſepto connexus, quemque ſupradicta ratione, ſed repetito aggreſſu, fruſtulatim evulſeram. At nec idem adhuc expectatus effectus plane comparuit. Obſtupeſcebam, tranſitu ſuppoſito objectaculis emundato, nondum de cætero aërem reciprocari, nam illa naſi pars omni viſibili carnis tubere ſoluta conſpiciebatur. Verum enim vero ſtyli fortisque in- & exfuſtationis actu repetito, detegi potuit, impedimentum reſidere in meatu ad fauces ducente; quod removere cum relato roſtro anſerino nullo modo poſſibile eſſe, obſtante figura ejusdemque magnitudine, clare novi. Conſilio itaque in arena ſumpto, cum aliud quoddam inſtrumentum in promptu haberem, forcipis inſtar conſtructum, longiuſculis, exilibusque brachiis præditum, extremitatibus deſinentibus in capita ſemicylindrica intus cava, ea parte qua concurrunt orbiculatim incidentia, quæ ubi apte fuerint juncta, vix magnitudine pinculum exſuperant, aptaque ſunt præcidere quidquid carnis apprehenderint, extemplo conjeceram indigentiæ idem eſſe aptum, ac ſubinde illud ipſum ad uſum pertraxi. Mirum hac prima vice perquam optime inſervientem, impulſæ blunto, fere ad extremitatem ductas naſalis introduci Patiens paſſa ſit. Alternata hinc brachiorum capitumve apertione & concluſione, intruſione & retractione, tandem forte fortuna apprehenditur, extrahiturque polypus diſtinctus, mole digiti minimi poſtremum æquans internodium, implantatusque erat prope fauces, ægra confeſtim reſpirante. Sicitaque magno labore, nec minore accuratione extricata hac nare à magis obviis polypodis extantiis, acceſſi ad alteram, eodem polyporum ordine, numeroque obſeſſam, easdemque repetitas enchireſes indigentem. Optate pariter inſerviit ultimum inſtrumentum ad reliquias moleſtia connotatas affabre, affatimque tollendas, quod oportuit exequi per intervalla, modo longiora, modo breviora, prout inſtabat neceſſitas; etenim inſpiratus & expiratus actuoſiori niſu ſonitum edebant inſtar vexillorum exagitatorum, ab ore ſiquidem hinc & inde urgebantur, cujus commeatum implicabant. Inſumti ſunt plures menſes in exigenda feliciter hac, inaudita fortaſſe, curatione, pauciſſimis remediis adhibitis ad ingentem adeo carnis luxuriem amoliendam, quam judicarem, ſi conjuncta conſpici poſſet, mediocre ovum gallinaceum æquaturam. Ægra modo laudabili fruitur valetudine. Ex communicatione Dn. D. Jacobi Antonii de Lupis, Medici Baptalea, d. 24. Julii An. 1723.

Partus veſicularis.

SEptimana elapſa Mulier mediæ ætatis, Luccæ, diu laborioſa graviditate afflicta, tandem excluſit acervum veſicularum, ſedecim librarum pondere, veſiculis rotundis, craſſis, magnituditudine parvi ovi columbini, simul junctis instar acinorum uvæ, minime filamentoso pediculo, ex subtilissima pellicula combinato appensis, omnibus dein in crassum truncum conjunctis, quas non bene observare potui, vasa tamen esse mihi videbantur. Vesiculæ istæ liquorem aliquantum glutinosum continebant, & quælibet in liquore isto sanguineam maculam habebat, qualis in ovo gallinaceo fœcundato adparet. Simile quid doctissimus D. Vallisnerius (Vid. ejus Raccolta di varii trattati, edit. Venet. 1715. pag. 83.) descripsit & adcuratissime examinavit. Id quod meam excitavit curiositatem, ut denuo considerarem & admirarer, quæ ille tam docte circa similem partum vesicularem scripsit, neque secundum debile meum judicium, in omnibus, quæ is tam sapienter proculit, ullam inveni differentiam, nisi circa molem & pondus vesicularum, nec non maculam sanguineam in liquore cujuslibet vesiculæ contentam; qualis si perspicacissimo Vallisneriano oculo occurrisset, multam de ea eruditissime philosophandi occasionem ipsi suppeditasset. Credere, tantam quantitatem & pondus vesicularum, instar acinorum uvæ alternatim appensarum, totidem esse ova, uti ex macula illa sanguinea in qualibet earum observata quis supponere posset, delirare esset, non cum fundamento circa raras naturæ operationes meditari; & ego, quanquam non minus in hac, quam in omni alia scientia inexpertus, vix atque vix quidem pro hydatidibus illas habere possum, cum macula illa sanguinea tam evidenter observata, non aliud quid esse queat, quam vas aliquod sanguiferum pro nutrimento dictarum vesicularum à natura concessum; & sicut hæ fuerunt insignes & magnæ instar ovi columbini, ita eo facilius ab oculo dijudicari vasa illa potuerunt, quod in reliquis casibus, ob earum exilitatem fuit impossibile. Ex relatione D. D. Joh. Baptistæ Dechiappæ, Medici Lucensis, à D. D. Petro Michaele Gagna, Medico Taurinensi, d. 22. Jan. A. 1724. Clar. D. D. Anton. Vallisnerio communicata.

Uxor Dominici Bigi, sutoris Marinensis, annorum triginta, temperamenti calidi-humidi, vino dedita, spatio anno-rum decem sex edidit perfectos partus, quinque nempe ma-rium, & unius fœminæ. Mense Martio proxime elapso, cum facta esset gravida, periodice passa est fluxum menstrui sanguinis, cui, ob quandam suæ salutis negligentiam, nullam medicam opem poposcit. Initio mensis Julii cum mensium profluvium iterum pateretur cum periculo Abortus, me accersivit, qui quamvis evidentia gravidationis signa animad-verterem, ratione tamen periodici fluxus, nunc floreſcentis, nunc aquosi, de uteri Mola hæsitare cœpi. Antequam igitur debitis præsidiis occurrerem, ad inhibendum Abortum, ventrem contrectavi, & de motu successivo & subsultorio fœ-tus certior factus sum, idem Muliere confirmante. Inter cætera remedia sanguinis missionem è salvatella præscripsi ad paucas uncias, cum debito victus regimine, quietoque per aliquot dies in lecto decubitu. Sed cum ob rem domi angustam, & Viri absentiam, ad motum faciendum cogeretur, die 14. suprædicti mensis Julii, præcedentibus lipothymiis, ite-rum in sanguinis profluvium ex utero incidit. Post quatuor horas vocatus, inveni Mulierem partus doloribus laborantem, jam emisisse quinque molas vesiculares, quarum duæ primæ, obstetricis, & adstantium mulierculârum incuria, projectæ fuerunt. Cum vires essent attritæ, & quædam signa mortui fœtus adesſent, ab exhibitis vires restaurantibus partumque sollicitantibus, brevi enixa est puellam mortuam, coloris ci-trini, sed perfecte organizatam, & cum puella toras secun-dinas, quas diligenter tractavi. Nocte dieque sequenti, ut à fide dignis accepi, tres aut quatuor molas vesiculares, aut globos, totos aquosis bullis, instar ovorum piscium, ut asse-rebant, refertos, cum lochiis emisit. Puerpera interim fœdo totius colore, nec levi macie, lente adhuc convalescit. Expositi tres vesicularum globi, quas potui observare, & qui prima fronte placentæ partes videbantur, aqua pluries diluti, albi erant

erant coloris, ſeſquilibram pendebant; ſinguli longitudine & latitudine digitos octo, craſſitie vero duos digitos, in centro præſertim, ſuperabant. Veſicularum numerus attingi vix poterat, quamvis permiſſum foret à tot in praxi occupationibus, quibus adhuc diſtineor, præcipue ab epidemica febrium ardentium, & tertianarum intermittentium mali moris, ſed non pernicioſarum, conſtitutione, quibus ſoli agrorum cultores, paucique ex urbanis detinentur. Millenas & millenas tamen dicere poſſem. Albi, ut dixi, erant coloris, nonnullæ vero flaveſcebant, rubeſcebant duæ tantum aut tres, quamvis lympha in ipſis contenta tota eſſet cryſtallina. Unitæ quamvis glandularum conglobatarum congeriem & acervum repræſentarent, ab aliarum tamen conſortio ſeparatæ, tot folliculi fellis videbantur. Singulæ veſiculæ proprio ligamento pediculoque donabantur, ut uvarum racemos perbelle æmularentur. Inæqualis erant magnitudinis, major tamen pars piſcium ovulis, aut acinis granatorum ſimillimæ; minores granum milii, majores ceraſorum fructum non ſuperabant; in aquam projectæ innatabant; ſed, ut paucis rem totam complectar, omnes duas elegantiſſimas Tabulas veſicularum, & præcipue ſecundam, quas Tu in Muliere Scandianenſi obſervaſti, & celeberrimo Marc. Malpighio miſiſti, ad amuſſim referebant; in hoc ſolum diſtabant, quod in harum molarum altera truncus vaſorum non exiguus aderat, qui quaquaverſum dimiſſis ramis appenſas ſuſtineret veſiculas, in alterius vero ſuperiori parte appendebatur moles primo aſpectu carnem & muſculoſa, quæ cultro anatomico diſſecta integumenti potius membranoſi, ſeu chorii vices gerebat; pars autem interior innumeris miliaribus veſiculis, ſeu acinis glandulosis, rubicundiſſimis, inſtar mali Punici, acervatim junctis, ditabatur. *Ex communicatione D. De fonte quodam raro in regno Neapolitano.

JUxta arcem quandam Comitatus Arpini, nunc Ducatus Sora, in provincia, quæ Terra di Lavoro dicitur, in regno Neapolitano, ad radicem montis, media via, quæ à dicta arce ad Alvitum, regionem vicinam ducit, ad dextram rivuli, quem incolæ Rio di Sciavi nominant, in quadam vallecula glareosa, duo fontes aquæ limpidæ & copiosæ, uno ab altero ad 25. palmos Neapolitanos distante, profluunt. Ille qui sub saxis satis magnis & inordinate sitis oritur, in aliquibus horis diurnis penitus siccatur, & hinc irregulariter jam subito, jam tarde, cum eadem aquæ abundantia, quam antea habebat, resurgit. Talis defectus & reditus multo sæpius in æstate, quam hyeme evenire observatur. Primo notabilis est observatio ibi facta, quod post aquæ exsiccationem, interdum post dimidiam horam, aliàs post unam, duas, tres, aut quatuor, irregulariter aquæ resurgant, nec unquam istæ mutationes motui Lunæ respondeant. Quandoque, inprimis temporibus calidis æstivis, siccatur, & à sex in sex horis resurgit; atque Sole oriente usque ad meridiem deficiens, inde redit, & usque ad solis occasum fluit; eundem modum usque ad mediam noctem, & hinc ad Solis ortum tenendo. Regularis tamen hic temporis in defectu & augmento modus varius est & inconstans, interdum per dies, quandoque per septimanas durans, verbo, non certam determinationem habens. Aqua gustata, quando post defectum resurgit, nauseosum habet saporem, similem quasi illi, in qua alumen depuratur; & qualitatem hanc intra octo vel decem minuta amittit, ad priorem gratiam rediens, & insipida redditur. Revertens videtur ex meatibus tortuosis provenire, ob fragorem aliquem, qui auribus sentiatur, si attente per unum vel duo minuta antequam refurgit, adplicentur. Tempore, quo aqua deficit, si intra meatus plurima aqua ex vicino rivo fuit infusa, vacuum impleri non potuit, necessumque fuit expectare, usque dum sponte sua revertatur aqua. Solidam considerationem meretur observatio, quod alter vicinus fons nullam dictarum qualitatum obtineat; ex quo concludi potest, diversam esse meatuum organisationem, eoque magis, quod supra saxa inordinata, sub quibus prior oritur, tales non videantur, *Ex relatione D. HOnestissima Mulier, excellentissimo D. Vesperе autem ineunte, & prægressi partus hora recurrente, dolores in imo ventre hinc inde paullatim excitari, sensim inde sensimque crescere, octava vero noctis hora ad summum evehi, & in medio hypogastrii regione subsistere. His itaque vexata infelix puerpera, opemque exposcens, accurrens obstetrix, anodynum ac emollientem clysterem injecit, ex jure pingui cum sacchari aliquantulo, & oleo cheirino paratum; ventrem insuper manibus oleo prædicto madidis, levibus circa umbilicum præcipue tractat frictionibus, & calentibus linteis. Clysteren interim ex vaccino lacte cum conquassatis binis recentium ovorum vitellis & oleo cheirino parari, & paulo post injici moderate calidum jussi. Topica pariter externe adhibita, fomentum videlicet anodynum abdominis regioni cum spongiis calenti decocto ex herbis malvæ cum radicibus contusis, & violariæ cum floribus expresso, imbutis apponi curavi, & saepius, ne mox frigesceret, iterari. Largas interim potiones ex jure junioris pulli vix salito paratas, & victum tenuiliimum, non Hippocraticum tamen, ex sola ptisana, sed ex panatellis, & ovis sorbilibus conflatum imperavi. Aromatica insuper qualiacunque, nedum vini usum, qualia in hisce præsertim casibus incautis & stultis mulierculis ad sedandos, ut ajunt-ipsæ, vere ridiculos iræ matris morsus mos est adhibere, acriter inhibui. Factum exinde est, ut symptomata paulo mitiori & aliqualis quies ad octavam usque noctis horam accesserit. Matutinis vero omnia revivisount, & ad meridiem exasperantur. Aucta febris, sitis, dolores tum supremi, tum imi ventris, imminuta lochia & pallide colorata. Inducto proinde in animum futuræ inflammationis metu, maritum mihi amicissimum monui, ut quam citissime doctissimum Virum consuleret, quem pro mea securitate in tanto periculo comitem jure expetebam; chirurgum insuper in hac temporis mora pariter accerseret, ne data & præceps occasio mittendi sanguinem, quam secunda morbi dies præstabat opportunissimam, turpiter elaberetur. Adventante interim viro experientissimo Thoma Puccino, & benigne pro sua, ut in omnes summa, in me certe singulari benevolentia, animique candore, recte, nec amethodic ad id usque tempus peracta probante, propositam sanguinis missionem è saphæna confirmavit. Victus ratio eadem. Proxima nocte vigiliæ, jactationes, vaniloquia, ſitis, ſuppreſſa quaſi lochia. Die tertia febris ardens, pulſus durus, tenſio abdominis, dolores punctorii & lancinantes, vomendi ſtimulus & ſingultum ſimulans, ſicca tuſſis. Crebræ coxis & cruribus frictiones, manibus aqua roſarum calente madidis inſtitutæ. Injectio clyſteris uterini, & ſpongia emolliente decocta vaporoſa vulvæ admota. Veſperi iteratur phlebotomia e dicta vena ad uncias ſex; ſanguis qualitate priori reſpondet. Nocte ſudores ſymptomatici, ſubdeliria, urinæ paucæ & rubræ, lochia nulla, diarrhœa copioſa, febris colliquativa. Mane quarta videlicet die lingua arida, mammæ nullatenus duræ ac turgidæ, ſed molles & cedentes. Pulſus frequens, celer & parvus. Tota die largis potionibus, frictionibus inferiorum, fomentis inſtitimus, iterato ad veſperam enemate. In nocte iterum vigiliæ, linteorum projectiones, prædicta ad tuſſim & vomitum incitamenta, pertinax & mordax diarrhœa cum crebra quandoque & inani egerendi voluntate, teneſmo quaſi comitata. Urinæ itidem pravæ & subjugales. Septima melius omnia, & octava ad meridiem usque, utero nihil evomente, nec ullatenus mammis turgentibus, patula solum per anum via, eaque solitis cruciatibus & inanibus quandoque ejusmodi conatibus obsepta. Hora proinde dici vigesima, quod præcedentibus remissum valde, & incertis horis vix apparuerat, extemplo extremorum frigus, corporis universi horripilatio, & artuum inde ac dentium concussio subsequuta. Hæc omnia unius horæ spatio, quibus calor, modum tamen non excedens, & per totam noctem sudor copiosus & sitis magna succedunt. Nona plura egerit alvo, supradictis qualitate respondentia. Pulsus frequens, sed aliquantum remissus. Urgent vigiliæ, renesimus; ineunte nocte clyster injicitur ex aqua hordei chalybeata cum expressa ejusdem pulpa, superadditis in ebullitione duobus papaveris albi capitibus. Quievit plurimum, & per horas octo alvo non egessit. Decima & undecima melius habuit, alvi dejectiones multæ, minus tamen molestæ, & odore graves. Decima secunda eodem feliciter usa est enemate, quievit plurimum. Decima tertia febris pauca, coctionis in urina manifesta signa, omnia leviora, alvus exerit liquida, sed pauciora. Decima quarta judicatus est morbus. Febris dimittitur. Usu tandem Hippecacoannæ radicis per clysteres non neglecto, durante in diem usque vigesimum salutari diarrhœa, in integrum, DEO dante, restituitur. D. D.

De menſium fluxu præcoci putatitio.

NObilis Fœmina per integrum geſtationis tempus vario modo ſe male habens, tandem filiolam bene formatam & ſatis robuſtam parturit, absque tamen ſolenni vel aquarum eruptione, vel ſanguinis profuſione. Poſt aliquot dies vero infans plorare incipit toties, quoties umbilicus arctius ligatur, quamobrem deligatur flaccide, quo facto quidem ſe quietiorem præbet, domina mater autem, dum extra lectulum depromitur tenella filia, ſemper obſervat ſincerum ſanguinem ex genitalibus extillaſſe. Hinc rariſſimum hoc phænomenon mihi per literas denuntiat, ſcilicet puellam recens natam habere menſtrua. Advolo curioſus, & res ita ſe habebat, nam ſanguis infra labia pudendi ſincerus partim, partim congrumatus paululum inveniebatur. Hoc non obſtante nobiliſſimæ matri contradicebam, ſtatuens non eſſe menſtruum ſanguinem, quoniam in tali ſubjecto tenello, vel adhuc imperfectæ magnitudinis, nondum inveniatur ſanguinis ſpumeſcentia, uterusque indiſpoſitus ſit pro admittendo vel transmutando ſanguine. Interim dum perſcrutabar, undenam tale profluvium ſanguinis ſit derivandum, ex improviſo faſcia decidit umbilicalis, ſimulque in conſpectum venit umbilicus protuberans inſtar omphaloceles incipientis, attactu tamen longe durior, valde carnoſus, ſanguineus, turgidus. Hunc dum paululum comprimebam, ecce non ſolum infans incipit male ſe habere, alte vociferari, pedesque extollere, ſed etiam ſanguis per muliebria fluere. Accuratius itaque hunc umbilicum viſitabam, ſimul inveniebam cutim extimam coaluiſſe quidem ſuperficialiter, umbilicalia vaſa ſanguifera tamen ſubtus latentia adhuc aperta eſſe, hocce modo ſanguinem retrogradum ad veſicam ſicam deferri, perque eandem excerni. Quæſitum conſilium meum erat ſequens; ſcilicet ſacculos ſubtiles ex nervinis, diſcutientibus & travmaticis paratos, calido vino immerſos, iterumque expreſſos imponere juſſi ſupra umbilicum, faſciaque conſueta firmare, hoc facto brevi ſtillicidium deſiit, umbilicus quoque detumuit, nec non infans belle ſe geſſit. Poſt aliquot menſes vero Domina Mater, animi pathematibus vexata, infanti tormina concitavit, ſic per clamores nocturnos diurnos continuos umbilicus denuo tumere cœpit, inſtar veſicæ vitulinæ minoris, pellucidus, perfectumque omphalocelen conſtituit, ſiquidem apertura jam magnitudinis cruciarii ſe dabat in conſpectum. Nihilominus ſedatis doloribus per unguenta convenientia, nec non applicato globulo, ex fruſto fungi parata, & dimidia parte cum cera obducto, brevi temporis ſpatio iterum in totum diſparuit. Ex hac obſervatione mihi nunc conſtat, ſanguinis ex muliebribus extillationem in tenellis, & ad menſtruationem nondum diſpoſitis ſubjectis, ſecundum quorundam obſervationem, non ſtatim pro præmaturo menſium fluxu haberi debere, ſed potius vel ex umbilici vitio, vel ex renum & veſicæ vaſculorum ſanguiferum dilaceratione (de qua cauſa analogam obſervationem inpoſterum communicabo) per arenulas aut calculos minores tranſeuntes, quibus infantes tam tenerrimos, quàm etiam adultiores non raro infeſtantur, ortum ducere.

De dubia Hydropis Pectoris & Pericardii Diagnosi.

SI quidpiam est, quod antiquum illud Artis nostræ opprobrium, quod nempe sit στοχαστικὴ & conjecturis multum laboret, fulciat, est sane si rem ex vero judicare liceat, defectus solidæ & genuinæ morborum diagnoseos, unde non saltem succrescentes præcipites & acuti, sed consistentes quoque adulti tardique & chronici morbi sæpius nos latent, nec tam inexpertos, recenterque ab incude Academica profugos & ex opinione sua sublimi rei Medicæ notitia ferociter tumidos, sed exercitatos etiam & inter squallentes ægrorum lectulos austera quadam & intrepida observandi patientia consenescentes deludunt Medicos. Nascentes quidem & orientes herbæ nonnisi a peritissimis rei herbariæ dignoscuntur, florentes tamen & adultas idiota etiam suo notare novit nomine: aliter cum morbis comparatum est, quos etiam cum in vigore & flore suo ut ita loqui liceat constituti sunt, non æque facile semper dignoscere licet. Candidus hac in re est Galenus dum quod in Arte conjecturale est, id maxime in affectuum dignotione consistere 2. de Comp. Med. profectus est: & jam ante hunc Medicorum Dictator Hippocrates inter ea quæ in Arte non recte fiunt, retulit id, si quis scilicet cum alius morbus existat alium apparere dixerit; de Morb. p. 448. imo non erubuit contra morem moderni sæculi ingenue confiteri, quod ignoraverit apud Eupolemum in coxendice pus latitare qui hinc ex tardiori sectione periit cum alias servari potuisset V. Epid. Hist. 7. p. 1143. Avenzoar antiquissimus Medicus filiam gravidam pro hydropica fortissimis purgantibus curabat & dolebat hinc acerbe, se contra Artis præcepta similem dedisse medicinam, deceptum tamen, id est ignorantem se id fecisse fatetur.

tetur. Gradus uxorem propriam mola gravidam quà vere imprægnatam respexit, confessionemque erroris sui memorabili hoc epiphonemate claudit: subjiciamus cervices nostras & superbiam nostram, nec nos omnia scire posse existimemus, nec tamen propterea a studiis desistamus. Successu temporis Artem hanc majorem certitudinem & nostra ætate perfectionis gradum obtinuisse, qui præsumere ausit, hospes sit in re Medica oportet: hallucinamur & nunc & utinam non majori sicut olim turpitudine: nolo ulcus hoc tangere, ne Medicorum prostituere velle videar famam, alias in proclivi foret demonstrare & hodie magnos decipi Viros, præsertim cum tot disceptationes & contentiones sæpius satis acerbæ Medicorum apud ægros sufficiens hujus rei præbeant testimonium. Carolus Patinus gloria sui sæculi & Medicus celeberrimus labore morbi sui lacessitus sæpius in Artis incertitudinem vel futilitatem ac Medicorum de morbi quo detinebatur natura consultantium inconstantiam excandescebat, angebaturque morbi obscuritate magis quàm rigore & tædebat Medicum in Medico Emporio ignoto ære quo sibi mortem coëmeret e vivis discedere: quis dubitabit & hodie Medicorum aliquos parem experiri fortunam? Cum ergo ad Artis Medicæ ornamentum & a contemptu vulgi vindicationem (hæc enim cum sit Ars nobilissima propter eorum qui eam exerceat ignorantiam judice Hippocrate omnibus jam artibus longe inferior habetur) nihil magis quam genuina morborum diagnosis contribuere valeat, morborum autem præcipue pectoralium rariorum & abstrusionem natura ob multiplicem quem pectus cum reliquis corporis humani partibus habet consensum ingenii nostri aciem frequenter effugiat, non inutilem ut confido navabimus operam, si hydropis pectoris & pericardii receptа signa pathognomica curatius examinabimus, quantumque his fidere debeamus & possimus aliorum & nostra experientia docuerimus.

Utque

Utque ab hydrope pectoris ordiamur, affectu frequentiori quam quidem vulgo creditur, quive ſub nomine Aſthmatis inveterati, ſcorbutici ſpaſmodici multis olim impoſuit, nec agnitus eſt, donec autopſia Anatomica in defunctis exiſtentiam ejusdem evidenter detexiſſet: hunc ita depingit Præceptor. Si aquæ inquit copia in pulmone collecta fuerit, febris & tuſſis vexat, confertim reſpirat, pedes intumeſcunt ungues omnes contrahuntur velut ſuppuratus afficitur, verum remiſſius ac diutius: quod ſi infuſum aut fomentum aut ſuffitum adhibeas pus non ſequitur, indeque cognoſcas non pus ſed aquam intus eſſe. 2. de Morb. p. 483. Veſiculoſam pulmonum compagem ſeri fluore inundari ſicque congeſtione hujus lobos pulmonum in tumorem extendi poſſe, adeoque hydropem pulmonum conſtitui, non quidem negaverim ſicut jam olim Foreſtus in quodam aſthmatico Britio dicto pulmones tanquam ſpongiam pituita imbutos & turgentes deprehendit L. XVI. Obſerv. VII. Scholio; perſuaſiſſimus tamen ſum Hippocratem hoc loco de hydrope pectoris agere: paracentheſin enim thoracis ceu primarium commendat auxilium cujus ope nonniſi in pectoris cavitate ſtagnantes educuntur humores: quod ſi infarctum pulmonum proprie dictum intelligeret adhibito fomento aut ſuffitu excretio reſtagnantium humorum liberius ſuccedere deberet quam quidem fieri docuit. Idcirco autem pulmonum meminit, quod originem ſeroſæ diluviei & aſcitis pectoralis exinde derivari velit: ubi enim æſtatis tempore ſiti preſſus copioſam aquam biberis & pulmo repletus rurſus in pectus dimiſerit tumque in pectore exiterit vehementem ardorem excitat, ita ut pinguedinem quæ in arteriis ineſt liquefaciat, at ſi ſemel pinguedo liquefieri cœperit longe citius aquam inter cutem efficiet. Gignitur etiam ubi tubercula in pulmone exorta fuerint & aqua repleta in pectus eruperint. Aquam autem intercutem etiam ex tuberculis oriri argumento mihi ſunt boves, ſues, & oves; in his enim fere quadrupedibus pulmonis tubercula oriuntur, quæ quæ aquam continent: Sectione namque facta citissime cognoveris cum aqua effluet. Talia autem multo magis in homine quam pecoribus fieri videntur quanto morbosa magis etiam victus ratione utuntur de Inter. Affect. p. 545. qualia tubercula seu hydatides humore consistente lento & pellucido albuminis ovi instar prægnantes cum hydrope thoracis unius lateris actu in nobili Burgundo orthopnœa inveterata defuncto deprehendit Piso de Serosa colluvie S. 3. cap. VII. obs. 53.

Febris hoc in affectu adest, qualis suppuratis familiaris est lenta scilicet & tabida rebus inprimis ad incitas redactis, quo tempore inflammatoria etiam accedere solet si scilicet pulmonum inflammatio fatalis accedat (quod ut plurimum fieri persuadere volunt Acta Berolinensia Vol. X. p. 27.) aut si labes alterius visceris conjuncta sit, sicut Piso in dicto ægro ob tumorem inflammatorium hepatis & in Canonico quodam ob hypochondrii utriusque dextri præsertim tumorem, horrorem & febrim observavit: vel denique pulmonalium tuberculorum inflammatio superveniat, sicut hydropicis ex tuberculo pulmonum factis Hippocr. l. c. rigorem & febrim adscribit, plerique enim exortis ut inquit tuberculis purulenti evadunt, nec hydatides tales citra absessum uspiam se observasse testatur Piso, non semper tamen adesse febrim pluribus observationibus evincunt Wratislavienses in suo de Hydrope pectoris Tractatu: nos in fœmina ex subito fluentibus menstruis perpesso terrore gravi & panico suppressis muliebribus hydrope pectoris correpta inordinatas æstus febrilis sub noctem inprimis exacerbationes animadverterimus licet, in aliis tamen fere nil febrile in principio præcipue detegere potuimus, nisi si nocturnas faucium & linguæ resiccationes subinde recurrentes eo referre libeat.

Adest præterea tussis, idque juxta p. 544. de Int. Affect. sicca, quæ etsi sæpius frequens & valida evadat paucum & tantæ violentiæ improportionatum eliditur: vidimus sub hoc conatu sanguinolenti quid sed sine ullo levamine successisse:

quod si tamen ipsi pulmones etiam quoad vesiculosam suam substantiam ab inundatione seri immunes non sint, aut resorbtionem seri in cavitate pectoris stagnantis in pulmones cum Berolinensibus inducti exemplo Dni. Bredo & du Walw admittere velimus, manifestum est sputa copiosiora tum processura esse.

Porro confertim inquit respirat, vel sicut loco proxime cit. refert erectae cervicis respiratio contingit: haecque difficultas spirandi in consensu acclivium vel post corporis leviorem etiam motum increbescit: quibus demum pedum tumor & unguium contractio malo scilicet increscente, vigore vero corporis marcescente succedit. At vero cum omnia haec recensita signo suppuratis etiam eyeniant: si quis enim ex pulmonis inflammatione purulentus exiterit, febris vexat, tussis sicca & difficultas spirandi detinet, pedes intumescunt & ungues manuum ac pedum contrahuntur. 2. de Morb. p. 476. igitur hanc addit Praeceptor differentiam, quod suppurati citius consumantur & exacerbationes symptomatum manifestiores habeant, hydropici vero tales ad aliquot annos sine insigni valetudinarii sui status mutatione durare valeant, nec sputatione puris interni notas exhibeant: adde etiam quod morbis ex quibus empyema succedere solet antecedenter nullis obnoxii vixerint.

Respiratio haec orthopnoica cum multis aliis morbis familiaris sit, ex praedictis vero signis primarium obtineat locum, quo pacto ab reliquis spirandi difficultatibus dignoscenda sit, determinare difficile est, nisi quod haec crebritas & difficultas spirandi post 3. aut 4. horarum somnum desubito, cum tanto suffocationis periculo ingruat, ut aegri repente ex lecto se proripere liberiorisque auras ergo fenestras aperire & erecta cervice spirare cogantur, procedente vero die sensim lenescat & remittat: quas nocturnas morbi hujus invasiones adeo quosdam pertimuisse constat ut perpetuis potius mallent cosumi vigiliis quam deoubitu supino somno indulgere, erecta enim enim cervice sedendo quasi, reclinato saltem capite liberius aliquando his deliciis perfrui possunt: Hanc ita recidivantem respirandi difficultatem post Riverium, Pisonem, Willisium, Baglivium, Medicos Wratislavienses multi recentiorum Medicorum etiam in Ephemeridibus nostris speciatim Riedlinus, Wepferus, Vicarius & alii pro signo pathognomonico hujus affectus habent, quorum experientia fulti nos ipsi in duobus subjectis hoc morbi genus adesse præduximus & instituta post mortem sectione actu deprehendimus: multum ergo licet huic signo tribuamus, tamen pro infallibili cum Baglivio id asserere needum audemus. Diluvium enim seri in pectore absque simili orthopnœa dari etsi rarius ipsi Medici Wratislavienses concedunt, & Wepferus Ephem. D. 2. A. IX. obs. 229. exemplo Adolescentis ex grandinibus pulmonum aliarumque partium tabidi comprobat: licet enim in hujus dextra pectoris cavitate lib. iii. in pericardio autem lib. j. seri inventa fuerit tamen dextro insuper lobo indurato, sinistro vero inferiori sui parte diaphragmati accreto pulmoneque aqua spumida inundato existente, ad ultimum vitæ articulum semper humili situ decumbere valuit, acclivia sine impedimento scandebat, atque currendo magis quam lento gradu alta petiit. Riverius observ. a Ruffio comm. 3. meminit Virginis thoracem torum aqua virosa repletum habentis quæ sine difficultate spirandi ad mortem usque permansit. Prudenter hinc etiam Helwigius noster in recentissime edita Centur. Ephem. X. obs. 32. absente hoc signo negative concludere dissuadet, qui de reliquo affirmative rectissime ita colligi putat: huic aut illi iterato periculum suffocationis ingruens ex improviso somnum primum excutit, ergo in cavitate thoracis extravasatum serum aut lympha continetur, qua de re tamen ignoscet Vir optimus si dubitare ausim. Asthmaticus apud Sylvaticum Cent. 2. cons. 49. singulis noctibus suffocationis periculum incurrit, quòd nonnisi facta assumptorum & materiæ pituitosæ rejectione per vomitum remittere solebat: an etiam hic hydrope pectorali affectus fuerat ? an hac via suffocationis causa tolli potuerit ? ambigo : nisi forte evacuatio stomachi ex prægressa forte coena lautiori tumidi descensuique ita diaphragmatis obicem ponendo asthma vehementius concitantis per accidens quasi profuerit : constat enim ex observationibus Medicorum tales hydropicos parcissime cibandos esse si nolint paroxysmum concitare, quod cum ipse Wepferus hoc morbi genere conflictatus deprehendisset ad unciam cœnam suam mensurare solebat referente Brunero in ejus Memoria : aut supponere velimus pituitam non tam vomitu quam tussi potius inter vomibundas ventriculi eversiones ex pectore excussam esse , adstantesque deceptos esse. Quid dices de Presbytero cujus meminit Gœkelius D. 2. A. 7. obs. 128. qui asthmate nocturno periodico laborans quoties in lecto cubantem cum membrorum lassitudine anxietate & tristitia paroxysmus corriperet , toties confertim e lecto surgere ac aperta fenestra per accessum aëris externi liberam spirationem sibi procurare cogebatur , ut sic suffocationis effugeret periculum : an & hic sub specie & schemate asthmatis hydrops latitavit ? certe si verum est quod adhibitis ibidem recensitis mediis immunis ab hoc affectu reditus fuerit valde dubito , verus enim hydrops pectoris non tam facile cedit, nisi forte ætatis beneficio, Juvenis enim fuerat, aut singulari DEI providentia id contigerit. Quot morbi spasmodici nocturnas exacerbationes habent qualis is fuit quem D. Alberti sub specie catarrhi suffocativi peculiari Dissertatione proposuit & Sulphuris ☉ti ʒii ope compescuit; utque indubio plane argumento thesin meam evincam, provoco ad Centuriæ Ephem. 1. lectum deferere ac in sella reliquam noctis partem erectus transigere necessum habuerit, quod posimodum frequentius contigit ita ut hora somni metum eidem incusserit. Hic quamvis ab omnibus fere pro hydropico habitus fuerit, tamen aperto post mortem thorace ne quidem 3j aquæ deprehensa est, adeoque hoc morbi genere ipsum periisse quo pacto demonstrabit dictæ observationis Author D. D. Vicarius ego non video. Provocat equidem ad authoritatem Coi, sed irrito plane conatu, etsi enim is pedum œdema acervatim factæ respirationi succedere doceat, quod quidem nullus in dubium vocabit, tamen nullallegitima consequentia demonstrabitur ipsum œdema hoc ex metastasi & transpositione seri in pectoris cavitate hactenus stagnantis ad pedes, derivare, sed potius mali ingravescentis indicia per hoc innuere velle: intumescunt in hoc morbo non saltem pedes sed & corpus de Int. Affect. p. 544. quibusdam etiam venter & scrotum & facies: & nonnulli hinc istud ab interiore alvo provenire existimant cum scilicet ventrem magnum & pedes intumescere videant 2. de Morb. p. 483. quis autem hoc non vi morbi & per propagationem mali fieri negabit? unde quæso strepitus in pectore œdemate præsente proveniret, si omnis in cavo thoracis laticans serositas metastasi quadam ad pedes delata esset? cui bono etiam paracentheſin pectoris commendaret Præceptor? ex cujus tardiori administratione ventrem scrotum & faciem demum intumescere testatur locis jam supra notatis: si enim prodesse debeat eductio aquarum artificialis tempestive eam, priusquam scili. et viscera labem contraxerint irreparabilem, in usum trahere oportet juxta monitum Præceptoris: hydropicos cito secabis, quo pacto præter experientiam Avicennæ, Zacut. Lusitani, Willisii, Guido Patinus memorabili Mercatoris cujusdam exemplo, qui accepto forte fortuna pectoris per ensem ictu evacuataque ita seri in pectore stagnantis copia convaluit, servari posse ægros comprobat: & quamvis ex retroceſſione tumorum pedis hydropicorum vel arthriticorum sponſpontanea aut incongruis medicationibus coacta & violenta omnino ægros difficilius ſpirare & angi, & vice verſa experiamur, adeoque dari metaſtaſes & tranſpoſitiones humorum extra controverſiam ſit, nihil horum tamen in prædicto ægro contigiſſe evidentiſſimum eſt: debuiſſet enim profluente ex œdemate ſcarificato copioſa aqua levamen dyſpnœæ ratione aliquod ſentire, præcipue cum & in ventre vix ℥ij. Aquæ repertæ fuerint: ita & tumore pedum ſuccreſcente difficultas ſpirandi aucta eſt, non ut remiſiſſet, ſicut quidem fieri debuiſſet ſi is per metaſtaſin & non propagationem mali productus fuiſſet: ſicut accidit cum in ventrem erumpit aqua, tum enim confeſtim ſanus & morbo liberatus eſſe videtur, quamvis procedente tempore venter inundatur eademque illa majoraque patiatur obſervante Hippocrate. Denique ſatis manifeſta cauſa difficilioris reſpirii in exuſtatione arteriæ magnæ tartarea & pulmonibus corruptis ſectione deprehenſa eſt ut neceſſum haud ſit hydropem pectoris ſupponere, aut ut verius dicam fingere.

Possem equidem adhuc prædictis signis Hippocraticis palpitationem cordis juxta Sebizium addere, aut deliquia animi recurrentesque lipothymias cum Willisio, torporem item incipientemque brachii paralysin cum Baglivio huc referre, verum cum hæc rarius & concurrentibus aliis extraordinariis circuitum humorum in præcordiis sufflaminantibus obstacula eveniant, missa pro nunc hæc facio.

Progredior ad Hydropem Pericardii, affectum rarissimum & qui fere semper effectus est & productum impedit ob polypos aut ossificationes vasorum, vel tumores & excrescentias in & circa cor consistentes, circuli circa cor vitalis: superflua hinc inter Medicos viget disceptatio utrum hydrocardia hæc sine palpitatione cordis juxta Drelincurtium esse possit, corque facilius in multo quam pauco latice moveri valeat, vel potius polypum semper consequi debere hunc affectum, quod post Galenum Riolanus, Amat. Lusitan. Piso, Tulpius, Bonetus Lowerus experientia sua defendunt siquidem seri hæc p. n. copia non causa sed productum potius palpitationis esse solet. Falluntur certe cum Galeno multi qui palpitationem ex impedita cordis ab exuberante pericardii humoris mole, dilatatione derivant, non enim cum cor dilatatur, sed cum constringitur fit palpitatio, quatenus scilicet supra suam basim assurgens cuspide sua ad costas pertingit pectusque ita ferit: hinc fit omnino, ut cum cor quoad molem suam in similibus affectibus insigniter auctum existat ita ut cavitatem pectoris fere repleat, sternoque hinc propius sit cuspide sua, quoties omni vi adhibita resistentiam polyporum de quorum existentia frustra Kerkringium dubitasse in confesso est, aut ossificatorum vasorum superare contendit, pectus magis feriat, ut plurimumque ita palpitationem producat, præsertim cum basis cordis cum vasorum radicibus ob sanguinem ibi aggestum aut repercussum ampliata ex tumescat: interim accidit etiam ut fracto ejus robore & tono fibrarum suarum enervato copiosa inundatum lympha existens non æque valide lide se attollere & pectus contingere ac ferire valeat, unde aut nulla aut tremula saltem palpitatio sequatur necessum est: ita Artis Pyrobolariæ officialis ex cujus pericardio ingens aquarum copia tanquam ex fonte profluxit cordis pulsum se sentire negabat Act. Berolin. Vol. X. p. 79. Sicut nec in Wepferi puero cujus supra ex D. 2. A. 9. obs. 229. mentionem fecimus palpitatio adfuit.

Absonum ergo erit palpitationem cordis pro signo essentiali hujus affectus venditare qui Lowero judice nullo aliquo certo signo adventum suum indicat: sicut autem frequenter hydrops pectoris cum pericardii hydrope conjungitur, ita utrique affectus magnam habent in symptomatibus suis affinitatem: adest hic etiam respirationis difficultas præsertim a motu fortiori vel ascensu acclivium ea tamen cum differentia, ut oppressio respirationis magis sit anxia quam sonora, adsunt lipothymiæ frequentes, tussicula sicca & magis fere quam in pectoris ascite, lentaque corporis sine causa manifesta contabescentia: pauci tam exquisiti sensus sunt ut cor suum veluti aquæ innatare observare possent sicut Venetus hydrope pectoris & pericardii laborans de quo Hercules Saxonia l. 2. Med. Pract. c. 8. de se testabatur, aut Sexagenarius ille apud Raim. Fortem Cent. 2. conf. 46. qui postquam a duobus annis pondus in pectore, accedente post aliquod tempus motu quodam cordis tremulo & inordinato, sensum ac si cor aquæ innataret, habuit. Zacut. Lusitanus ter vidit hunc affectum, ubi ægri animi deliquio, cordis palpitatione, pulsu duro parvo, nulla præcedente causa Syncope oppressi vitam ducebant, & accedente febricula consumpti sunt: ob quam corporis consumptionem nonnullis affectum hunc Tabis pericardii nomine insignire placuit: quid nobis circa ægrum simili morbo denatum observare licuerit sequens historia docebit.

Juvenis 26. annorum macrioris corporis habitus, qui puer adhuc existens ex satis sublimi ædium tecto præceps factus tanta vi in scamnum foribus adstans impegit, ut illud quidem diffregerit, ipse vero velut exanimis per triduum sine sensu jacuerit. Reconvalescens lente adultiori ætate castra sequutus sæpius equitans excussis habenis incautus adolescens humi prostratus est, & pro more similium licentiosius vixit; spirituosorum liquorum fautor magnus fuit, frigidique potus post incalescentiam corporis ingurgitationibus subitis dedititissimus erat: hic valetudinarius quidem semper fuit maxime tamen ante annos 6. de tussi sicca angustiaque præcordiorum conqueri cœpit, ita ut sub velociori paulo corporis motu anhelus evadat nec acclivia conscendere expedite valeat. An. 1717. cum ex officii sui ratione in Salisfodinis urbi nostræ vicinis lignorum devehendorum curam gerens totos dies in frigidiori aura consumere coactus fuisset, adeo ingravescere expertus est suum malum, ut ob tussim ferinam siccam infomnes ageret noctes & ex leviori etiam corporis motu non saltem multum anheliosior sicut olim evaderet, sed palpitationem cordis etiam validam, conspicuam & ab adstantibus auditu perceptibilem cum pallore faciei cadaveroso lipothymiaque instante experiretur. Aderat præterea arteriæ carotidis sinistræ palpitatio irregularis & valde conspicua, nec pulsui in carpo correspondens; præcipue autem palpitabat tempore dyspnoeæ exacerbatæ. Appetitus est dejectus & si forte quid edat aut bibat, statim cum difficiliori & anxio respirio inflatur venter: pulsus durus est & inæqualis, id est systole & diastole nullam habent continuam proportionem; urina rubra & pauca, alvi dejectiones rariores eæque viridescentes & gypsi instar tartareæ: tussis sicca vehemens, qua tamen nihil fere muci visidioris unquam excluditur, ipseque miratur æger per violentiam hujus nullum adhuc cruentum successisse sputum; calores febriles manifesti nulli, nisi quod lingua faucesque somni tempore arescant, sudoresque colliquativi succedant: abdomen insuper totum distentum, præcipue autem hypochondrium dextrum durum fuerat. quod cum sibi naturale esse credebat æger hic, nullam ejus adhibuit curam, nec in præsens præternaturalem hanc conditio-ditionem esse credidisset, nisi ex non pridem ductæ uxoris qualitate & relatione contrarium didicisset : contabescens ita & marcescens indies pro phthisico non à vulgo tantum, sed Medicis etiam quibusdam, quorum consilio hactenus, frustra licet usus fuerat, reputabatur : sub initium Julii pedes circa malleolos, dexter imprimis, tumere incipiunt, dyspnœa vero in tantum adaucta est, ut nonnisi erectus sedens pedibus demissis & pendentibus pauculam capere quietem valeat, extremaque semper frigida habeat : adhibitis equidem hydragogis eductaque ita seri copia succesit malorum quædam remissio, sed non erant diuturna hæc halcyonia, nam non pedes saltem in dies œdematosi tumoris incrementa experiuntur sed abdomen ipsum jam hydropicum evadit ; sudores colliquativi cessarunt quidem, sed corporis debilitas incrementa notabilia accipit, anxietates & lipothymiæ increbescunt, suffocationesque noctu urgent, ubi etsi pulsus in carpo debilis sit, arteria carotis tamen una cum corde vehementer palpitat, eoque tempore cor sibi comprimi queruletur. Sub initium Augusti in tantum œdema pedis dexteri increvit, ut accedente spontanea in metatarso ruptura, effluente copioso sero pes idem ad genua usque intumuerit, post diem tamen quintum prægresso interiorum ardore externorum vero frigore & alvo, procedentibus semper dejectiones torminibus, liquidiori reddita succesit nulla arte superabilis gangræna & sphacelus, quam paulo post placida excepit analysis.

Obrenta ægre satis pro more hujus loci fecandi corpus licentia, ut dissentientes mathematica demonstratione convinceremus, ægrum non phthisi pulmonari, sed quæ nostra fuerat putatio ex impedimento circuli humorum circa cor vitalis polyposo denatum esse, pectus primum aggressi, nil seri in cavitate hujus utraque deprehendimus, pulmones etsi ob exuberantem cordis & pericardii aquoso humore distenti molem retrusi ad posteriora vix comparuerint sub initium, tamen tenuissimos sine tuberculis, inflammatione, adhæsione ad pleuram multo magis ulceratione aliqua esse competimus. Expericardio dissecto profluxit aqua limpida fere ad lbij. cor erat amplum, sed flaccidum & in ventriculo hujus sinistro notabilis sanguinis grumosi continebatur quantitas, valvulæque venæ cavæ mitrales dictæ, una præcipue harum cum lacertulis suis & columnis carneis ad latera ventriculi exstantibus, asperæ & penitus ossificatæ, aut si mavis silicis instar induratæ fuerant quas etiam curiositatis gratia adhuc conservo. Polypi veri equidem nihil comparuit, sed loco hujus interna aortæ ascendentis superficies salebrosa & inæqualis cum interspersis in tunica interiori concretionibus lapidosis & siliceis, hincque dependente angustia canalis, esse deprehensa est. Abdomen aqua fœtente repletum fuit, omentum pro more hydropicorum putridum, ventriculus extenuatus, flaccidus, & stylo Wedeliano papyraceus, hepatis dexter lobus ventriculo contiguus ad ligamentum umbilicale dictum scirrhosus fuit.

Hydropem pericardii in hoc ægro fuisse nemo negabat, sed hunc causam & non effectum potius morbosum esse quis etiam asseret? ossificatio etenim valvularum & arteriæ incrustatio lapidosa sine dubio ex perpessis in priori ætate externis violentiis orta, fecit, ut non saltem ob difficilem & laboriosam sanguinis ex corde in arterias distributionem cor & arteria carotis palpitarent, sed etiam secessiones seri vitiosæ & præternaturales in pericardium contigerint. Notum quippe est ex Anatomicis valvularum venalium eum esse usum ut sanguinis in venas ex cordis ventriculo regressum impediant: dum enim mucro cordis ejusdem basi in quavis Systole adducitur columnæ carneæ quibus valvularum tendines adhærent, sursum moventur & ita filamenta dicta remittuntur, quo fit ut valvulæ iis adhærentes relaxatæ etiam, non difficulter a sanguine in cordis systole expresso sursum propellantur ac proinde ostium venæ exacte claudant: recedentibus autem in diastole a venarum orificiis longius his columnis, extensisque ita fibris tendinosis cuspides valvularum diducuntur versus cordis cordis latera, sanguinique ita ad cor refluo viam pandunt. Ossificatis autem adeoque tensioni & relaxationi non amplius obsequentibus his valvulis, filamentis & columnis existentibus necessario turbabitur circulus humorum, quatenus in systole quavis non in patentes unice arteriarum ductus, sed in venas non satis vicio valvularum munitas propellatur sanguis, unde plus cordi accedet quam quidem protundere possit, angustiori præsertim arteriæ, ut dictum, diametro existente & resistentia vi cordis propellentis ex denegata vasorum dilatatione aucta, præsente. Osseam autem talem vasa pati & membranas metamophorsin docet abunde origo ossium de corde Cervi, quales ossificationes arteriæ magnæ in homine quoque contingere docent Harvæus, Platerus, Dodonæus, Bartholinus, Willisius, Mayow, Piso, Riolanus, Horstius & alii, & Wepferus suo comprobat proprio exemplo: si de valvularum ossificatione forte quispiam dubitaret, evolvat D. 1. A. 3. observ. 282. ubi Raygerus noster refert se Parisiis in futore quodam inopina morte ex vivis sublato valvulas semilunares osseas reperiisse, & Acta Berolinens. Vol. IX. p. 57. referunt in 15. annos palpitatione cordis laborante, & sub paroxysmo hujus exspirante valvulas cordis semilunares itidem ossificatas repertas fuisse. Si ergo in aorta hujus, quem supra hydrope pectoris defunctum esse disputavimus, plurimus tactu deprehendebatur tartarus, indeque sine dubio sat notabilis aqua pericardii congregata fuerit, non insolitum fuit ipsum dyspnœa & nocturnis suffocationibus correptum fuisse, hæc enim & nostro contigisse ægro jam notavimus.

Si denique causam scrutari libeat cur arteria carotis sinistra saltem & non etiam dextra palpitarit? repetendum est ex Anatomicis, hanc quidem ex subclavia dextra prodire, illam vero ex loco intermedio intra duas subclavias emergere; cum ergo arteriæ ascendentis portio ob concretiones lapidosas angustior & dilatationi resistens evaserit, redundat omnis ſub quavis ſyſtole ex corde protruſa ſanguinis moles in hanc, æqualisque ita præpeditur humorum diſtributio.

Judicet jam ex dictis B. L. jure ne, an injuria dubiam dixerim morborum horum diagnoſin? monitosque eſſe velim Practicos juniores præcipue, ne ſtatim de morbo rariori tanquam ex tripode uni inhærentes ſigno ſententiam ſuam pronuncient, ſe ipſos ita vulgi & malevolorum cenſuræ, Artem vero ſaluberrimam contemptui & deriſui exponant. De lumbricis in cavo abdominis repertis, intestinisque ab eis perforatis.

EOdem anno moriebatur puer, septem annos natus, ab aliquo tempore multis vexatus doloribus & lancinationibus infimi ventris: qui vero, licet fortissimo gauderet appetitu, sensim contabuit & mortuus est. Inciso abdomine primo offendimus aquam præter consuetudinem in abdomine fluctuantem, flavescentem, ad aliquot uncias. Qua ope spongiæ ablata, vidimus vermes sive lumbricos teretes, quales in hominibus vulgo esse solent, & inter hos unum adhuc vivum licet sectio die post mortem fieret, inter circumvolutiones intestinorum oberrantem, longitudine sex digitorum transversorum & crassitie calamum scriptorium mediocrem æquantem. Intestina tenuia aliquot foraminibus pertusa, & in eis varios adhuc lumbricos offendimus, imprimis vero in aliqua intestini tenuis parte tumor durus, rubens, aliquot foraminibus pervius se monstrabat, per quæ foramina, vermes sine dubio transierunt. In thorace duæ glandulæ ad œsophagum, circa quintam thoracis vertebram sitæ, valde in hoc cadavere vere tumidæ erant, cum alias sæpe in adultis vix, aut saltem non nisi magna industria inveniri possint.

Anatome juvenis phthisici ex hæmoptysi, in quo vasa lactea copiosa, foramen p. n. in œsophago, aliaque notatu digna reperiebantur.

STudiosus quidam Norimbergensis, annos septendecim natus & phthisi defunctus, aperiebatur Altorfii die XIII. Aprilis An. 1718. Tenerioris ab infantia erat constitutionis, debilis & gracilis, pectus habebat compressum, faciem coloris vividi, & ab aliquo tempore nunc cum, nunc sine tussi, notabilem sanguinis copiam per os rejecerat: quæ vero hæmoptysis tandem ita increvit, ut sæpe sanguinem ad libras duas una vice rejiceret, hocque aliquando sæpius, ita ut mirati sint multi, ipsum tamdiu supervixisse. Successu temporis vero cum sanguine quoque pus excrevit. Tandem ejectiones sanguinis e pectore per bimestre quidem spatium cessaverant, sed tunc frequens sæpeque adeo larga narium hæmorrhagia supervenit, ut aliquoties actum esse de ægro existimaverint amici. Accesserat simul insignis ardor supra sinistrum ventriculi orificium, qui omnium remediorum vim eludebat. Respiratio erat semper difficilis, & non nisi in dextro latere decumbere aut quiescere poterat, donec tandem placide obiret. In sectione vasa sanguifera in omento, ventriculo & mesenterio, licet tantam sanguinis copiam amiserat, sanguine tamen valde erant turgida, & licet sectio viginti quatuor horis post mortem institueretur, tamen Studiosis præsentibus copiosissima vasa lactea, chylo repletissima, per totum intestinorum tenuium tractum atque per mesenterium, imo in ipso duodeno, jucundo vidimus spectaculo: quod inde ortum esse videtur, quia ad ultimum vitæ halitum amici emulsionibus cordialibus, aquis ac gelatinis roborantibus ipsum refocillare studuerant: quæ facile in vasa lactea intrabant, eaque tam pulchre replebant. In thorace pars dextra pulmonis pleuræ tantum in parte suprema pectoris; pars sinistra vero ei magna ex parte firmissime jungebatur, totusque pulmo multis intus tuberculis duris erat obsitus, & si totus lobus premeretur, pus per asperam arteriam ex variis intus ulceribus copiosum effluebat. Maxime vero mirabamur pulmonem sinistrum inter & pleuram, ubi non adhærebat, colluviem quandam fuscam, fibram superantem, & odoris medicamentosi, haud ingrati, repertam fuisse. Cujus in originem cum inquirerem, vidimus tandem cum stupore in œsophago duos pollices supra diaphragma foramen pollicis latitudine, oris nigricantibus undique cinctum, per quod sine dubio tanta liquoris copia in pectus effluxerat, qui assumtas ante obitum aquas cordiales redolebat. Hoc foramen & quæ forte prægrella est inflammatio, etiam causa continui illius ardoris circa hunc locum, de quo antea dixi, fuisse videtur. Ceterum musculi pyramidales abdominis in hoc cadavere deficiebant, & quia diu nulla alimenta solida assumserat, intestina crassa exiliora tenuibus apparebant, & non nisi paucissimas fæces continebant.

Tandem in hoc ſtatu Altorfium, patriam ſuam, ſe transferri curavit. Erat ipſi tunc pulſus continuo celer, æſtus præternaturalis, præſertim aliquot horis poſt paſtum, genæ tunc rubebant, reſpiratio difficillima, & circa veſperam horripilationes ſentiebat, urina tamen fere ſemper naturalis. Cadaver menſe Auguſto An. 1718. apertum demonſtravit inſignem materiæ purulentæ, fœtidiſſimæ, digitosque quaſi rodentis copiam, in dextro pectoris latere deliteſcentem, pleura variis in locis eroſa, coſtisque nigris & carie exeſis, pulmone pluribus ſacculis ſive vomicis purulentis referto, & magnam partem conſumto, hinc inde pleuræ fortiter juncto. Siniſter pulmonis lobus ſanus quidem erat, pleuræ tamen quoque adhærens, nullus vero liquor peregrinus in hac pectoris cavitate reperiebatur. Si hic æger juſto tempore paracenteſin admiſiſſet, curari forte potuiſſet. Si vero diutius differtur, materiam purulentam pleuram & coſtas arrodere, hasque carie afficere, ac pulmones magis magisque deſtruere hoc ex cadavere conſpicimus: hinc neceſſario mors ſequi debet.

De Lege Regia, digeſtor. Lib. XI. Tit. VIII. quod prægnantes mortuæ, antequam fœtus ſit exciſus, non ſint humandæ.

De ruptura uteri in partu difficili.

VIr Clariſſimus Maximilianus Preuſſius, Protophyſicus Vratislavienſis celeberrimus, in ultimis Academiæ hujus Ephemeridibus, Centuria nempe nona pag. 21, notabilem rerulie caſum, de utero à fœtu in partu diſrupto. Quoniam vero haud multum diſſimilem caſum paullo poſt obſervavi, operæ pretium eſſe exiſtimavi, eum ipſum quoque cum publico hic communicare: quia ſæpius mihi contingere videtur, quam bactenus vulgo fuit creditum. Vocabar nimirum cum Altorfii adhuc eſſem, An. 1719. die quarto Maji, circa mediam noctem in oppidum, Engelthal dictum, duobus milliaribus ab Altorfii diſtans, ad dicographi uxorem, partu difficili laborantem, ut ei ſuccurrerem, ſeorumque una cum matre, ſi fieri poſſet, ſervarem. Elegeram mihi itineris nocturni comitem, Medicinæ Studioſum, Jo. Petr. Diefenbachium, Moeno-Francofurtenſem: ſed, cum adveniremus, tribus jam ante adventum noſtrum horis, infelicem parturientem, poſt maximos pariendi conatus, quos ab hora matutina quaſi decima, ad undecimam veſpertinam ſuſtinuerat, ſubito triſtique fato defunctam eſſe, ex marito & aſſtantibus audiebamus; fœtu tamen nondum edito, ſed in utero adhuc exiſtente. Cum vero admitteremur ad mulierem mortuam videndam, reperiebamus manum fœtus ſiniſtram ex vagina uteri propendentem, modiceque adhuc calentem: quopropter ſuaſi auctorque fui marito, ut cadaver mox incideretur; partim & potissimum ad fœtum, si forte adhuc viveret, servandum; partim, ut caussa tam subitaneæ mortis investigaretur: quoniam alias, ut satis notum est, mulieres parturientes per tres quatuorve dies, imo adhuc diutius tali in statu vivere possint; sicuti testantur Auctores in arte obstetricandi versatissimi, & usus quotidianus. Postquam igitur maritus annueret, sectionem aggressus sum, apertoque prudenter abdomine, mox tanquam insolitum quid in talibus casibus, sanguinem in cavo abdominis, offendimus. Cum vero abdomen ulterius, ad uterum melius conspiciendum, aperiremus, invenimus primo intestina omnia ab utero sursum ad hypochondria protrusa, sicuti in gravidis ordinarie fieri solet; verum inferiorem uteri partem corpore peregrino membranaceo, vasculoso coopertam vidimus. Mirabamur hanc rerum faciem, & quid hoc rei esset ulterius inquisivi. At, accuratiori indagine facta, magno cum stupore reperimus, latus sinistrum uteri omnino perruptum sive perforatum esse, caputque infantis per inusitatam hanc uteri aperturam in cavum abdominis, usque ad oculos penetrasse; membranaceum vero & vasculosum illud corpus esse membranas fœtus, per rupturam sive hiatum illum uteri in abdomen propulsas. Extraximus vero mox sine mora, & sine ulla uteri incisione, per hunc hiatum, summa cum adstantium admiratione, infantem masculum, mortuum quidem, sed egregie adhuc calentem, una cum secundinis; unde non sine ratione judicavi, infantem hunc â paucis forte demum momentis mortuum esse. Cum vero nullum amplius pulsum in funiculo umbilicali, nec vitam in reliquo fœtu perciperem, attentius postea uterum & præcipue locum illum, ubi disruptus erat, considéraví; ubi eum circa oras rupturæ nigricantem, tenuem & quasi putridum inveni; pars vero uteri superior extraordinariam crassitiem, trium scilicet digitorum, habebat; quæ, ut & tota reliqua uteri pars, colorem & consistentiam naturalem obtinebat, nihilque præterea cerea morbosi deprehendebatur. Percontanti mihi causam hujus corruptionis uteri, & quibusnam symptomatibus, durante graviditate, mulier hæc afflicta fuerit, maritus, obstetrix aliique domestici retulerunt, eam toto graviditatis tempore de nullo morbo vel singulari symptomate ecquestam esse; verum ad ultimum usque diem bene se habuisse, floridum faciei colorem ostendisse, bonoque semper appetitu gavisam esse; sic, ut mirandum sane sit, unde talis uteri, eaque tam subita corruptio orta fuerit. Nam tempore matutino, hora circiter decima, doloribus partus naturalibus correpta erat, qui per aliquot horas satis vegeti & naturali modo continuarunt; verum fœtus non sequebatur, sed manus tandem sinistra prodibat: quam quidem obstetrix loci illius, satis alias perita, blande semper, ut ajebat, reponere, sed frustra, tentabat. Tandem versus vesperam ejus diei dolores partus subito remittebant, parturiens insolita debilitate corripiebatur, & interea, dum me accersi curabant, mortua erat. Annos ætatis habebat XXXVI. corporis staturæ erat mediocris, & jam ter antea, licet semper difficulter, infantes robustos & vegetos, feliciter excluserat. In secundinis nullum prorsus vitium apparebat & nihil quidquam mali in infante, qui magnus omnino & robustus erat, deprehendebatur; hinc vix dubitandum fœtum hunc vivum adhuc excindi potuisse, si modo sectio illa matris mortuæ citius fuisset instituta. Quomodo vero uterus hic adeo corrumpi potuerit, & putredine sive sphacelo quasi, idque unico tantum in loco, corripi, reliqua uteri parte illæsa; & quidem sic, ut mulier semper bene, toto gestationis tempore, se habuerit, & simul fœtus tam magnus & robustus generari in utero tali morbido, sicut saltem apparuerat, potuerit, res est, quæ, ut lubens fateor, meum ingenium superat; quamque propterea doctioribus investigandam relinquere, quam incertis conjecturis lectores defatigare malo.

IN utroque labro parvas exiſtere glandulas, pro ſubjectorum diverſitate varias, nunc minores, grani milii magnitudine; nunc majores lentis quandoque & quod excedit, magnitudine, etiam in vulgus hodie notum eſt, & non ſolum in cadaverum anatome, ſeparata interna oris tunica videri; verum etiam in multis hominibus vivis, ſi alterutrum labrum altero digito intus in ore, altero extus prehenditur, manifeſte ſentiri percipique poteſt. MUltas quidem jam habemus figuras de lingua; verum tam multa in ea notanda occurrunt, præsertim ob diversitatem earum in diversis subjectis, ut tamen nondum omnia satis recte in illa demonstratæ sint. Constare hoc vel ex eo potest, quod adhuc nuper tres egregii viri Vaterus, Vitebergensis, Coschwvitzius, Hallensis; & Waltherus, Lipsiensis, quilibet peculiares & novos in ea ductus salivales quæsiverint & descripserint. An circulus sanguinis veteribus fuerit cognitus, occasione loci veterii Scholiasta Euripidis & Plutarchi.

VErus atque notatu dignissima est parœmia, Nihil hodiè dici, quod non dictum sit prius. (a) Quæ, sicuti multis in rebus longe est verissima, ita & eam de circuitu sanguinis in corpore animalium, ab HARVEO præcedenti seculo descripto, veram esse, multi variis eisque sat plausibilibus argumentis, ut alios nunc taceam, ex antiquissimo Medicorum parente, HIPPOCRATE scilicet, probare annisi sunt: in quo, cum locum unum alterumve invenissent, ubi circuli & periodi sanguinis vocabulis utitur, (τῆ κύκλῳ καὶ τῆς περιόδῳ τὸ αἷμα τρέχει) mox ex solis vocibus, partim, ut opinor, ex invidia contra Harveum, inventionis gloriam ipsi invidentes, partim ex nimia & stolida quadam erga veteres reverentia, ac si veteres omnia sciviſſent, & recentiores nihil novi invenire valuiſſent, concludere voluerunt, Harveum non esse inventorem circuli sanguinis, sed illum jam Hippocrati fuisse notum atque descriptum. Quod autem Hippocratis hac in re verba, præterea que nihil contineat, unde certo intelligi, vel saltem verisimili conjectura induci possit, ipsum sanguinis periodum, uti ab Harveo describitur, sciviſſe; egregie inter alios vir magni judicii Archibaldus Pitcarnius edocuit, (b) quia ex variis locis Hippocratis ostendit, virum hunc innumera continere dicta contra veram sanguinis circulationem pugnantia, quæ profecto non scripsiſſet,

a) Terentius in Prologo Eunuchi.
b) in dissertat. de Inventoribus.

set, si eam rite cognovisset; e contrario, abunde potius inde perspicere licet, Hippocrati hanc circulationem fuisse incognitam, præsertim cum ne mentionem quidem faciat de transitu sanguinis ex arteriis in venas: sic, ut potius concludendum: quicunque nuquam motum sanguinis circulatorium clare descripsit, & sæpissime talia protulit, quæ veræ circulationi sunt contraria atque repugnant, eum hanc circulationem ignorasse. Atqui hæc vera sunt de Hippocrate. Ergo verum circulum sanguinis ignoravit.

Longe autem majori verisimilitudine demonstrari posse existimo, ex veteribus alios circulum sanguinis clarius Hippocrate indigitasse; quamvis, ut verum fateamur; non eadem accuratione ac Harveus eum descripsit: tamen quilibet satis facile ex verbis eorum mox recensendis colligere poterit, id quod motum sanguinis circulatorium appellamus, ipsis non fuisse prorsus incognitum.

Sub circuli sanguinis nomine intelligunt Autores motum, seu fluxum sanguinis ex corde in arterias, ex arteriis in venas, ex venis rursus ad cor, & sic porro; quod omnes hodie concedunt, quia motus hic certissimis experimentis demonstratus & extra omnem dubitationem positus est. Igitur si hoc verum esse datur, concludi forte sine errore, ex verbis mox proponendis, poterit, veteri cuidam Scholiastæ Euripidis hunc sanguinis motum fuisse notum; atque simul inde probabiliter inferri licebit, si Scholiastæ, tanquam Philosopho, fuerit cognitus, ergo & Medicis, si non omnibus, tamen quibusdam, perspectum fuisse.

Verba autem, in quibus sententiam nostram contineri arbitror, leguntur in scholiis ad Hecubam Euripidis, ex editione Anglicana Barnesii p. 20. animadversione ad versum 567. & in editione quadam Basileæ 1544. impressa, in 8. pag. 47. atque ita se habent: Διχῶσαι πνεύματος ἀὶ φλέβες ἐν αἷς τὸ αἷμα διοχετεύεται ἐκ τῶν ἀρτηριῶν. διαφέρει δὲ ἀρτηρία φλεβὸς τῷ τὴν μὲν ἀρτηρίαν ἴσχειν πνεῦμα πολὺ, καὶ ὑποκάτω κεῖσθαι τὰς φλέβας, αἷμα δὲ ὀλίγον, τὴν δὲ φλέβα αἷμα μὲν πολὺ, καὶ ἀνωκεῖσθαι τῆς ἀρτηρίας, πνεῦμα δὲ ὀλίγον. Quæ verba ſic latine verto: Canales ſpirituum Venæ, (ſunt) in quas ſanguis tranſit ex arteriis. Differt autem arteria a vena: arteria enim multos habet ſpiritus, & ſubjacet venæ, ſanguinem vero paucum; at vena ſanguinem quidem multum, & collocatur ſupra arteria, ſpiritum vero paucum (continet.)

Ex quibus verbis non ſolum conſtare mihi videtur, Viro huic Philoſopho motum ſanguinis circularem ex arteriis in venas non ignotum fuiſſe, cum clariſſime dicat, ſanguinem ex arteriis in venas tranſire; ſed etiam eum plura ex anatome ſcivisſe: diſſerit enim poſtea de differentia ac diverſo arteriarum venarumque ſitu, & de diverſis earum contentis, nimirum quod arteriæ multos habeant ſpiritus, id eſt, ſanguinem floridum, ſubtilem, mobilem, quem ſpirituoſum Medici appellare ſolent; venæ vero ſpiritum paucum, quia in his ſanguis craſſus ac niger reperitur, quæ omnia ſano & explicato ſenſu ſatis vera ſunt; quorum tamen ulteriorem explicationem jam miſſam facimus, & potius ad rem ipſam properamus, ut ſcilicet probemus, circulum ſanguinis ex citatis noſtri Scholiaſtæ verbis demonſtrari poſſe.

Itaque cum circulus ſanguinis potiſſimum in motu ejus, ſive tranſitu ex arteriis in venas, conſiſtat, atque hoc phænomenon indubitatum indicium & pathognomonicum quaſi circuli ſanguinis ſignum ſit, quo præſente, circulus ſanguinis contingit, quo abſente circulus hic non peragitur; ideoque concludo: qui hoc præcipuum ſanguinis periodi phænomenon ſcivit, ille etiam rem ipſam intellexit. Scholiaſtes enim hic non nudis circuli aut periodi ſanguinis vocabulis uſus eſt, ut Hippocrates; ſed potius perſpicuis verbis rem ipſam, motum nimirum ſanguinis ex arteriis in venas, ſicut ex citato loco conſtat, deſcripſit, & clare ob oculos poſuit. Præterea, quia veteres ſciverunt, originem arteriarum eſſe in corde, ſicuti clarum eſt ex Hippocrate

& Galeno, (a) facile erat Philoſopho ita ratiocinari: Si ſanguis ex arteriis tranſit in venas, ne arteriæ fiant vacuæ, ex corde novus ſanguis in locum effluentis neceſſario debet ſuccedere, quia nullæ aliæ in arterias dantur viæ. Deinde, ſi ſanguis perpetuo in venas influeret ex arteriis, & non in aliam partem evacuaretur, non poſſet omnis capi a venis. Quare, quia venæ deſinunt in corde, ut veteribus quoque non fuit incognitum; hinc neceſſe eſt, ut in cor ſe rurſus exonerent. OBSERVATIO CLXXXVIII.

DN. D. LAURENTII HEISTERI.

De incerto infanticidii signo ex pulmonis fœtus innatatione vel submersione.

SI quid est, quod multas difficultates, disceptationes & lites inter Medicos æque ac in foro excitat, id profecto sunt casus, quos vocant, Medico-legales, & maxime inter hos judicium de infanticidio, signaque, quibus cognoscatur, ac certe determinetur, utrum fœtus sive infans, furtiva venere conceptus & clandestino partu enixus, si mortuus reperitur, ante partum, in utero sponte sit defunctus, an violentam mortem obierit: quia secundum hæc indicia Jureconsulti & judices de matre, aliisve, qui adfuerunt, vel capite plectendis, vel a mortis pœna absolvendis, sententiam pronunciare solent. Scortula enim, illicita venere gravida facta, ut pro virginibus postea se venditare haberique queant, ne honoris detrimentum capiant, necibus sæpe miserorum infantum nefando detestandoque crimine facinora sua occultare atque expirare student: &, licet malitiose innocentes infantes obtruncaverint, partus vero clandestinus singulari justoque Dei judicio palam fiat, fœtusque enixus etiam reperiatur, tamen, ut postea capitis pœnam, quam infanticidium sequi probe norunt, effugiant, negant atque pernegant, se fœtui vim intulisse aut eum interfecisse; verum vel in vel ante partum ipsum obiisse, mortuumve natum esse, constanter plerumque ac pertinacissime affirmant.

Verum,

Digitized by Google

Verum, quia his in caſibus fides ipſis merito non habetur a judice prudenti, legesque divinæ juxta & humanæ vindictam clamant, pœnamque capitis, ob ſanguinem innocenter profuſum, exigunt, judices Medicis demandant, ut in fœtu ſive corpore, ut vocant, delicti, inquirant, utrum ille fœtus mortuus ſit editus, an violentam manum expertus fuerit: ne matres innocentes damnent, nocentesve temere abſolvant.

Hic vero graviſſimus lapis offenſionis objicitur Medicis, nodusque duriſſimus, imo plus quam Gordius reſolvendus: dum ſigna illa, quæ fœtum vel ſponte mortuum, vel violenter occiſum certe demonſtrent, adeo dubia & incerta ſunt, ut nihil ſupra. Non jam dicam de ſignis in univerſum, quæ ad hanc rem faciunt; verum de eo tantum, quod ex pulmonis ſubmerſione & innatatione in aqua deſumi, & a non paucis, præſertim etiam recentioribus nonnullis, pro certiſſimo & infallibili haberi ſolet, paucis hic agam, & quid de eo ſentiendum ſit, ex nupera quadam eaque inſigni obſervatione illuſtrabo, ut & JCti & Medici cautius in ſimilibus rebus agere mercarique diſcant, quam ſæpe hactenus factum eſt.

Notius vero eſt hodiernis Medicis quam notiſſimum, fœtum neque humanum, neque beſtiarum, in utero reſpirare, aut reſpirare poſſe: quia non ſolum uterus, in quo ſitus eſt fœtus, in gravidis exactiſſime clauſus & muco tenaciſſimo obturatus eſt, ut aer eum ingredi nequeat; verum etiam quia fœtus adhuc duplici, præter uterum, membrana eaque ſatis denſa, quaſi in duplici veſica, includitur, ut aer ad fœtum nullo poſſit pervenire modo. Præterea etiam liquidum ſive aqua, cui ut piſcis innatat, eum ambit, in qua nulla, ut notum eſt, fieri poteſt reſpiratio: & propterea, qui fœtus, vel mortua matre mortui ex alvo exſcinduntur, vel qui mortui partu excluduntur, pulmones habere collapſos, nigricantes obſervamus & ſi tales pulmones vel integri, vel in fruſta diſſecti in aquam conjiciuntur, ad lapidis inſtar aliusve corporis gravioris

mox fundum petunt. Illorum vero animalium fœtuumque pulmones, qui extra utetum plus minus vixerunt & respirarunt, vel etiam pulmones fœtuum, qui non respirarunt, & in quorum pulmones aer flatu fuit vel semel ac leviter tantum injectus, mox aquæ, si ei immittantur, innatant: ita, ut aer immissus in pulmones tantam habeat efficaciam, qua pulmones, alias fundum petentes, in superficie aquæ detineat, fundumque petere impediat. Ex his igitur præcipue experimentis hactenus plerique dijudicare, atque tanquam infallibiliter decidere voluerunt, num fœtus extra uterum vixerit & respiraverit nec ne. (a)

Attamen non defuerunt nonnulli, qui horum signorum certitudinem in dubium vocarunt, atque inprimis ZELLERUS, Professor Tubingensis, peculiari dissertatione demonstravit, pulmonum in aqua submersionem infanticidas non absolvere, eandemque pulmonum submersionem nullo modo certum signum esse animal, aut fœtum non vixisse: quia subinde durities vel scirrhus in pulmonibus, aliave caussa, eos tam graves & ponderosos reddit, ut, licet animal vixerit, satisque diu respiraverit, pulmones tamen prædictam ob caussam submergantur. Si quis igitur ex submersione pulmonum judicaret, fœtum talem non respirasse, adeoque extra uterum non vixisse, graviter profecto erraret: cum posset esse occisus, & pulmones propter vitium aliquod peterent fundum. Ita enim cadaver juvenis annos septendecim nati, & ex phthisi mortui, Altorfii quondam secui; cujus pulmones, ob duros tumores in eis deprehensos, aquæ injecti fundum petebant; licet juvenis sine dubio integros septendecim annos respiraverit. Igitur, ſi in fœtu ſimilis pulmonum conſtitutio obſervaretur, alia vero indicia violentæ manus aut cædis deprehenderentur, ob pulmonis ſubmerſionem infanticida non eſſet abſolvenda.

Alterum vero & contrarium, ſi nimirum pulmones fœtus aquæ innatant, tanquam certius hucusque, imo infallibile a quamplurimis habitum eſt ſignum, fœtum extra uterum vixiſſe & reſpiraſſe, feminamque talem, quæ ſimilem fœtum enixa eſſet, infantem vel ex inſtituto, vel ſaltem gravi negligentia interfeciſſe. Fuerunt quidem nonnulli, ſed pauci, qui, fœtus in utero jam mortui pulmones putrefactione aliave ratione ita poſſe rarefieri & mutari, ut poſtea aquæ innatent, eodem modo, ut corpora ſubmerſorum, licet fœtus aerem nunquam hauſerit, ſtatuerunt. Plerique vero his contradicunt, & præſertim Rivinus olim atque Langius, Lipſienſes, & Collegium Medicum Francofurti ad Viadrum cum Schreyero (a) itemque haud pridem, cum quæſtio hæc in Suecia agitaretur, Medicus eruditus Suecus, VAN HOORN, ſicut Acta literaria Sueciæ & nova litteraria germanice ſcripta, quæ Lipſiæ prodeunt, docuerunt, poſt illos evincere docto ſcripto allaboravit, pulmonem putrefactione aut corruptione non ita mutari, poſſe ut aquæ innatet; verum illos pulmones, qui extra uterum non reſpirarunt, (ſi flatus non fuerit immiſſus) fundum ſemper petere, idque experientia & obſervationibus ſuis, quas in illis epiſtolis deſcripſit, firmare ſtabilireque contendit. Verum quia nuper exemplum vidi, ubi contrarium obtinuit, ipſi hoc in argumento aſſentire non poſſum; ideoque publicæ utilitatis cauſſa meam placet obſervationem, notatu digniſſimam, hic deſcribere, ut eo evincam, ſigna hæc eſſe fallaciſſima.

Die XIV. menſis Julii hujus anni 1722. vocabar hic ad mulierem plebejam, quæ per quinque jam dies in partu erat verſata, fœtum vero eniti non potuerat. Remedia ante, pro more mulierum, varia adhibita fuerunt partum promoventia, externa & interna, quia fœtus in ſitu erat naturali, ſed omnia fruſtra. Quoniam vero interea parturiens ad ſummam erat redacta debilitatem, & mortem brevi timerent ipſa & adſtantes, præſertim quia jam a biduo motum fœtus non amplius perceperat, dolores parturiendi ceſſaverant, & inde fœtum mortuum, maxime quia etiam fœtor cadaveroſus ex utero proveniebat, judicabant; hinc ut manu ſuccurrerem, fœtumque mortuum extraherem, rogabant, ne mater una cum fœtu periret. Cum vero manus admoverem, capitis fœtus inuſitatam magnitudinem, cauſſam partus hujus difficilis inveniebam; nullum arteriarum pulſum in fœtus capite, præſertim etiam in ita dicta fontanella, ſeu fonte pulſatili, percipiebam, epidermidem jam a capite recedentem, illudque adeo orificio uteri interno infixum & quaſi incuneatum deprehendebam, ut, poſtquam multos labores fruſtra ſolis manibus adhibueram, tandem caput aperire, cerebrumque educere & inſtrumento fœtum extrahere cogerer; quem etiam tandem, ſi capitis apertionem excipias, integrum protrahebam.

Fuerat hic fœtus valde magnus, præſertim caput: ſexus erat virilis, in toto corpore lividus, cuticula ubique recedebat a cute ſubjecta livida & virideſcente, inprimis vero ſcrotum jam totum fere putridum & nigrum obſervabatur: quæ ſigna ſatis demonſtrant, fœtum jam per aliquod tempus in utero mortuum fuiſſe. Diſſecui vero eodem adhuc die cadaver, præſentibus aliquot Medicinæ Studioſis, & pulmonem quoque nigricantem & flaccidum inveni, ſicut in fœtibus, qui in utero mortui ſunt, aut qui nunquam reſpirarunt, deprehendi ordinarie ſolet. tione, ut Auditoribus meis demonſtrarem, quomodo pulmones horum fœtuum fundum peterent, contra meam adſtantiumque exſpectationem, innatabant; & licet lobos pulmonis etiam in fruſtra diſſecarem, nullum tamen fundum petiit, ſed omnia innatarunt, ſicut in eis, qui extra uterum vixerunt & reſpirarunt. Hunc vero fœtum in utero mortuum fuiſſe, ex ſignis modo recenſitis, putredine ſcilicet, fœtore, livore, epidermidis a cute diſceſſu, aliisque circumſtantiis ſatis certum eſt; neque flatus ullus in pulmones hos injectus eſt; neque dici facile poteſt, fœtum hunc, qui orificio uteri interno, quaſi incuneatus hæſit, & tam arcte conſtrictus fuit, ut nil, niſi bregmatis regio, digitis tangi potuerit, reſpirare potuiſſe, aut reſpiraſſe: quia pulmones non adeo rubicundum, ut ii, qui reſpirarunt, ſed magis nigricantem colorem habuerunt, uterique orificium arctiſſime conſtrictum, aeris ingreſſum impediviſſe videtur. Imo ſi quis etiam contendere vellet, fœtum in tali ſitu vel quod veriſimilius, ruptis membranis & effuſis humoribus, quia aeri tunc adius conceditur in uterum, mox reſpirare, & poſtea adhuc in utero mori poſſe, ſequitur etiam inde id, quod volumus: Indicium ſcilicet ex pulmonis fœtus innatatione non eſſe certum ad probandum vel decidendum fœtum neceſſario vivum fuiſſe natum, ſive extra uterum adhuc vixiſſe, reſpiraſſe, & interfectum fuiſſe: quia apud meretrices ibi quoque diu hærere, profuſisque humoribus, utero aperto reſpirare & tamen tandem ante partum adhuc in utero ſine ulla vi externa mori poteſt. Ex his igitur conſtat, huic experimento ſoli inpoſterum minime fidem eſſe habendam: licet, præter ſupra jam citatos, varii adhuc recentiores ſcriptores innatationem pulmonis, pro ſigno infallibili fœtum extra uterum vixiſſe, habeant. OBSERVATIO CLXXXIX.

DN. D. GEORGII TOBIÆ WEISMANNI.

Nævi materni hæreditarii, expirante nomine masculo, expirantes.

NOn adeo singulare aut rarum quid est, infantes recenter natos variis commaculatos nævis conspici, quorum causa in depravata gravidarum matrum fortiori imaginatione utplurimum quæritur & fundatur: producemus vero hic istiusmodi casus, ubi vulgare hoc principium vix sufficiet. Novimus honestissimam familiam, quæ quartam jam usque in progeniem in liberis ex descendentibus masculis oriundis sexus utriusque nucham macula rutilante, certo tempore quasi flammea, satisque lata pictam monstrat: filiarum autem sororumque liberi utriusque sexus, mutato nomine, signo hoc familiæ igneo omnes & constanter carent. Rationem negatæ imaginationis maternæ fundamus in hoc, quod bini in lucem editi fuerint fœtus ab uxore unius filii flammeo hoc stigmate notati, antequam hæreditariam in marito maculam unquam conspexerit, secuti dein alii duo liberi cum eodem hoc signo in lucem prodierunt, sic ut jocosam Patri suspicionem forte movere posset mater vacillantis fidelitatis matrimonialis, si in posterum sequeretur partus tali macula carens. Solidam rarioris hujus phænomeni rationem obstrictissimè expetimus ac expectamus ab ingeniis sagacioribus, nobis enim talem, quæ gustui satisfacere potuerit, invenire hactenus nondum licuit.

Uſus Decocti Viſci Querni Polychreſtus.

MAtrona ultra ſexagenaria, arthritica, cachectica, per tempus benè longum lecto affixa medicorum animos & curas valdè defatigavit, uſurpata enim fuerunt diverſa & pretioſa medicamenta ſine levamine aut ſpe reconvaleſcentiæ; ſic miſera & viribus penè fracta beatam expectabat analyſin, cùm tandem, dubio licet prognoſtico, proponebatur uſus decocti Viſci Querni. Meliorem ab uſu hujus decocti ſortem expertus laudat Vir juvenis, annor. 32. Nuper ob perpeſſam injuriam vehementer excandeſcens in vini potu generoſi ſolamen quæſivit, ſed malè, prodiderunt enim ſeſe ſtatim indicia conſuetæ alias colicæ, quam verò neglexit in principio, conjecerunt vero in lectum atrociſſimi dolores, quorum injecti

Potabat hic è fonte noſtro ſoterio per aliquot ſeptimanas doſin parcam, nec frigidam, ſed tepidam tam bono cum effectu, ut qui certa Charontis præda habebatur, poſt benè reſtitutus & vegetus ad ſuos reverteretur. Sic quotidiana etiam docet experientia, plures ægros Phthiſicos, non æque ſemper ad fontem, ſed domi, in locis vicinis Deinacenſes noſtras, haud ſine fructu bibiſſe. Magnum quidem communiter apud permultos paradoxum habetur Acidularum in Phthiſi uſus, nec deerunt forſan ex Medico ordine, quorum guſtui adducta minus placebunt; aſt, hoc non obſtante, vix audemus vulgarem eamque contrariam ſententiam pro univerſali acceptare veritate, partim, quia plures alii Medici interque hos e. gr. celeberrimus Anglorum Medicus, Mortonus haud rarò acidulas Phthiſicis proficuas obſervarunt, partim quia haud ſufficiens ſuppetit ratio, quæ in hoc affectu omnem planè Acidularum uſum tollere valeat. Quæ ſunt autem iſtæ rationes ſingulis promiſcue Phthiſicis acidulas prohibentes? annon huc redeunt: Per illas augeri tuſſim, impediri expectorationem, glandulas, veſiculas & vaſcula pulmonum ulcerata ab acidularum acrimonia minerali magis adhuc lædi, dilacerari, exulcerari, & tandem funeſtam diarrhœam excitare. Sed liceat paucula in contrarium excipere. Tuſſim quod attinet, vix illa augebitur ab acidulis qua talibus, aut à corrodente illarum acrimonia, ſed actuale frigus culpa eſt excitatæ hujus moleſtiæ, uti res ipſa loquitur, quod omnis tuſſis etiam ab alia vel ſimplici aqua frigida, ab aliis aſſumtis frigidis, ab aëre frigido acrior & pejor reddatur; bibant vero ægri noſtri acidulas calidas, aut ſaltem tepidas, nec in larga doſi, & nulla habebitur querela tuſſis exacerbatæ; id quod alteri etiam opponimus rationi, dum liberam expectorationem non tam acrimonia, quàm frigiditas fontis medicati impedire ſolet. Tertia ratio ſpeciem quan-

dam præ se ferre videtur & sanæ rationi planè contraria esse, exulceratis pulmonibus, imò affectui, qui plerumque totam M. S. infectam & intemperie calido-acri contaminatam habeat, acria adhuc opponere remedia, uti sint acidulæ: ast regerimus modestè, (a) Deinacenses nostras, (de quibus solis hic nobis sermo est) talem excedentem acrimoniam, quæ in aliis deguſtatur, planè non secum ferre, sic ut ab aliis fortioribus ad Deinacenses nostras mites nulla valeat consequentia; (b) adhæc nemo demonstrare poterit, acidulas unquam M. S. corrosiva quadam acrimonia tingere, potiùs (c) per acidulas talis intemperies corrigitur, quod scorbutici cum fructu istas potantes testantur; (d) fortè saccharata plus acoris in corpore excitarent, quàm acidulæ, & tamen copiosè Phthisicis præbentur ab illis, qui acidulas, ut summum venenum rejiciunt. (e) Quodsi itaque M. S. acidis particulis per acidulas non gravatur, vix videmus, quomodo pulmonibus læsis major exulceratio & corrosio accrescere possit, imò (f) si externam acidularum operationem consideramus, & observamus, quomodo coctæ ad ulcera inveterata multum conducant, non adeò ineptè concludere possemus, illas exulcerationibus quoque internis profuturas; (g) insuper apud multos non æquè consummatos nondum adsunt ulcera, sed saltem tubercula cruda, ubi iterum non videmus, quid hisce nocere possint acidulæ, potiùs ab illis, utpote remedio resolvente, deobstruente, magis optatum eventum sperare liceret. Diarrhœa Phthisi superveniens meritò suspecta habetur, utpote signum M. S. ad fusionem colliquativam pronæ, propter quam particulæ M. S. & lymphæ non amplius decenter cohærent, fibræ partium solidarum tonum suum deperdunt & flaccidæ fiunt; in hoc gradu Phthiseos omnino dissuadendæ sunt acidulæ, sed inde non sequetur, quod ideò omnibus promiscuè Phthisicis sint prohibendæ; non enim nisi in extrema labe pulmonali metuenda est ab acidulis diarrhœa, & si quoque supervenerit, non ideò quasi fatalis sanguinis colliquatio consideranda, cui resistere amplius sit impossibile. Maxi-

Maximum pondus haberet Experientia, quippe plurium ab uſu acidularum ſecutarum mortium teſtis, quaque ſemper, in ſpecie circa aquas minerales præponderat optimè fundatæ viſæ rationi. Aſt dubitandum paululum, an antiqua hinc regula, qua Phthiſicis in genere acidulæ prohibentur, primario fundata ſit in frequenti & ſolida experientia, an vero non potius inveteratum & ſuper prætenſa acidularum corroſivitate fundatum ſit præjudicium, quod ut fœcunda variorum errorum mater prædictam pepererit regulam. Cur enim tam multi olim Coïcis interdixerunt acidulas? cur febre tabifica laborantibus? cur tam multæ mulierculæ, imò etiam Medici adhuc ſibi perſuadent, acidulas adverſari inſultibus hyſtericis, unde hæc omnia? ſanè ab experientia non fluunt, utpote quæ contrarium teſtatur, ſed ex mero præjudicio nimiæ acredinis & frigoris potentialis acidularum, per quod omnis ad crebriorem experientiam occaſio fuit præcluſa, dum omnes, qui vel minimum Phthiſeos ſymptoma referebant, ſtatim à Fontibus Soteriis relegabantur, imò tam magnum erat præjudicium, ut, ſi quis pro incipiente Phthiſico habitus acidulas cum fructu aut ſaltem ſine damno biberit, ſtatim mutata fuerit de conditione ægri ſententia & non ampliùs pro tali reputatus, quia probam per aquas minerales impunè ſuſtinuerit. Quodſi vero nonnunquam Phthiſici ab acidulis læſi fuerunt, erant illi utplures ægri conſummati & deſperati, de quibus hic propriè non ſola eſt quæſtio. Litem contraria dirimit quotidiana experientia, omnibus hiſce exceptionibus longe major, quæ quidem non ordinario tales nobis præſentat Hoſpites, qui ob malum Phthiſicum adiverint acidulas, interim nec raro inveniuntur, qui ob aliud morbi genus quidem aquarum curam proſequuntur Phthiſici, & tamen levamen reportant optatiſſimum.

MAnsit infelix hæc ægra à prioribus magicis insultibus hucusque libera quidem, nihilominus tamen paroxysmis Epileptico-convulsivis statо tempore menstruo constanter miserè fuit afflicta. Menstruæ fuerunt hactenus dictæ convulsiones, ast circa Solstitium æstivale anni præteriti tota hujus mali scena inopinato fuit inversa. Ingruebant tunc convulsiones totius horrendæ, non per horas aut diem, sed ultra septimanam diesque noctesque continuo durantes spectaculo planè miserrimo; sponte dein, sine ullo propinato pharmaco, sensim mitescebant, imò diurno tempore silere incipiebant, omni è contra vesperâ hora circiter sexta redeuntes & durantes per totam noctem in horam usque sextam matutinam alterius diei, per diem postmodum sic satis benè se habebat, nil nisi insignem lassitudinem persentiscens. Durante hac periodo diæta quoque hactenus consueta fuit mutata: parcissimi prius fuit cibi, plusque nutrimenti aut refectionis invenit à pauxillo vini, jam verò illud horret valdissime, & optimè ingerit & digerit cibos etiam difficilioris concoctionis, pro potu aqua panata contenta. Accidit hoc temporis intervallo aliquid, quod recensione non indignum judicavimus. Ægra nostra præter morem inopinato in somnum cadebat, statimque per somnium offerebantur ipsi varia dicta biblica solatio plenissima, quæ dein evoluta animum ipsius prostratum maximopere erigebant; nec languidi corporis medela fuit omissa, imaginabatur sibi enim ingessisse ipsi quendam consilium, quodsi cruciatim tres venæ in capite, brachio & pede aperirentur, & ex singulis novem guttæ proprii sanguinis nis emiſſi in triplici vehiculo, lacte nempe materno, aqua flor. acac. & tiliæ deglutiendæ propinarentur triſtiſſimas emanſuras eſſe convulſiones. Hocce ſomnium & ſuggeſtum Venæſectionis remedium adeò tenuit ægræ noſtræ animum, ut ejus executionem ad nauſeam usque petierit & urſerit: impediverunt verò rationes & Theologicæ & Phyſico-medicæ impletionem deſiderii, permiſimus tamen in aliquale ſolamen Venæſectionem brachii largam cum hoc eventu, ut convulſiones ſtatim ſerius & mitius invaſerint, ab ulterioribus ſomniis autem poſtea non amplius fuit tentata. Octiduo ante Solſtitium Hybernale repetita fuit Venæſectio itidem nec levamine, vix enim nunc pet bihorium amplius convellitur, & quidem leviſſimè. Quid mutationis ſecuturum tempus laturum ſit, dies docebit &c.

De corticum Ulmi in hydrope virtute ſingulari.

IN ſimplicibus egregias latere vires, præ compoſitis æſtimandas, agnovit antiquitas, & Recentiorum experientia ſummo ſtudio commendat. Pluribus id locis teſtantur Acta noſtra curioſa, & publicæ utilitati obſcuras antea virtutes exponunt ac illuſtrant. Operæ hinc pretium me facturum putavi, ſi etiam quæ mihi ex aliquot experimentis, in corticibus Ulmi innotuerit virtus contra hydropem, aſcitem præcipue, Curioſorum experientiæ & indagationi ulteriori commendarem. Scilicet ſolum decoctum horum corticum cum aqua factum, in memorato morbo, tum loco medicamenti horis medicis, tum loco potus ordinarii uſurpatum, per quatuor vel ſex ſeptimanas, in aliquot perſonis hydropem curaſſe obſervavi ſtagnantes in abdomine aquas, partim per urinam, & id quidem utplurimum, partim per alvum educendo; ſub initio quidem aggravari morbus videbatur, toto ambitu corporis intumeſcente, ſed præterlapſis paucis diebus, urinæ fluxus adauctus morbo levamen afferebat, ut roborantibus ſtomachicis, admiſſo etiam vini generoſi uſu, ſubjunctis, hydrops ſcandaloſus, DEI gratia, recederet. Pauca hujus virtutis apud Botanicos invenio veſtigia; ejus inprimis Dioſcorides his verbis meminit: craſſior ulmi cortex in vino aut aqua frigida unciatim potus pituitas trahit. Cum vero decoctum horum corticum, plurima reſinoſa gummoſa & gelatinoſa ſubſtantia abundare deprehendatur, facile crediderim, partim acrimonia iſta, ſub mucilaginoſis particulis latitante ſtimulari vias urinarias & alvum, partim gelatinoſis iſtis disrupta vaſa lymphatica conſolidari, utpote vis traumatica his corticibus ab Auctoribus adſcribitur. Lubentiſſime tamen hæc cogitata accuratiori Curioſorum indagini ſubmitto.

Extemplo cessabat omnis tussiculosus & febrilis apparatus, ægro de die in diem vires resumente; & hæc ipsa scena & successus morbi per aliquot annos in hoc puero à me per hyemem fuit observatus, reliquo anni tempore puero sano sine incommodo vivente.

VOcabar circa veſperam ad Virginem 24. circiter annorum, ſanguineo - melancholicam, miris convulſionibus laborantem, & vociferationibus horrendis omnibus gravem. Offendebam ab inſultibus epilepticis differre hunc affectum, quia non, ac in his ſolent, quatiebantur membra, ſed prouti pedes agitabantur, ac ſolemus ad removenda obſtacula illis uti, ita manibus inſultabat caput, crinesque manipulatim ſibi evellebat. Nec ad paſſionem hyſtericam referre paroxyſmos hoſce poteram, ſub qua vox faucibus hæret, nec mens tam emota eſt. Quicquid de cauſa occaſionali inquirerem, nemo adſtantium me de illa informare poterat, nam ſubito erat hoc affectu correpta. Ordinabam ergo, quo frequenter uti ſoleo, Infuſum foliorum Sennæ Nitro acuatum, ut hoc per intervalla ori infunderent, à quo etiam inſultus remiſerunt, ſomnus vero & mens circa diluculum redierunt. Narravit tunc quidem adſtantibus, ſe fuiſſe faſcinatam à Vetula ſibi blandiente, cui, quod noſſet eſſe veneficam, noluerit in deſideriis prolatis aſſurgere; ſponſum autem obtulerat. Rediens ego, hæcque percipiens, in indolem animi hujus afflictæ inquiro, offendoque, eſſe animi ſenſibilioris æque ac impetuoſi, imprimis à ſpectris pavidi. Jubeo ergo bono illam animo eſſe, omnemque metum deponere, quod Faſcinationis hujus Author eſſet propria Phantaſia. Reiterari itidem juſſi infuſum memoratum, nec Paroxyſmus rediit.

Læsio rami arterioſi in carpo manus dextræ.

STudioſus ſub conflictu cum alio in manu vulneratus ſtatim ſe confert ad domum Chirurgi, qui obliget. Vulnus circa carpum inflictum viſum fuit minoris momenti, nec intra undecim dies aliquid monſtri alere. Tunc quidem gravis hæmorrhagia ſubito obveniens ſueta ſtyptica ex ſpiritu Vini, oleo Terebinthinæ &c. ſpernens, omnium animos confundit, ut in conſilium cum alio Chirurgo vocatus fuerim. Arteriæ ramum fuiſſe læſum ex ſaltu ſanguinis ſumma & facies adſtantium petentis colligere erat. Obligabatur eadem variis ſtypticis, imprimis à Vitriolo ſub forma Pulveris applicito induciæ per tres ſeptimanas. Tentabantur ligaturæ vaſis arterioſi, ſed à Vitriolo jamdum tunicæ erant corroſæ, ut fine excideremus. Applicationem torcularis, quale Chirurgi pro comprimendo anevrismate in uſum trahere ſolent, (vid. Heiſteri Chirurgia) vulneratus ob dolores inde ſibi natos ferre non poterat; nec adeo arctam ligaturam à vinculis linteis concedebat manus gangrænam minitans. Sub his anguſtiis varia variorum conſilia, plura adhuc malevolorum & imperitorum judicia. Hic cauteria actualia, ille amputationem manus, iſte ſympathetica media ſuadebant. Conveneramus tandem brachium in loco à vulnere paululum remoto incidere, an arteriæ ramum hic ligare integrum foret, ſed profundior hujus ſitus & hoc conſilium eludebat, modo quod hoc ſubſidii inde, ut ab arteria arctius in loco inciſo compreſſa refrænaretur, ac longius intervallum concederetur, quam denuo ſanguis profiliret. Accidit tandem, ut ſub fluxu iterum impetuoſo, novaque hinc ſuſcepta deligatione, quod Vitrioli pulvis non tam ſubito ad manus eſſet, Chirurgorum alter fruſtillum Vitrioli trioli intrudendo vulneri, tam apte os arteriæ obturaverit, ut à momento illo nulla porro inſecuta hæmorrhagia, ſed ſub ſucceſſiva lapidis iſtius colliquefactione ſuccreſcens caro omnino vulnus occluſerit, ex quo manus iterum ad priſtinos labores ſuſcipiendos habilis evaſit.

Fallaciam cauſæ non cauſæ toto die in ſcientia medica obvenire, vel, ut termino juris utar ſub- & obreptitie ſe inſinuare in foro medico, non eſt, ut referam, quandoquidem qui hoc negaverit, ad medicaſtros relegandus foret, quibus, ut decipiunt, decipi nimis quam familiare. Sit in numero exemplorum, vulneris, de quo obſervatio loquitur, conſolidatio. Hanc unus medentium derivabat à virtute characterum, quos, me tamen inſcio, fronti vulnerati digito atramento madido inſcripſerat, & quidem illo mane, à quo arteria ſiluit. Alius allegabat penuriam ſanguinis, ab hujus profuſionibus largioribus oriundam, ex qua arteriæ læſæ minus vividus impulſus. Imprimis Chirurgorum alter Sympathiæ viribus omne hoc negotium eſſe tribuendum acriter ſuſtinebat, nam ſympathetico, ut vocatur, pulvere linteamina ſanguine vulnerati madida conſperſerat. Erat vero idem ille, qui fruſtillum Vitrioli jactu ſatis felici oſtiolo arteriæ intruſerat. Psalm 119. 401 ſtrengthen me according unto thy word. 29 Remove from me the way of lying: and grant me thy law graciously. 30 I have chosen the way of truth: thy judgments have I laid before me. 31 I have ſtuck unto thy teſtimonies: O Lord confound me not. 32 I will run the way of thy commandments: when thou ſhalt enlarge my heart.

33 Teach me, O Lord, the way of thy ſtatutes: and I ſhall keep it unto the end. 34 Give me underſtanding, and I ſhall keep thy law: yea, I ſhall obſerve it with my whole heart. 35 Make me to go in the path of thy commandments: for therein is my deſire. 36 Incline my heart unto thy teſtimonies: and not unto covetouſneſs. 37 Turn away mine eyes, leſt they behold vanity: quicken me in thy way. 38 Stablish thy word unto thy ſervant: which is given unto them that fear thee. 39 Turn away my reproach which I fear: for thy judgments are good. 40 Behold, I have longed after thy precepts: quicken me in thy righteouſneſs.

41 Let thy loving mercy come alſo unto me, O Lord: even thy ſalvation, according unto thy word. 42 So ſhall I anſwer them that blaſpheme me: for my truſt is in thy word. 43 And take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth: for my hope is in thy judgments. 44 So ſhall I keep thy law continually: yea, for ever and ever. 45 And I will walk at liberty: for I ſeek thy precepts. 46 I will ſpeak of thy teſtimonies alſo before kings: and will not be aſhamed. 47 And my delight ſhall be in thy commandments: which I have loved. 48 My hands alſo will I lift up unto thy commandments, which I have loved: and my heart ſhall be exerciſed in thy ſtatutes.

49 Remember the word unto thy ſervant: upon which thou haſt cauſed me to hope. 50 This is my comfort in my trouble: for thy word hath quickened me. 51 The proud have had me exceedingly in derision: yet have I not ſhrunk from thy law. 52 I remembered thy judgments of old, O Lord: and have comforted myſelf. 53 An horrible fear is upon me: for the ungodly that forſake thy law. 54 Thy ſtatutes have been my ſong: in the houſe of my pilgrimage. 55 I have thought upon thy name, O Lord, in the night ſeaſon: and have kept thy law. 56 This I had: becauſe I kept thy precepts.

57 Thou art my portion, O Lord: I have promiſed to keep thy law. 58 I made my humble petition in thy preſence with my whole heart: O be merciful unto me according to thy word. 59 I called mine own ways to remembrance: and turned my feet unto thy teſtimonies. 60 I made haſte, and prolonged not the time: to keep thy commandments. 61 The congregations of the ungodly have robbed me: but I have not forgotten thy law. 62 At midnight I will riſe to give thanks unto thee: becauſe of thy righteous judgments. 63 I am a companion of all them that fear thee: and keep thy precepts. 64 The earth, O Lord, is full of thy mercy: O teach me thy ſtatutes.

65 O Lord, thou haſt dealt graciouſly with thy ſervant: according unto thy word. 66 O learn me true underſtanding and knowledge: for I have believed thy commandments. 67 Before I was troubled I went wrong: but now have I kept thy word. 68 Thou art good and gracious: O teach me thy ſtatutes. 69 The proud have imagined a lie againſt me: but I will keep thy precepts with my whole heart. 70 Their heart is as fat as brawn: but my delight hath been in thy law. 71 It is good for me that I have been in trouble: that I may learn thy ſtatutes. 72 The law of thy mouth is dearer unto me: than thouſands of gold and ſilver.

73 Thy hands have made me and faſhioned me: O give me underſtanding, that I may learn thy commandments. 74 They that fear thee will be glad when they ſee me: becauſe I have put my truſt in thy word. 75 I know, O Lord, that thy judgments are right: and that thou of very faithfulneſs haſt cauſed me to be troubled. 76 O let thy merciful kindneſs be my comfort: according to thy word unto thy ſervant. 77 O let thy loving mercies come unto me, that I may live: for thy law is my delight. 78 Let the proud be confounded, for they go wickedly about to deſtroy me: but I will exerciſe myſelf in thy commandments. 79 Let thoſe that fear thee, and have known thy teſtimonies: be turned unto me. 80 O let my heart be found in thy ſtatutes: that I be not aſhamed.

81 My ſoul fainteth for thy ſalvation: but I hope in thy word. 82 Mine eyes long ſore for thy word: ſaying, O when wilt thou comfort me? 83 For I am become like a bottle in the ſmoke: yet do I not forget thy ſtatutes. 84 How many are the days of thy ſervant: when will thou be avenged of them that perſecute me? 85 The proud have digged pits for me: which are not after thy law. 86 All thy commandments are true: they perſecute me falſely, O be thou my help. 87 They had almoſt made an end of me upon earth: but I forſook not thy commandments. 88 O quicken me after thy loving kindneſs: ſo ſhall I keep the teſtimonies of thy mouth.

89 O Lord, thy word: endureth for ever in heaven. 90 Thy truth alſo remaineth from one generation to another: thou haſt laid the foundation of the earth, and it abideth. 91 They continue this day according to thine ordinance: for all things ſerve thee. 92 If my delight had not been in thy law: I ſhould have periſhed in my trouble. 93 I will never forget thy commandments: for with them thou haſt quickened me. 94 I am thine, O ſave me: for I have ſought thy commandments. 95 The ungodly have waited for me to deſtroy me: but I will conſider thy teſtimonies. 96 I ſee that all things come to an end: but thy commandment is exceeding broad.

97 O how love I thy law, O Lord: all the day long is my ſtudy in it. 98 Thou through thy commandments haſt made me wiſer than mine enemies: for they are ever with me. 99 I have more underſtanding than my teachers: for thy teſtimonies are my ſtudy. 100 I am wiſer than the aged: becauſe I keep thy commandments. 101 I refrain my feet from every evil way: that I may keep thy word. 102 I ſhrink not from thy judgments: for thou teachest me. 103 O how ſweet are thy words unto my throat: yea, ſweeter than honey unto my mouth. 104 Through thy precepts I get underſtanding: therefore I hate all falſe ways.

105 Thy word is a lantern unto my feet: and a light unto my path. 106 I have ſworn, and will perform it: that I will keep thy righteous judgments. 107 I am ſore troubled: quicken me, O Lord, according unto thy word. 108 Let the free offerings of my mouth please thee, O Lord: and teach me thy judgments. 109 My ſoul is alway in my hand: yet do I not forget thy law. 110 The ungodly have laid a ſnare for me: but I ſwerve not from thy precepts. 111 Thy teſtimonies have I claimed as mine heritage for ever: and why? they are the very joy of my heart. 112 I have applied my heart to fulfil thy ſtatutes always: even unto the end.

113 I hate them that imagine evil things: but thy law do I love. 114 Thou art my defence and ſhield: and my hope is in thy word. 115 Away from me, ye wicked: I will keep the commandments of my God. 116 O ſtablish me according to thy word, that I may live: and let me not be diſappointed of my hope. 117 Hold thou me up, and I ſhall be ſafe: and my delight ſhall be ever in thy ſtatutes. 118 Thou haſt trodden down all them that depart from thy ſtatutes: for they imagine but deceit. 119 Thou haſt put away all the ungodly of the earth like dross: therefore I love thy teſtimonies. 120 My fleſh trembleth for fear of thee: and I am afraid of thy judgments.

121 I deal with the thing that is lawful and right: O give me not over unto mine oppreſſors. 122 Make thou a covenant for thy ſervant for his proſperity: that the proud do me no wrong. 123 Mine eyes long ſore for thy ſalvation: and for the word of thy righteouſneſs. 124 O deal with thy ſervant according unto thy loving mercy: and teach me thy ſtatutes. 125 I am thy ſervant, O grant me underſtanding: that I may know thy teſtimonies. 126 It is time for thee, Lord, to lay to thine hand: for they have deſtroyed thy law. 127 For I love thy commandments: above gold and precious ſtone. 128 Therefore keep I all thy commandments and all things that are contrary to them: I hate all falſe ways.

129 Thy teſtimonies are wonderful: therefore doth my ſoul keep them. 130 When thy word goeth forth: it giveth light and underſtanding unto the ſimple. 131 I opened my mouth and drew in my breath: for my delight was in thy commandments. 132 O look thou upon me, and be merciful unto me: as thou uſeſt to do unto thoſe that love thy name. 133 Order my ſteps in thy word: and let no ſin have dominion over me. 134 O deliver me from the wrongful dealings of men: and ſo ſhall I keep thy commandments. 135 Make thy face to ſhine upon thy ſervant: and teach me thy ſtatutes. 136 Mine eyes gush out with water: becauſe men keep not thy law.

137 Righteous art thou, O Lord: and juſt is thy judgment. 138 Thy teſtimonies that thou haſt commanded: are exceeding righteous and true. 139 My zeal hath even conſumed me: becauſe mine enemies have forgotten thy words. 140 Thy word is tried to the uttermoſt: therefore thy ſervant loveth it. 141 I am ſmall and of no reputation: yet do not I forget thy commandments. 142 Thy righteouſneſs is an everlaſting righteouſneſs: and thy law is the truth. 143 Trouble and heavineſs have taken hold upon me: yet is my delight in thy commandments. 144 The righteouſneſs of thy teſtimonies is everlaſting: O grant me underſtanding, and I ſhall live.

145 I call with my whole heart, hear me, O Lord: I will keep thy ſtatutes. 146 Yea, even unto thee do I call, help me: and I ſhall keep thy teſtimonies. 147 Early in the morning do I cry unto thee: for in thy word is my truſt. 148 Mine eyes prevent the night watches: that I might be occupied in thy words. 149 Hear my voice, O Lord, according to thy loving kindneſs: quicken me as thou art wont. 150 They draw nigh that of malice perſecute me: and are far from thy law. 151 Be thou nigh at hand, O Lord: for all thy commandments are true. 152 As for thy teſtimonies, I have known long ſince: that thou haſt grounded them for ever.

153 O conſider my trouble and deliver me: for I do not forget thy law. 154 Plead thou my cauſe and redeem me: quicken me according to thy word. 155 Health is far from the ungodly: for they regard not thy ſtatutes. 156 Great is thy mercy, O Lord: quicken me as thou art wont. 157 Many are my perſecutors and mine enemies: yet do not I ſwerve from thy teſtimonies. 158 It grieveth me when I ſee the tranſgreſſors: becauſe they keep not thy law. 159 Conſider how I love thy commandments: O Lord, quicken me according to thy loving kindneſs. 160 Thy word is true from the beginning: all the judgments of thy righteouſneſs endure for ever.

161 Princes have perſecuted me without a cauſe: but my heart ſtandeth in awe of thy word. 162 I am glad of thy word: as one that findeth great ſpoils. 163 As for lies, I hate and abhor them: but thy law do I love. 164 Seven times a day do I praiſe thee: becauſe of thy righteous judgments. 165 Great peace have they which love thy law: and they are not offended at it. 166 Lord, I have looked for thy ſalvation: and done after thy commandments. 167 My ſoul hath kept thy teſtimonies: and loved them exceedingly. 168 I have kept thy commandments and teſtimonies: for all my ways are before thee.

169 Let my complaint come before thee, O Lord: give me underſtanding according to thy word. 170 Let my ſupplication come before thee: deliver me according to thy word. 171 My lips ſhall ſpeak of thy praiſe: when thou haſt taught me thy ſtatutes. 172 My tongue ſhall ſing of thy word: for all thy commandments are righteous. 173 Let thine hand help me: for I have choſen thy precepts. 174 I have longed for thy ſalvation, O Lord: and in thy law is my delight. 175 O let my ſoul live and it ſhall praiſe thee: and thy judgments ſhall help me. 176 I have gone aſtray like a ſheep that is loſt: O ſeek thy ſervant, for I do not forget thy commandments.

De Veſpertilionum latibulis majoribus in montium ſpeluncis.

OMnibus conſtat Latibula Veſpertilionum, tam æſtiva quam hiberna, omnis generis foramina eſſe, majora, minora, quæ vel veteres muri, vel riparum præcipitia vel annoſæ arbores habent. Item rimas quaslibet in templis, cellis, rupibus, aliisque locis ſolitariis vel inacceſſis, ubicunque etiam aſſeres murum tegentes vel picturæ in atriis ſuſpenſæ ſpatium dant. Cauſæ etiam in promptu ſunt. Nam latibula amant, quia mures ſunt. Obſcuriora loca quærunt, quia in luce cœcutiunt. Sic ut quadrupedes mures ſive currentes quadrupedem catum etiam noctu hoſtem habent, ita hi volantes volantem, i. e. noctuam ſive ululam (quæ propterea à Gallis vocatur chat huant, catus ululans, & à Germanis genus quoddam earum Kautz, Käutzlein) propter quam receptacula talia quærere coguntur. Sed diverticula ſpatioſiora Veſpertilionum in amplioribus ſpeluncis montium vulgo minus nota ſunt, quia in paucis regionibus ejusmodi cavernæ ſunt, & ubi ſunt pauci eas perrepunt, & qui perrepunt veſpertilionum receſſus non obvios habent, nec eos propter contemptum & tædium ſtudioſe quærunt. Ex iis ipſis qui in ſcriptis ſuis magnarum cavernarum quas viderunt, mentionem faciunt, de Veſpertilionum tamen habitaculis aut nihil aut pauca addunt. Ut Tournefort in Acad. Scient. ANCIENT STONE SEA- OR RIVER-GAUGES.

By Sir John Murray, K.C.B., F.R.S.

(Read 17th December 1900.)

In the Proceedings of the Royal Society of Edinburgh, Vol. XXIII. (1900), pp. 1–24, I published a paper on "Ancient Stone Sea- or River-Gauges," in which I described and figured a number of stone gauges which I had found in the Mediterranean, Red Sea, and Persian Gulf. Since that paper was published I have found a number of other stone gauges in the Mediterranean, and I have received from Mr. Hogarth, Director of the British School at Athens, a photograph of a stone gauge which he found in the island of Cos. I have also received from Mr. Bent, the explorer of the ruins of Zimbabwe, a photograph of a stone gauge which he found in the ruins of Sofala, on the east coast of Africa. I have also received from Mr. Bent a photograph of a stone gauge which he found in the ruins of Sofala, on the east coast of Africa.

neſis quadantenus compareat: inde etiam repertum fuit, quod una cruſta ſive lamella alteri adnata & circumducta fuerit, tandem in Meditullio delituit nucleus, ad avellanæ nucis magnitudinem veniens: reliqua in Germanica addit lingua, quæ etiam huic obſervationi inſerere volui. Der 3te und kleineſte von dieſen Steinen iſt damahls weggeſchencket worden: der gröſte aber wird annoch bey mir aſſerviret, worzu ſich, weil er extrem groß iſt, verſchiedene Liebhaber gefunden, ſintemahl, ſoviel uns wiſſend iſt, dergleichen in keiner hohen Kunſt-Kammer befindlich. Wie denn Valentini in ſeiner Natur- und Materialien-Kammer Libr. III. cap. 9. p. 437. zweyer Steine, ſo in der Straßburgiſchen Kunſt-Kammer aſſerviret werden, Meldung thut, davon der gröſte 90. Loth wiegen ſoll. Vermuthlich mag ſich dieſer Stein in Pferden generiren, wenn ſie von ſteinigten Waſſern trincken, die eine Ochram bey ſich führen, ſo die Digeſtion und reſolution der Speiſen verhindern, und dieſelben per calorem præternaturalem, welches das ſtete Schwitzen des Pferdes anzeiget, impaſtiren, coaguliren, und zu einer ſolchen dicken Maſſa machen, ſo nach und nach lamellatim ſich übereinander leget, und endlich lapideſciret, dergleichen Maſſa mir zu Handen gekommen, ſo ebenfalls aus einem Pferde-Magen genommen worden, ſie ſiehet aus wie Bimsſtein, iſt gantz leichte und porös, man kan auch drinnen noch etwas von dem verdauten Futter obſerviren.

Es iſt mir auch ein Stein von einer andern Art zugeſchicket worden, als ich nun ſelbigen exploriret, ſo habe ich die äuſſere cruſtam als eine harte rauhe Haut eines Meſſerrücken dicke befunden, die ſich ſchneiden ließ, und den Stein in ſich ſchloß, den man hingegen nicht ſchneiden konte.

Anno 1723. wurde mir auch ein anderer Hippolithus eingehändiget, welcher Menſe Novembr. bey einem ſchwartzen Pferde in inteſtino Colo gefunden worden. Es iſt dieſes Pferd einem Pacht-Mann, auf einem der Stadt nahe gelegenen ſogenannten Horniſchen Vor-Werck, zuſtändig geweſen. Er hat dieſes Pferd von einem Officier erkauffet, welcher ſolches mit aus der Polniſchen Campagne gebracht. Es hat dieſes Pferd ſtarck geſchwitzet, und weil es obſtructionem alvi pertinaciſſimam letzlich bekommen, iſt es auch davon crepiret. Es iſt dieſer Hippolithus gantz rund, ſo groß wie eine Schieb-Kugel, ſehr ſpongiös und hat viel Gruben äuſſerlich, in welchen noch Futter zu ſehen iſt. An der Couleur iſt er Leber-Farbe und nicht völlig lapideſciret; denn man kan noch als in einen Schwamm, wie an Bäumen wächſt, hinein ſchneiden. Nun weiß ich nicht, ob er innwendig zum würcklichen Stein generiret iſt, weil, wie bekannt, à nucleo dergleichen exſiccíret und zum Stein worden. Er wieget 4. Pf. und 12. Loth.

Es wurde mir auch neulich ein Stein überbracht, welcher in der veſica urinaria einer Kuhe gelegen, wieget 6. Loth und ein Quintlein, an der Couleur gantz weiß, in der Form zwey Finger breit und ſieben Finger lang, iſt ſehr porös und mürbe, bröckelt ſich abe, wie ein calculus veſicæ bey einem Menſchen.

Aus einem Schwein iſt mir auch neulich ein Stein überſendet worden, welcher eine Oval-Figur, in der Gröſſe eines Tauben-Eyes, zwey quer Finger lang und Finger breit dicke, an der Coleur bräunlich, wieget 2. Quintlein und 6. Gran, hat in der veſica Urinaria gelegen.

NEW 6-INCH, 100-POUND GUN-CARRIAGE.

ENTABLATURE, in architecture, the name given to the horizontal mass of mouldings and other ornaments which is carried by the columns of a building. It is divided into three parts, the architrave, frieze and cornice. The architrave is the lowest part, and rests immediately on the capitals of the columns; the frieze is the middle part, and the cornice is the uppermost part. The entablature is also called the trabeation, and the columns and entablature together are called the order. The entablature is the most characteristic part of the order, and its proportions and mouldings are the most important features in the different styles of architecture. In the Greek Doric order the entablature is one-fourth of the height of the column, in the Ionic and Corinthian it is one-fifth, and in the Roman Doric it is one-sixth. The architrave is usually plain, the frieze is sometimes ornamented with sculpture, and the cornice is always richly moulded. In the Greek Doric order the frieze is divided into triglyphs and metopes, and the cornice has mutules and guttæ. In the Ionic order the frieze is usually ornamented with sculpture, and the cornice has dentils. In the Corinthian order the cornice has modillions. In the Roman Doric order the frieze is usually ornamented with sculpture, and the cornice has modillions. In the Tuscan order the entablature is plain, and the cornice has no ornaments. In the Gothic style the entablature is usually replaced by a pointed arch, and the cornice by a gable.

De efficacia æthiopis mineralis in glandularum colli, maxillarum parotidumque tumore inveterato & fistula pone aurem sananda.

ANno cIↃ IↃcc XV. ad finem labente Hala mihi proficiscendum erat in patriam, ubi per plusculos dies fruebar hospitio viri admodum Reverendi, quem ut alterum parentem semper colui, nunc ut socerum dilectissimum veneror. Ejus filia natu minima tunc duodecimum annum agens, variis catarrhalibus molestiis a multis annis divexata tunc & lucem solis & hominum conspectum effugiebat, alteram sibi intolerabilem, alterum ne molestiam crearet ingrato odore saniei flavæ, quæ ex ejus dextra aure continuo emanabat, non solum per meatum auditorium, sed & per foramen pone aurem, ex quo in meatum poterat stilus intrudi. Glandulæ colli, maxillæ inferioris & parotides utrinque enormi tumore erant distentæ videbanturque omnino obduruisse. Nihil omissum erat, ut in filia senibus parentibus dilectissima, quod vel a medicis vel chirurgis proficisci posse crederent: sed exiguum consequi licuerat operæ pretium.

Hoc rerum statu in memoriam mihi veniebat æthiops mineralis, cujus multas laudes ab amico quodam in ædibus Hoffmannianis tunc familiari convictore, medicinæ candidato acceperam, nondum ipse tamen experientia cognoveram. Ratus igitur idoneum huic inveterato malo fore istud remedium, missurum me medicinam pollicebar, sed non ante sumendam, quam pluvia tunc & inconstans tempestas cum sereniore & constantiore permutaretur. Halam redux circa novi anni initium transmisi æthiopem ita præscriptum, ℞. Æthiop. min.

Conditiones ſumendæ medicinæ has porro præſcribebam. Sumeret puella, ante uſum æthiopis laxantes pillulas omnino leniſſimas ad normam Beccherianarum factas. Sequentis diei mane adſumat doſin pulveris prædicti, idemque duobus ſequentibus diebus faciat. Poſt tres doſes ſucceſſive ſic ſumtas easdem pillulas ſumat, ſequenti autem die prorſus nihil medicinæ capiat. Tum ad uſum pulveris per triduum redeat, iterum laxet, unum diem quieſcat, ſicque deinceps pergat donec medicina ſit conſumta. Interea adjuvetur mercurialis medicinæ operatio regimine diapnoico & ſufficienti humectatione, in quem finem adjeci ſpecies pro potu conveniente ex ſarſaparilla, r. chinæ, bardanæ, ſcrophulariæ, polypodii, glycyrrhizæ, cort. aurant. culilabani, ſemine aniſi, cet. quem mane inſtar infuſi theiformis bibit, deinde, ulterius decoctis ſpeciebus, potum non ingratum adepta eſt pro ordinario ſumendum.

Tres menſes tranſigebantur inter ſpem ac metum: tandem vero ſignificabant læti parentes exoptatiſſimum medicinæ effectum, nec poterant ſatis demirari, qui potuerit medicinæ quantitas ad plenariam mali exſtinctionem adeo exacte determinari: brevi enim animadverſum eſſe, quantum glandularum tumor minueretur: ſed quum ad finem tenderet curatio etiam aurium fluxum omnino diſparuiſſe & fiſtulam pone aures coiiſſe. Nihil moleſti paſſam eſſe virginem, omninoque degiſſe, tamquam ſine uſu medicinæ fuiſſet, niſi ſenſibilis emendatio valetudinis vires remedii prodidiſſet.

De auris conſtitutione interna in ove ſurda.

QUum lanio Halenſis ovem, quæ ſæpe a grege aberraverat, quoniam vocem paſtoris non audiebat, mactaſſet, mihique tunc crebro pro ſectionibus in collegio anatomico partes animalium ab ipſo ementi obtuliſſet caput cultro rimandum, in eo ſequentia obſervavi. Meatus aurium repletus erat materia ceruminoſa valde diluta, eodemque modo, quem in hominibus aures manantes habentibus obſervamus, fœtente. Hanc cum eluiſſem, quantum poteram, integrumque auditus organon, una cum tuba Euſtachiana, a reliquis capitis partibus ſeparaſſem, ad interiorum progreſſus ſum ſcrutinium. Vidi itaque, quod me in maximam admirationem abripuit, membranam tympani utraque ſui ſuperficie, illa ſcilicet qua ad meatum auditorium ſpectat, & altera, qua cavitatem tympani obducit, obſeſſam quaſi verrucis capitula acicularum minimarum æquantibus, manifeſte vaſorum quorundam implicationes & conglomerationes præ ſe ferentibus. Similes quaſi verrucoſæ conglomerationes totum ambitum tympani cavitatis, quæ in ovibus ſatis magna eſt, inveſtiebant & per integram tubam Euſtachianam usque ad ejus orificium ſeſe offerebant. Interior hæc cavitas eandem ſordidam fœtentemque materiam, quæ in meatu fuerat, continebat, totaque ab ea repleta erat.

Quid me nuper in hac ſententia confirmaverit, brevibus referam. Puer erat decem annorum qui quoniam audire non poterat, nec loquendi uſum habebat. Adhibitus in conſilium, aures explorare adgredior, idque ut ſine dolore & læſione facerem chartam mollem, in formam ſpecilli convolutam, adhibebam. Hanc cum extraherem non ſolum colore ſed & odore ſimillimam, paulo tamen tenaciorem ſuperius deſcriptis materiam ipſi adhærere ſenſi: quare ſollicitis parentibus ſpem feci fieri poſſe ut huic ægroto convenientium remediorum continuato uſu ſuccurratur. Dedi ipſi in hunc finem mercurialem medicinam blandiſſimam aperitivo-diapnoicam, per plures dies cum infuſo quodam continuo aſſumendam, cum prognoſi illa, ſæpius, poſt intervalla quædam, repetendam eſſe eandem curationem. Effectus primi tentaminis, DEO annuente, is fuit ut intenſiores ſonos & clamores nunc audiat, jamque voces quasdam & ſonos imitetur: ſperoque fore ut divini numinis auxilio plene convaleſcat, quod ſi ex voto ſucceſſerit integram curationem ſuo tempore exponam.

De pinguedine bubonocelen mentiente.

IN eodem cadavere quum peritonæi proceſſus accuratius, & annuli ſimul rationes, ad doctrinam herniarum intelligendam, explicare conarer, tanta ſe offerebat in dextro latere craſſities & tumor proceſſus, molle corpus digitis premendum præbens, ut mecum omnes adſtantens crederent nos inteſtinum vel omentum intus deprehenſuros eſſe. Sed cum aperirem illico apparuit quantitas magna pinguedinis vaſibus ſpermaticis arcte intertexta & internata, ut non ſine magno labore ſeparari inde poſſet: peritonæi interiori lamina prorſus naturaliter conſtituta, nihilque relaxata. Hoc a dextris viſo etiam ſiniſtri lateris proceſſum aperui, ibique pariter pinguedinem, ſed longe pauciorem, vaſibus intertextam reperi. De cetero vir hic adeo non erat pinguis ut potius ſtrigoſis macilentisque mereretur accenſeri: quo magis illam pinguedinis in hoc loco collectionem adnotandam putavi, quum fieri poſſit ut illa non attentiſſimo imponat, herniamque ſuſpicari, ubi nulla eſt, inducat.

OBSERVATIO CCXXVI.

DN. D. JOH. HENRICI SCHULZE.

Obſervatio anatomica exhibens ſectionem puellæ cum hernia umbilicali natæ & ſtatim poſt partum mortuæ.

MEnſe Januario cIↃ IↃCC XXIII. in vicino pago naſcebatur puella, quæ magnum tumorem in abdomine habebat tunica tenui diaphana veſtitum. Quum ad ſepulturam huc deferdeferretur, a parentibus venia impetrata eſt corpuſculum illud diſſecandi, quod præſente Exc. D. D. Bajero, Collega & fautore honoratiſſimo, multisque ſpectantibus philiatris feci.

Exterius tumorem magnitudinem pugni mediocris æquantem & circa baſin ſuam aliquantulum anguſtiorem deprehendimus, circa cujus baſin cutis & cuticula, ut reliquum univerſum corpus haſce partes habebat, deprehendebatur. Sed ubi ſe attollebat hic tumor incipiebat membrana diaphana, non valde craſſa, firma tamen, quam peritonæum fuiſſe deinde, ubi tumor diſſectus & cutis ſeparata fuit, manifeſte cognoſcebatur. Ad infimam oram hujus tumoris, qua regionem pubis ſpectabat, adnatus erat funiculus umbilicalis. Quum decuſſatim inciderem membranam, quæ tumorem cingebat, effluebat aquæ flaveſcentis & ſubſalſæ, quantum quatuor uncias æquabat. Jam ubi lacinias diſciſſæ membranæ diducere volebam, plerisque locis omentum ipſi adnatum videbam, in quo duo maxime notavi, quæ delectarent. Primum erat vaſorum ſanguineorum ſubtiliſſimorum copia & ornatus, alterum, quod prius ſpectaculum adjuvabat, aqua inter omenti duas lamellas incluſa, quæque efficiebat ut vaſa ſanguinea majora apparerent, meliusque cognoſcerentur: ſimulque Ruyſchii adſertionem, qua is contendit omento humano nulla foraminula ineſſe, egregie confirmabat. Præter omenti maximam partem, ſupra hepar præter naturam revolutam, integrum hepar tumori huic inerat, ſed a figura ſua naturali multum receſſerat globoſumque factum erat, pro ratione loci quem hic præter naturæ ordinem occupaverat. De reliquo nihil erat quod animadverterem in quo à ſtatu ſano receſſerat, niſi hoc quod folliculum fellis omnino vacuum & contractum inveni. Exigua etiam portio inteſtini jejuni in tumorem hunc illapſa erat. In ventriculo & liene, præter id quod ex ſitu aliquantum retracti erant, nihil ſingulare inveni: nec etiam in inteſtinis, niſi hoc unum quod inteſtinum ileon illo loco qui quatuor latos pollices diſtabat a cœco, appendi-pendicem præternaturalem habebat digiti auricularis extremum articulum longitudine sua æquantem, in basi sua intestinuli ipsius latitudinem bis superantem, sed continuo in acutum abeuntem, cujus apicem glandulosa papilla quædam quasi coronabat.

Hepatis situs præternaturalis diaphragma mirum in modum detraxerat, ut sub eo retracto renes tamquam thecæ inclusi, toto fere corpore suo delitescerent. De reliquo nihil præter naturam renum infantilium aderat: sed ureterum amplitudinem, quæ omnino æquabat ordinariam in adultis, admirabar, & quod ren dexter binos ureteres, alterum ex parte superiori, alterum ex medio sui corporis, dimittebat, sibi invicem proxime junctos, & ad vesicam coalescentes, simplicique foramine lotium immittentes. Thoracem ob festinationem necessariam, quia sepulturæ hora aderat, non nisi perfunctorie licebat lustrare. Cavitas ejus multam continebat aquam, quæ pericardium etiam valde extendebat. Cor, pulmones & thymus nihil, quod præter ordinem esset, offerebant.

SCHOLION.

Erat puella hæc ordinariam magnitudinem in utero consequuta, partuque non difficili excluſa. Obstetrix & pater, præsentes sectioni, affirmabant vivam fuisse in lucem editam, sed momento statim exspirasse. Vero mihi simillimum videtur ideo eam communi aere non potuisse uti, quia diaphragma tantopere retractum ad respirationem peragendam non valuit officio suo defungi.

Ceterum veniam me facile consequuturum spero, qui prolapsum hunc omenti & hepatis cum intestino herniæ umbilicalis nomine designavi, quum satis diversa sit herniarum, quæ adultis hoc loco accidunt, conditio; quam quidem hic indicare aut repetere non est necessarium. Retinui autem notum nomen, quia aliud non occurrebat commodius.

De femina ſtillicidio urinæ perpetuo laborante.

RUſtica mulier triginta duorum annorum ante biennium primum partum cum maxima difficultate in lucem ediderat, ex quo tempore urinam continere nequit. Ad me hac æſtate venit, quoniam audiverat ex alia ruſtica, quæ eodem malo laboraverat, illam meo conſilio, (dederam autem bufonem crematum ex collo geſtandum) feliciter convaluiſſe. Dedi ipſi idem remedium, ſed poſt duos menſes rediit, idque ſibi nihil profuiſſe retulit. Miratus ego effectum imparem, ſuaſi ut ſe inſpiciendam præberet, præſertim quum alium nævum indicaret, qui id efflagitabat. Exploraturus igitur meatum urinarium vidi ipſum penitus coaluiſſe, ut nec minimum ſpecillum intrudi poſſet. Cœpi igitur ulterius explorare vaginam, quum oculis meis viderem urinam inde effluere. Digito igitur intruſo cum os pubis ſuperaſſem deprehendi foramen tantum, cui anterior indicis articulus facile poterat immitti: cumque in illud foramen catheterem inducerem, paucisque momentis relinquerem, urina guttatim per illum effluxit.

fluxit, nullum ut dubium supereſſet de læſione continui quæ veſicæ in ſuperiori colli ejus parte acciderat.

Multis auctoribus, recentioribus tamen magis quam vetuſtis, innotuit veſicæ poſt partum difficilem in vaginam perforatio. Primus eorum, qui mihi ad manus ſunt, eſt *Felix Platerus obſerv. libr. Sed nullam videre adhuc mihi licuit obſervationem, ubi ſimul occluſio meatus urinarii fuit, ut in mea ægrota, quam dimiſi cum conſilio ut ſibi pateretur aperiri meatum, quoniam hoc prius non facto nullus aliis remediis ſupereſſet locus: quod quidem ſe facturam promiſit ſi prius mariti & amicorum conſilia audiviſſet.

ANTIQUITIES DISCOVERED IN EXCAVATING THE FORUM AT POMPEII, IN THE YEARS 1819, 1820, AND 1821.

Read 15th and 22nd April, 1824.

By WILLIAM GELL, Esq. F.S.A. and Hon. Member of the Royal Academy of Naples.

Ipse ad præparationem omnium, quæ huc pertinent, sequenti ratione me accinxi. Exempto cerebro & dura matre omnes deinceps partes externas capitis ossa cingentes, quantum fieri poterat, removi. Ad cavitates aperiendas commodissime inservivit instrumentum quo utuntur Chalcographi ad litteras in ænea tabula scribendas, cælum, ni fallor, Latini vocant: quo etiam utor ad auris interiora, præsertim canales semicirculares & cochleam, in duro osse petroso detegenda. Ad foramina seu exitus singularum cavitatum seta sufficit. Postquam omnia in recenti præparato satis considéraveram, ferventibus solis radiis exposui, quorum ope cito exsiccatum fuit, unde postea pleraque foramina melius clariusque apparuerunt, ipsumque præparatum ad hunc diem bene durat, quantum conjicere licet diutius duraturum.

Os frontis, qua parte ad oculorum orbitam formandam interius reflectitur, atque nasi radicibus sese accommodat, in plerique hominibus cavitates binas format, septo tenui osseo in medio distinctas, quæ, ubi mediocres sunt, vix ulterius versus tempora, quam medium oculi spacium, ubi orbitæ summus locus est, excurrunt. Altitudinem ab eo loco, ubi nasi ossa apponuntur, metitus, pollicem æquare illam intelliges. In illo orbitæ angulo, qui ad nares est, cavitatis fundus est, & hoc loco fere ossium laminæ a se invicem maxime distant: hincque angustior facta in canalem osseum desinit, qui, ad medium ossis spongiosi superioris delatus, ibidem foramine, quod inter reliquas cavitates adhuc enarrandas amplissimum est, in narium meatum, non rotundo, sed oblongo & rictum quendam referente, finitur.

Ea est conditio hujus cavitatis, ubi mediocris illa est. Dari autem longe majores in hoc osse, docuit me alius cranii inspectio. Nam in illo a dextris quidem non excedit medium orbitæ spatium, sed in sinistro latere tam longe excurrit, ut supra orbitæ angulum externum demum terminetur, quod cavum duorum pollicum latitudinem plane æquat. Amplitu-

do tanta eſt, ut medii digiti articulum extremum facile capiat. Altitudo, inde a radice narium computando, a ſiniſtris quidem in ſummo excedit duos pollices, a dextris paulo minor eſt, ſic ut ſiniſterior omni intuitu anguſtior ſit dexteriori. Quo loco liceat notare, quod diligentiſſimus anatomicus Raymundus Vieuſſens Neurograph. univerſal. lib. I. cap. 16. p. 103. confidenter aſſerit, ſinum frontalem dextrum ſiniſtro ſemper ampliorem eſſe; id mirifice falſum deprehendi. Ex decem enim craniis, quæ hæc ſcribentes ad manum habuimus, duo tantum fuerunt quæ hujus viri adſerto convenerunt.

Sed non ſola hæc aderat in hoc cranio tam inſignis cavitas, verum alia pone iſtam, ampliſſima ſane, occurrebat, quam diligenter conabor adſcribere. A ſiniſtris terminatam fuiſſe prius deſcriptam cavitatem ſupra angulum orbitæ externum, modo indicavi. Ex hoc loco excurrens paries oſſeus medium criſtæ galli petebat, ſicque a cavitate anteriori hanc poſteriorem disjungebat. Ad tempora tam longe protenditur, ut attingat illum locum quo os frontis ſincipitis oſſa & ſphenoidei proceſſus, inter frontis & temporum oſſa aſcendentis, ſummum concurrunt. Decurrit autem ſupra totum orbitæ ſuperius tabulatum, ut omnia hic, usque ad cibriformium oſſiculorum finem interius conſpiciendum, cava ſint. A dextris hoc longior, quo brevior eſt in hoc latere prius deſcripta cavitas, apparet, & ad medium usque imperfecto pariete oſſeo diviſa. Ex utroque latere finitur in canalem magis magisque anguſtum, qui pone foramen prioris ſeſe exonerat in meatum narium, ita ut proxime adjacentis exiguæ cavitatis ethmoidea exitus eodem foramine obſervetur. Duplicem talem oſſis frontis cavitatem ſe vidiſſe etiam teſtatur Exc. D. D. Morgagnus Adverſar. anatom. I. p. 38. Sed & hic ludit naturæ varietas. Ex craniis, quæ præſto fuere, unum a ſiniſtris illam exhibet, in anteriorem inſtar duarum mamillarum oſſeo ſuo pariete prominentem: alterum a dextris, pariete tamen non integro ab interiore diviſum.

Parietem intermedium, qui cavitates frontales in dextram ſiniſtramque dirimit, raro invenies medium tam accurate tenere, quin in aliquam partem valde inclinatus ſit, raro etiam ſine notabilibus curvaturis conſpicies. Cranium in quo tantum unica cavitas, ſine intermedio ſepto, fuerit, nullum equidem vidi. Sed ſeptum illud in medio perforatum, foramine quod piſum transmitteret, vidi in cranio ab Exc. D. D. Trevv mecum communicato. Id vero an patulo in vivo corpore, an membranoſo pariete, quod omnino ſuſpicor, clauſum fuerit, determinare nolim. Sunt etiam qui prodiderunt in unico tantum latere fuiſſe in altero nullam cavitatem: quod numquam videre mihi licuit. Equidem nolo fidem aliorum auctorum adſertis derogare: magnopere tamen vereor ut ſatis accurate omnes in hanc rem inquiſiverint. Dum enim cranii ſuperior pars, ut diſſectores ſolent, ſerra diſcinditur, ſæpe fit ut alterutra tantum cavitas in oculos incurrat, altero profundius latitante, quam ulteriori cura adhibita demum in conſpectum producere licet. Etiam illud non præter rem moneri poſſe exiſtimo, cum Gabriele Fallopia quosdam aſſeruiſſe nullas inveniri cavitates ubicunque in adulto homine ſe offert frons diviſa per futuram ſagittalem ad nares excurrentem. Hunc quidem laudatiſſimum virum hic errare jam monuit Jo. Riolanus: in cujus admonitionis confirmationem addere liceat in uno ex noſtris craniis, quod de feminæ provecta in ætate exſtinctæ cadavere eſt, illam futuram pulcre exſtare usque ad narium radicem conſpicuam, tamque laxam ut nullo negotio diſtrahi poſſit: ſed & cavitates frontales ſatis ibi eſſe magnas.

Unicum nobis videre & poſſidere contigit cranium, in quo frontalium æque ac ſphenoidearum cavitatum nec vola eſt nec veſtigium. In hoc oſſa dictorum cavorum ſedes præbentia & craſſiora ſolito & magis cavernoſa ſunt. Et in oſſe qui-major frontalis, in oſſis turbinati ſuperioris media facie orbitæ obverſa, exitum invenit: quam ſine hæſitatione fronti adjudico, quoniam ipſiſſima eſt illa cavitas quam ſupra tamquam oſſis frontis poſteriorem ex cranio, in quo ampliſſima & longiſſima erat, deſcripſi.

Pergo nunc ad exponendas ceteras inter orbitam oculi & ſeptum narium obvias cavitates, aut ſi mavis cavernas, quas oſſi ethmoidi ſine hæſitatione adſcribo, quoniam oſſibus orbitæ tenuiſſimis, quæ partibus a fronte & maxilla ſuperiori ad oculi hanc ſedem formandam concurrentibus interiacent, unice inſculptæ ſunt. In capite publice a me demonſtrato undecim erant a ſiniſtro latere, dextrum enim latus alius demonſtrationis cauſa non examinabatur. Ex his quinque una ſerie, inſtar loculamentorum, quæ reponendis mellibus apes ſtruunt, niſi quod quadrangulares erant, locatæ viſebantur: ſubque his ſextum aliquanto longius ſed figuræ quaſi ſemiovalis erat. Hæ omnes ſingulæque foramina ſibi propria habebant, nec unicam cum altera communicantem obſervare licuit. Patent autem parum a ſe invicem remota in oſſis turbinati ſuperioris parte ad fauces mox finitura, facie vomeri obverſa, duæ poſteriores & omnium infima ſolitaria: tertia, quarta & quinta (ab orbitæ imo ad faciem progrediendo) hiant in ſummo receſſu oſſis turbinati ſuperioris, qua parte illud orbitam ſpectat. Ceterarum quinque cavernarum recenſebo etiam foramina. Supra modo enarrataſ tres una ſatis magna eſt membranæ interventu penitus dviſa, ſic ut ſeparata hæc caverna foramine ſuo directe incumbat foramini alterius: has ſextam & ſeptimam computo. Juxta hanc, magis anterius ad oculi internum angulum, octava erat, quæ granum tritici oblongo ſuo cavo includere poſſet. Nona & decima ſatis magnæ non niſi exiguo ſepimento oſſeo & obducta membranula diviſæ ſunt, & immediate ſubjacent ipſi loco, quem caruncula lacrimalis poſt ſe habet. His demum undecimam annumeramus, quæ non conſpicitur niſi in fundo cavitatis oſſis frontis, narium ſummo ſepto adhærens. Harum ſingula foramina hiant vel in canalem, quo frontales ſinus ad oſſis turbinati ſuperioris circiter medium, ut ſæpe monuimus, ad orbitam obverſa, ſe aperiunt, vel proxime ad latera ejus rictus.

Nimis longum foret, forte etiam nimis tædioſum, ſi omnium, quæ ad manus ſunt capitum receſſus pari cura exhibere & deſcribere vellemus: quare unius, præ ceteris nobis commodi, quoniam nulla vel coctione vel in terra corruptione vel minimum corruptum eſt (qualia fere crania ob rationes infra dicendas huic examini inepta ſunt) ſed ſimplici exſiccatione prævia ad durationem præparatum eſt. Id quum ceteras cavitates, præter maxillares, minimas, & has ſatis parvas exhibeat, etiam ethmoidearum noſtrarum unicum veſtigium exhibet, idque cum maxillari apertè conjunctum. Verheyenus Tractat. IV. cap. XVI. p. 259. numerum nullum determinat: quod vero ſcribit: omnes iſtas cavitates habere communicationem inter ſe, & cum cavitate oſſis baſilaris ſeu cuneiformis, id omnino falſum eſt ſi intelligatur de cavitatum unius cum altera, per foramina quædam, conjunctione: id vero de communicatione cum cavitate ſphenoidea nullo modo excuſari poteſt. Vieuſſenium in eo peccaſſe, quod ethmoideas cavitates certo numero incluſit, ſuperius monitum eſt: nunc aliud ipſius adſertum Neurograph. univerſal. lib. I. cap. 16. veritatis cauſa examinare jubet. Nimirum perhibet anteriorem utriusque lateris cavitatem quamvis bina foramina, ſeu ut ipſe loquitur, canales, habere, quorum uno cum maxillari cavitate, altero interiori cum ſuperna narium parte communicet. At vero nos ſingularum undecim foramina rimati invenimus, in nulla duplex vidimus. Communicationem maxillarium cavitatum cum ethmoideis anterioribus proinde tamen non negamus: nam locus, ubi frontalibus cavitatis exitus eſt, verticaliter imminet illi, quo ſe maxillaris in cava narium aperit: de quo mox dicendi locus juſtior erit. in summō faucium intrat. At vero hæc unica cavitas præternaturaliter formata fuisse omnino videbatur.

Re igitur vera tantum unica est in hoc capite sphenoidea cavitas: quod sæpius observavit Excell. D. D. Heisterus, nostræ olim, nunc Juliæ Academiæ Doctor celeberrimus, quoniam de hac cavitate sic scribit Compend. anat. pag. 18. quandoque duplex est. Idem suo testimonio confirmat laudatissimus D. D. Morgagnus Adversar. anat. I. p. 38. Habet autem hæc cavitas foramen suum in dextrum narium meatum, ejusque summum locum hians. Esse nobis cranium, in quo nulla adest cavitas, quum tamen foramina conspici possint, data occasione supra diximus. Aliud ad manus fuit, quod sub sella prorsus nullas, sub loco, quo nervi optici penetrant, admodum exiguas habebat, vix pisi capaces, quarum foramen a dextris aderat ordinario loco, nullum a sinistris. In multis aliis quæ adhibuimus, nullam videre licuit in duas partes accurate divisam. Dextra fere in omnibus major sinistra deprehenditur. Verheyenus videtur credere minores esse cavitates sphenoideas ubi frontales fuere magnæ: sed in illo cranio, ex quo frontales maximas descripsimus, has sphenoideas satis magnas vidimus.

Verheyenus Tractat. IV. Cap. XVI. p. 259. adnotat se vidisse dextram cavitatem sphenoideam subdivisam per aliquod parvum septum transversum, e lamella ossis inferiori emergens, at superiorem non attingens: cui simile in nostro quodam cranio reperimus: sed hoc forte curiosius est, quod in aliquo deprehendimus septum tenuissimum osseum, e lateralis exterioris lamellæ medio exsurgens & totam cavitatem dextram, si exiguam aperturam excipimus, horizontaliter secans atque dividens. Addendæ nunc supersunt cavitates maxillæ superioris, quæ a nonnullis auctoribus antra Highmori vocantur, non quod Nathanael Highmorus illa primus observavit, aut quod antrorum nomine illa primus insignivit: utrumque enim Foramen hujus cavitatis, cujus beneficio cum meatu narium communicat, eſt in ſumma ejus regione, ubi os turbinatum inferius uni maxillaris oſſis parieti, quem antea tertium diximus, adnaſcitur & ad radices oſſis turbinati ſuperioris, medio ſpacio longitudinis, quam hæc oſſa habent, exit. Ipſius figura ovalis, capacitas tanta eſt, ut pennam anſerinam, qua ad ſcribendum utimur, mediocrem, ſi illa ovaliter compreſſa ſit, transmittere poſſet. Id foramen illam conſideratu dignam circumſtantiam offert, quod nimirum ſub ſe habet oſſis turbinati oblique ab anterioribus deſcendentem quendam proceſſulum, qui immediate ad finem ovalis oſtioli deſinit. Hæc loci conditio facit, ut ſtilus vel ſeta a frontalibus ſinibus demiſſa facile immittatur maxillaribus: & viciſſim e maxillaribus ſurſum protruſa ſeta facile ſubeat foramen directe ſuperpoſitum frontale. Quumque, ut ſtudioſe ſupra notavimus, ethmoidearum quædam cavitates anteriores foramine ſuo vel in ipſum frontalium canalem, vel prope ipſius exitum, pateant, viſum illud mihi fuit occaſionem errandi Vieuſſenio, cetera laudatiſſimo ſcriptori, dediſſe, ut perhiberet, anteriorem ethmoideam duplici foramine, altero in nares ſummas, altero in maxillares ſinus patente, præditas eſſe.

Hæc eſt deſcriptio cavitatis maxillaris, qualem capitis in theatro noſtræ Academiæ publice præfecti & demonſtrati conſideratio ſuppeditavit. Non adeo mul-

De anevryſmate verminoſo in arteria meſocolica equæ.

QUum ineunte anno 1725. equam ad labores ob ſenectutem jam ineptam levi pretio comparare liceret, rogantibus philiatris noſtris in theatrum anatomicum adductam ſclopeti ictu enecavimus, pluſculosque dies accuratiori ejus diſſectioni dedimus. Cujus quidem laboris ne pœniteret inter alia effecit illud aneuryſma, de quo titulus loquitur. Nam quum ex craſſis inteſtinis ampliſſimam & craſſiſſimam ejus partem, quæ inteſtino colo humano reſpondere videtur, ad examen accuratius revocaremus, ſecundum ejus longitudinem excurrentem arteriam ſatis craſſam animadvertere licebat: quam quum curioſius ſpectarem, in oculos incurrit aliqua notabilis ipſius dilatatio nucem juglandem cum viridi ipſius tegmine æquans, figuræ ovalis potius quam rotundæ. Hæc tactu explorata ſatis erat dura: quumque mirum videretur phænomenon arteriam intervallo trium digitorum ſupra & infra illam dilatationem abſcidi, totumque hoc fruſtum exemi. Flatus immiſſus per unum foramen cum ſibilo per alterum exibat: ſtilum transadigere ſine magno obſtaculo licebat, ita tamen ut mihi viderer quaſi per glomum capillorum vel lanæ illum ducere.

Ut

Ut itaque viderem quid rei esset, secundum arteriæ tractum & illud aneurysma & ipsam arteriam aperui, vidique tunicam arteriæ in illo loco, ubi maxime erat dilatata, crassitiem sanæ partis ad minimum triplo excedere. Ubi omnino culter usque ad cavitatem penetraverat, oculis conspiciendi sese præbebant innumerabiles vermiculi quasi capillares, aut pilo caudæ equinæ non crassiores, mire inter se convoluti, digiti indicis articuli anterioris longitudinem æquantes, vitam motu reptatuque suo satis indicantes. Color ipsis erat rubens, microscopioque visi toti pellucebant, in altera extremitate aliqua nigredo conspicua videbatur: hacque parte caput fuisse existimabam. Curiosum erat spectaculam, quum considerarem mutuum tot animalculorum implexum: qua delectatione ut liberius fruerer, volebam integrum glomum eximere: quod ut facere aggrediebar novam admirandi materiam nanciscebar, quum singulos quidem extrahere facile esset, universos loco movere non liceret. Causum hanc inveni subesse, quod illius dilatatæ portionis interior superficies, non secus quam cordis ventriculi, lacertulis quibusdam erat instructa, quos vermiculi hi subierant, ipsisque sic inhærebant, ut lateribus proximi, dum his quasi fulcris sustinebantur implexique erant, reliquis omnibus firmamento essent, ne possent ab impetu irruentis arterioſi sanguinis loco moveri.

In ejusdem equæ ventriculo antea observatum ferat tuberculum aliquod, quod tantillum mobile sub tunica rugosa interiori jacebat, quumque aperiretur ejusdem generis vermiculis, pariter convolutis, repletum inveniebatur, prorsus intercedente nulla diversitate, nisi hac una, quod non æque, ut illi ex arteria, rubebant. Ex hoc tuberculo, quod nucis moschatæ ambitum æquabat, foraminula duo vel tria in ventriculum hiantia videre mihi visus sum.

Hæc intuitus evolvere cœpi auctores hippiatros, quotquot ad manus erant: sed in nullum incidi, qui se simile quid obserobſervaſſe teſtaretur. Tandem incidi in celeberrimi viri Frid. Ruyſchii obſervationes anatomico-chirurgicas, qui Obſ. LXIV. vermium in arteriis equorum viventium pauciſſimis verbis meminit, eosdemque ad pag. 61. adjecta tabula delineat noſtris omnino ſimiles, niſi quod ſculptor in craſſitie denotanda aliquantulum exceſſiſſe videtur. Forte etiam Ruyſchius noſtris craſſiores obſervavit. Valde male me nunc habet, quod non ante ſeparationem anevryſmatis curioſius inquiſivi num qua darentur foraminula, ex quibus hi vermes in inteſtina exſpatiari, æque ut ex illo ventriculi tuberculo, poſſent: quod fere ſuſpicor, quoniam bis vel ter in canibus etiam obſervare licuit ad ventriculum ejusdem generis tubercula, quæ vermis ſingularis, in canibus quidem longior & craſſior, inhabitabat, foramine in ventriculum mira arte perforato, ſic ut admodum obliquo itinere poſſet in ventriculum irrepere. Dabimus autem operam, ut ſumtis pluribus experimentis de hac re certiores reddamur.

Equiſetum, abortuum in integro grege crebrorum cauſa.

QUum ante non multos annos in quadam non ignobili Marchiæ urbe diſtrictus notabilis ad Havelam, virgultis fere tantum ſponte ſubnatis conſitus in pratorum legitimam formam redigeretur, lætiſſimus proventus equiſeti primo anno inſequuto ſuccrevit, paucis graminibus aliis intermixtis. Fœnum inde confectum horreis invehitur, inveniturque per hiemem pecori gratiſſimum pabulum. Enimvero grave damnum mox inſequutum eſt, quum ex gravidis, tam vaccis quam ovibus, pauciſſimæ evaderent, quæ non abortum paterentur. Ex reliquo pecore nullum fuit, in quo animadverti ulla noxa, ab hoc pabulo illata, potuiſſet.

Veroſimile hinc fit equiſeto iſti copioſius ſumto illum effectum tribuendum eſſe. Illi ſaltem, quibus hæc experientia magno conſtitit, hinc didicerunt gravidos greges alio fœno paſcere: hoc autem, equiſeto permixtum, illis tantum ſuppeditare animalibus, quæ nulla fœtura imprægnata ſunt.

Poſſet aliquis hunc abortum pro epidemio habere, ejusque cauſſas aliunde arceſſere: & ſane, fateor, idem ipſe putabam, cum mihi illa res primo exponeretur: ſed poſtquam multorum affirmatione intellexi nec aliis gregibus in illo tractu id accidiſſe malum, nec aliarum domuum pecoribus, quam quibus id fœnum, equiſeto multo abundans, pro pabulo fuerat: in equiſetum non rejicere hunc effectum non poſſum.

Ethiopia has a rich tradition of poetry that dates back to the fourth century AD. Ethiopian poets have written in Ge'ez, Amharic, Tigrinya, Oromo, Wolaytta, Gurage, Hadiyya, Kambaata, Sidaama, Gamo, Gofa, Dawro, Konta, Basketo, Bench, Kafa, Shekkacho, Zayse, Ari, Dizi, Hamer, Bashada, Amaro, Burji, Karo, Male, Mursi, Nyangatom, Daasanach, Arbore, Tsamai, Hamar, Banna, Benna, Kara, Aari, Gidicho, Baalee, Arsi, Harari, Somali, Afar, Saho, Qimant, Awngi, Bilen, Kunfel, Xamtanga, Agaw, Hdi Aliqua horum tuberum continebant materiam magis craſſam, non effluentem, inſtar gypſi magis jam conſiſtentis. Magnitudo diverſa erat, & quum maximum eorum juglandem æquaret, longitudine etiam excederet; reliqua ſenſim minora cernebantur, donec ad avellanæ aut fabæ magnitudinem accederent. In pulmonum illa parte, quæ ſuperficiem conſtituit, talia nulla vidimus; ſed qua parte ad ſpinam incumbit bene multa aderant.

His viſis caput quoque luſtrandum ſupererat, quod admodum volebam, niſi mecum omnes ob intolerabilem fœtorem, rei hujus pertæſi fuiſſemus.

Hic homo vitam ſedentariam a multis annis egerat, ſcabie etiam humida diu & graviter vexatus fuerat. Hac ſimul ac ſemel externi remedii, proprio conſilio adhibiti, uſu liberatus circa veris ingreſſum, brevi poſt deprehenſus eſt male ſibi conſtantia verba proferens, ex quibus de mentis vacillatione indicium capiebant. Julio menſe, cum menſæ adſideret aliquid ſcripturus, ſubito percepit ſenſum quaſi igneum ex manus dextræ digitis ad caput excurrentem, toti brachio ſtupore inducto. Eundem ſenſum, a pollice pedis dextri ad caput evagantem, brevi poſt expertus eſt, ex quo linguæ ac mentis uſum amiſit, medicinarum uſu ſubinde reſtitutum quidem, paroxyſmis tamen hemiplectodeis crebro recurrentibus, quum ſcabies nullo ſtudio revocari ad externas partes poſſet; tandem convulſivi acceſſerunt motus & ſopor, per dies aliquot continuos durans. Appetitus inter hæc viguit, crebri tamen vomitus ac diarrhœæ fuerunt. Finem vitæ impoſuerunt vehementiſſimæ convulſiones in ſpaſmum cynicum abeuntes.

OBSERVATIO CCXXXII.

DN. D. JOH. HENRICI SCHULZE.

Observata in cadavere trimuli, variis incommodis tota fere vita sua vexati.

Ad. VII. Septembris M DCC XVII. praesentibus medicinae & chirurgiae aliquot cultoribus, dissecui salinatoris cujusdam filium, qui, vix semestri vitae suae spatio incolumi transacto, per duos & quod excurrebat, annos, continuo morbo decubuerat, tam variis symptomatibus stipato, ut qui ad medicinam ipsi faciendam adhibebantur, empirici & e plebe hominum medicastri, morbum alii fascino tribuerent, alii dislocationem vertebrarum interpretarentur. Abdomen semper visum fuit praeter modum turgidum & tensum, nates acutae pendulae, artus flaccidi & macie consumti. Voracitas in eo notabilis semper erat, sitis etiam perpetua, diarrhoeae frequentissimae, nec rari vomitus. Faeces, quae rejiciebantur, intolerabili foetore, multoque muco permixtae secedebant, flatus nulli sponte erumpere observati. Tussis continua infestabat, sed quae nihil fere ejecit; somno praeter naturam, saepe per integrum diem, deditus fuerat. Ante obitum epilepticae convulsiones diu graviterque miserum agitabant. Plura de morbo ex parentibus percipere non poteram, nec de medicinis adhibitis certum rescire, nisi quod chirurgus, nescio quis, vertebrarum dislocationi mederi magno molimine conatus fuerit, inductus, ni fallor, ad hanc suspicandum, quoniam abdominis immodica inflatio anterius incurvatum pauliper infantem reddiderat.

Ad sectionem vocabar, quia parentes certiores reddi cupiebant, utrum vere a vertebris luxatis morbus exstiterit, quod omnino praeter rem creditum fuisse conspiciebatur.

Juvabit tamen recenſere, quæ ſingularia in hoc cadavere nobis obtigerunt. Externus abdominis color lividus apparebat, & ad cœruleum vergens, quem a transparentibus per cutem, valde extenuatam, abdominis muſculis fuiſſe, ſectione ipſa & cutis ſeparatione clare adparebat. Sic diſſectis cum tendinibus muſculorum abdominis integumentis, magna vi erumpebant inteſtina flatu turgida. Omentum requirentes exigua reperiebamus veſtigia ejus, nempe convolutam tunicam exſanguem, ſupra colon reflexam. Mirabamur inteſtinorum diſtenſionem, quippe colon, ubi manu flatus repreſſeram, & ad digitos meos metiebar, latus ſuperabat tres latos digitos. Jejuni etiam portionem, quæ maxime videbatur extenſa, ſimiliter dimetiens, latitudinem duorum digitorum, indicis nempe & medii, æquare deprehendi. Erant vero ab hac extenſione juga interna hujus inteſtini adeo extenſa, & in cavum inteſtini ſpacium alte exſtantia, ut valvularum, contentorum progreſſum morantium, ideam facile animo valerent ſiſtere. In meſenterio mirabar non adeſſe valde induratas aut mole auctas glandulas. In pelvi abdominis erat colluvies quædam ſeroſa, conſiſtentiam fere purulentam adſpectui præbens, ſed ſpongiam promte ſubibat. Hepar ſatis ſanum, ſed mole videbatur naturali majus, in parte ima ſuffuſum nigreſcente colore. Lien induratus craſſusque videbatur. Colon facie ſua poſteriore cum duodeno ad notabile ſpacium coaluerat. Folliculus fellis, renes & veſica urinaria nihil incommodi offerebant.

Ad thoracem progreſſi offendimus pulmonem dextro lateri firmiter adhærere, & in angulo illo, ubi ad latus dextrum diaphragma pleuræ connectitur, medio illius ſpatii effluebat materia purulenta, ſed quo loco, niſi inter illas membranas concurrentes & fuerit contenta, nullo examine deprehendi poterat. Illud ſingulare hunc totum lobum obtectum fuiſſe vera pinguedine, ad craſſitudinem ferme calami ſcriptorii anſerini; quibus autem locis pleuræ adhærebat lobus, erat hoc medium

OBSERVATIO CCXXXIII.

DN. D. JOH. HENRICI SCHULZE.

Scotophorus pro phosphoro inventus: seu experimentum curiosum de effectu radiorum solarium.

SÆpe casu discimus, quod consilio & destinata opera vix inveniſſemus. Idem mihi accidit aliud quærenti & molienti, ut invenirem quod non speraſſem. Operæ pretium facturusne sim, si cum curiosis rem omnem communicavero, ipsorumque ulteriori disquisitioni eam permisero, benevolus lector ipsemet per se judicabit. Tituli vero insolentiam condonabunt æqui judices. Non enim aliam ob rationem scotophorum experimentum hoc vocavi, quam ut effectum obscurationis, quem in hoc vidi, innuerem. Quum lapis Bononiensis a solis radiis lucem accipiat: nostra hæc mixtura a sole obscuratur & fuscum colorem adipiscitur. Puto autem non minus indagatu dignam esse philosopho naturali hujus obscurationis veram causſam, quam illius a quovis phosphororum genere sparsæ lucis.

Biennium fere excurrit quum mihi de phosphoris varia perlegenti animum subiit examinare processum Balduini. Erat tunc forte ad manus aquæ fortis portio, admodum mediocri quantitate particularum argenti imbuta, scilicet quantulo opus est ad præparandam illam, ut separationi auri ab argento fiat idonea. Talem aquam fortem adhibui, ut, quod in experimento Balduiniano requiritur, cretam illa imbuerem. Suscepi hunc laborem ad fenestram patentem, sole tunc lucidissimos radios immittente. Admirabar coloris in superficie mutationem in obscure rubentem ad violaceum inclinantem. Magis autem mirabar, quum viderem illam patellæ partem, quam solares radii non contingebant, illum colorem minime exhibere.

...ment. Philosophie stoïcienne, qui, dans la nature, ne voit que la matière et la force, et qui, dans l'homme, ne voit que le corps et l'âme, ne peut admettre ni l'existence ni la nécessité d'un intermédiaire entre ces deux termes. Elle ne peut donc admettre ni l'existence ni la nécessité d'un intermédiaire entre le corps et l'âme.

Mais, si elle ne peut admettre l'existence d'un intermédiaire entre le corps et l'âme, elle ne peut pas davantage admettre l'existence d'un intermédiaire entre l'âme et Dieu. Car, si l'âme est matérielle, elle est de même nature que Dieu, et, par conséquent, elle est Dieu. Si, au contraire, l'âme est immatérielle, elle est de nature différente de celle de Dieu, et, par conséquent, elle ne peut pas être Dieu. Mais, dans ce cas, elle est une substance, et, comme telle, elle ne peut pas être séparée de Dieu, qui est aussi une substance. Car, si elle en était séparée, elle ne pourrait pas exister, puisque Dieu est la substance universelle, et que, hors de cette substance universelle, il n'y a rien qui existe. Donc, dans tous les cas, l'âme ne peut pas être séparée de Dieu.

Enfin, si l'âme ne peut être séparée de Dieu, elle ne peut pas être séparée du monde, puisque Dieu est le monde même. Donc, dans tous les cas, l'âme ne peut pas être séparée du monde.

Mais, si l'âme ne peut être séparée du monde, elle ne peut pas être séparée de la matière, puisque le monde est matière. Donc, dans tous les cas, l'âme ne peut pas être séparée de la matière.

Mais, si l'âme ne peut être séparée de la matière, elle ne peut pas être séparée du corps, puisque le corps est matière. Donc, dans tous les cas, l'âme ne peut pas être séparée du corps.

Mais, si l'âme ne peut être séparée du corps, elle ne peut pas être séparée des sens, puisque les sens sont dans le corps. Donc, dans tous les cas, l'âme ne peut pas être séparée des sens.

Mais, si l'âme ne peut être séparée des sens, elle ne peut pas être séparée de la sensation, puisque la sensation est dans les sens. Donc, dans tous les cas, l'âme ne peut pas être séparée de la sensation.

Mais, si l'âme ne peut être séparée de la sensation, elle ne peut pas être séparée de la pensée, puisque la pensée est dans la sensation. Donc, dans tous les cas, l'âme ne peut pas être séparée de la pensée.

Mais, si l'âme ne peut être séparée de la pensée, elle ne peut pas être séparée de la raison, puisque la raison est dans la pensée. Donc, dans tous les cas, l'âme ne peut pas être séparée de la raison.

Mais, si l'âme ne peut être séparée de la raison, elle ne peut pas être séparée de la volonté, puisque la volonté est dans la raison. Donc, dans tous les cas, l'âme ne peut pas être séparée de la volonté.

Mais, si l'âme ne peut être séparée de la volonté, elle ne peut pas être séparée de l'action, puisque l'action est dans la volonté. Donc, dans tous les cas, l'âme ne peut pas être séparée de l'action.

Mais, si l'âme ne peut être séparée de l'action, elle ne peut pas être séparée de la vie, puisque la vie est dans l'action. Donc, dans tous les cas, l'âme ne peut pas être séparée de la vie.

Mais, si l'âme ne peut être séparée de la vie, elle ne peut pas être séparée de la mort, puisque la mort est dans la vie. Donc, dans tous les cas, l'âme ne peut pas être séparée de la mort.

Mais, si l'âme ne peut être séparée de la mort, elle ne peut pas être séparée de la résurrection, puisque la résurrection est dans la mort. Donc, dans tous les cas, l'âme ne peut pas être séparée de la résurrection.

Mais, si l'âme ne peut être séparée de la résurrection, elle ne peut pas être séparée de la vie éternelle, puisque la vie éternelle est dans la résurrection. Donc, dans tous les cas, l'âme ne peut pas être séparée de la vie éternelle.

Mais, si l'âme ne peut être séparée de la vie éternelle, elle ne peut pas être séparée de Dieu, puisque Dieu est la vie éternelle. Donc, dans tous les cas, l'âme ne peut pas être séparée de Dieu.

Mais, si l'âme ne peut être séparée de Dieu, elle ne peut pas être séparée du monde, puisque Dieu est le monde même. Donc, dans tous les cas, l'âme ne peut pas être séparée du monde.

gratulationis, quibus ei illustrissimi ordines Belgii Foederati per legatos suos Hagae Comitis nuper apud Protectorem functos, gratulati sunt, ut ex literis, quas ipsi ad Protectorem scripserunt, ita ut ex literis, quas ipse ad illustrissimos Belgii ordines rescripsit, quae omnia ex Belgico sermone in Latinum conversa, ut sequuntur, hic subjungere placuit. Quae quidem gratulationis literae, quas ad Protectorem scripserunt illustrissimi Belgii ordines, sic habent.

Illustrissime, Excellentissime, Potentissime Princeps, Domine Protector, Amice noster Charissime. Quae nobis cum Illustrissima Majestate Vestra, Excellentissimo Senatu, Potentissimoque populo Anglicano, semper fuit amicitia, ea nunc quoque, ut ante, nobis est cordi, et quidem eo magis, quo majorem ex ea fructum, tum nobis, tum subditis nostris, percipi posse, ex Majestatis Vestrae, Excellentissimi Senatus, et Potentissimi populi Anglicani, in nos benevolentia, facile intelligimus.

Quamobrem non possumus, quin gratulemur, tum Majestati Vestrae, tum Excellentissimo Senatui, et Potentissimo populo Anglicano, de felicissimo successu, quem Deus Optimus Maximus, ut ex literis Majestatis Vestrae, ad nos datis, intelligimus, ipsis in bello contra Hispanos gesto, concessit, quo magis nobis est gratum, quod Majestas Vestra, Excellentissimus Senatus, et Potentissimus populus Anglicanus, nos de eo certiores fecerit. Precamur itaque eundem, ut, quae prospere coepta sunt, ea ad finem usque felicissimum perducat, ut Majestas Vestra, Excellentissimus Senatus, et Potentissimus populus Anglicanus, de hostibus suis, quos ipsi justissimo bello persequuntur, quam primum triumphum agere, et ad pristinum statum, quem ante bellum habuerunt, omnia reducere possint. Quod ut fiat, Majestatem Vestram, Excellentissimum Senatum, et Potentissimum populum Anglicanum, Deo Optimo Maximo, quam ardentissimis precibus commendamus. Quae nos etiam nobis ad gratum, quicquid id est, quod Majestas Vestra, Excellentissimus Senatus, et Potentissimus populus Anglicanus, nobis, aut subditis nostris, praestare possit, paratissimos esse, Majestati Vestrae, Excellentissimo Senatui, et Potentissimo populo Anglicano, pollicemur.

ut ab eo, ut omnes aliquos eruditi inter literatos annos transegerunt, ita ipse quoque, quamvis ad Regiam Majestatem, Principes, Magnates, Proceres, Nobiles, ac Ecclesiasticos, alios non paucos, ex omnibus fere orbis partibus, quotidie literas dederit, ac acceperit, tamen ad ultimum usque vitæ halitum, ab omni otio, ac voluptate, quam maxime abhorruerit, ac semper aliquid, vel scribendo, vel legendo, laborandum fuerit. Reliquum est, ut ejus ingenium, ac doctrinam, quæ ipsi ab omnibus tribuitur, ostendamus. Quod ut facilius fiat, ejus opera, quæ ad nos pervenerunt, ordine recensebimus. Ac primum quidem, quæ ad Historiam Hungaricam pertinent, quæ ipse scripsit, quæque ab aliis ad ipsum scripta sunt, ea omnia, quæ ad manus nostras pervenerunt, ordine, quo ea vidimus, quoad fieri poterit, recensebimus. Quamquam enim ille quoque, ut omnes, quos hactenus novimus, codices, non nisi mutilus ad nos pervenit, tamen ea, quae supersunt, omnium manuscriptorum facile bonitate et fide superat.

Hac intentione os femoris ab illis ligamentis totum resecamus, quo facto sponte sua ex acetabulo exibat, nobisque copiam faciebat tum se, tum vero etiam illam cavitatem penitus considerandi. Et quidem in ossis femoris capitulo nihil supererat cartilaginis ejus, qua naturaliter contegitur, & ad facilem motum aptatur. Totum autem erat asperum & inæquale, rotunditateque sua ad notabilem partem privatum. Nullum vestigium teretis illius ligamenti, quo ossi coxendicis implantatur, supererat. Eadem erat facies ipsius illius loci, cui caput illud inseritur: neque enim ibi vestigium ligamenti teretis neque cartilaginem observare licebat, nisi in superiori ejus parte admodum pauxillum. Reliquam omnem corruptio illa abstulerat, totamque superficiem inæqualem reddiderat. Dum extergenda sanie occupamur, observabamus aliquem e loco superiori affluxum, atque inveniebamus sinum supra os coxendicis ab acetabulo excurrentem, unde porro descendentem illum ad pelvim prosequuti sumus, ejusque cavitatem tantam deprehendimus, cui digitus posset inseri.

Ut vero hanc etiam cavitatem ulterius exploraremus abdomen aperuimus; peritonæum vero nondum peresum, sed sub illo cavitatem hanc prorepsisse, intusque tam latam vidimus, quanta fere est duorum pollicum latitudo. Reliqua abdominis viscera fugitivo oculo lustrantes nihil læsum aut singulariter corruptum invenimus; nihilque porro observavimus, quod ad illam, quam indagabamus, corruptionem intelligendam facere posset.

Ex hac sectione clare cognoscebam puerum hunc laborasse illo affectu, quem M. Aur. Severinus sub nomine pædarthrocaces peculiari libello descripsit, qui pars est operis de recondit. absces. natura. Alii spinam ventosam dicunt, etsi ipse

Quæ ubertas ut ad omnes pateret, omnes sibi Scripturæ libros, quos canonicos appellamus, auctoritate divina præscripsit. Nam et veteris Testamenti libros, quos Hebræi solos accipiunt, ita Septuaginta duo tenent, quos ecclesia Dei obtinuit, ut eos tanquam propheticos non audeat reprehendere, quamvis eorum scriptores non ad Hebræam linguam, sed ad istam Græcam, quæ tam late patet, ex ipsius fontibus prophetiæ manarint.

Sed ne quisquam forte existimet, quod in quibusdam apocryphis sit, ea potius ejusdem auctoritatis esse habenda, quæ Hebræi non habent, quam illa, quæ Hebræi habent: sciat, quæ ab illis non habentur, ea per Septuaginta seniores, qui primi in ecclesia Græca Scripturas sanctas interpretati sunt, ab eadem ecclesia recepta, sed tempore, quod voluit, Spiritu, quem viva dividebat gratia, ostensa fuisse, ut ad eam Scripturarum sanctarum, quæ per Hebræos est, accederet. Vir ſcil. 49. 50. ann. (ex quo quorſum poſthac evaſerit, ignotum,) natione Alſatus, opificii ſutorii, temperamenti cholerico-ſanguinei, habitus ſatis pleni, vitæ ab infantia activiſſimæ, agiliſſimæ,

I. In Infantia, ad pueritiæ annum 14. cum cruſta lactea & Achoribus graveolentibus fere perpetim conflictatur; Hæmorrhagias vero nunquam, nec ea ætate cephalalgias, vertiginem, nec quicquam morbidi paſſus. Ceſſantem experitur an. 15. achoraceam ſeri excretionem.

Abhinc II. per Adoleſcentiam & in juvenili ætate graviter vertiginoſus evadit, ita ut alta ſcandere, citra præſentaneum lapſus metum non valeat: in patria etiam aliquando urinæ incontinentia, cum ſciſſionibus corripitur, cum ſenſu in lumbis fluctuatorio, als wenn etwas mit Waſſer angefüllet darinnen ſchwuckerte, wobey er das Waſſer gar nicht halten konte, ſine tamen calculi excretione, ſed cum ſabulo ita dicto rubro, in vitro adhæreſcente, quod poſthac extra patriam copioſe ſeceſſit. Accedente hinc, dum opificii ergo Alſatia vinoſa relicta, Germaniam cereviſiariam viſeret, ſpiſſiore potu & craſſiore cibo, ex cibis maximè dyſpeptis, præc. Francofurti, (beſonders von dem vielen harten geräucherten Rind-Fleiſch, Salate, u. d. gl.) uſu, perpetuo fere abhinc valetudine adverſa premitur, emaciatur, debilitatur, appetitus cadit, affligitur fere indies anguſtia & preſſionibus mox colli, mox præcordiorum, mox & præcipuè ventriculi, maximè poſt ſumtos cibos; incedunt leves interdum æſtus & horripilationes, cum tuſſiculatione, ejectione muci non pauci, ita ut Phthiſicum ſe eſſe perſuadeatur. Francofurti ſimul, ut & in Ducatu Wirtenbergico, & præcipue. Lipſiæ pluries ſcabiem graviſſimam patitur; item flatulentias, aliquando graviſſimam obſtructionem alvi, item dorſi dolores, anguſtias & anxietates præcordiorum. Febribus in Germania multis & multiplicibus tentatur, aliquando Quartana per dimidium fere annum, nec minus Anaſarca, Cephalalgiis ſimul frequentiſſimuis : poſt prandium nihil quicquam potulentorum aut juſculentorum , citra languorem , marceſcentiam , & incaleſcentias manuum , preſſiones ventriculi , & Flatulentias, niſi demum alta veſpera aſſumere valet.

III. In juvenili præcipuè ætate circa ann. 26. menſæ aliquando aſſidens , dolore aurium corripitur , ſuccedit tinnitus , privatur uſu auris , ſurdeſcit : videbatur quaſi lamellâ auribus appoſita , als wäre ein Blätlein vor den Ohren ; vagatur affectus mox in hanc , mox in alteram aurem ; tandem ſuccedit fluxio ex aure materiæ copioſæ , primo prunæ quaſi ſanioſæ , tandem albeſcentis , fœtentis bis ſæpe per diem effluxit copia , extergenda linteaminibus : Ante effluxus hujus eventum laborabat ſemper Cephalalgia gravativa , oppletiva , dolorifica ; poſt effluxum verò factum levabatur caput , auris verò pruriebat , imo dolebat , & ſcalpta ichorem fundebat ; audiebat tamen. Quamdiu fluxio hæc ſibi conſtabat , bene habebat ; quandocunque verò morbo aliquo detinebatur , nihil fluebat , aut fortè rectius , quando fluxio ſupprimebatur , morbo aliquo laborabat. Invaluit verò hæc fluxio præcedens ex eſu inconvenientium , maximè ſuillæ , non verò bovinæ , unde pruritus auris , ſcalptio, fluxio. Poſt duos circiter abhinc annos hæmorrhoidum turgeſcentiam incurrit ; gravis nempe adeſt ardor in inteſtino recto , ita ut ſedere vix potuerit , frequens alvi excretio , exturgeſcunt hæmorrhoides , ſie hängen ihm weit heraus , daß er ſie gar hat wollen wegreiſſen ; mitigantur tandem unguento quodam luteo applicato. Interim continuat aurium affectus poſthac per 13. 14. annos.

IV. In virili ætate , annorum forte 38. 39. cum deſineret iſta aurium fluxio , corripitur , & hucusque ſæpiſſimè detinetur , Cephalalgia gravativa , preſſoria , oppletiva , ut apoplexiam metuat. Auditus abhinc hebetatur ; imo ſæpius, oculis inflammatio , ardor , rubor , dolor , effluxio aquei humoris obtingunt. Incedit etiam aliquando in dextro tro capitis latere eryſipelas, cum ſenſu ardoris, ſed levioris. Imo Febres frequentiores abhinc incurrit, curatus interdum larga Venæſectione, more Gallorum. Nec Venæſectiones ſolum frequentiores, ſed etiam purgationes adhibuit; quibus ultimis aliquantiſper alleviatus fuit. Intermiſit vero poſthac evacuationes iſtas. Ad ſudationes copioſas olentes, ſimul urinæ ſordidæ ejectiones proclivis: interdum Diarrhæis obnoxius; nec minus tuſſibus mucidis. Circa annum ætatis 43. 44. ſuſurrus capitis incedit; diffunditur hic ſenſus in capite moleſtus deorſum, & nucha rhevmatico ſenſu detinetur, qui magis ad humeros tendit; durat hæc moleſtia, ſub langueſcentia virium ad annum ætat. 46. quo ſuccedit Rheumatiſmus Axillæ & Colli. Levato hoc poſt dimidium anni, incedit vertigo, veſperi ſemper affligens, poſt ſumtos 2. 3. potus; affligit in lecto decumbentem, ſomno tamen obrepente evaneſcit: ſuccedunt poſthac Quartanam Febrem; & ſopita vel ſupreſſa ea, quotidianam, poſt eſum raphani cum butyro. Accepto purgante graviter ἄνω καὶ κάτω evacuatur, unde Febris ceſſat, raphani eſu tamen abſtinere cogitur. Annorum circiter 47. 48. circa Nativitatis Feſtum incedit ipſum vehemens pruritus ſcroti, qui ultra 2. annos (ad ann. ætat. 50.) continuat, & aliquando fere intolerabilis, daß er kratzen muß, bis das wilde Blut weggehet: tandem poſt 2. annos, menſe Febr. remittit hic pruritus, exorta in Femore puſtula grandi, ein groſſer Blut-Schwer, daß er faſt dafür nicht gehen kan. Devorato halecé, gravi corripitur tuſſi ſicca cum aſperitate faucium. Antehac, anno abhinc citius, iterum ardor in hæmorrhoidibus moleſtiſſimus, qui tamen à ſupra illo citato tempore non redierat hactenus; evaneſcit tamen ex uſu pulverum nitroſo-cinnabarinorum. Succedit iterum ſtrepitus in aure ſiniſtra, quaſi ſonitus pſt, pſt, pſt; & cum hyeme refrigeraretur dolore dorſi verſus hypochondrium ſiniſtrum affligitur, ita ut reſpirare liberè non valeat; mox dolor humero, meros, mox coxendicem occupat: jungitur tuſſis; urina mox virideſcens, mox nigreſcens, mox lutoſa, plerumque ſordidiſſima: vertigo interrcurrit: dolor interdum cor apprehendere videtur: copioſo ſudore levatur. Allegato anno circiter ætatis 47. 48. autumno Febre tertiana tentatur, cum largiſſimo ſudore, fœtidiſſimo, & urinæ frequenti conatu, paucis tamen ſemper ſecedentibus guttis, rubicundiſſimis; leviter miteſcente Febre, ſequitur poſt ſternutationem frequentem Tuſſis, ejecto multo muco tetri coloris; exulcerantur labia: ad lene laxans vehementer evacuatur, ad tertium usque diem; evaneſcit tandem Febris bene evacuato corpore & Venæſectione ultimo admiſſa. Poſthac cum iſto viro quid rerum geſtum ſit, non experiri licuit, curam ingratiſſimo effugiente, unde biographiam noſtram ulterius, & forte ad finem vitæ, ſi mihi ipſi illum attingere contigerit, producere non vacat. Satis tamen illius eſſe autumo, pro ſchemate, quo motuum ferоſorum multiplices valde & proteiformes ſucceſſus alternationesque à prima infantia in quinquageſimum ætatis annum usque ſatis pareſcere confido.

Rumpe, quæſo, nexum, neglige initia, agita ſolitarium hunc vel illum inſultum; quid tunc niſi incerti, vagi, precarii mox de ſcorbuto, mox de acrimonia, mox de tumultibus ſpirituum ſylveſtrium, mox de abſtruſioribus qualibuscunque aliis cauſis conceptus ſuppetant atque cogitationes? Cum qui attentiore univerſas motuum iſtorum, à prima ad ultimam, ſcenas, juxta ſeriem ſucceſſuum, contemplatur oculo, exquiſitiſſimam omnino, certam, & ſpeculationibus fatuis vacuam elicere ætiologiam, & methodum medendi veram, conſtantem, & efficacem condere atque ſequi ſufficientiſſime valeat. Nempe, ut rem conceptui in compendio offeram: Vir hic ſanguine ſubtili, florido, mobili præditus, excretionem copioſiſſimam humorum mucido-ulceroſorum in capite, diuturnamque ejusdem aſſuefactionem expertus fuerat in prima infantia. PAſſim per Germaniam, inprimis verò Francofurti ad Mœnum An. 1723. variolæ infantibus æque ac adultis admodum fatales fuere, quippe epidemicè graſſantes febrem malignam ut plerumque tunc fieri ſolet, conjunctam habuere.

Neceſſarium hinc ut ſingulari cura judicio ac circumſpectione hiſce afflicti tractentur; ubi indefeſſum omnino & non ſatis laudandam operam cum multorum ſalute præſtitit frater meus dilectiſſimus, Medicus apud Francofurtenſes celeberrimus; cujus ideo in ſæviſſimum hunc morbum epicriſin obſervationes & medendi modum cum ipſius venia Lectori Medico communicari non ingratum fore exiſtimo. rum, cui, ait, pro cubiculo commendo. Quodsi ad-
huc ambigis, quid sit Hospitium, Hospitium est, quod Graeci ξενοδοχεῖον vocant, ubi hospites recipiuntur.
Ξενοδοχεῖον autem dicitur, quod ξένους δέχεται, id
est, quod hospites in tutum receptos, fautosque habet.
Ξένος enim, ut Festus ait, apud Graecos dicitur, qui apud nos hospes, quia is, qui ad hospitem venit, ab hospitalitate discedit invisus, quod ipse, dum venit, ab hospite non invisus discedit. Ξένος enim dicitur quasi ἐπίσκοπος, id est, qui ad alios venit, ut ab his recipiatur. Ξένος autem dicitur, qui ab hospite admittitur, cum contubernium principio accipit, postea hospes dicitur.

OBSERVATIO
IN D. CONRADI BECHOLDI SERMONEM.

In Rud. Hospitium.

Quemadmodum ad Judicia Dei, quae sunt abyssus multa, nemo potest accedere, nisi qui ante ad Sapientiam Dei accesserit, ut ait Augustinus: ita ad Sapientiam Dei, quae in Scripturis Sanctis continetur, nemo accedere potest, nisi qui ante ad Scripturas Sanctas, quae Sapientiam Dei continent, accesserit. Quod ut ego, qui Scripturae Sanctae, quae Sapientiam Dei continent, nullum unquam studium dedi, nullum unquam habui, ita nunc, quia Dominus Jesus Christus, qui Sapientia Dei est, me ad Scripturas Sanctas, quae Sapientiam Dei continent, vocavit, ad eas accedere cupio, ut Sapientiam Dei, quae in Christo Jesu est, discam.

Et primo animadvertendum est, Hospitium, quod Graeci ξενοδοχεῖον vocant, ubi hospites recipiuntur, hoc est, habitat et commorantur, non esse locum illum, ubi hospites ad mensam recipiuntur, et cibo potuque reficiuntur, quod Graeci πανδοκεῖον vocant, ut Lucas in parabola de Samaritano facit, Luc. 10. Quod chondriacus ejusmodi ad tot horas, imo dies instar mortui decumbere queat, exemplis catalepticorum ac mulierum hysfericarum illustratur. Cataleptici ad 19. horas ita persistentis exemplum recenset Paullinius Cent. IV. observ. 38. per integrum diem Tulpius l. 1. obs. 22. in alterum atque tertium diem Heerius obs. 3. p. 62. Hysfericæ vero elapso demum triduo quasi ex alto somno se colligentis, oculosque aperientis meminit Hagedornius cent. 2. obs. 89. Aliam ad novem dies sine sensu, motu, ac alimento omni superstitem adducit Lanzonus, Ephemer. Nat. Curios. Dec. 2. An. 9. Obs. 51. adeo ut pro mortuis habitæ feretro includantur, qualis exempli meminit Piso l. de Morb. à colluv. serosa. obs. 26. p. 107. ac aperturæ corporis subjiciantur, quod insigni Anatomico Vesalio non absq; honoris jactura contigit apud Paræum l. 23. c. 46.

III. Scilicet uti catalepsis ac ecstasis tantum invadendi modo differunt, qui in catalepsi subitaneus est, ita quoque ecstasis ab affecto communi sensorio oritur, ut spiritus animales quasi concentrati ad partes suas determinatas pro sensu & motu irradiare nequeant. Sensorium illud commune non equidem cum Cartesianis glandulam pinealem statuerim, ob plures rationes à me in Selectis meis physiologicis Sect. II. n. 49. adductus; sed meditullium cerebri, aut si mavis principium exortumque nervorum, quod ipsum commune sensorium à lympha quapiam austera in vicinia stagnante, spasmodice affici, pororumque cerebri conniventiam quandam causare, phænomena circa ecstasin omnia probant. Certe rusticum illum Batavum, qui ante non multos annos Stolvici per sex menses dormiverat, cujusque historia plenior in Actis Erud. Lipsi an. 1707. p. 278. recensetur, ab affectu convulsivo in somnum ejusmodi præternaturalem incidisse, post mortem deprehensum, ceu in quo teste Excell. Heistero in Ephem. Nat. Curios. Cent. 2. obs. 98. abdomen ita introrsum tractum fuit, ut aortæ pulsus prope Umbilicum deprehensus sit, quale quid etiam in pueris Epilepticis interdum contingere Pechlinus Obs. p. 286. testis est.

IV. Non autem ut quidam juxta cum Engelbrechto ipso voluere, veritati conforme est, animas in ecstasi ejusmodi extra corpus pus alio ac etiam ad cœlum ſecedere, ac dein ad corpus reverti, & meminiſſe quæ vidit. Uti anno 1638. quidam Johannes Werner infimæ ſortis homo deſcriptionem viſionum ſuarum in lucem edidit in qua p. 40. refert, ſe an. 1637. Torgaviæ degentem ecſtaſi correptum, ac Viennam usque abductum, in ipſo Imperiali conclavi ſecretiſſimis negotiis interfuiſſe. Sed ſecundum naturam hæc ſiquidem phantaſtica non fuerint, non fiunt, talemque ecſtaſin divinam pariter ac diabolicam agnoſcit ſumme Rever. Buddeus, Inſtit. Theol. Dogmat. l. 1. p. 86. Anima enim noſtra, utpote ſpirituum animalium parte ſubtiliſſima, auraque illa divina, primo homini in creatione inſpirata conſtans, ut jam pluribus in Ephemer. Nat. Curioſ. Cent. IV. Obſ. 87. aſſerui, nulla naturali ratione, à vivo corpore ceu organo ſuo citra deſtructionem ejusdem ſeparari, aut ab eodem ſeparata ad idem remeare poteſt. Quod enim Bodinus ejusmodi quippiam exemplis magorum præcipue probare nititur, qui per hebdomadas aliquot aut menſes ecſtaſin patiantur, in eo recte à Merico Caſaubono l. de enthuſiaſmo cap. 3. p. 74. refutatur, ex ea ratione, quod Diabolo facile ſit, illorum phantaſiæ res ejusmodi repræſentare, ac perſuadere, quod hæc vel iſta, hoc illove loco reapſe viderint aut egerint. Nec bis mortuorum exempla in Sacris Literis occurentia illis favent, cum miraculoſa, adeoque nobis imperſcrutabilia exiſtant, ut recte Suelingius argumentatur Diſſert. de Bismortuis. Quin quod anima humana ne quidem extra corpus & in diſtans operari queat, ut nullo firmo exemplo probabitur, multo minus igitur eandem extra corpus alio ſeceſſuram, quispiam concedere poterit.

V. Et ſeceſſum animæ à corpore refutant exempla eorum, qui forti ſua phantaſia ecſtaſin in ſemet ipſis voluntariam produxerunt, quotiescunque voluerunt. Ita apud Auguſtinum l. 14. de Civit. Dei. c. 23. quidam ita ſe auferebat a ſenſibus, & jacebat ſimillimus mortuo, ut non ſolum vellicantes atque pungentes minime ſentiret, ſed aliquando etiam igne ureretur admoto ſine ullo doloris ſenſu, niſi poſtmodum ex vulnere. Similia exempla quorundam ſponte, quoties vellent, ecſtaſi correptorum re-censet Casaubonus c. 3. p. 68. qui etiam non consueverunt ad se redire, nisi vis quædam eos revocandi aut suscitandi adhiberetur. Novit etiam viditque mulierem P. Zacchias, ut testatur l. 3. Quæst. Med. Leg. Tit. 2. quæst. 6. quæ se, ubi frequens hominum cœtus in templis sacrisque locis convenisset, raptam in ecstasin confingebat, & admiratione non parum dignum erat, quam apte simularet. Meminit idem quoque hypocritarum quorundam ad homines decipiendos & sanctitatis nomen sibi conciliandum ecstasin simulantium, quos vulgus fraudum nescius, tanquam rem supernaturalem & miraculosam admiraretur & veneraretur.

VI. Nec etiam quæ ecstatici ad se redeuntes de translationibus ac visionibus suis, locutionibus cum angelis ipsoque Deo, ac nescio quibus aliis mysteriis narrant statim evincunt, animam extra corpus raptam inque iisdem locis exstitisse, de quibus illi recensent. Notum enim est, quali phantasia polleant hypochondriaci adeo ut npnnunquam ea præstent, quæ rationi vitæ generis ineruditi nunquam ab ipsis exspectari possent, & alias eruditionem & artem præsupponunt. Ita eruditi cujusdam Silesii meminit Paullinius Cent. 1. Obs. 96. qui post mediam noctem in somno surgens aliquando concionem vel nuper lectam vel auditam sine multa hæsitatione repetebat, & demum in lectum iterum se conjiciebat. Imo versus fundebat ab Autore dicto adductos. Recenset etiam Hannemannus in Ephemer. Nat. Curios. Dec. 3. Ann. 3. Obs. 61. de Zanardo, quod in componendis carminibus non multum peritus fuerit, nec quoque in Græca Hebræaque lingua, & tamen in somno currente discursu carmina pulcherrima Latina & Germanica formaverit, & terminos antedictarum linguarum cognoverit, conciones quoque magis ordinatas & elegantiores in somno confecerit, quam in vigilia. Quæque vigil cum multo labore non penetraverit, in somno in promptu habuerit, & hæc pluries ipsi accidisse. Quam gravem concionatorem pœnitentialem se præstiterit agricola & adolescens Johann Müller Lindhorstii pago Ducatus Magdeburgici ante quindecim annos, pagellæ typis impressæ referunt. Qui casus quamvis ab Editore Pastore Rurali ad tentationes Dæmoniacas referretur REgnum Dei non venit cum observatione. Neque dicent: Ecce hic, aut ecce illic. Ecce enim regnum Dei intra vos est. Luc. 17. Quæ verba Christi Domini, quamvis ad Pharisæos dicta sint, ad omnes tamen Christianos pertinent, qui ad cognitionem veritatis Christianæ pervenerunt. Quapropter hodie ad nos dicuntur, qui ad Christi Ecclesiam per Baptismum vocati sumus.

Admodum grave hoc est, quod Christus Dominus dicit, Regnum Dei non venire cum observatione. Quasi dicat: Quod ego annuncio regnum Dei, non est regnum, quod oculis videri possit, aut manibus palpari, sed est regnum, quod mentibus hominum per fidem illabitur. Quapropter nolite quærere regnum Dei, ubi non est, neque dicatis: Ecce hic, aut ecce illic. Ecce enim regnum Dei intra vos est. leſcunt, ut ſatis aptæ ſint decorticationi: cum ex adverſo in uliginoſo limoſoque ſolo provenientes ſeptimo aut octavo demum anno plenam maturitatem aſſequantur. Quin & illæ tardius matureſcunt ad delibrandum, quibus proceritas aliarum arborum frondoſarum umbras inducit earum radicibus ſolem arcentes. Inde quoque eſt, quod ejusmodi cortex non eandem guſtus ſuavitatem habere deprehenditur, quam iſte arboribus, quæ loco, uti ſupra dictum, arenoſo, albido, humidulo atque ſolibus expoſito prognaſcuntur, detractus, ſed ſubamarus eſt, cum nonnulla adſtrictione, Caphuramque ſapit.

Enimvero, radiorum ſolis viribus Caphura ſumme tenuis volatilisque efficitur, ita ut in ſuccos arboris penetret, cum quibus fermenteſcere quadantenus incipit; porroque inter materiem ligni teneramque interiorem corticis membranam ſurſum tendens in ramos foliaque adeo diffunditur, ut ne Caphuræ veſtigium quidem ullum ſit reliquum. Tum vero interior illa mollis adhuc glutinoſaque inter lignum & corticem hærens membranula imbibit & ſugit quaſi puras ſuavesque iſtius ſucci particulas, relictis craſſioribus portionibus, quæ ſurſum verſus ſerpentes aut propulſæ in folia, flores & fructus abſumuntur.

Quæ hic ſcribo, ex obſervatione mea propria depromſi, factoque eorum certiſſimo experimento, curioſis quibusdam harum rerum inveſtigatoribus plus ſimplici vice in re ipſa comprobata dedi. Si nimirum corticis arbori recens detracti humor vel ſuccus in ligno etiam tum reſiduus guſtu exploratur, ſubamarus eſt, Caryophyllosque aromaticos ſapit: quodſi contra ejusdem recentiſſime decerpti corticis interior membranula, quæ trunci ligno adhæſit, guſtatur, dulcedinem omnium maxime gratiſſimam ſuaviſſimamque offert percipiendam; exterior autem corticis pars deguſtata ſapore ab illo vulgarium arborum nihil prorſus differt, ex quo palam eſt, omnem illam ſuavitatis vim ſoli teneræ membranæ inhærere. Quando autem cortex radiis ſolaribus ad ſiccefcendum expoſitus in ſe convolvitur, hæc oleoſa ſuaviſq; membranulæ dulcedo in ejus tegmen ſive tutamen, craſſum videlicet delicet corticem (cui truncum veſtienti primum ſuum virideque velamen jam tum ademtum eſt) ſeſe inſinuat, qui ea tam large imbuitur, ut ob odoris fragrantiam ſaporisque ſuavitatem per univerſum terrarum orbem, uti Te ipſum, V. N. id minime latet, ſit deſideratiſſimus.

De reliquo juvabit hic noſſe, ad quot annos usque vigeat duretque illa maturitas ætatis, ita quidem, ut arbores, quæ Cinnamomum ferunt, idoneæ ſint ad delibrandum, integra nempe atque ſalva adhuc corticis virtute ac ſuavitate.

Satis autem conſtat, id genus arbores, ſi annos quatuor, quinque vel ſex ſupra decem adoleverunt, adhuc a trunco denudari poſſe, pro ſoli, uti jam diximus, qualitate; verum auctiores annis & craſſitie, amittunt ſuum ſaporem, peritque grata illa dulcedo, guſtuque cortex caphuram refert: quin & iſte juſto craſſior redditus calore ſolis non amplius convolyitur, ſed planam formæ figuram retinet.

Hic vero non ſine cauſſa quis cogitaverit, aut quæſiverit etiam, quomodo fieri potuerit, ut cum annorum vix bis centum ſpatio a Luſitanis non modo, ſed ab indigenis quoque, tum vero Europæis Ceilan inſulam (annis ante aliquot centenis jam detectam cognitamque) incolentibus tam immenſam Canellæ copiam hoc intervallo delibratam atque in varias orbis terrarum partes exportatam eſſe haud incompertum habeatur, tantus tamen vegetarum arborum annuis decorticationibus ſufficientium numerus provenerit, & adhuc provenire queat? Et in enodatione quidem hujus quæſtionis nonnulli auctores, Ceilan inſulam deſcribentes, ex ignorantia ſe non parum turpiter dederunt, dum tradunt, aromatico libro detracto quatuor vel quinque annis arborem decorticationi denuo idoneam fieri, id quod tamen naturæ omnino adverſatur; quia nusquam gentium arborem reperias, quæ cortice truncum obducente penitus denudata vivere ultra ac perennare queat, imo vero eam paullatim exareſcendo interire neceſſe eſt, ex parte puta trunci involucro ſuo ſpoliati; aſt ipſa radix viva vegetaque permanet, atque id ipſum rationem oſtendit, qua tanta arborum ad delibrandum idonearum copia

ſingulis annis ſuppetere poſſit: etiamſi enim arbor, cui cortex Cinnamomi ademtus eſt, ad imam ſtirpem usque, uti in Europa quercus, betulæ, alni, ſalices &c cædatur, tamen ab ejus radice pullulant tenella germina, brevique tempore, quatuor nempe, quinque, ſex, ſeptem vel octo annorum ſpatio, citius alia, alia tardius, matureſcunt aptaque fiunt decorticationi, ita ut ex vetula radice pariter uti ex fructibus decidentibus arbore, ſemper virgulta proveniant. Præterea, ut hæc ipſa copioſiſſime heic locorum naſcantur, facit quoddam genus columbarum ſilveſtrium, quas ideo quod Cinnamomi fructibus aluntur, Cinnamomivoras appellant; ab iſtis etenim, quando eſcas pro pullis ſuis quærunt, huc & illuc volitando raptorum fructuum, qui decidendo ipſis elabuntur, magnus numerus varie per agros diſpergitur, unde quotannis etiam multa millia arbuſcularum ſurgunt, (cujus generis arbuſcularum annum unum cum dimidio habentium quatuor exempla heic adjuncta Num. 10. notantur,) ita ut paſſim earum veluti denſæ ſilvulæ aut fruticeta vias omnes ſepientia occurrant: usque adeo copioſe & abundanter id præſtantiſſimarum genus arborum provenit; præſtantiſſimas eas appello, quoniam non novi præſtantius ullum usquam gentium plantarum ſtirpiumve genus reperiri. (Summum tamen Numen cuncta mirabilem in modum, in ſuo quodque genere, conſtruxiſſe, res ipſa loquitur.)

At vero, ſi quidquam, certe probum legitimumque Cinnamomum omnibus in univerſum populis gratum atque acceptum eſt. Ejus oleum vi ignis elicitum medicina cardiaca omnium præſtantiſſima habetur; Caphura quoque ex ejus radice mire prodeſt in quamplurimis affectibus, quemadmodum & pretioſum illud oleum Caphuræ, ſitemque folia & ex iis arte chymica diſtillatum oleum, nec non fructus & oleum inde expreſſum. Ut ſummatim dicam, quidquid ex arbore Cinnamomum largiente provenit, ſuam habet vim medicaminis, uſumque ſingularem; ut de inſigni oppidoque lucrativo quæſtu ac emolumento quod ad Dominos & Conſortes Nob. Soc. redundat, hic taceam. Hiſce igitur finem faciens Te &c.

Hucusque hiſtoria Canellæ omnis generis, quam una cum ſingulorum exemplis Procurator ejusmodi mercis in Ceilan, operisque ad eam ſeligendam conductis Præfectus ex Orientali India noviſſime Amſtelodamum ad Dn. Albertum Seba, Pharmacopœum heic loci periciſſimum, omnisque rei herbariæ exoticæ pariter ac indigenæ ſtudioſiſſimum, miſit. Iſtam ipſam vero atque eidem adjuncta quædam Cinnamomi cujuscunque generis, alia inſuper plura curioſa rerum exoticarum exempla modo laudatus Dn. Seba, pro ſingulari ejus humanitate, non ſolum benigniſſime nobiſcum communicavit, ſed ut ea quoque paullo magis explanarentur, non gravatus eſt memoratæ hiſtoriæ porro ea, quæ hic ſequuntur, amica mente ac manu ſubnectere.

Explicita hucusque Cinnamomi cujuscunque generis deſcriptione, non erit alienum inſtitutis meis, ſi hic paucis referam, me proximis ſuperioribus annis heic Amſtelodami a Nob. Orient. Ind. Societate pacto pretio mercatum eſſe, quæ arcis vaſtis tunc incluſa convaſataque erant Cinnamomi ſive Malabathri folia, interque ea reperiſſe flores Cinnamomi, magnitudine Fabæ Italicæ floribus pares, coloris ſubcærulei; tum etiam fructus, (quorum exemplum hic Num. 11. ſignatur); at nihil ejusmodi quidpiam occurrebat in aliis arcis, ex quibus depromta exempla hic adjunguntur. Annis 1722. & 1723. a laudata Soc. emtione facta comparavi oleum fructibus arboris Cinnamomi expreſſum, pariterque excoctum, quod durum ſatis atque candidum eſt, ſicut adjectum exemplum Num. 12. oſtendit; idque apud Or. Ind. Societatem appellatur Cera Cinnamomi, ideo quod rex in Candia candelas cereosque ſuos ex ea parari curat, atque ob odoris ſuavitatem iſtorum uſum ſibi tantum aulæque ſuæ reſervat. Patitur tamen & concedit hujus regionis incolis, ut ex alio haud abſimili fructibus Cinnamomi genere ſuccum exprimant, ſicut oleum ex olivis, pinguem fluidumque, ad apparandas lampades adhibendum luminique inſtillandum.

Apud Indos hujus Ceræ Cinnamomi eſt uſus quoque in medicina, eamque intro ſumendam illis, qui membris luxatis, caſu ab alto, contuſionibus & percuſſionibus ſunt afflicti, ideo propinant, nant, ut inteſtinæ partes vim perpeſſæ & corruptæ ejus medicinali balſamique æmula virtute in integrum reſtituantur; itemque datur hæc cera in dyſenteriis a 3j. ad 3ij. foris adhibita cutem longe nitidiorem mollioremque reddit, quam pomatorum, quæ appellant, unguentorum omne genus.

Suppetit inſuper Oleum ex foliis arboris Cinnam., guſtu ſubamaro oleum Caryophyllor. ver. cui aliquantulum olei Cinnamomi additum eſt, referens, & Oleum Malabathri vocatur. Hoc oleum aromaticum ad capitis ſtomachique dolores, itemque ad plures alios caſus efficax & præſentaneum remedium celebratur.

Oleum ex radice Cinnamomi proprie eſt oleum Caphuræ ex iſtis radicibus, cujus plenum aliquod vitrum mediocre Num. 13. hic mitto, annis ante duobus proximis a ſæpe laudata Societ. meo pretio emtum. Erant vero hæc vitra arcæ incluſa, cui majuſculis litteris lingua Belgica inſcriptum legebatur: Deſe Oliteiten ſyn tot een Geſchenck uyt Candia geſchicks, i. e. hæc olea muneri mittuntur ex Candia; adeoque vera nec adulterata ſunt, magnique æſtimantur. Si iſtud oleum ſuppoſito igne coactum in vitrea vaſa diſtillat, una cum eo tranſcendit Caphura Baros ab Indis nuncupata, quæ tenues lucidasque cryſtallos format inſtar floſculorum aut glaciecularum frigore mediocri concretarum parietibus vaſis adhærentes. Hæc Caphura in medicina longe multumque præſtat & pro rege in Candia tantummodo conquiritur & aſſervatur, qui eam nobilis ſingularisque medicamenti cardiaci loco habet. Neque vero Caphura Baros ſolum, ſed oleum quoque Caphuræ ex radic. Cinnamomi in corpus aſſumtum remedii vires reficientis numeros implet; cumprimis ſtomachum corroborat, corporis flatus diſcutit, contra arthritidem podagramque inſigniter opitulatur, inſuper ad urinas ciendas pollet; ſumitur autem a guttis x. ad xij. ſaccharo albo exceptum, aut idoneo liquori inſtillatum. Foris adhibetur in omnibus articulorum doloribus, a frigore aut obſtructione ortis, atque illitum calida manu affectis partibus probe infricatur, ſicque malum brevi paullatimque extenuatum evaneſcit. Anni jam ſunt ſex ſupra triginta, cum hic Amſtelodami Dn. Nicolaus Dumbſtdorfius in Officina cina ſua pharmaceutica me habuit in ſervitiis, tuncque temporis id contigit, ut iſte ipſe bonus vir arthritidis vagæ cruciatibus diu noctuque continuis infeſtaretur, adeo ut quandoque clamorem edere coactus fuerit. Quamvis autem ad medicorum uno plurium opem confugeret æger, multisque remediis uteretur, medicinam tamen non ſentiebat, usque dum ipſi afferretur conſilium, quo jubebatur curare, ut oleo ex radic. Cinnamomi, cujus ipſi copia tunc ſuppetebat, illineretur; tum vero hæc eum illinendi cura mihi demandabatur, quam libenti quoque animo ſuſcepi. Initium igitur hujus curæ faciens illinebam iſtud oleum artubus ſingulis dolore oppreſſis, inque hypocauſto manu calida infricabam, & quidem bis de die ac qualibet vice ad horam unam. Etſi vero ex ſpaſmo & intolerabilium dolorum atrocitate tanta aderat nervorum contractio, ut membra externa, manus puta & pedes, omnino incurvata nodoſaque deprehenderentur, ſpatio tamen dierum quatuordecim adeo immutata cernebatur mali facies, ut noctu æger neque dolores neque ſpaſmos ſentiret amplius, ſed ſomno placido frueretur. Atque hic illitus adeo proſpere ſuccedebat, ut intra ſex hebdomadas hypocauſtum pedibus obire valeret, cum antea manuum pedumque uſu omni eſſet privatus. Itaque tribus menſibus continuata fuit hæc illinendi opera, ſicque demum æger ad ſanitatem rediens ab omni ejusmodi invaletudinis acceſſu liber deinceps, annosque inſuper quindecim ſalvus incolumisque vixit. Re autem vera non hoc tantum ita eveniſſe teſtari poſſum ſed illud etiam, quod iterum & ſæpius aliis idem dederim conſilium, pari ubique ſucceſſu. Porro, quam ſalutarem præſtet operam vulgaris quoque Caphura, ex libris ſcriptisque paſſim editis abunde conſtat; in ea ipſa tamen latent adhuc non pauca quæ magno nobis ſint uſui. Qua occaſione non poſſum quin eorum in gratiam & uſum, qui forte hoc opus habuerint, heic ſubjungam, me contra ardores partium igne vel alia materia ambuſtarum, ſive manus ſive pedes ſive alia fuerint humani corporis membra, nullum adhuc remedium magis proficiens & præſentaneum expertum eſſe, quam iſtud quod ſequitur. Præterea opulentiores Perſæ, quando cum amicorum ſuorum primis præcipuisque ſaliarem in modum epulari inſtituunt, iſtam quoque radicem (prius tamen per noctem in aqua calida maceratam) in opſoniis ſuis miſcellaneis confuſaneisque (olla putrida vulgo dictis) apponi curant, hoc ipſo oſtenſuri, epulis ſuis ad lautitiam viriumque recreationem nihil omnino deeſſe.

N. 17. Eſt cortex, Coſtus Peruvian. ver. vel Cortex Jubabæ dictus: defertur ex Braſilia, gratoque ſapore & roborandi virtute mirificum uſum præſtat in phthiſi pariterque in omni ſpirandi difficultate; odore refert ſiliquas illas aromaticas quæ Vaniglies nuncupantur: Spiritu vini tinctura ex hoc cortice extrahitur, tum & in pulverem redactus uſurpatur, & Chocoladæ additur. Is etiam affuſa aqua calida, ſicut Thea, extractus ſorbillatur; viribus autem radici Salab prope accedit.

N. 18. Sunt Trochiſci ſive Placentæ, quas Catagamber appellant; advehuntur ex Japonia, conſtantque e puriſſimo magiſterio ex terra Catechu parato. Id vero contra Anginas aliasque faucium inflammationes efficaciſſime pollet, ac ſtatim largeque humorem ſubminiſtrat, pulmonis canaliculos aperit, ægrumque anhelitum levat. Utuntur eo inſtar Theæ de Boy, vel viridis Theæ, dum ejus fruſtulum aliquod una cum Thea infuſum extractumque pitiſſando hauriunt; ita namque inſidens in venis & medullis fervor temperatur ſitisque depellitur.

N. 19. Sunt flores Theæ de Boy e Sinarum regno; extrahuntur aqua, hocque infuſum ab opulentioribus ſicut Thea ex more calide bibitur. Iſti vero flores magis efficaciter leniterque urinas cient quam ipſa Thea; corroborandi quoque viribus eminent, ſuntque magno uſui in pectoris affectibus.

N. 20. Areca, ſive fructus Pynang vel Faufel. Naſcuntur in arbore procera, quæ nucis juglandis arbori haud abſimilis eſt, paſſimque deſcripta habetur. Arecæ vel Pynang ſunt interiores nuces ſive nuclei magnitudine nucis moſchatæ, extrinſecus ſæves, & Faufel nuncupantur; interiori Areca ſive nucleo, qui durus & lignoſus eſt, utuntur in dyſenteriis & diarrhœis a ℈j, ad ℥ß, ex idoneo neo liquore sumendo. Istorum fructuum Pynang una cum fructibus Betre (sive Betle, Betele, Betel) calce viva ex aqua subacta in unam massam redactorum atque in vitro parvo uniusmodi ab orificio ad fundum usque capacitatis (Zuckerglässl.) asservatorum plurimus est usus apud Indos & Sinenses, tum & Europæos, maximam vero partem apud feminas sese mutuo invisentes; ad eundem namque modum quo herba Nicotiana viris, isti fructus feminis apponuntur, & quidem in arcula affabre facta, una cum vasculis murrhinis sive porcellanis (Quispedors vocant) proritatæ in ore lymphæ ejectioni destinatis, quorum numerum cum personis congregatis æquant. De dictis fructibus quidam integri, de nonnullis vero aliquot tantum frustula arculæ indita præsto sunt cum cultello forficulaque in hunc usum peculiarem fabrefactis, quibus istos fructus vel eorum frustula in minores majoresve partes feminæ, ad suum quæque arbitrium, secando dividunt, tum vero de singulis illis speciebus tantum quantum cuique libet, capiunt, orique injectum mandunt, usque dum materia humescat, humorque in ore proritatus incipiat pulcherrimo rubro proximoque ardenti purpuræ (vulgo Carmin dicto) colore infici, ad quem laticem dein per dentium interstitia tanquam per syringam aut fistulam in ollulas salivarias (Quispedors) scite commodeque ejaculandum istæ feminæ perquam agiles sunt atque exercitatæ, quin & ex iis illa quæ in hoc laticem pulcherrimo colore infectum copiose ejaculandi sive ludo sive artificio maxime valet, conventus magistra tunc ac princeps habetur. Coloris autem pulcherrimi extrahendi ratio hæc est, ut quævis harum feminarum exacte sciat habeatque compertum, quantum cujusque speciei in ore simul mandendum sit.

Atque sic de rebus vanis & otiosis inter se colloquentes plurimum pretiosi temporis absumunt maleque perdunt. Fructus, quem hæc præbet, utilitatis in eo consistit, quod ora recenti salivæ rore vegeta ac refecta, dentes vero a putredine ac doloribus immunes (hujusmodi certe cruciatibus nunquam afficiuntur) eosque etiam urgente ac adventante senectute integros conservant.

N. 21. Est fructus Betel, itidem in arbore nascens, quæ magnitudine pariter ac foliorum structura vastæ arbori canelliferæ æmula est. Fructus sunt, uti Fabæ Turcicæ, oblongi & angusti, inque longitudinem ulnæ quadrantis excrescunt: ubi primum maturuere, tum incipiunt

EXpendenti mihi illum, in quo collocati eſtis, dignitatis gradum, qui literarum, & artis præcipue ſalutaris decori, ornamentoque datus eſt, ſubit animum vereri, ne intempeſtiva interpellatione, pro favore Veſtro, quem ambio, offenſionem concitem. Quid enim magis metuendum homini, ſuæ ſibi tenuitatis conſcio, & illis Viris obſtrepenti, in quibus tantum gravitatis, altiſſimæque in omni divini, humanique cognitione decoris, ſcientiæ, quantum prudentiæ, omnium caſibus temporum paratiſſimæ lumen elucet? Hæc autem tanta, tamque exquiſitæ ſcientiæ, prudentiæque laus, quam inſigni acceſſione cumulat ſingularis comitas, illud efficit, ut in ea, in qua pro commodis publicis excubatis ſpecula, tot meritorum, humano generi utiliſſimorum, luce colluſtrati, & explendeſcentes, cunctorum recte ſentientium animos in Vos convertatis, ut obſervent Vos eruditi, & revereantur. Horum quidem ego cunctis quanquam ingenio, & ſcientia facile, nemini tamen unquam nec ceſſi, nec cedam ulla in Vos obſervantia, quam Vobis non minus debeo, quam profiteor, quippe Ampliſſimi Ordinis Veſtri judicio perbenigne ornatus, & dignus æſtimatus, quem in numerum ſociorum Acad. Longum eſſet, atque ab hoc alienum loco, cetera referre benevolentiæ genera, quibus a Te, Excellentiſſime Præſes, aliisque Ampliſſimi Ordinis Veſtri membris ſum ornatus: talibus certe, ac tantis, ut nullum gratiæ pro iis referendæ dignum locum cum reperire poſſim. Invitat etiam me, &, niſi me tanto honore indignum præbere velim, ad ſui venerationem feſtinare cogit prolixa humanitas, qua me eſtis proſecuti, ſive Vos coram, præſtita clientis obſequentia, ſalutarem, ſive abſens colerem epiſtolis, meisque ſubdiffiſus rebus, conſilio uterer Veſtro, aut opem ſimul peterem, & ſine recuſatione impetrarem. Igitur tantis meritis adductus dudum intellexi ad me pertinere, ſolicite contendere, & eniti, ut aliquod grati animi pignus, non ſine debita ſubmiſſione Vobis conſecratum aliquando extaret. Diu cogitanti de digna tantis Viris probanda gratæ mentis ſignificatione, beati parentis ſerinia excutienti oblata videbatur materia, luce publica non indigna. Huic vero ut ſeſe magis probaret, non alia ratione felicius me conſecuturum exiſtimavi, quam ſi Veſtris Amplisſimis Nominibus inſcriptum opuſculum prodiret. Sed tamen viciſſim ſubvereri veniebat in mentem, ne eminentis cujusdam inſimuler audaciæ, qui Veſtris Nominibus, in tam alto, ſplendidoque poſitis loco, opuſculum tam humile, tam nullo expolitum cultu, inſignire coner. Nam cum Vos ii ſitis, qui acerrimo judicio ſingula penſitant, & non niſi exquiſita arte elaborata ſuo aſpectu dignantur, metuebam, ne apud Vos longe, quam optaverim, minus gratiæ hoc ineam tempore, quo mihi totus ipſe diſpliceo: quid agendum fuerit, ſerius cognoſco: quid actum ſit, video, ac, perturbato decoris ordine, poſt rem affero conſilium: tantum abeſt, ut expectationem Veſtram ulla ratione ſuſtinere poſſim. Jam demum agnoſco, habendam fuiſſe rationem mentis, cum compoſitæ, cujus eſt, ſecum conſiſtere, ac morari: tum circumſpectæ, pro qua non decet efferri præcipitis impetu conſilii, ſed rationem, inſtruendæ actionis ducem ſequi; denique & verecundæ, ut, quorum revereare dignitatem, horum præſtantiæ quid conveniat, exiſtimes, horum oculis, quæ ſint indigna, ſolicite devites: cum omne judicii, gravitatisque pondus, omniaque ingenii ornamenta poſtulare ſibi videatur ea res, quæ tantis, tamque intelligentibus rerum arbitris, exiſtimatoribusque probari vellet. Sed vicit tandem omnem dubitationem, quæ ab hoc officii curſu me revocare poterat, par faſtigio Veſtro humanitas, & comitas, qua bonas mentes permulcetis, & erigitis. Igitur ſicut viribus diffido meis, ita religionis conſcientia me ſuſtento, hacque confiſus, a Veſtra benignitate conſilii mei veniam demiſſe, obſervanterque peto, ſine ulla etiam dubitatione expecto, & quantæ venerationis, tantæ fiduciæ plenus Vobis, Viri Ampliſſimi &c. &c. præſens opuſculum ſic offero, ut omnem obſequii cultum Vobis in perpetuum ſimul obſtringam, & plura propriæ diligentiæ documenta, in ceterorum annorum conſtitutionibus, tanto ſolicitius obſervandis promittam, quo citius, & clarius intellexero, non diſplicere Vobis inſtitutum meum. Reliquum eſt, ut Vobis ſpes, fortunasque meas commendem, Vos artis ſalutaris cultorum præſidio, rebus familiæ Veſtræ conſtanter florentibus ſalvos ſemper, & incolumes ſervari diſcupiam, idque a DEO immortali omni votorum pietate precandum Vobis ducam, & continenter exorandum.

Conſtitutio Epidemica Poſonienſis Anno 1688.

ANni tempora, prout variant, ſuos habere morbos certos jam pridem libr. 3. Aphor. 21. recte annotaſſe Hippocratem præſente anno abunde confirmavit experientia. Scilicet menſe Julii & Auguſti cum cœlum quaſi flammaſſet caloribus, & pluviarum ferme toto illo tempore expers fuiſſet, quibus alias intemperies aëris ſicca temperanda & corrigenda, Febres ſolito magis in hac urbe graſſari ceperunt. Quorum principia cum horrore, vomitu, nauſea ægrum occuparunt, ſubſequentibus ſtatim caloribus, ſiti, dolore capitis, virium proſtratione ſumma, cardialgia, ut plurimum dies noctesque durantibus, aut biduo poſt, adhibitis ſudoriferis, in intermittentes ut plurimum febres, modo tertianas, modo quotidianas, imo quartanas, per intervalla ſecundum ſuum typum repetentes, terminantibus. Tantam autem hæ febres benignitatem in ſe fovebant, ut raro adminiſtratis legitimo modo remediis, h. e. V. S. Anti-febrilibus ex ☉ card.ben.abſinth.centaur.min.lap.cancr.chinchin. arcan. dupl. flor. nitr. aliisque, ultra octiduum ſeſe extenderint, quin penitus remiſerint. Non ſenſerunt has febres tantum provectioris ætatis homines, verum etiam infantes lactentes & ablactati, ſine ullo ætatis diſcrimine. In nonnullis deprehendebantur continuæ, dies noctesque ægrotos affligentes, & V. S. ſudoriferis ordinariis, nempe ſpec. de hyacinth. antim. diaph. ſpec. de gemm. frig. mixtura mea ordinaria &c. cum confortantibus junctis, tractatæ, omnes terminum ſuum elapſo 15. dierum ſpatio beniniſſime abſolventes. Hiſce continuis annumeranda quoque fuit Pemphinx, vulgo Neſſel-Kranckheit dicta, tunc temporis graſſata, quæ ægrotos, (qui quaſi urticæ urentis vim eſſent experti,) excruciavit pruritu, tumore permagno variæ magnitudinis in toto corpore, modo imperialis, modo floreni, modo groſſi, modo totius cubiti, ſuperficiem cutis occupante, eamque in veſicas non adeo rubras, ſed magis albas attollente, mox recedente, mox redeunte, aliisque ſymptomatibus febres continuas malignas alias concomitantibus. Quæ febris licet aliis temporibus benigniſſima adhibito ſudorifero intra biduum remittere ſoleat; nunc tamen admodum maligna more continuarum ſua decurrit tempo-tempora, propinatis autem medicamentis diaphoreticis, expellentibus temperatis &c. DEO benedicente apud omnes feliciſſime XV. die ſuperata. Obſervavimus etiam, quod notatu dignum & perrarum, tunc temporis certam febrium ſpeciem, quæ fuit complicata ex febre quotidiana continua & tertiana, una die binas habens exacerbationes, altera unicam, quam Hemitritæum appellare placuit. Fuit absque horrore, cum continuo calore, ingenti præcordiorum compreſſione, ut de continuis conſtrictionibus pectoris conqueſti fuerint, ſiti inexplebili, intenſioribus tamen hiſce tempore exacerbationis, cum vigiliis, deliriis, diarrhœis, in primis virium proſtratione ſumma, ut ſemper animi deliquia metuenda fuerint. Febris hæc admodum periculoſa continua ingentem reconditam habuit malignitatem; quapropter more aliarum febrium malignarum, v. gr. V. S. ſudoriferis, expellentibus, confortantibus mixtis, ordinariis, ratione tamen habita ſymptomatum urgentium, tractata feliciſſime intra XXI. dies fuit ſubacta atque ejecta, ſuperſtite quidem adhuc aliquali pectoris compreſſione, Laxativo tamen medicamento ſub finem exhibito, penitus ſublata.

Conſtitutio Epidemica Sempronienſis Anni 1697.

NOn quivis annus quosvis fovet morbos, multo minus una eademque ſymptomata. Prouti anni variant tempora, aërisque tempeſtates, ſic quoque morbi, qui nunc benigniores, nunc pejores, multorumque funerum nonnunquam cauſæ exiſtunt. Hoc jam dudum obſervavit, ac toto libro III. Aphoriſmorum nobis demonſtravit maximus Græciæ Doctor, Hippocrates. Et quis non videt, diverſum aëris ſtatum humores modificare morbificos, eosque diſponere, pro diverſitate locorum aliarumque circumſtantiarum, ad producenda ſymptomata, quandoque graviora, aliquando mitiora. Id videre licuit anno 1697. quo hyemem rigidiſſimam experti ſumus. Produxit intenſiſſimum illud frigus non ſolum varios pectoris morbos, catarrhos, coryzas, gravedines, tuſſesque vehementiores, ſed & tranſpiratione impedita, lympham diſpoſuit in coagulum pronam; adventante vere, liquatisque macrocoſmi humoribus, lympha hactenus torpida apud plurimos varias ſubiit mutationes; inde in quibusdam febres tertianæ ſubortæ, in plerisque febres continuæ, pleuritides ſpuriæ, malignitatis expertes; in plurimis, inprimis ſub finem Aprilis, Maji, Junii, Julii, quo tempore magis efferationes biliosæ ob exceſſivum calorem ambientem notabantur, febres petechiales Epidemicæ. Referam ex morbis, quos hoc anno perluſtrav., ſolum præcipuos. Inceperunt petechiales more ſolito cum rigore, rigore, caloribus p. n. ſiti, anxietate præcordiorum, quandoque vomitu, doloribus capitis, inſueto artuum languore, ſine cauſa manifeſta, cum inſigni extremorum laſſitudine, ut plurimum quarta, aliquando ſeptima demum die maculæ efflorуerunt petechiales, in quibusdam copioſiores majoresque, in quibusdam minores ac parciores. Deliria ſexto jam, ſeptimo, octavo morbi die ſupervenientia, boni fuere ominis. In illis enim decima quarta vehemens notabatur obſurdeſcentia, & decima quinta caloris, adeoque morbi ſolutio. Si ſerius, v. gr. 10. 11. 12. contigerunt deliria, atrociora ſymptomata, nec non malignitatem prænuntiarunt ſummam, nullusque expectandus fuit motus criticus, ſed paulatina ſolutio. Obſervavi hoc in quamplurimis, in primis in Cive hujus loci primario, ex itinere ſexta morbi die reduce. Septima, adhibito uno vel altero medicamento expellente, bezoardico, vidi corpus petechiis copioſiſſimis rubris conſperſum; eodem die notavi ſummam in ſomnum propenſionem, vix non diſpoſitionem lethargicam. Veſicatoria quippe aliquot applicata ægrum a ſomno abſtrahere non valuerunt, & excitatus licet quandoque comederit, medicamenta expellentia, ſudorifera, epileptica, confortantia ſedulo aſſumſerit, ſubito nihilominus in ſomnum recidit, ſalva manente reſpiratione; acceſſerunt 10. die deliria: excitatus enim ex ſuo profundo ſomno, & interrogatus minus appoſite, minus ordinate reſpondit, deſubito in ſomnum relabens. Die undecima & ſequentibus ſupervenerunt motus convulſivi, diarrhœæ, involuntarius urinæ fluxus, ſummatim, ſymptomata exitioſa. Decima quinta calores p. n. obſervavi longe remiſſiores, pulſum naturali ſimilem, ſomnum autem adhuc profundum. Si exſuſcitatus fuit patiens, neminem agnovit, torvis oculis vidit, ad interrogata muſſitando, minus intelligenter reſpondit, floccos frequenter legere continuavit. Morbum igitur hunc in peſſimis ſignis conſtitutum ex Hippocr. Coac. nec non 2. Aphor. 27. difficillimum ac periculi pleniſſimum pronunciavi. Decima ſeptima demum die, ſuborta obauditione, ad ſe rediit, ſtupidus quidem & oblivioſus, præteritorum immemor, vires tamen brevi reſumſit. Vidi in alio ſubjecto, eundem morbum in optimis ſignis conſtitutum, duodecima, rarioribus tunc temporis exiſtentibus jam maculis petechialibus, produxiſſe puſtulas miliares, parvas, albas, acuminatas, innumeras, exceſſivam ſanguinis ebullitionem, nec non malignitatem latentem prodentes, & 15. die, prægreſſis vix momentaneis convulſionibus, funeſtas. Obſervavi, malum hoc fuiſſe epidemium, nullumque ætatis habuiſſe diſcrimen, juvenes vero puerosque frequentius invaſiſſe, ac contagium in domo delituiſſe, aut ſubſtitiſſe, donec in reliquos fere omnes ſæviit. Qui valetudinis ſalutis-

que suæ solliciti fuerunt, ac in tempore, spretis præpostèris medicationibus, meam postularunt curam, ad unum omnes convaluerunt. Incepi, prævio unico sudorifero, pro ætatis diversitate, prima & secunda jam die a V. S. in brachio, quam sequenti die pro rei exigentia in pede, ante exanthematum eruptionem, repetii. Alexipharmaca, (malignitatis enim hic summa est habenda ratio,) sudorifera ex spec. de hyacinth. Liberant. ℈ diaphor. C. C philos. præpar. lap. bez. orient. mithridat. &c. mutatis mutandis, singulo octihorio exhibui cum sudoris imperio. Quamprimum mentem adverti vacillantem, imminentis delirii prodromum, Vesicatoria nuchæ pedibusque imponi jussi, addidique pulveribus sudoriferis confortantia, nec non epileptica, v. gr. pulv. epilept. March. unicorn. mar. specif. cephal. Mich. mag. ungul. alc. perl. &c. Nimiis vigiliis ac deliriis summis mistura mea ex mithridatio cum conf. alkerm. pulv. epilept. de gemm. frig. aut analept. &c. Sir. papav. in aqu. solut. ut plurimum vesperi, & quidem cum fructu obviam veni. Alvi fluxum stypticis quandoque singulo trihorio aut quatrihorio exhibitis compescui: obstructionem enematibus sustuli. Cum calores p. n. decrescere inceperunt, quod sæpissime sub initium decimi quinti diei contigit, contentus fui solis pulveribus præcipitantibus, v. gr. spec. de gemm. frig. ℈ analept. C. C. philos. fl. nitr. quotidie semel aut bis in usum vocatis. Vinum ac cerevisiam prohibui, concessique solum aquam ex ras. C. C. ebor. sem fœnicul. rad. scorzon. coctam. Reliquis symptomatibus ex suis fontibus prospexi. Sub initium quartæ septimanæ, appetitu jam redeunte, ne in priorem morbum recíderent, dedi Laxativum. Et hac methodo, DEO sint laudes, omnes petechiis etiam pessime decumbentes, excepta unica persona, servati sunt. Morbilli mense Junio, Julio, omnes fere pervaserunt domos, & observavi illos epidemialiter grassatos, primis quatuor diebus utplurimum gravissimos, apparente efflorescentia, quæ elapso quatriduo evanuit, levissimos. Quibus legitima adhibita fuere remedia, expellentia nempe, sudorifera, v. gr. pulv. alexit. lap. bez. C. C. philos. unicorn. mar. omnes stando quasi ac deambulando morbum evaserunt. Qui in cura sunt neglecti, aut male tractati, etiamsi convaluerunt, elapsis aliquot septimanis, aut in febrem incidérunt exanthematicam, (quam Rossaliam nominare solemus, & consistit in maculis rubris, latissimis, in toto corpore densissimis, erysipelas quasi universale referentibus, post quartum diem evanescentibus, & squammularum instar decidentibus, cum ægri alleviatione,) cum caloribus continuis, siti magna, aliquando deliriis, nemini exitiosam; aut reportarunt tumorem flatulen-

Obſtructionem ductus choledochi reſeravi, bilemque in maſſam ſanguineam, ac in habitum corporis jam derivatam reduxi, ejusque acrimoniam ſalino-ſulphuream exceſſivam correxi *aperientibus ſalibus ex pulv. hepat. Præter hydropes, calculos, podagram, arthritides &c. tempore autumnali more ſolito, Quartana prodiit contumaciſſima, quam, ſi Veneſectione, purgatione, diebus paroxyſmorum inſtituta, nec non medicamentis Antifebrilibus chinatis ter aut quater exhibitis infringere nequivi, reliqui intactam, optime gnarus multitudine atq; frequentia medicamentorum facile ad Cachexiam ac hydropem diſponi, adeoque magis deſtrui. Naturæ igitur opus hoc commiſi, atque expectavi æquinoctium vernale, quo tempore natura, uno vel altero medicamento adjuta, quandoque per ſe febrem hanc feliciſſime ſubigere ſolet.

Conſtitutio Epidemica Sempronienſis Anni 1699.

DE Japonibus ſcribit Wilhelmus ten Rhyne, Diſſert. de Arthrit. in ſuis notis, p. m. 92. quod quidem peſtem ignorent, variolas tamen timeant, cum ipſis maxime ſint contagioſæ, atque ſæva & multiplici hominum ſtrage illorum terras depopulentur, ut major etiam mortalium pars his in Japonia aliquando ſuccumbat, quam peſte alibi, atque idcirco præ labis iſtius metu, parentes liberos, mariti uxores, & quæcunque dulcia ſunt vel ſanguinis vel thori pignora, relinquant. Unde Japones & Sinæ liberis dotati, ubi interrogantur, quot ſoboles alant? regerunt, totidem, quot variolis jam laborarunt; reliquorum enim vitam in ancipiti locant, adeoque inter permanentes proles non numerant. Idem reſponſum fere a nobis hoc anno nonageſimo nono tuliſſent Curioſi, ſi ex uno alterove quæſiviſſent, quot filios aut filias habeat? Tot nempe, quot jam variolarum virulentiam ſuperarunt. Etſi enim apud nos Variolæ non adeo aliquando obſervantur funeſtæ, hac tamen hyeme auſtrali, tepidiori ac humidiori plus minus exiſtente, illæ, peſtis inſtar, in infantes & adultiores furere cœperunt, eosque pro diverſitate tempeſtatum, magisve vel minus maligni ætheris, nec non humorum in corpore exiſtentium, varie affecerunt. Inceperunt modico cum horrore, quem excepit calor intenſus, pulſus fortis, oculi turbidi, ſitis intenſa, aliquando jactatio inquieta, ſternutatio frequens; nonnunquam jam primo aut ſecundo ebullitionis die apparuit una vel altera puſtula in facie, dorſo, ut plurimum vero ſub finem tertii aut initium quarti diei eruperunt variolæ, primum rubræ, exiles, rotundæ, figura nempe, colore & magnitudine regulari, cum febris ſymptomatumque, etiamſi hactenus fuerint graviſſima, atque nervoſo generi periculoſiſſima, remiſſione, aut notabili diminutione. Hæ turgidæ maturuerunt brevi, juſtoque tempore exaruerunt jam incruſtatæ. In quibusdam ſubjectis puſtulæ fuerunt admodum raræ, ſolito tamen majores, hinc inde ſparſæ, valde diſcretæ, ita quidem, ut iisdem affecti in lecto vix contineri potuerint, quin deambulare voluerint, ſi ipſis conceſſum fuiſſet, quæ variolæ mitiſſimæ ac beniguiſſimæ fuerunt. Diarrhœa nec non hæmorrhagia narium, diebus ebullitionis ſuborta, omnibus ſaluti fuit, detracta nempe nimium quantum ebullientis ac æſtuantis ſanguinis, nec non ſeminii varioloſi parte, quod reliquum fuit varioloſum fermentum facilius, inprimis jam laxatis venarum ſpatiis, evolvi, digeri, expellique potuit; & in his variolas obſervavimus diſcretas, raras, benigniſſimas, ſaltim hinc inde ſparſas. Qualis enim ſtatus humorum ebullientium in corpore, in primis in centro, talis quoque ſe exſeruit & efflоruit in extremis, habitu corporis: unde quo pejor materia ebulliens, eo periculoſiores & deteriores variolæ. Sic ſpiritus quandoque a miaſmate varioloſo irritatos magis, quam oppreſſos obſervavimus, qui magno ſæpe conamine quisquilias ſuas ad cutem amandarunt, ſerumque virulentum repurgarunt felici eventu, tuberculis tam magnitudine, quam colore & figura regularibus enatis. Januarius ineuntis hujus anni totus fuit valde frigidus, nivoſus; Februarius e diverſo præter morem temperatus, utplurimum ſerenus, aliquando pluvioſus, aliquando ventoſus, quandoque nivoſus. Martius incepit cum intenſo frigore, ſolis tamen ſplendore atque ſerenitate temperato, quinta nix cecidit copioſa, quæ ſexta jam in liquorem abiit, ſeptima ſupervenit tempeſtas tumultuaria, valde nivoſa, octava dies fugatis nubibus purgatoque aëre mira illuxit ſerenitate, quæ tempeſtas pulcherrima, ventis mitioribus remixta, ſicca, non ſolum ad æquinoctium vernale duravit, ſed & uno quaſi tenore in Aprilem usque continuavit. Imo Aprilis ſua natura alias variabilis, hoc anno fuit amœniſſimus, ſerenus, ſiccus, absque pluviis fere, cum caloribus ad finem usque prope æſtivis: die 27. tonitrua & fulgura ingentia cum pluviis habuimus, ſol tamen nubila mox ſerenavit, unde arbores juſto citius folia & flores emiſerunt ſuos. Tertia menſis Maji dies incepit cum pluviis, quas ſecuta ſunt frigora, & quinta pruina matutina, quæ vineis noſtris maximum damnum intulit, alias totus menſis fuit ſerenus, calidus, ſiccus, ventoſus. Succeſſit Junius ſereniſſimus, ſicciſſimus, pluviarum expers, ventis tamen mixtus. His menſibus, inprimis ſuperioribus, Morbona æque ac Bellona apud nos valde ſæviit. Hungari quippe a Noſtris deditionem civitatis ſollicitantes, ſed repulſam reportantes rabie velut accenſi hinc inde diſcurrerunt, nobisque excidium minati ſunt. Civitatem d. 18. Ab uſu ſudoriferorum nunquam felicem vidi ſucceſſum. Poſt inunctionem ſpirituoſorum, v. gr. ſpir. vin. camph. formic. ſal. armoniac. junip. lumbric. &c. ſemper notavi dolores oſteocopos, adeoque abſtinendum fuit a ſpirituoſis, nec non unguinoſis, emplaſticis. Optime autem, in primis ſub finem morbi, profuerunt Thermæ Badenſes, aut balnea acidularum, imo in ipſo morbo balnea ex aqua dulci cum hordeo parata. Atque hac methodo tractati feliciſſime intra 20. aut ad ſummum, ſi copia peccavit materia, 40. dies reſtituti ſunt. Febres his temporibus habuimus frequentes, quæ utut prima die tragœdiam a pandiculatione, oſcitatione, languore, frigore, mox calore ſatis intenſo auſpicatæ ſunt, cum ſubſequente ſecunda die apyrexia, ſpeciem intermittentis ſimulante; ſupervenientes tamen paroxyſmi, qui fuerunt cum languore, pulſu magno, exacerbatione caloris aliorumque ſymptomatum, confirmarunt intermiſſionem illam fuiſſe doloſam, & latuiſſe ſub hoc cinere ignem continuarum febrium, nec non malignitatem ipſam. Expoſt enim videbantur quandoque, inprimis mane, remittere calores, nunquam autem intermiſerunt. Creſcente morbo, creverunt ſymptomata, imo convulſiones in ſtatu morbi notavi frequentes. Deliria ſerotina, v. gr. die 11. 12. ſupervenientia ſemper fuerunt exitioſa. Febres hæ more continuarum Venæſectione in principio, diaphoreticis, bezoardicis, confortantibus tractari debuerunt. Ultimis tribus menſibus, præter febres tertianas, quartanas, catarrhos, vix alii notabiles occurrerunt morbi.

Conſtitutio Epidemica Sempronienſis Anni 1705.

QUo clementior anno præterito fuit aëris conſtitutio, eo rigidior ſub ingreſſum anni 1705. comparuit cœli temperies. Januarius quippe incepit gelu congelare aquas, imo continuavit frigus toto hoc menſe ſine remiſſione, nives ceciderunt paucæ, & ſpirans Euronotus induxit ſiccitatem. Nec mitior fuit Februarius, quin frigore & gelu longe rigidior, ſine ullis nivibus. Martius illuxit gratioſa ſerenitate, & exoptato calore, ſed quinta nives ceciderunt magnæ, ſexta frigus, quod ad 12. usque duravit diem; circa æquinoctium vernale, ſpirante aëre meridionali, frequentiores habuimus pluvias, fructiferas, quas ſerena, calida mox inſecuta ſunt tempora, adeoque Martius utplurimum ſiccus extitit. Aprilis varias ſuſtinuit ventorum mutationes, & frequentiores, vix non quotidianas, in primis circa finem, pluvias, oblectamenta vernalia inhibentes; imo & Majus fuit valde inamœnus, frigidus totus, excepto uno aut altero die, pluvioſus. Continuavit pluvioſa & frigida hæc aëris conſtitutio ultra medium Junii: unde non mirum, uvas circa feſtum Viti necdum florere incepiſſe. Circa ſolſtitium æſtivum temperatior aura & calores deſiderati demum redierunt. Morbi, qui in hoc ſemeſtre inciderunt, erant varii. In Januario & Februario continuarunt febres quartanæ, quæ tamen, uno vel altero Laxativo adhibito, nec non chinatis medicamentis cum arcano duplicato, præter morem utplurimum ſuperari potuerunt, neque ullam labem poſt ſe reliquerunt. Frequentes erant rheumatiſmi in pedibus, manibus, ſcapulis, lumbis, cum dolore acerbo, ſine inflammatione, ſine tumore; hi diaphoretica ſuſtinere non potuerunt, ſed ſolis temperatioribus cholagogis, v. gr. infuſis ex manna, fol. ſenn. tartaro, cum aqu. cichor. &c. clyſteribus, præcipitantibus, nec non balneis hordeaceis; & pro re nata, in ſumma dolorum exacerbatione, grano dimidio laudani de tribus, tractari voluerunt. Catarrhos habuimus copioſos, qui in febres degenerarunt continuas, non adeo funeſtas. Servati enim omnes ſunt, qui ſtatim ab initio adhibuerunt Alexipharmaca, eaque continuarunt. Menſe Februario jam inceperunt febres petechiales, quæ pleuritides ab initio mentitæ ſunt, inceperunt cum horrore levi; febre lenta, tuſſi ſicca, dolore in pectoris regione, ad ſcapulas, claviculas adſcendente, cum moleſtia ægri, ſi in partem ſanam decumbere voluit; aſſumtis autem ſudoriferis evanuerunt runt dolores, & quarta, imo in plerisque ſeptima demum eruperunt maculæ. In aliis ſimularunt febres intermittentes. Sic in Virgine quadam XVI. annorum, ſanguineo-phlegmatica, tunc temporis ordinario menſium fluxu laborante, notavi tres paroxyſmos, more febris quotidianæ intermittentis, mane cum horripilatione, ſubſequo calore, circa veſperum intermittente, dolore capitis gravativo, ſiti, laſſitudine &c. quotidie recurrentes, quarto calores continuos, prioribus longe intenſiores, nec non eruptionem macularum, ſeptima hæmorrhagiam narium ſat largam, decima deliria blanda, manuum tremores, linguæ ac faucium ariditatem moleſtam, 12. 13. novam copioſorum exanthematum, prioribus jam evaneſcentibus, eruptionem; & ecce 16. morbi die, non obſtante hæmorrhagia, quæ ex alleviatione morbi judicabatur critica, ſeptimâ oborta, obiit. Maximam malignitatem exanthematica hæc febris in receſſu geſſit menſe Martio, Aprili. Incepit cum horripilatione, calor in ſanguineo-phlegmaticis, quorum ſanguis ſero viſcido abundat, mitis, ſed ſubdolus; in ſanguineis intenſior, adfuit languor totius corporis, mox ſubita virium proſtratio, membris quaſi laſſitudine fractis, aut contuſis, ſitis non adeo magna, nauſea, vomitus, pulſus naturali fere ſimilis, unde magis de languore, quam calore, conqueſti ſunt; ſexta aut ſeptima æſtus invaluit, atque malignitatem ſuam ſequentibus diebus prodidit, ſupervenientibus gravioribus ſymptomatibus, utpote exanthematum eruptione, cardialgia, pulſu celeri, frequenti, vigiliis, vehementiſſimis capitis doloribus, deliriis, motibus convulſivis, linguæ ariditate & fiſſuris &c. Venæſectiones prima aut altera die inſtitutæ, nec non repetitæ, valde profuerunt, ſerotinæ omnes nocuerunt. Laxativa, etiam ſub initium morbi exhibita, rejicienda fuerunt, & memini in his exanthemata longe latiora prodiiſſe, quam in aliis, eosque graviſſimis ſymptomatibus, tremoribus nempe totius corporis, deliriis furioſis, tandem aphonia, convulſionibus epilepticis, tentatos fuiſſe, omnesque fatis occubuiſſe: clyſteriis ex humectantibus & emollientibus confectis, nec non ſuppoſitoriis alvum adſtrictam commodiſſime referare potuimus. Cura methodica maxime dirigi debuit ad vires, quæ conſervari, ad humorum fervorem, qui contemperari, ad malignitatem, quæ corrigi debuerunt. Præſtitimus hoc blandis diaphoreticis, bezoardicis, cordialibus, *v. gr. pulv. alexit. ſpec. de hyacinth. C. herio pulvere uno, aut potiuncula. Sic corpus manſit perſpirabile, ſanguini ſua conſtitit ſyſtaſis & craſis, atque malignitas exuperata fuit. A medicamentis ſpirituoſis, volatilibus, bezoardicis fortioribus, calidis, quæ in hoc caſu magis obfuiſſe, quam profuiſſe, jam a longo tempore in his calidis oris expertus ſum, ſtudio abſtinui. Vinum omnibus interdixi, aquam ſolam ex rad. ſcorz. raſ. C. C. ebor. ſem. aniſ. &c. concedens. Acutiſſimos capitis dolores Veſicatoria nuchæ appoſita ſuſtulerunt. Sæviit vehementer hic morbus æque in adultos, atque gravidas. Sic binas habui, harum una, tertia morbi die, gemellos vivos, nondum maturos, octimeſtres, qui intra aliquot dies mortui ſunt, peperit; altera ſexta morbi die filium æque octimeſtrem, qui ſex diebus vixit, enixa eſt. Fortior hic ſine dubio ſanguinis motio & rarefactio, qua apertæ & laxatæ ſunt viæ, partus hos acceleravit, inde puerperæ valde debilitatæ, ſed ſolis confortantibus, analepticis, bezoardicis blandiſſimis, aliisque pro morbi & ſymptomatum exigentia remixtis, tractatæ, binæ die XV. evaſerunt ex morbo hoc graviſſimo. Legitima enim & matura medicamentorum applicatio omnibus ſalutaris fuit, ſecus, qui a principio neglexerunt remedia. Sic inter alios novi mercatorem, Sileſitam, eadem febre detentum, qui fere omnia reſpuit medicamenta, tandem delirio phrenetico correptus in lecto vix detineri potuit, die 12. demum prodierunt exanthemata, indubia mortis die 14. morbi ſubſecutæ indicia. In alio pauperculo petechiali febre extreme laborante notavi in dorſo, brachiis, pedibus, natibus quamplurima ulcuſcula, elevata, dura, cum intenſo dolore, inflammatione, ad inſtar furunculorum, ichore plena, ſed tubercula illa ulceroſa valde fuerunt maligna, naturam anthracum æmulantia; caro enim in circuitu inflammata, tandem ſphacelata & corroſa, ubique tota excidit, adhibitis tamen expellentibus, Alexipharmacis & mundificantibus externis præter omnium ſpem ſanitati priſtinæ reſtitutus eſt. Ceterum multiplici experientia edoctus ingenue fateor, etiamſi omnia ſigna fefellerunt, me tamen ſequentia in prognoſi nunquam decepiſſe: deprehendens nempe in tangendo pulſu contractionem aut ſubſultum tendinum, pro certo mortem prædicere potui. Sic ex linguæ ariditate, fiſſuris, aſperitate, ſcabritie, ſiccitate, quaſi lignum attingeres, nigredine, in primis, ſi retorrido calore cum vicinis faucibus aruit, aut cruſta quadam nigra obducta, quæ licet ſæpius os fricando & colluendo deterſa, ſtatim tamen nova repullavit, infallibile ſummæ interiorum partium inflammationis & ſideratio-

nis, nec non mortis augurium habuimus. Lingua enim etiam in minima inflammationis ſuſpicione ſtatim reſiccare incipit, & creſcente inflammatione creſcit pariter & ſiccitas linguæ. Hoc morbi ſtadium ſæpe ultra XV. morbi diem fuit protenſum, aliquando felici, aliquando funeſto eventu. Sic memini quosdam 16. alios 18. imo 22. demum morbi die fuiſſe extinctos, alios jam integre reſtitutos ex leviſſima cauſa & errore dietæ reciduam reportaſſe, quæ tandem, inflammatis glandulis, in pectore, inprimis pulmonibus ſitis & exulceratis, in hecticos degeneravit calores, longo tamen medicamentorum pectoralium uſu ſuperabiles. Menſe Majo febres petechiales deſævierunt, & evaſerunt ex his omnes, qui ex methodo tractati ſunt. Eodem tempore Icterus frequens fuit, qui flavo ſuo colore deturpavit totum corporis habitum, ſpeciatim vero oculorum politum ebur, nec non tempora. Conqueſti ſunt de pruritu in cute, maxime dorſo, de caloribus tranſitoriis, laſſitudine ulceroſa, doloribus capitis, ſomniis turbulentis, intenſiſſima ſiti, inappetentia, oris amaritudine. Alvus plus ſolito adſtrictior, &, quæ exierunt excrementa, penitus albeſcentia, pauca, viſcida, urina craſſa, turbida, ſubnigra, in ſuperficie oleaginoſa, crocea fuerunt. Utique hic fuit obſtructio tubulorum biliferorum, a viſcida lympha hepatis & acinorum glanduloſorum, nec non ſaburra tartarea proveniens: inde bilis ab acido fixiori plus minus auſtero, torpidior & ſpiſſior reddita, in motu ſuo impedita, neque per deſtinatos canales, tum ad veſiculam, tum per ductum cyſticum in ductum choledochum ad inteſtina delapſa, potius reſtitans, in venæ cavæ propagines, tanquam fontes ſuos receſſiſſe, ibique ſerum cum ſanguine, & exinde productos humores, nutritioni & excretioni dicatos, citrino ſuo colore infeciſſe neceſſum fuit. Martialia, rhabarbarina, aperientia non ſolum ductus illos obſtructos feliciter reſerarunt, ſed & bilem peccantem, atque jam ad habitum corporis delatam eduxerunt per epicraſin, v. gr. pulv. hepat. cachect. croc. mart. aperit. cum ſalibus, rhabarb. Alex. ſpir. ſal. coagul. ſal acetoſell. abſinth. cichor. tartar. vitriolat. arcan. dupl. rad. curcum. &c. additis pro re nata, & quidem optimo cum ſucceſſu, aliquando granis aliquot diagrydii. Menſe Junio continuarunt adhuc febres continuæ, ſed fuerunt valde benignæ. Jam inceperunt tertianæ, quartanæ, curatu tamen faciles. Julius incepit cum caloribus, ſubinde tamen nubibus exaſperatum cœlum, in primis die 19. & ſequentibus aliquot diebus, flante Borea, frigidam effudit pluviam. Cum Sirii ortu etiam exorti ſunt calores, qui cum inſolito ſolito & vix tolerabili aëris fervore usque poſt ejus occaſum, imo toto menſe Auguſto, ſine ulla alternatione, continuarunt, excepto XIX. Auguſti, quo cum imbribus, tonitrubus & fulgure grandines per mediam horam deciderunt copioſiſſimi, quæ promontoria noſtra fere omnia deſtruxerunt. Totus September aut ventoſus, aut frigidus, aut pluvioſus fuit, adeo, ut vix quatuor dies ſereni toto menſe numerari potuiſſent. Octobet extitit amœnus, calidus, ſiccus, & quamplurimum contulit ad maturitatem uvarum, quæ alioquin immaturæ manſiſſent. Hinc vinum nec quantitate, nec qualitate laudabile crevit. Novembris initium ventoſum, utcunque ſiccum fuit, progreſſus ad finem usque pulcherrimus, ſerenus, calidus. Sub initium Decembris apparuerunt hyemis indicia, nubibus & nebulis aër turbidus, frigidus, mox inſecuta eſt amœna, ſerena ſine nivibus tempeſtas, ad finem menſis durans, nobis quidem grata, ſed ob hoſtium furorem valde infauſta, ferrea & ignea. Tumultuantes enim Hungari die 24. Decembris civitatem noſtram arctiori obſidione cinxerunt, eamque circa prandium ex monte Leonhardi globis ignitis continuo ex machinis bellicis majoribus explosis invaſerunt. Primam ſtragem ſuſtinuerunt ſuburbia, (non excluſis V. domibus in civitate interiori exiſtentibus,) quibus flammea hæc procella, aut diverſa incendia ſacram Chriſto naſcenti noctem in funeſtam cinerum diem verterunt. Die Nativitatis CHRISTI ignitis ſuis globis nova incendia facere, atque reſiduum in cineres redigere, ſed fruſtra, tentarunt; pilis autem ſuis majoribus igniariis, Bomben, ingens damnum ædificiis intulerunt; tandem biduo poſt, re infecta, diſceſſerunt. His temporibus, menſe nempe Julio, Auguſto, Septembri, Decembri, adhuc continuarunt febres continuæ, petechiales, & notavi inter alia honeſtas duas fœminas, ſorores; quarum una menſe Auguſto febre exanthematica laborans, die X. morbi acquiſivit frequentem diarrhœam cum torminibus & doloribus inflammatoriis, vigiliis continuis, caloribus intenſiſſimis, die XII. extrema, ſudore reſolutivo perfuſa, etiamſi de æſtu graviſſimo, potius anxietatibus, conqueſta fuit, frixerunt, 13. mortua. Latuit hic ſine dubio inteſtinorum ſphacelus. Altera ſoror menſe Septembri eadem febre petechiali correpta, ſumſit ſub initium morbi, nil mali ſuſpicans, ante macularum eruptionem, neſcio cujus ſuaſu, Laxativum, die 10. incepit delirare, adhibitis tamen adhibendis, die 17. calores remiſerunt, & mens rediit, imo jam periculum evaſiſſe ab omnibus judicata fuit; die 19. morbi in femore pedis ſiniſtri ex inſperato prorupit macula nigerrima, cruſtacea, cea, inſtar anthracis, magnitudine duplicis groſſi, quæ igneo ſuo fervore latius ſeſe diffudit, carnem ſubditam exuſſit, atque die 21. pauperculam e medio viventium ſuſtulit. Menſe Decembri in alia fœmina 46. annorum obſervavi easdem maculas petechiales tertia jam die prodeuntes, valde latas, non obſtante Venæſectione ſecunda morbi die adminiſtrata, tertia incepit delirare, quarta obiit. In his caſibus utique peculiaris ſanguinis corruptio, & ſingularis malignitas ſupponi debuit. Menſe Auguſto ex flagrantiſſimo ſole aërisque ſiccitate ortæ ſunt diarrhœa, dyſenteria cum teneſmo, vomitibus, ſiti, doloribus abdominis; utplurimum conjuncti fuerunt calores, inde methodo ordinaria tractari non potuerunt, quin potius alexipharmacis, *v. gr. terr. ſigillat. Præter alios affectus, rheumatiſmos nempe, catarrhos, podagricos dolores, odontalgias &c. ſequentem notavi caſum. Honeſta matrona, annorum 45. multarum prolium mater, circa finem menſis Novembris, prægerſſis jam a longo tempore ſpaſmis digitorum manus ſiniſtræ, agonizantem puellam in vicinia viſitans, eamque morientem conſpiciens, valde perterrita concidit epileptica, deportata domum, & in lectum illata tandem ad ſe rediit præteritorum fere inſcia. Pro roboratione membrorum & nervosarum partium, nec non avertendo recidivæ metu, ablegavi ipsam mense Majo sequentis anni ad Thermas Badavino-Austriacas, & quidem optimo successu. Pristinam enim recuperavit sanitatem. Thermas autem quotannis visitare debebit, quod licet deinceps non observaverit, nullum tamen similis morbi indicium per multos annos amplius in conspectum prodiit. Et hæc dicta sunt de morbis, qui hoc anno apud nos observati sunt.

Constitutio Epidemica Sempronienſis Anni 1706.

CRedidisse præteriti anni exitu & ferocientium hostium abitu, nos jam calamitatibus, molestiis, periculis vacuos, furoremque hostium erga nos in lenitatem esse conversum. Sed ecce illorum furor mox abiit in rabiem. Cogitantes enim de nostro interitu & civitatis exitio, d. 2. Januarii ad pristinam stationem redierunt majoribus machinis, mortariis pluribus & requisitis bellicis probe instructi; 3. die Januar. summo mane, continuis tormentorum & pilarum jactibus tam ardenter ædificia pulsarunt, ut fulmina & fulgura de cœlo descendisse putasses, imo sparso missilium flammarum imbre nova incendia excitarunt, & quamplurima civium ædificia immani grandine quassata destruxerunt. Sed cum hostes vidissent, se continuo machinarum bellicarum boatu & fragore inconcussam civium fidem & constantiam neutiquam evertere posse, sexto Januarii, summo mane, trino agmine & magno impetu mœnia invaserunt, admotisque quamplurimis scalis, nec non globulis quamplurimis manu injectis, mœnium fastigia, quæ jam attigerunt, transcendissent, nisi nostrorum Civium & inhabitatorum pectora pro muro fuissent, atque continuis scloporum explosionibus, nec non clavis præferratis permultos de muro in subjectas fossas præcipitassent, hostesque pedem, relictis centenis & ultra mortuis, in pristinam suam stationem referre coëgissent. Hostis itaque invictam civium constantiam jam expertus, adversis tempestatibus cœli quotidie magis magisque invalescentibus, die 10. Januarii obsidionem solvit, recessit, sed a longinquo nos cinxit. Cives interea insuetas in excubiis sub Jove frigido & humido per aliquot menses constanter continuarunt suas stationes, atque intrepide defenderunt sua mœnia. Alias hic mensis valde horridus fuit, frigore tamen quandoque remittente, placidior. Mollior aër sub initium Februarii observabatur, in progressu remissum aliquod frigus, sub finem nives, subsequo frigore congelatæ. Martii ingressus rigidissimus subito cum sereniori ac blandiori aëre commutabatur, circa æquinoctium frequentes fuerunt pluviæ, mox nives, mox varii ventorum tumultus, adeoque Martius non siccus, sed humidus extitit. Aprilis comparuit nivosus, mox tamen serenior & amœnior factus calore suo veris delitias produxit, languentes animos excitavit, & ad finem usque siccus ac calidus permansit; die 30. ingens tempestas cum fulguribus & tonitrubus oborta est, quam præcessit magna papilionum cohors occidentem versus volitans. Majus fere totus mane subfrigidus fuit, siccus, circa meridiem calidus, cum pauciſſimis pluviis. Toto Junio grata & exoptata habuimus tempora, calores intensos sæpe venti, quandoque pluviæ nocturnæ contemperarunt amœnissimæ. Medardi dies fuit serenissimus, & die S. Viti uvas in omnibus promontoriis jam defloruisse notavimus, inde nostrates præcocem vindemiam augurari solent. Toto Januario morbi, præter catarrhos, hyemali tempore non infrequentes, nec non quartanas, nostris desideratas dederunt inducias. Sub initium Februarii febres notavimus continuas, malignitatis tamen expertes, rheumatismos frequentes bilioſos, defluxiones ſeroſo-bilioſas in capite, maxime pone aures, aliquando cum, aliquando sine tumore, cum modica febrili alteratione, summe dolorificas, suffumigiis ex olibano & cataplasmatibus emollientibus curatas. Continuarunt illæ in primis mense Martio, & invaserunt articulos maximo cum dolore, inflammatione, tumore, senibus, in primis podagricis, exitiosæ: in his rediit podagra, sed sine doloribus, quæ retrocedens materiam peccantem ad pectus transtulit, ibique catarrhos lethales excitavit. Sed miratu dignum fuit, quod præter hujus mensis indolem nullæ febres continuæ, exceptis paucis catarrhalibus, quæ senibus fuerunt funestæ, obortæ sint, cum tamen fœminæ cum prolibus suis, superioribus mensibus, maximum metum & terrorem ex turbis bellicis conceperint, & pro majori securitate diu noctuque squalida cellaria inhabitare debuerint, cives autem & incolæ omnes in excubiis quam maximos excessus sub Jove frigido & humido in vino commiserint, adeoque humores ad morbos generandos, aut suscipiendos dispoſuerint, in primis, cum absque hoc Martius sit humorum genitor, motorque dolorum. Beneficium hoc adscripsimus vino novo, quod præterito crevit anno, leviſſimo, claro, acido, tartaro crudo abundanti, diuretico: hoc potenter viſcidam bilem diluit, ſolvit eamque per alvum & urinam eduxit, adeoque ſanitati noſtræ valde proficuum fuit. Aliis annis vina hujus loci nova, ubi calore ſolis & cœli benignitate ad ſummam maturitatem pervenerunt, generoſa ac potentia tartaro ſubtili ſcatent, oleoſa ſunt, & necdum defœcata, largius hauſta bilem a naturali ſua craſi dejiciunt, alcalicis ſuis particulis quam maxime ſanguinem accendunt, viſciditate autem ſua hujus circulum retardant, toti corpori torporem inducunt, caput gravant, conſtipant, imo particulis ſuis hamoſis ſalino volatiles maxime activas reprimunt, actiones animales ſimul lædunt, & varios morbos, in primis febres continuas, malignas, petechiales conciliare ſolent. Menſis Julius fuit æſtuoſiſſimus, noctes præter morem calidæ, ſine ullis fere pluviis: die 16. cœlum opacis & atris nubibus deſubito exaſperatum effudit imbrem largiſſimum cum tonitrubus, in vicinia cum grandinibus inſolitis, maximo Ruſtenſium vinearum damno. Sub ingreſſum ſolis in leonem, niſi quandoque grati ſpiraſſent eteſiæ, calores vix fuiſſent tolerabiles; tandem ultima hujus, prægreſſis noctu crebris tonitrubus nec non fulguribus, gratioſa ac tepida ſuperveniens pluvia cum amœniſſimis & ſubfrigidis ventis ingentiſſimum auræ calorem contemperavit, terram refocillavit, & omnia recreavit. In Auguſto terra per totum menſis curſum fervido ſolis calore fovebatur, ſubinde tamen nocturno tempore tepidis pluviis animabatur, inde jam ſub initium hujus menſis maturas habuimus uvas. Ægidii dies mira & exoptata illuxit ſerenitate, & ſerenavit totum menſem, exceptis 17. 18. diebus, qui fuerunt frigidi, ventoſi, pluvioſi. Per Octobrem totum eadem gratioſa ſerenitas, ſiccitas & æſtus amœnus duravit, cum nebulis matutinis, ſolis ſplendore diſcuſſis, exceptis 6. 7. & 8. diebus, qui ſparſerunt pluvias. Hinc vinum crevit generoſiſſimum. Secunda Novembris primam demum notavimus pruinam, & continuarunt amœniſſima, calida illa tempora, præter ætatis anni morem, toto menſe, niſi quod 14. 15. intervenerint pluviæ, & 24. nives ceciderint ingentes, ſequenti tamen die liquefactæ. Eadem cœli tempeſtas continua, ſerena nempe, calida, aliquando nebuloſa fuit usque ad 17. diem Decembris, 18. vero, 19. pluvioſa, nec non nivoſa; die 20. ingruit gelu, quod poſt biduum remiſit, reliquis diebus pluviæ, nebulæ, venti ac calores alternarunt, quæ tempeſtas, prædominante calore circa Natalitia, pyrorum flores & turiones ſambucinos elicuit. Menſibus æſtivis omnis generis febres graſſatæ ſunt, frequenter autem hinc inde in civitate comparuerunt febres, quæ continuas mentitæ ſunt, nobisque ab initio impoſuerunt. Tres perſonas notavi, quæ, abſumptis jam roſcidis & balſamicis lymphæ particulis, ſpiculis autem acribus, adeoque doloribus, auctis, tandem, ſupervenientibus dejectionibus atris, cadaveroſum odorem ſpirantibus, indolentibus, artuum refrigerationibus, mente ac ſenſu privatæ gangræna & ſphacelo inteſtinorum obierunt. Sic in Perilluſtri quodam Domino, ſeptuagenario, alias robuſto, notavi Iſchuriam, ſive totalem urinæ ſuppreſſionem, ex calculo renum tubulos obſtruente, natam. Adfuerunt maximi dolores circa lumbos, vomitus frequentes, anguſtiæ & anxietates præcordiorum, obſtinata alvi obſtructio, nullus veſicæ tumor, nullus in pube dolor, nulla perinæi gravitas, nulli calores, imo pulſus naturali fere ſimilis. Sic tandem ſeptima morbi die robore naturæ moti ſunt calculi ex renibus in ureteres, cum vehementi, lancinante, pungente dolore; ex his brevi delapſi in veſicam urinariam: patente jam exitu parum urinæ, non quidem ſine dolore, emiſit, mox una cum tribus lapillis, magnitudine fabarum, urinam ſubcruentam ſine dubio ex laceratis vaſculis a calculorum aſperitate, excrevit, & poſt ſubnigram, tandem, & quidem abunde, pallidam, copioſa materia viſcida, ſabuloſa refertam. Dolores ſtatim poſt excretionem urinæ evanuerunt omnes, remanente ſolum laſſitudine ulceroſa ſenſuumque torpore, donec vires ſuas de-

In aliis eodem tempore obſervavi ſummum urinæ ardorem, ubi quidem fere nullus urinæ fuit defectus, maximus tamen dolor, & in urethra ignea quaſi roſio. Hac corripiebatur quidam Vir-Juvenis, hernia ſcrotali jam ab aliquo tempore laborans, alvi nempe contumaciſſima obſtructione, vomitibus frequentiſſimis, doloribus circa umbilicum ſummis, inſtituta autem repoſitione, nec non adhibitis crebrioribus enematibus, aquis laxativis, cataplaſmatibus ex decoctis emollientibus, alvus ſtimulata ſui officii memor copioſe excrementa reddidit, evanuerunt dolores, nec non Vomitus, imo jam periculum evaſiſſe ab omnibus judicatus fuit. Sed ecce, diebus aliquot elapſis, neſcio quo errore commiſſo, in eundem morbum recidens, accedente febre, vomitibus ſtercoreis, obſtinata alvi conſtipatione, ſudore frigido in extremis, doloribus atrociſſimis, delirio, ſingultu, virium languore, & ultima die dejectionibus ſpontaneis, ſeptima recidivæ die, remediis prioribus nunc nihil proficientibus, extinctus eſt. Jam addam, quæ de immodico hæmorrhoidum fluxu notavi. Fuit Vir quinquagenarius, artis pharmaceuticæ peritiſſimus, ex familia, cujus indigenis maſculis hic affectus quaſi proprius, ortus. Is jam in ætate ſua juvenili fluxum hunc ſanguineum expertus eſt, qui ſi ſtatis & definitis temporibus, ſingulis nempe menſibus, moderate rediit, ſanitati quam maxime profuit; ſi vero ex voto non ſucceſſit, ſtatim toti corpori languorem induxit, inteſtinis tormina, gravitatem circa os ſacrum, calores febriles quaſi continuos, bilioſas capitis defluxiones, oculorum inflammationes &c. conciliavit. In ætate virili ſanguis non amplius moderate ad uncias, ſicuti ante, & menſtruatim, neſcio qua ſanguinis acrimonia aut viarum laxitate, non periodice, ſed ſingulis fere ſeptimanis, ad libras manavit cum notabili virium dejectione, faciei colore ad viriditatem inclinante, gravitate in coxis, in cruribus magna debilitate, ut vix incedere potuerit. Siſti cito hic fluxus non debuit; ſanguis enim ſtatim regurgitavit ad pectus, & anxietates præcordiorum, reſpirationem difficilem, palpitationes cordis induxit. Cum vero immodicus hic fluxus latentem hactenus cacochymiam, nec non acredinem & ſalſedinem ſanguinis inſignem prodiderit, imo aut hydrops, aut phthiſis, aut apoplexia exinde metuenda, & vires jam laban-

Conſtitutio Epidemica Sempronienſis Anni 1707.

JAnus bifrons eadem ſerena fronte, qua veterem annum denis ſereniſſimis diebus clauſit, auſpicatus eſt novum totidem ſerenis, calidis, ſiccis diebus, unde ſtatim X. die ingruerunt frigora, mox ſubſecutæ ſunt nives copioſæ, quæ congelatæ ad feſtum purificationis usque jacuerunt durabiles. Secundus Februarii dies totus fuit turbidus, & regula ruſticorum hoc anno veriſſima: Sole nempe micante, die purificante, nix aut frigus erit majus, quam ante. Eo ipſo enim die remiſit frigus, nives liquatæ omnes, ingruerunt pluviæ, nebulæ, quæ ultra ſeptimanam inſtiterunt, denſiſſimæ, fœtidæ, corporibus noſtris valde infeſtæ; die 17. 18 rigidos habuimus ventos, boræos, qui ſiccarunt terram. Jam ad aliquot dies frigoris vis ſoluta, ſed die 24. Feſto Matthæi intenſior facta in medium Martii continuavit; adeoque Februarius fere totus ſiccus fuit; Bacchanalia amœniſſima, ſerena, calida, dies Cinerum valde frigidus, ventoſus; medio Martii ceciderunt nives, mox ſecutæ ſunt pluviæ. Æquinoctiale tempus notabatur valde turbidum, pluvioſum, nivoſum, lutoſum, imo ad finem menſis usque tumultuaria tempeſtas, mox ventis, mox nivibus, aut pluviis, moleſta, raro ſerena; adeoque Martius valde humidus atque ingratus. Aprilis incepit cum nivibus, pluviis, mox inſecuta ſunt frigora, quæ tempeſtas tumultuaria X. continuavit diebus, imo totus menſis magis fuit frigidus, ventoſus, quam calidus. Ipſo quoque Majo cœlum, ſi paucos amœnos dies exceperis, utplurimum atris inhorruit nubibus, & dies turbido aëre frigidisque ac frequentibus pluviis reddidit minus vernales, minus majales, rigidi præter morem extiterunt. Menſe Junio longe amœnior ac placidior aura comparuit. Medardi dies valde ſerenus ſine ullis pluviis, & rediit nunc calor intenſiſſimus, imo, quod ex tot aëris viciſſitudinibus & cœli inclementia, ſuperioribus menſibus prægreſſa, nullus præſumſiſſet, multo minus credidiſſet, jam ante diem Viti copioſe uvas in flore deprehendimus: die XVI. ſupervenerunt pluviæ gratioſiſſimæ, fructiferæ, mox æſtus increvit, & fere tribus ſeptimanis indeſinenter, nulla intercedente pluvia, continuavit, cujus ardore terra valde exiccata dehiſcere, homines autem ob largiores ſudorum effuſiones defatigari debuerunt. Febres continuæ modo cum, modo ſine exanthematibus, modo benignæ, modo malignæ, prouti apud nos quo-quotannis obſervantur epidemicæ, ita & hoc ſemeſtri fuerunt frequentes, in quam plurimis malignitatis expertes, & methodo ordinaria, ſuperioribus annis jam tradita, tractatæ, plerumque die XV. in alio nono, in uno ſeptimo, prægreſſa eodem die hæmorrhagia critica, ex voto ſolutæ. Alios invaſit cum maxima malignitate. Sic honeſta quædam fœmina, quadragenaria, ex eadem febre die morbi demum XI. incepit delirare, quod alias pro peſſimo & fatali ſigno habeo, XV. receſſerunt calores, ſed quinque diebus & noctibus inſomnibus continuis transactis, valde delira ab aſſumpto *pulvere epilept. Et ſicuti ſerotina delitia latentem produnt malignitatem, ſi non exitium ipſum, ita præmatura funeſtum ſemper præſagiunt exitum. Obſervavi hoc iisdem menſibus in filiolo ſex, in juvene XVII. in Viro L. annorum, qui omnes ex febre maligna tertia die inciderunt in continua deliria, ſexta convulſi mortui ſunt. Alia fœmina melancholica, & ſimul gravida, cujus maritus cum quatuor prolibus ſimul & ſemel menſe Martio in uno cubiculo, epidemiali hoc morbo decubuerunt, (qui tamen convaluerunt omnes,) eadem febre maligna detenta cum uvulæ ac tonſillarum inflammatione ſumma, octava recentem enixa eſt puerum, inde valde debilitata nona delirare incepit, & ex caloribus, viribus exhauſtis, emaciato corpore, vigiliis continuis, credebatur certo certius peritura. Sed ea fuit fortitudine, ut ſudoriferis, confortantibus, epilepticis, rite tractata calores illos intenſos ultra XXX. dies ſuſtinuerit, & periculum evaſerit, remanente aliquali mentis labe. Constitutio Epidemica Sempronienſis Anni 1708.

CRedidiſſes hac hyeme denuo permutata fuiſſe tempora, atque adeſſe æſtatem etiam in frigidiſſimis alias menſibus. Januarius quippe nullum fovit gelu, nullas nives, fuit utplurimum pluvioſus, nebuloſus, humidus, nubilus, calidus. Februarius quaſi totus calidus, amœnus, utplurimum ſerenus, quandoque pluvioſus, ventoſus, & circa finem cum modico frigore & nive, quæ tamen altera die evanuit, unde jam medio menſe obſervavimus diverſos flores. Huic ad æquinoctium fere usque plane ſimilis Martius, amœnus nempe, calidus, qui in copia flores elicuit. Circa æquinoctium die XVIII. XIX. XX ſuborti ſunt venti valde frigidi, rigidi, qui congelarunt terram, ſed ſub finem menſis aura iterum comparuit turbida, pluvioſa. Aprilis præter morem illuxit ſerenus, calidus, plane æſtivus, raro pluvioſus, ſiccior magis. Majus variabilis, ad medium usque frigidus, pluvioſus, a medio ad finem calidus, amœnus: II. autem, III. & IV fuerunt pruinæ, quæ hinc in vineis damna fecerunt. Totus Junius pluvioſus, Medardus quoque & Joh. Baptiſta effuderunt pluvias, imo nulla dies hujus menſis fuit ſine pluviis. Toto Januario præter otalgiam in Viro, mictum cruentum in filiolo quodam poſt partum, pleuritidem cum diarrhœa, nullos fere vidi morbos. Variolis tamen laborantes habui, quorum unus erat VI. annorum, qui eruptis prius tertia morbi die una cum variolis petechiis purpureis, quarta die antea correptus hæmorrhagia narium mortuus eſt. Menſe Februario obſervavi Apoplexias fortiſſimas, uti quoque febres continuas VII. die ſolutas. Hoc menſe fœmina quædam enixa eſt fœtum mortuum, ſecundinæ remanſerunt, altera die mortua. Martio filiolum quendam Ruſtenſem clauſura ani laborantem habui ſub cura, de quo Sculteti Armamentarium videri poteſt: ſuccurri etiam fœminæ otalgia laboranti miſt. ſimpl. mixta cum eſſ. caſtor. De doloribus capitis, Vertigine, diarrhœis cum maximis caloribus, febribus tertianis, continuis, variolis tunc temporis graſſantibus nil adducam. Aprili, Majo, Junio continuarunt variolæ, quas tamen modo in filiolo quodam prægreſſa eſt epilepſia, modo in puella die III. IV. V ſecuta eſt hæmorrhagia narium, jam in alia die XII. herpes miliaris. Quædam variolæ confluebant, quibusdam jungebatur ſub initium diarrhœa, quibusdam epilepſia. Febres continuæ catarrhales, diarrhœa quoque his temporibus in conſpectum prodibant.

A medicamentis ſpirituoſis, volatilibus, bezoardicis fortioribus, calidis, quæ in hoc caſu magis obfuiſſe, quam profuiſſe, jam a longo tempore in his calidis oris expertus ſum, ſtudio abſtinui. Sæviit vehementer hic morbus æque in adultos, atque gravidas. Sic binas habui, harum una, tertia morbi die, gemellos vivos, nondum maturos, octimeſtres, qui intra aliquot dies mortui ſunt, peperit; altera ſexta morbi die filium æque octimeſtrem, qui ſex diebus vixit, enixa eſt. Fortior hic ſine dubio ſanguinis motio & rarefactio, qua apertæ & laxatæ ſunt viæ, partus hos acceleravit, inde puerperæ valde debilitatæ, ſed ſolis confortantibus, analepticis, bezoardicis blandiſſimis, aliisque pro morbi & ſymptomatum exigentia remixtis, tractatæ, binæ die XV. evaſerunt ex morbo hoc graviſſimo. Legitima enim & matura medicamentorum applicatio omnibus ſalutaris fuit, ſecus, qui a principio neglexerunt remedia. Sic inter alios novi mercatorem, Sileſitam, eadem febre detentum, qui fere omnia reſpuit medicamenta, tandem delirio phrenetico correptus in lecto vix detineri potuit, die 12. demum prodierunt exanthemata, indubia mortis die 14. morbi ſubſecutæ indicia. In alio pauperculo petechiali febre extreme laborante notavi in dorſo, brachiis, pedibus, natibus quamplurima ulcuſcula, elevata, dura, cum intenſo dolore, inflammatione, ad inſtar furunculorum, ichore plena, ſed tubercula illa ulceroſa valde fuerunt maligna, naturam anthracum æmulantia; caro enim in circuitu inflammata, tandem ſphacelata & corroſa, ubique tota excidit, adhibitis tamen expellentibus, Alexipharmacis & mundificantibus externis præter omnium ſpem ſanitati priſtinæ reſtitutus eſt. Succi hic inteſtinales, in primis bilioſi, acres inter plexus nerveos meſentericos, nec non fibras inteſtinales hærentes, atque in illarum anfractibus concluſi, acrimonia ſua tormina & cruciatus excitarunt terribiles, atque in fundum Ventriculi penetrantes Ventriculum ad vomitus & ſingultum ſtimularunt, arſenicalem autem naturam mox induentes inteſtina inſtar mineralis veneni aſſumti corroſerunt, dilacerarunt, atque in ea more perforantis terebellæ, aut ſpinæ infixæ, ſe infixerunt, inflammationem conciliarunt, & ſtagnante in capillaribus ſanguine, acrimonia ſua corroſiva in momento fere inteſtina ſphacelarunt, quaſi in ferventiſſimam aquam immerſa fuiſſent. Si vero credimus auctoribus illis, qui non parum referre contendunt, vtrum ex valentibus & pleno ætatis vigore gaudentibus natus ſis, an parentes iam laboribus & ſenio fractos ac quaſi carioſos habueris: non male forte illud inſigne corporis robur, quod tot itineribus faciendis, laboribusque ferendis, per ſeptuaginta annos, & qui excurrunt, par fuit, illumque ſollertiſſimi ingenii impetum, per omnia feliciter verſatum & numquam deficientem, ex eo deriuauerimus, quod ambo parentes optimæ & florentiſſimæ ætatis vires æqualiter contulerunt, e caſtique tori luculentis flammis in fomitem durabilem & perennaturum ſcintillas viuidas propagauerunt.

Cur Homo sit?

i. e.

De Fine s. Destinatione Hominis in genere.

QUot sint in omni hac Rerum Universitate Creatorum summa genera, non difficile hactenus visum fuit determinare, siquidem præter Spiritus & Corpora, nihil esse, quod tertii generis classem commodè constituat, Philosophorum semper solennissima fuit sententia.

Non vacat, vel in Distinctionis hujus, vel in Distinctorum prolixius inquirere, Veritatem & Naturam. Licet, quæ afficere quodammodo possint communem opinionem, non planè desint, si non crudæ negationis, tamen modesti Examinis Argumenta.

Id solum in meam rem, præfationis loco, edisserere concessum erit, Hominem Creatorum mundanorum nobilissimum, si ullibi, hìc sane Macrocosmi sistere Imaginem & simulacrum; cum adesse in eo Spiritum, h. e. Principium per se Agens s. Movens; & adesse Corpus, h. e. Subjectum simplicissimè patiens; adesse verò etiam aliud quiddam Medium, quod nec est Principium movens primum, nec est subjectum crudè patiens, sed tamen natura Activum, utrique, Spiritui & Corpori, perfectè par, Motum scilicet, nemo facile negaverit.

Homini visibili inesse Aliquid, quod non est Corpus, & quod etiam a corpore abesse potest, sed dum abest, efficiat, ut corpus, quod antea fuit, posthac esse funditus desinat; vice versa dum in corpore est, huic id præstet, quod nec habet per se, nec vi propria efficere potest, Corpus; i. e. quod in corpore & per illud, ex se, libere secundum normam quandam mentalem, in ordine, gradu, Durationè convenienter, juxta organorum aptitudinem proportionatè, ad certum finem, longissime sæpe absentem, efficaciter, citra etiam Causæ materialis cogentem impulsum physicum, vel ullum vel sufficientem, undique rationaliter, si non absolutè, tamen humano labili more, agat, Corpusque juxta ipsius dispositionem organicam actuet, simulque, ut existere possit, conservet, in propatulo est.

novo, quod præterito crevit anno, leviſſimo, claro, acido, tartaro crudo abundanti, diuretico : hoc potenter viſcidam bilem diluit, ſolvit eamque per alvum & urinam eduxit, adeoque ſanitati noſtræ valde proficuum fuit. Aliis annis vina hujus loci nova, ubi calore ſolis & cœli benignitate ad ſummam maturitatem pervenerunt, generoſa ac potentia tartaro ſubtili ſcatent, oleoſa ſunt, & necdum defœcata, largius hauſta bilem a naturali ſua craſi dejiciunt, alcalicis ſuis particulis quam maxime ſanguinem accendunt, viſciditate autem ſua hujus circulum retardant, toti corpori torporem inducunt, caput gravant, conſtipant, imo particulis ſuis hamoſis ſalino volatiles maxime actívas reprimunt, actiones animales ſimul lædunt, & varios morbos, in primis febres continuas, malignas, petechiales conciliare ſolent. Menſe Aprili, Majo, Junio, repullularunt febres continuæ, petechiales, quandoque cum, quandoque ſine malignitate, methodo tamen ordinaria feliciter eradicatæ. Inter alia notavi gratioſam filiolam, quinquennem, febre continua correptam, cum maximis abdominis doloribus, torminibus, vix non convulſivis, & imminentis epilepſiæ metu ; loqui nil potuit, dolorem autem ejulatu expreſſit, continuarunt calores ſine ulla intermiſſione ad 21. diem. In horrendo illo ejulatu ob metum gravioris mali 11. & 12. morbi die dedi laudan. de trib. grſſ. cum *pulv. epilept. Durante morbo, & 6. ſeptimanis poſt morbum, ne verbum eloqui potuit, licet omnia bene intellexerit, & linguam quaquaverſum movere ac volutare, bibere, comedere, deglutire potuerit. Humores bilioſos ex abdomine ad muſculos laryngis, inque nervos vocales, metaſtaſi facta, delatos, præter calorem febrilem, interiorem laryngis rimam arefacientem, eosdem affeciſſe, conjiciendum ex prægreſſis vehementiſſimis, vix non convulſivis, abdominis doloribus, in tempore conſopitis. Iisdem temporibus obſervavi in filiolo ſexenni calores continuos ſine ulla intermiſſione, vix remiſſione, ad 30. diem & ultra, non obſtante legitima medicamentorum adminiſtratione, extenſos, adeoque non ſine malignitate, tandem tamen feliciter ſuperatos. His menſibus rheumatiſmos & arthritides vagas notavimus frequen-

erat, qui non Alpes transiisset. Atque hunc quidem morem paulo superioribus temporibus omnibus fere Germanis communem, & ex parte necessarium, quum apud nos Academiæ pauciores essent, deinceps tamen diutius obseruasse Norimbergenses hanc potissimum ob causam videntur, quod Italia commerciorum causa huic emporio longe magis coniuncta & commoda est, quam vel Gallia vel Belgium, omninoque facile est Patauii degentibus per mercatores Venetiis aliisque in locis habitantes a suis necessaria tempestiue seu rescire seu consequi. Neque vero Hoffmannum nostrum hæ solum rationes hæcque exempla ad Italos inuitabant, sed potissimum valebat, quod Patauinum gymnasium, prouida Serenissimæ Reip. Venetæ cura, optimis & celeberrimis viris abundabat, a quibus in medicinæ studiis operæ pretium facturi insignes scientiæ accessiones sperare sibique promittere possent. Neque spem Hoffmanni nostri frustrabatur euentus: sed ita plane singula sibi ad votum comparata inueniebat, vt toto biennio minime exsatiari posset. Atque huius temporis maximam partem Patauii consumsit, audiendo Illustrissimos Comites, HIERONYMVM FRIGIMELICAM, nationis Germanicæ Protectorem, & ALEXANDRVM BORROMAEVM: tum & alios medicinæ Professores inclytos, RAYMVNDVM IOANNEM FORTEM, ANTONIVM MOLINETVM, DOMINICVM & ANTONIVM DE MARCHETTIS. Sed in primis se adiungebat Medico & Polyhistori eximio, CAROLO OFFREDO, cuius contubernio & conuictu fruebatur. Anatomiis sollennibus anniuersariis, ductu MOLINETTI habitis, neque minus botanicis demonstrationibus, quas in horto Academico GEORGIVS A TVRRE habebat, assiduus aderat. Fouebat etiam & adiuuabat industriam eius in anatomico studio ANTONIVS DE MARCHETTIS, qui priuatæ exercitationi aliquot hominum cadauera suppeditabat, ipsique metho-

Hic (ſi ſpecialius balbutire liceat,) non minimum rationis dandæ pondus recidere videtur in ipſum Corpus. Cum ſi DEus, propter ſe ipſum, Entia Intelligentia quæcunque creaſſe ſtatuendus ſit, ibi ſive ſpiritus extramundani ſôli, ſive ſimul Animæ mundanæ, etiam ſine Corpore (uti poſt mortem,) ſufficere Ipſi facile potuiſſe videntur, etiam citra corporis neceſſarium acceſſum; eo quidem modo, quo ſatis fuerit DEO pro ſe, etiam ſi plane nihil creare ſuſceperit, nihil præter ſe eſſe. Dum ergo, præter ſpiritus ſupra mundanos, ipſi placuerit Corpus addere certæ ſpirituum claſſi, non abſona plane videtur Conjectura, Hominem ita, uti jam eſt, in reſpectu ad Corpus conditum & combinatum fuiſſe. Et quidni hoc conjicere par ſit, cum aliquod Aſſertioni huic Argumentum ipſe ſuppeditare videatur Creationis ordo; dum primo loco humanum fuiſſe efformatum Corpus, cui perfecto, ſecundo loco, inſpiratum fuit Principium activum, vivificando corpori perfectiſſime par, in ſacris aſſeritur. Cui accedit, quod, vi communis opinandi moris, Fœtui primis fiendi menſibus mortuo, neque per Jus ſcriptum, neque per Theologiam Humanitas perfecta aut Reſurrectio tribui & adſcribi hactenus ſolita fuerit, licet anima eſſentia ipſi talis inſit, qualis ea etiam poſt centeſimum vitæ annum exit è corpore.

Hoc ipſo tamen, uti fortaſſe videri poſſit, evincendum haud eſt, Animam, ut ipſa queat exiſtere, abſolute & unice indiguiſſe Corpore, quo ſine exiſtere non potuerit, eadem ſui perfectione, qua exſtitit, ſimulac infuſa ea fuit Corpori perfecte formato. Si enim hoc ſtatuatur, fruſtra eſſet ſperare Exiſtentiam Animæ perfectam poſt mortem corporis. At vero Animæ in ſe eadem jure credenda eſt perfectio eſſentialis poſt Corpus, qualis fuit ea in Corpore. Siquidem Corporis uſus Animæ nullam eſſentialem largiri palam eſt Conditionem, niſi ſaltem moralem & Theologicam, i. e. nude reſpectivam aut imputativam. Quodſi vero præter Humanitatis corporeæ illam connexionem & Reſpectum in genere, alia ſpecialior præcedaneæ, ante Animam, Corporis efformationis primævæ quærenda ſit ratio, eam forte (ſi amplius conjecturare liceat,) in Exhibitione Normæ atque regulæ, à Deo præcedenter datæ, quærere & invenire pronum ſit, juxta quam nempe, Animæ Activitatem ſuam ſpiritualem, & non aliter, exercere, licitum eſſe debeat. Anima enim, tanquam Spiritus divinus, ex propria hac ſui indole plus certè agendi compos, quam in corpore agit, cum in mundum corporeum dari debuit opus habuiſſe videtur, ut, præter inditam ſibi ipſi mentalem, divinæ deſtinationis,

Tres perſonas notavi, quæ, abſumptis jam roſcidis & balſamicis lymphæ particulis, ſpiculis autem acribus, adeoque doloribus, auctis, tandem, ſupervenientibus dejectionibus atris, cadaveroſum odorem ſpirantibus, indolentibus, artuum refrigerationibus, mente ac ſenſu privatæ gangræna & ſphacelo inteſtinorum obierunt. In alia matrona 5. diebus ante mortem præceſſit ſingultus, omnem caſtorinorum & opiatorum efficaciam eludens, inflammationum & convulſionum internarum, nec non mortis imminentis prænuntius. Menſe Octobri in ſcenam prodierunt morbi vitio renum & veſicæ orti. Sic in Perilluſtri quodam Domino, ſeptuagenario, alias robuſto, notavi Iſchuriam, ſive totalem urinæ ſuppreſſionem, ex calculo renum tubulos obſtruente, natam. Adfuerunt maximi dolores circa lumbos, vomitus frequentes, anguſtiæ & anxietates præcordiorum, obſtinata alvi obſtructio, nullus veſicæ tumor, nullus in pube dolor, nulla perinæi gravitas, nulli calores, imo pulſus naturali fere ſimilis. Cathetere flexili ſæpe immiſſo ne gutta urinæ extrahi, aut calculus in veſica latens deprehendi potuit. Adhibuimus ſæpiſſime clyſteres emollientes, balnea aquæ dulcis una cum herb petroſel. malv. parietar. chamomill. melilot. verbaſc. ſtram. aven. &c. unguenta pro inunctione lumborum, ex *unguent. roſac. ol. ſcorp. Sic tandem ſeptima morbi die robore naturæ moti ſunt calculi ex renibus in ureteres, cum vehementi, lancinante, pungente dolore; ex his brevi delapſi in veſicam urinariam: patente jam exitu parum urinæ, non quidem ſine dolore, emiſit, mox una cum tribus lapillis, magnitudine fabarum, urinam ſubcruentam ſine dubio ex laceratis vaſculis a calculorum aſperitate, excrevit, & poſt ſubnigram, tandem, & quidem abunde, pallidam, copioſa materia viſcida, ſabuloſa refertam. Dolores ſtatim poſt excretionem urinæ evanuerunt omnes, remanente ſolum laſſitudine ulceroſa ſenſuumque torpore, donec vires ſuas de-rem esse in se Essentiam, quam spirituum creatorum aliorum, corporis expertium vel impotentium, conjiciam: siquidem nec Corpus ipsum, nec quodcunque, vi corporis, in animam redundare potest, ejusdem aliquid infert Essentiæ vel detrahit; adeoque extra voluntatis Destinationisque Divinæ normam atque ordinem, vix dari posse puto causam, quæ in utroque spiritu magnam Essentiæ diversitatem sufficienter demonstret. Sed hæc obiter.

Dixi paulo ante, causam hominis, ita, uti est, creati, respicere non minima sui parte Corpus ipsum: non quasi hinc Corpus primaria & nobilissima hominis pars haberi mereatur, qua dignitate omnino, præ Corpore gaudet Anima, jure tum operationis essentialis, tum æstimationis & promissionis divinæ, nobilitatem Corporis longissime post se relinquens. Sed dum Anima per se, etiam sine corpore, existere, Deique amore, summaque sui felicitate perfecte frui posse, Christiana fide rectè credatur; simul verò eadem in hoc mundo, ad certum aliquem Finem, corpori alligata statuenda sit; proinde hujus suæ combinationis necessitatem & causam, non ex se, dum per se subsistere potest, sed sane ex ipso Corpore, quod adesse sane conveniens erat, ubi Homo creari debebat, habere probabile existit. Et ut clarius eloquar, quod sentio, nil frivole ad quæstionem illam respondisse me persuadeor, si dixero, factum ita esse Hominem, quia creatus fuit universus hic mundus corporeus. Quid ita, dicis? sic habe:

Mundi hujus quaquaversum visibilis s. sensibilis, ementissima videtur esse conditio, mutare & mutari, h. e. per innumerabilia indesinenter Fientia, & per varias, sed concinnas, fientium rerum vicissitudines, adeoque Temporis successus longissimos, DEI actuantis principalissimi exhibere Actiones & Directiones, Potentiam & Amorem. Quatenus enim de DEI Creatoris, in mundi intelligibilis cujuscunque productione, scopo (citra profanæ opinionis crimen,) præsumere liberum est, fuisse illum Bonitate & Amore præcipuè innotescere, verisimillimum apparet. Is itaque, DEUS, ante rerum initia, cum esset non nisi solus, Ens unum & unicum, cognosci, a nemine poterat. Cum ergo liberè vellet ut cognoscatur, necesse erat, ut crearet, quibus innotescere possit. Cognosci verò non nisi ab Intelligentibus poterat; unde creare suscepit. Dum porro innotescere Bonitatis & Amoris Effluxu voluit DEUS, cognoscendum se exhibere sine dubio voluit, tum quatenus in se est bonus & amans, semper idem, tum quatenus perenniter agit bene,

per Facta innumera diversimode, sed successivè cumulanda. Creavit ergo Entia Intelligentia, duplicis, ut apparet, ordinis & status, Alia, quæ intuitivè, DEum, ut in se est; Alia, quæ contemplativè & comparativè, eundem per Acta, perenniter & successive fientia, bonum & amabundum cognoscerent. Illorum, cum tempore nullo egeat, cognitio est simultaneæ, perfecta, qualis fere est, proximè Intuentis rem perspectiva cognitio: Horum vero cum collectiva, comparativa, concluſiva, adeoque successiva debeat esse, Tempore opus habuit, Cognitio, qualis fere est Quærentis ambulando de loco in locum, de parte ad partem, de re ad rem. Tempus porro cum est mensura successus & durationis Motus de Termino ad terminum, s. potius de puncto ad punctum; Motus autem inevitabiliter præsupponat res fientes, i. e. successive notas & mobiles; quod ipsum de nulla alia re, quam de materia & corpore prædicari potest; siquidem Motus, esse sine Recipiente, aut corpore, concipi vel credi non potest: sequitur hinc in Cognituro requiri Essentiæ & consistentiæ suæ talem Aptitudinem, quæ affici possit Materiis, successive s. in tempore motis, i. e. ut habeat pariter Corpus. Aptitudinis hujus corporeæ, in respectu & connexione ad subsequam cognitionem, prima debet esse conditio, apprehendere materiæ motæ indolem, quod fit sensu: Sensus requirit Dijudicationem, quæ fit Ratione & Ratiocinatione; quibus ipsis tandem absolvitur Intellectus animalis. Hunc ultimato sequitur Affectus, Voluntas, & Motus animales: ita dicti voluntarii: quibus ipsis tandem Homo s. Anima ex corpore rationalis & intelligens, post corporearum conditionum, undiquaque concinnissimarum, & Dei Bonitatem & amorem undique loquentium, temporariam & successivam considerationem & usum, redire potest eo, quo exiit, nempe ad Amorem DEI Creatoris reciprocum.

Hac quidem ratione palam esse puto, hominem naturaliter consideratum, ut possit esse & conversari inter res corporeas, succedentes & concinnè mutabiles, post partem sui rationalem s. spiritualem, i. e. Animam, opus habuisse Constitutione & Aptitudine congenere, corpoream; i. e. ut spiritus, vi divinæ Voluntatis, mundo huic corporeo dicati, habeant Corpora propria, quæ affici possint Conditionibus rerum corporeis. Adeo ut manifestum hac connexione evadat, in hos fines soli spiritui animali concessum esse, esse & agere in corpore. De aliis autem spiritibus vix evidenter satis probabile existit, eos tali propria & libera virtute, cum corporibus congredi, esse præditos; cum solum hæc domeſtica ſit ſpiritus humani, eique ſoli, vi divini ordinis & voluntatis abſoluta, propria Energia, ab aliis ſpiritibus omnibus aliena.

De Fine & Deſtinatione Corporis, in ſpecie.

COrpus ergo, ut præcedente Diſquiſitione declarare allaboravi, cum habere debuit Humanus ſpiritus ſ. Anima, citra quod mundanis corporeis Rebus ineſſe efficaciter vix potuerit; prono hinc ſubit pede Quæſtio: In quonam in ſpecie conſiſtat iſthac Aptitudo Corporis, Mundo huic ſenſibili ſubordinata, & quanam ſint & quot Aptitudinum harum Corporearum eminentiſſimæ Claſſes & ſpecies, juxta quarum exigentiam Anima rebus corporeis externis uti convenienter poſſit?

Ad formandum in hac re diſtinctum Conceptum, diſquirendum ante omnia venit, quot & quibusnam præcipue activitatum corporalium ſpeciebus Anima in hac vita actu polleat & pollere debeat? Ubi tres horum actuum ſummariæ conſtituendæ ſunt Claſſes, 1.) Activitas circa Externa qualiacunque, per actus rationales & voluntarios: 2.) Activitas circa proprium corpus, per motus vitales: 3.) Et ecce! fundantur hæ ipſæ in explicita Divina Deſtinatione, tanquam Lege, ſub ipſa Creatione, etiam in ſtatu Paradiſiaco Humanitati promulgata. Ita enim cum creaſſet DEUS Hominem, Primò omnium apparet non ſolum intendiſſe, Geneſ. 1. v. 26. Pro hisce vero explendis Activitatis humanæ Intentionibus quid, quæso, involvitur aliud, quam requiri & præditum esse Aptitudinibus corporeis, quæ perficiendis istis actibus adæquate sufficiant. In PRIMA Activitatis corporeæ classe, cum Reactionem quandam perpetuam inter res corporeas externas, & inter corpus humanum intercedere opus sit, quæ necessario fieri debet mediante Motu, ibi primo loco inquirere non supervacaneum foret: quot motuum modis externæ res s. corpora incurrere soleant in Corpus animale humanum? & an hoc etiam appropriatum sit hisce Incursibus singulis? Ad prius non ita difficile est respondere, id fieri præc. per summa illa universalium, qui in mundo corporeo quaquaversum vigent, Motuum genera, Motum scil. Caloris, Elateris, Ponderis, & Luminis; quibus ipsis reliquæ omnes motuum subdivisorum species recte subordinandæ sunt. motus, quaquaversum perpetuus, non solum in maximis, integralibus dictis, partibus, sed in minutissimis etiam atomis, integrantibus, per singulas individualiter, ita quidem, ut singula hæc Corpuscula, si vel libere vagentur, vel laxius alicubi cohæreant, motu vario facillime afficiantur, nexuque leviore dejiciantur; hoc ipsum tanto facilius procedet, non solum ubi minus firma est æqualiter in grandi aliquo humido-molli corpore Cohæsio & coadunatio harum particularum, sed ubi intrinsecæ mobilissimæ particulæ, tanquam diffundendæ reliquæ dissolutionis efficacissimum Instrumentum, jamdum undique in magna copia interjectæ præsto sunt. Est vero Massa talis, infide cohærens, quam maxime illa, cujus mixtioni terreo-mucido-pinguedinosæ, multa aquositas interseritur, cujus interactione perpetua, si nihil aliud, illa velocissime & funditus dissolvitur, i. e. in *putredinem abit. §. 7.

Conservet ergo Anima vi propria suum corpus, tanquam Instrumentum suum in hoc mundo indispensabile. Sed quomodo conservet? an ignoto & incomprehensibili aliquo Spirituali, aut balsamico modo, ὡς θεὸς ἀπὸ μηχανῆς? nequaquam, sed apertissima, planissima, simplicissima tamen recta, constanti, ordinata & successiva materiali methodo, per machinas nempe corporeas, aptissime in organicam directionem, & ad obtinendum scopum præfixum dispositas, & appropriatas licet per se plane segnes & organice-immobiles, simul vero motibus universalibus quibuscunque, ratione specialis directionis contranitentes, sine ullo intercurrente alio medio nisi solum & unice motu, Animæ, tanquam Agenti, & Corpori tanquam Recipienti, Essentia & Indole perfectissime pari.

Cum ergo Conservatio hæc mechanico-organica generice perficienda sit

Cum Motus hic conſervatorius vigere debeat in Corpore humido-molli, Mechaniſmi certè Indoles recidet quammaximè ad Motum Fluidorum, æqualiter Corpus humectatorium. §. 9.

Opus ergo eſt I. Motu Fluidorum, ordinatè & convenienter progreſſivo. Pro hoc perficiendo 1.) opus eſt organo quodam ſ. machina, motum hunc Fluidorum mechanica quadam proportione primo & efficaciter impellente; quale eſt Cor: 2.) Cum porro neceſſarium ſit, ut partim ex iſta Humorum, imo interdum ipſius corporis, maſſa, quædam activè ſeparari & eligi debeant, partim quædam indeſinenter paſſivè ſecedant, & elabantur, opus certè eſt II. Separatione, Aſſervatione, Ejectione. Dum ergo primario ſeparatio requiritur, 1.) quæ, quæſo, aptior in corpore molliter texto excogitari poſſit ſeparationis methodus, quam cribratoria, colatoria, filtratoria, qua ipſa ſubtiliores, nexu ſuo jam ſolutæ, & hinc inde noxiæ portiones, à craſſioribus, utilibus, aut ſegnibus ſecernantur, transcolentur & ſecludantur: ſed 2.) adſunt Secerniculæ, Filtra, Colatoria? adſunt certe, viſcera ſecretoria: 3.) Cumque diverſi ſint & eſſe debeant in corpore humores, diverſa etiam ſint neceſſe eſt hæc Colatoria; quod apparet

Humores ita movendi, natura ſpiſſiuſculi, magna hoc modo humiditatis portione privati, ſpiſſiores redditi, & ad transpreſſorium & colatorium illum ulterius motum poſthac ineptiores facti, antequam Fluidi reſtitutione voluntaria beentur, & antequam, novo impulſui progreſſivo applicentur, pro mobilitatis ſuæ neceſſaria promotione III. Intermedia, ſubſidiali Conquaſſatione, Concuſſione, Diſgregatione egent; quale quid fit in Pulmonibus; ex parte etiam in Liene, qui tamen ſimul facillimam in abdomine remoram ſubeunti ſanguini copioſiſſimo, receptaculum & diverticulum, quidni etiam Fomentum Ventriculo? præſtare videtur.

Ehe ich aber weiter gehe, muß ich noch etwas erinnern. Es ist nemlich offenbar, daß, wenn ein Mensch sich selbst betrachtet, er nicht allein erkennet, daß er ein denkendes Ding sey, sondern auch, daß gewisse Dinge zu seiner Natur gehören, welche sich auf den Leib beziehen, und daß dieser Leib entweder gesund oder krank sey, und zwar entweder mehr oder weniger, nachdem die Gedanken, welche seine Sinne verwirren, mehr oder weniger Macht über ihn haben. Endlich erkennet er, daß er nicht allein mit seinem Leibe verbunden sey, sondern auch mit vielen andern Körpern, welche ausser ihm sind, und daß er einige derselben fliehen, andere aber suchen müsse. Und wenn er sich selbst betrachtet, so kann er nicht zweifeln, daß er nicht alle diese Dinge, welche er in sich selbst bemerket, auch wirklich besitze, weil sie ihm, so lange er sich selbst betrachtet, gegenwärtig sind. Ich will aber diese Dinge, welche ich in mir selbst bemerke, nicht weiter untersuchen, weil sie mir nicht zweifelhaft sind, und ich sie auch nicht anders finden kann, als wie ich sie bemerke. Ich will auch nicht weiter untersuchen, ob ich einen Leib habe, der mir gehöret, und ob ich gesund oder krank sey, weil ich nicht zweifle, daß ich nicht alles dieses, was ich in mir bemerke, auch wirklich besitze. Ich will auch nicht weiter untersuchen, ob ich einen Leib habe, der mir gehöret, und ob ich gesund oder krank sey, weil ich nicht zweifle, daß ich nicht alles dieses, was ich in mir bemerke, auch wirklich besitze. Ich will auch nicht weiter untersuchen, ob ich einen Leib habe, der mir gehöret, und ob ich gesund oder krank sey, weil ich nicht zweifle, daß ich nicht alles dieses, was ich in mir bemerke, auch wirklich besitze.

Ich will auch nicht weiter untersuchen, ob ich einen Leib habe, der mir gehöret, und ob ich gesund oder krank sey, weil ich nicht zweifle, daß ich nicht alles dieses, was ich in mir bemerke, auch wirklich besitze. Ich will auch nicht weiter untersuchen, ob ich einen Leib habe, der mir gehöret, und ob ich gesund oder krank sey, weil ich nicht zweifle, daß ich nicht alles dieses, was ich in mir bemerke, auch wirklich besitze.

Ich will auch nicht weiter untersuchen, ob ich einen Leib habe, der mir gehöret, und ob ich gesund oder krank sey, weil ich nicht zweifle, daß ich nicht alles dieses, was ich in mir bemerke, auch wirklich besitze.

Nihil ſanctius & attentius obſeruauit tempore, cuius tam erat auarus diſpenſator, vt vel horulam ſibi elabi, quam non optime collocare liceret, impenſe doleret. Prælectiones ſumma fide & alacritate, ſtatis horis, inſtituebat: ſique inuito furreptæ fuiſſent aliquæ, alias commode furrogando damnum reſarcire ſolebat. Abſentibus amicis, per litteras ſecum colloquentibus, facilem ſeſe præbebat, omninoque gaudebat commercio hoc litterario cum viris eruditionis laude conſpicuis: quorum aliquos ſuperius indicandi occaſionem habui, quibus nunc aliorum, qui inter multos frequentius occurrunt, nomina, vt ſe forte oculis per litteras excurrentibus ingerunt, ſubnectam. Atque hi omnes de grauiſſimis rebus vel quærunt, vel quæſiti reſpondent. Si numerare vellem principes Perſonas, quarum aliquæ ad Regium faſtigium euectæ ſunt, quæ per litteras cum beato Viro egerunt, aut Illuſtriſſimorum Comitum & Comitiſſarum epiſtolas recenſere, quæ magno numero adſunt, vereor vt oſtentationi magis quam veræ vtilihanc jugulavit. Rimatus cauſas procatarcticas epidemialis hujus febris, aëris anomaliæ & intemperiei, nec non largiori potui propter calorem externum vix tolerandum eam adſcribendam duxi. Auguſtus enim, qui fuit calidiſſimus, poris nimium apertis corpora ſudore copioſo manare fecit, inde ſerum abſumptum, aut ſubtractis partibus tenuioribus bilioſæ particulæ auctæ, atque hoc modo acrimonia bilioſa, fermentifica, irritativa enata, quæ licet a largiori potu dilui, & ſerum refundi videretur. Ventriculi tamen & inteſtinorum tonum labefactavit, & ad excernendum ἄνω καὶ κάτω plus juſto contenta citavit. Utut non negandum, febres has epidemicas ex miaſmate, aëris ſobole, ſimul aliquid participaſſe. Non fuerunt contagioſæ, imo ſi rite tractabantur, nulli funeſtæ, ex incuria tamen & negligentia, aut medicaſtrorum præpoſtera & perverſa cura ac imperitia accedente cachexia & hydrope, multis exitioſæ. Et hæc ratio eſt, quod in aliquibus locis Hungariæ ex defectu medicorum & medicamentorum, aut perverſa, aut neglecta cura hæ febres malignitatem peſtiferam aſſumſerint, in primis ſi ex miaſmate, aëris ſobole, aliquid participarunt. Febres petechiales, quæ tamen autumno præcipiti quotannis ſunt frequentiſſimæ, hoc anno vix obſervavi, & ſi vidi, fuerunt benignæ. Diarrhœæ atque dyſenteriæ eodem tempore frequentes quoque fuerunt. Infantes, quos corripiebant, ſi ſuperarunt nonum diem, evaſerunt.

Bedeutung, die sie für die Geschichte der Menschheit haben, und auch nicht nach ihrer moralischen Qualität, sondern lediglich nach ihrer Nützlichkeit für die Juden selbst.

Diese Nützlichkeit ist eine sehr verschiedene gewesen, je nach den Zeiten und Umständen, unter denen sie sich geltend machte. Zeitweise war sie sehr groß, zeitweise sehr gering, zeitweise gleich Null, ja sogar negativ, so daß sie mehr Schaden als Nutzen brachte. Im ganzen aber überwiegt bei weitem der Nutzen, und wenn wir die Gesamtsumme ziehen, so müssen wir sagen, daß sie sich glänzend bewährt hat. Sie hat das Judentum erhalten durch alle Stürme der Jahrhunderte hindurch, sie hat es gerettet vor Vernichtung, Entartung und Verfall, sie hat es gestählt und gekräftigt, sie hat es zu dem gemacht, was es heute ist, zu einer Macht, mit der alle Welt rechnen muß, ob sie will oder nicht. Und sie hat es dazu gemacht, ohne daß es dabei seine Eigenart verloren hätte, ohne daß es sich assimiliert hätte, ohne daß es aufgehört hätte, ein Fremdkörper zu sein. Sie hat es dazu gemacht, ohne daß es dabei seine Religion verloren hätte, ohne daß es sich mit einer anderen Religion vermischt hätte, ohne daß es aufgehört hätte, eine Religion zu haben, die sich von allen anderen Religionen unterscheidet. Sie hat es dazu gemacht, ohne daß es dabei seine Sprache verloren hätte, ohne daß es sich einer anderen Sprache bedient hätte, ohne daß es aufgehört hätte, eine Sprache zu haben, die sich von allen anderen Sprachen unterscheidet. Sie hat es dazu gemacht, ohne daß es dabei seine Kultur verloren hätte, ohne daß es sich einer anderen Kultur angeschlossen hätte, ohne daß es aufgehört hätte, eine Kultur zu haben, die sich von allen anderen Kulturen unterscheidet. Sie hat es dazu gemacht, ohne daß es dabei seine Geschichte verloren hätte, ohne daß es sich einer anderen Geschichte angeschlossen hätte, ohne daß es aufgehört hätte, eine Geschichte zu haben, die sich von allen anderen Geschichten unterscheidet.

rem esse in se Essentiam, quam spirituum creatorum aliorum, corporis expertium vel impotentium, conjiciam: siquidem nec Corpus ipsum, nec quodcunque, vi corporis, in animam redundare potest, ejusdem aliquid infert Essentiæ vel detrahit; adeoque extra voluntatis Destinationisque Divinæ normam atque ordinem, vix dari posse puto causam, quæ in utroque spiritu magnam Essentiæ diversitatem sufficienter demonstret. Sed hæc obiter.

Dixi paulo ante, causam hominis, ita, uti est, creati, respicere non minima sui parte Corpus ipsum: non quasi hinc Corpus primaria & nobilissima hominis pars haberi mereatur, qua dignitate omnino, præ Corpore gaudet Anima, jure tum operationis essentialis, tum æstimationis & promissionis divinæ, nobilitatem Corporis longissime post se relinquens. Sed dum Anima per se, etiam sine corpore, existere, Deique amore, summaque sui felicitate perfecte frui posse, Christiana fide rectè credatur; simul verò eadem in hoc mundo, ad certum aliquem Finem, corpori alligata statuenda sit; proinde hujus suæ combinationis necessitatem & causam, non ex se, dum per se subsistere potest, sed sane ex ipso Corpore, quod adesse sane conveniens erat, ubi Homo creari debebat, habere probabile existit. Et ut clarius eloquar, quod sentio, nil frivole ad quæstionem illam respondisse me persuadeor, si dixero, factum ita esse Hominem, quia creatus fuit universus hic mundus corporeus. Quid ita, dicis? sic habe:

Mundi hujus quaquaversum visibilis s. sensibilis, ementissima videtur esse conditio, mutare & mutari, h. e. per innumerabilia indesinenter Fientia, & per varias, sed concinnas, fientium rerum vicissitudines, adeoque Temporis successus longissimos, DEI actuantis principalissimi exhibere Actiones & Directiones, Potentiam & Amorem. Quatenus enim de DEI Creatoris, in mundi intelligibilis cujuscunque productione, scopo (citra profanæ opinionis crimen,) præsumere liberum est, fuisse illum Bonitate & Amore præcipuè innotescere, verisimillimum apparet. Is itaque, DEUS, ante rerum initia, cum esset non nisi solus, Ens unum & unicum, cognosci, a nemine poterat. Cum ergo liberè vellet ut cognoscatur, necesse erat, ut crearet, quibus innotescere possit. Cognosci verò non nisi ab Intelligentibus poterat; unde creare suscepit. Dum porro innotescere Bonitatis & Amoris Effluxu voluit DEUS, cognoscendum se exhibere sine dubio voluit, tum quatenus in se est bonus & amans, semper idem, tum quatenus perenniter agit bene,

SI fides iſtis habenda ſermonibus eſſet, qui per traducem incertis paſſim divulgati Auctoribus avitæ fabulam inſcitiæ, non ſine ingenti gentis noſtræ dedecore, jactitarunt; certe Germania noſtra tantis ignorantiæ tenebris immerſa jacuiſſet, ut vix inde eluctari, iſtasque, ſummo-quantumvis ſtudio, diſcutere & propulſare licuerit. Sed facile quidem nos Germani patimur, homines, ſub alio cœlo natos, ita noſtris de rebus exiſtimaſſe, prout ſua quemque animi voluptas aut potius libido traxiſſe videtur. Nolumus jam priora illa poſt Chriſtum natum ſecula in probandi caſtra arceſſere, ubi Majores noſtri, armis alias aſſueti, non minus in literarum elegantiorum ſtudio ingenii nervos explicuerant, licet non ſine magna Reipublicæ literariæ jactura multa generis iſtius monumenta, uti in rebus humanis ſolet contingere, temporum iniquitate ſint intercepta. Ex quo enim profligata ſubinde barbarie, quæ in Monachorum clauſtris latitabat, elegantioribus literis antiquus ſuus honos iterum cœpit conſtare, & Auguſtiſſimorum Imperatorum ſingularis in litteras propenſio & munificentia largis ſtipendiis omnium artium Magiſtros alere hinc inde conſuevit, Germanorum etiam indefeſſum in amplificandis ſcientiis artibusque ſtudium fructus ſane præclaros non absque Gentium exterarum ſtupore & invidia oſtendit, cujus ſolertiæ complures eosque eximios futura tempora ſeris nepotibus pollicentur. Prodeant modo in Scenam tot Eruditorum Illuſtres Societates, quas non in Academiis ſolum, in centro quaſi collectas, ſed etiam per diſſitas longe provincias adhuc florere, & ſuos undiquaque radios ſpargere videmus. Denique ſagaciſſimum virum Baronem da Schaphiroff præclariſſimo ingenio, multiplici eruditione & exquiſita facundia illuſtrem, perplexis negotiis explanandis natum, collegio huic laudabiliter præſidere ſcias, cui (poſtquam aſſertum fuit & patrio Cœlo redonatum nobile illud pignus ac depoſitum, quod fata Ruſſiæ commodarant, Magno videlicet Imperatore Petro ad Divorum conſortia revocato,) conſcribendæ quoque tanti herois hiſtoriæ provinciam concedere Auguſtiſſima gratioſiſſime dignabatur. Veruntamen inter præcipua Ruſſiæ hodiernæ ornamenta locum ſibi ſupremum vindicat ſacra ſynodus, cui Orthodoxæ Orientalis Eccleſiæ regimen & rerum ſpiritualium moderamen incumbit. Nihil hoc ſacro Senatu integrius Areopagum habuiſſe credideris, ut ſi viros illuſtres, virtutum & ingenii fama conſpicuos, edecumatæ eruditionis, ornandisque literis natos, Tibi noſſe contingeret, vivæ Minervæ exempla ac omnigenæ doctrinæ Penuarium jure meritoque diceres. Non poſſum quidem non dolere vehementer, quod Faſti æque Conſulares, ac itinera & alia non adeo levia negotia, quibus poſt horrida infauſti incendii Schneebergenſis rudera indies premor & fere opprimor, omne propemodum otium mihi ſurripiant & totum quaſi me ſibi habeant mancipatum. Interim ne ad Inſignium Veſtri ordinis ductum unquam otioſus inveniar, quantulum in me virium erit, prætermittam nihil, quod ad amplificandum exornandumque Graviſſimum Ordinem Veſtrum pertinere arbitrabor, Symbolasque meas, ſi Deus vitam & Sanitatem largietur, qualescunque transmittam, quas non ex earum pretio, ſed pro cujuscunque modulo & affectu jam dudum didiciſtis æſtimare. Quod reſtat, devota precum formula concludo, Deum ter optimum terque maximum enixe flagitans, ut floreat ad poſteritatis memoriam & ſeculorum ordinem Illuſtris Naturæ Curioſorum Societas, cujus conatus non turbet tonitru ex Septentrione eminus proſiliens, quod Deus ſua potentia ac per æquas pacis conditiones exultante ipſa Religione & Sanctuario, diſcutere, divinoque ſuo robore diſſipare velit! Valete & agite feliciter! Dabam

M. JOH. ERNESTI GRVNDLERI,

Medicus Malabaricus, ſeu brevis relatio de ſtatu artis Medicæ inter gentes Malabaricas : ex ejusdem manuſcripto in compendiolum redacta.

Quum vir plurimum reverendus, & meus olim in Pædagogio Regio collega Anno MDCCIIX. ad miſſionem inter gentes Malabaricas proficiſceretur, erant qui ipſum rogarent, ut medicinæ, (cujus partes anatomicam & materiam medicam probe callebat, ceterarumque non prorſus expers erat, ut teſtari de ipſo poſſum,) conditionem inter has gentes expiſcaretur, &, ſi per otium liceret, de eo Europæos redderet certiores. Hujus deſiderii memor noſter Auctor, quum Malabaricæ linguæ addiſcendæ cauſſa multos evolvere libros deberet, maluit ex tanta illorum multitudine illos potius legere, ex quibus medicinæ ſtatum addiſceret, quam quoscunque alios. Quum jam ſe probe in hoc ſcriptorum genere exercuiſſet, acceſſit Anno MDCCXII. ad ſcribendum hoc opuſculum, quod Germanica Lingua exaratum, in Europam miſit, hoc titulo præfixo : Medicus Malabaricus, qui brevibus edocet, quibus in Medicina principiis hæ gentes innitantur, & qua ratione quibusve medicamentis morborum curationes adgrediantur. In Europæorum medicorum gratiam, & ut ſuo examini hæc ſubjicerent, ex medicis Malabarum libris congeſſit, & ex parte transtulit Ja. Ern. Grundler, qui præfationi inſeruit totius medicinæ aliquam ſciagraphiam ſecum à Brahmanno quodam communicatam, ex qua apparet, quo ordine tota ars in ſcholis harum gentium medicis tradatur. Perlegi hanc totam commentationem non ſine jucunditate: & putavi me rem non ingratam curioſis medicis facturum eſſe, ſi ſummam aliquam ipſis præmonſtrem, donec integer liber, quod fore ſperamus, lucem adſpiciat publicam.

Præmittitur tabula præfigurationem templi medicinalis habens, cui explicatio quædam ſubjungitur. Sequitur præfatio occaſionem ſcribendi libri enarrans, & exponens, quam difficile fuerit theoriam medicam conſequi. Ex tot enim libris poëtice ſcriptis, vix unum tandem invenit, qui partem theoreticam tradiderit: reliquas formulas tantum remediorum exhibuiſſe. Sed in hoc etiam ordinem deſideravit, & non raro illum ab aliis diſſentire deprehendit. §. 6. Aſſeritur, ex omnibus inter has gentes excultis diſciplinis medicinam plurimum boni continere, quum theologia eorum ſit vana & impia, philoſophia admodum mediocris, jurisprudentia nulla. §. 8. Miſſionarii abeuntes ex officina pharmaceutica orphanotrophei Glauchenſis pſum quo poſitu ab eo, qui vocavit, deprehenſus ſit. §. 21. §. 22. Illos ecenſet libros, ex quibus pathologia diſci debeat. Therapiæ ad umbrationem ſiſtit §. 24. & in quot partes illa divellatur. De eo copioſius, verbis potiſſimum Auctoris, liceat exponere. Quartus inſtitutionum liber ſex capitibus abſolvitur, quibus docetur, univerſam curandi artem octo claſſibus contineri, ſecundum totidem morborum familias. Adeoque prima claſſe contineri illos, qui morbos infantum tollere callent: Secunda qui morſus & ictus venenatorum animalium ſanare norunt: Tertia, qui dæmonas fugare & mentis morbos poſſunt avertere: Quarta, qui ſuccurrunt in venerem tardis vel ad coitum ineptis: Quinta qui morbos ceteros corpori ingruentes propellere ſatagunt; cui claſſi plurimus defertur honos: Sexta, qui manuum opera ſuccurrunt ægrotis: Septima, qui ſenium retardare, & canitiem avertere poſſunt: Octava demum, qua ratione omnes capiti & oculis accidentes morbi debellari debeant, probe callentes continentur. Oportet autem, ſi quis excellere in medicina velit, octo has medendi tanquam claſſes æque eſſe pervagatum, aut potius in ſingulis exercitatum, ut perfecte ſingula eo pertinentia calleat. Quum vero non omnibus liceat ad tantum adſpirare gradum: hinc ſunt apud eos, qui ſe uni tantum claſſi vel duabus pluribusve ſeorſim mancipant, neglectis tantiſper reliquis, ut in his, quæ excolenda ſibi ſumſerunt, eo magis excellant. Unicuique harum claſſium præſidet numen aliquod, tamquam patronus & tutelaris DEUS, quem medici illi venerantur, & medicinas ejus nomine exhibent. Sic infantum morbis præeſt ventus; aqua morbis ex venenatis ictibus favet: aër profligandis dæmonibus fert opem: ad venerem impotentibus ventus igneus opitulatur. Chirurgis luna ſubvenit & terra canitiem arcet: quintæ claſſis medicorum conatus ſol adjuvat & oculorum capitisque morbis, tamquam Deus averruncus, anima hominis ſuccurrit. Hæc ex §. 24.

Supereſt, ut ceterorum ſummas brevius referam. §. 25. Accurate præcipiunt de ſelectu medicinarum ratione locorum natalium, collectionis & aſſervandi temporis, quomodo ſingula præparari, præparataque aſſervari debeant, etiam de ſuccedaneis præſcribunt, §. 26. morbos primitivos & inde exortos, calculo adjecto, enumerat. Ex uno ſæpe videas CCCIII. CCCLX. CCCLXXXIII. deductos. Mentis morbi traduntur eſſe DCCLXXXXII. tota omnium morborum ſumma conficit MMD CCCXXXXVII. Chemiæ etiam rationem §. 27. habent. Hæc à Deo Tſchiwen libris IV. tradita eſt. Agunt de mercurio, ſulfure, aliisque mineralibus, de ſalibus, antimonio, vitriolo, alumine, corallis, gemmis, metallis: deque inſtrumentis pyrotechniæ, & operationum enchireſibus.

Deſcripta ſic mumiæ perſicæ natura, reſtat, ut occaſionem inventæ Medicinæ paucis referam. Quidam inter venatores Perſicos in territorio Civitatis Laër eodem in loco, ubi è monticulis lapidoſis Mumia, tunc temporis parum aut nihil æſtimata, effluxit, cervum ſagitta petit, unumque è cruribus, ſive focile majus ſive minus non conſtat, hujus feræ perforat, frangitque, hoc non obſtante, beſtia terrefacta cum tribus pedibus ſe conjecit in fugam, & ex oculis hujus ſagittarii evaſit. Altero die ab eo de novo ſuſcipitur venatio eodem in loco & ecce! ſimilis cervus ac heſternus à ſagittis lethaliter vulneratus, ut ſtatim moriatur. Cadaver benè aſpiciens & obſervans venator, comprehendit eandem eſſe feram, cui pridie ſuis armis pes eſſet fractus, unde cùm in heſterna fugâ pedem ſauciatum mumiæ fortè fortuna intinxiſſet, factum eſt, ut paucis horis os eſſet conſolidatum ab hac medicina. der Sängerinnen Adelina Patti-Nicolini, Sarah Bernhardt, Christine Nilsson und Marie Roze, sowie der Violinvirtuosen Pablo de Sarasate, Henri Wieniawski und Joseph Joachim.

Eine neue Erscheinung unter den Violinisten ist Eduard Reis. Er ist ein Schüler des Pariser Conservatoriums und hat sich bereits einen Namen gemacht. Er ist ein Virtuose ersten Ranges, und wird sicherlich in Kürze in die Reihe der Meister treten. Sein Ton ist voll und kräftig, seine Technik ist vollendet, und sein Vortrag ist ausdrucksvoll und geistreich. Er spielte das Violinconcert von Lalo, das auch in Wien zur Aufführung gelangte, und das Violinconcert von Saint-Saëns, das, wie wir schon erwähnt haben, in Paris mit großem Beifall aufgenommen wurde. Reis ist ein Künstler, der sich in Deutschland einen großen Ruf erwerben wird.

Über die Violinvirtuosen Wieniawski und Joachim ist wenig zu sagen. Wieniawski ist ein Künstler, der sich seinen Ruf bereits erworben hat, und Joachim ist ein Künstler, der sich seinen Ruf nicht erwerben muß, sondern ihn bereits besitzt. Wieniawski spielte das Violinconcert von Mendelssohn, und Joachim spielte das Violinconcert von Beethoven. Beide Künstler haben sich in ihrem Vortrage als Meister gezeigt.

Lieber wer sind Propheten, als diese heutigen Lesemeister, die Gottes Wort nicht anders lesen, denn wie ein Kind in der Fibel? Sie lesen nicht, was da steht, sondern was sie selbst dichten. Sie lesen nicht, was Gott redet, sondern was sie selbst wähnen. Sie lesen nicht, was Gott will, sondern was sie selbst wollen. Sie lesen nicht, was Gott thut, sondern was sie selbst thun. Sie lesen nicht, was Gott ist, sondern was sie selbst sind. Sie lesen nicht, was Gott giebt, sondern was sie selbst nehmen. Sie lesen nicht, was Gott ist, sondern was sie selbst sind.

In dieser neuen Kunst, die Bibel zu lesen, scheinen scholastische und mystische Elemente sich zu verbinden. Wie die Scholastiker, so sucht auch Luther in der Bibel Lehrsätze, und wie die Mystiker, so findet auch er in ihr Gefühle. Aber er sucht und findet beides in einer Weise, die weder der Scholastik noch der Mystik eigen ist.

Er sucht nicht Lehrsätze um ihrer selbst willen. Er sucht sie, weil sie ihm Gefühle erregen sollen. Er sucht nicht Gefühle um ihrer selbst willen. Er sucht sie, weil sie ihm Lehrsätze bestätigen sollen. Lehrsätze und Gefühle sind ihm nicht Selbstzweck, sondern Mittel zum Zweck. Sie sind ihm nicht Ziel, sondern Weg zum Ziel. Sie sind ihm nicht Inhalt, sondern Form. Sie sind ihm nicht Gegenstand, sondern Werkzeug. Sie sind ihm nicht Gott, sondern Gottes Wort.

Gottes Wort, nicht Gottes Geist, ist Luthers Ziel. Er sucht Gottes Geist nur, weil er Gottes Wort sucht. Er findet Gottes Geist nur, weil er Gottes Wort findet. Gottes Geist ist ihm nur Mittel zum Zweck, Gottes Wort ist ihm Zweck selbst.

Nihil hoc ſacro Senatu integrius Areopagum habuiſſe credideris, ut ſi viros illuſtres, virtutum & ingenii fama conſpicuos, edecumatæ eruditionis, ornandisque literis natos, Tibi noſſe contingeret, vivæ Minervæ exempla ac omnigenæ doctrinæ Penuarium jure meritoque diceres. Videlicet qui venerabilem hunc conſeſſum exornant omni laude digniſſimi Præſules, priſcam Eccleſia diſciplinam reſtituentes glaciem fregere, ac ut religionis non fucatæ ſinceritas effulgeret, multa incondita & ſuperſtitioſa expunxere.

Eminet inter ipſos non dignitate tantum, verum multiplicis literaturæ gloria Theophanes Procopoviz olim Pleſcowienſis, modo Novogoradienſis Archi-Præſul, vir vaſti ingenii, mactus omni laude, Eccleſiæ Ruthenæ decus, cui plenis ſuffragiis faſces ſuos ſubmittit omnis in Ruſſia Eruditorum chorus; multis equidem nominibus de hac Republica Literaria præclare meritus, qui Romam Epitomem olim orbis, ac nobiliſſimum hodie ſcientiarum omnium Emporium, cauſa ſtudiorum adiit, & opima ſcientiarum ſpolia reportans, plurimis Eccleſiaſtico-Politicis ingenii partubus editis, ac doctrinæ fama ſæpius innotuit, ut per omnes honorum gradus ad hunc dignitatis apicem perveniret. Licet enim in nullo diſciplinarum orbe ſit hoſpes, in elegantiori tamen literatura adeo pollentem ſcias, ut ab Eruditorum ſubſelliis Ruthenorum Demoſthenes ſalutetur. Literarum ac Literatorum Patronum & Evergetam indulgentiſſimum tot eximiæ ſpei adoleſcentes quotidie experiuntur, qui ejusdem ære aluntur, educantur, ac omni pietatis artiumque liberalium ſtudio inſtruuntur. Unde cum magis aliis quam ſibi natus eſſe videatur, id unum omnes boni vovent, ut quod præclariſſime impoſitum onus hactenus ſuſtinuit, diu incolumis & magno Ruſſiæ totius emolumento ferre pergat; cujus favor & patrocinium cum præcipuus ſit fundus Literariæ noſtræ felicitatis, Maxima ejusdem

ris, saue nihil veritati detraxeris. Facile igitur longus Ecclesiasticorum Eruditorum posset contexi Catalogus, sed displicet in ea argumenti parte prolixiorem esse, in qua Tibi omnino satisfactum fuisse arbitror, cum enim haud facile emergant quorum virtutibus obstat Res angusta domi; quotquot Moskuæ Gymnasia munificentia Principis erecta sunt, Scholarchis Ecclesiasticis gaudent, qui ejusdem sacri Ordinis Professores omni eruditione subactos viros ut plurimum eligunt, præter studia liberalia scientias Ruthenicæ juventuti fideliter tradituros. Solent ibi cereis adolescentiæ mandibulis scabra ossa mandenda nequaquam obtrudere, sed prima literarum tinctura imbutos, positoque inter disciplinas leviores tyrocinio, Philosophiæ Scholasticæ spatia emensos ad Theologica Studia promovere: & cum modesta dogmatum ventilatione ceu Silicum concussu veritatis ignem elici nequaquam ignorent, Polemosophiæ seu Dialecticæ sacræ crebram operam navant, ut annuis impressis Thesibus, quemadmodum alibi moris est, publicæque disputationi propositis, bonæ frugis seges ad lætiorem messem matureſcat. Pro iis vero, qui solidioribus scientiis & quæ de pane lucrando sunt vacare atque imbui malunt, celeberrimum Bidloo Russiæ Æsculapium Medicinæ Anatomes, ac Chirurgiæ Professorem ibidem constituerunt, qui non theorice tantum, saluberrimæ artis principiis eosdem instruit, sed & practica manuductione in Nosocomio Moskuensi, cui præest, Studio Medico addictos necessarias docet Enchireses. Hinc ferme omnes Ruthenæ gentis chirurgi, qui peregrinas oras nequaquam lustrarunt, quicquid in arte iatrica valent, ex Bidloiana schola hausisse scias. Horum vero enarrabilem numerum facile valebis arguere, si præter tot militum Legiones ac Bellicas Majores Naves & Myoparones suis chirurgis instructas, tot propugnacula aut custodiendis finibus destinata munimenta perpendes, quibus vel castrensibus Medicis, vel Stationariis Chirurgis provisum est.

Ut nil referam Xenodochia, Gerontocomia, pauperum ædes, cæteraque egestati constructa subsidia, ubi belli infelices reliquiæ, valetudinarii vel mutili milites aut adscititiis tibiis recepti, quod superest corporis commode alunt, foventque. Nosocomia vero adeo magnifice Petripoli exstructa, ut erga pauperes Clementissimi Imperatoris pietatem abunde testantur, ac in ejus famæ securitatem, de tanto pauperum ac Gregariorum militum Hospite haud incongrue dici ex Evangelio possit, si hi tacuerint, lapides clamabunt. Ægrorum militum receptioni destinatur unum, infirmos nautas exipit alterum, ex quorum Pharmacevticis Officinis quicquid morborum conditio exigit in decumbentium solatium provide suppeditatur. Primi directionem mihi commissam dudum Tibi significavi, in quo

Dadurch wird es möglich, eine und dieselbe Sache öfters, aber mit jedesmal neuem, durch den Zusammenhang gegebenen Interesse zu behandeln. Wir können hier nicht auf Einzelheiten eingehen, sondern müssen uns darauf beschränken, die Hauptpunkte, um die sich die Darstellung bewegt, anzudeuten. Nach einer Einleitung, die sich mit der Geschichte Griechischer Agrarzustände beschäftigt, wird zuerst die Frage nach der Grösse des Attischen Gebietes behandelt. Dann folgt eine Untersuchung über die Grösse der Bevölkerung, wobei auch die Sklavenfrage ihre Erledigung findet. Hierauf wird die Vertheilung des Grundbesitzes, die Grösse der Güter, die Art der Bewirthschaftung, die Preise der Grundstücke, der Ertrag des Landes, die Steuern, die Getreidepreise, die Getreideausfuhr, die Getreidezufuhr, die Getreidehandler

Agite vero, o mei, conſiderate mecum primo quidem præſentem Artis Medicæ ſtatum, & facile perſpicietis inde, quid ſperandum ſit vobis, quid expectandum, qualis ineunda vitæ ratio. Qualis autem ille? Mirè corruptus. Irruunt catervatim illotis manibus pedibusque medicaſtri, coinquinant Artem ſaluberrimam hic paſtores, ibi chirurgi & pharmacopœi, illic vetulæ; quin carnifices alibi impune graſſantur. De his collegis gratulamur nobis. Scilicet, cum nulla alia in re periculum ſit majus, nemini tamen facilius creditur, quam ſe Medicum profitenti. Nihilominus omnes illi ſua ſe ſuſtentant impudentia. Adeo in praxi medica ſuccedit illud conſilium, quod ad id, ut emergas, ſcientiæ modicum ſufficere dicit, impudentiæ autem multum requirit. Miratus olim dicitur Anacharſis Scytha, quomodo apud Græcos artifices certarent judicarentque, qui artifices non eſſent. Medici quotidiana iſtiusmodi experiuntur judicia; namque apud Eruditos qui nihil valent, apud plebem imperitam facundia præeminent. O! tædioſam ergo conditionem Medici, cui cum iſto hominum perverſo genere certandum eſt. O! Medicum afflictum; de quo adhuc hodie valet, quod de ſe ipſo olim conqueſtus eſt Naturæ curioſorum quondam Telamon: Multa ego & incredibilia propter Medicinæ ſcientiam paſſus ſum, patiorque etiamnum, ob quæ fere tædium Artis alias ſaluberrimæ inceſſit, & eo impellor, ut quæ ab hominum & vulgi opinione, jam etiam medicaſtrorum lucripetarum ſordibus, & theoreticorum ſupercilio, in eam illata ſunt damna, triſtiaque & optimorum hominum patientia indigna, meditato jam dudum, &, volente ita Deo, conſummando Dialogo traducam. Et quid quæſo animi fuiſſe putatis B. Parenti, ad Medicinam promoto quondam è Philoſophia Naturali, cum qua aliter, & longe quidem melius, comparatum eſt. Arcetur enim ibi profanum vulgus, nec ſcientiæ ardeliones iſti inhiant, quia luci litatur in phyſica, non lucro, quod unum ipſi quærunt. Quodſi tamen quis per transverſum ſeſe immiſcuerit tenebrio, facile experimentorum claritate & demonſtrationum robore exploditur.

Quodnam ergo pro Philiatro conſilium? Quodnam his moleſtiis remedium? Certe non aliud, quam quod injuriis quibuscunque deſtinari alias ſolet, & dici: Non maſticandas illas eſſe, nec ruminandas, ſed devorandas & deglutiendas integras, uti ſolent Medicorum pilulæ. Idcirco mature præparandus eſt animus & obfirmandus ad ferendum patienter, mutari quod nequit. Nec profecto aliam perverſis rebus iſtis medelam adhibendam cenſuit, B. Parens, niſi quod cavere ſibi & proſpicere juſſerit philiaducta ad vitam ratione fuit, quin uſus ipſe, ætas atque experientia ſemper aliquid docerent novi. Quis ergo & cur exceptam velit Medicinam? Indeclinabiles arti ſunt mutationes, videamus modo, ut ſint in melius, non in pejus.

Famoſus priori ſeculo philoſophiæ reformator alicubi ſe ad reformandam quoque Medicinam animum applicuiſſe ſcribit, prætenditque, homines ab infinitis tam corporis quam animi morbis immunes futuros, imo fortaſſis etiam à ſenectutis debilitatione, ſi ſatis magnam cauſarum à quibus mala iſta oriuntur, & omnium remediorum, quibus Natura nos inſtruxit, notitiam haberent. Videbatur enim ſibi incidiſſe in viam, qua haud dubie ad optatum finem perveniri poſſit, niſi aut brevitate vitæ, aut experimentorum defectu impediatur. Judicabat autem, nullum melius eſſe adverſus duo iſta impedimenta remedium, quam ſi fideliter quisque publico communicaret id omne, quantumcunque eſſet, quod reperiſſet, & præclara ingenia incitaret, ut ulterius pergere contenderent, ſingulique quod in ſua facultate eſſet ad experimenta facienda conferrent, atque etiam eorum, quæ addiſcerent, publicum particeps facerent, eo fine, ut ultimi incipiendo ubi præcedentes deſiiſſent, & ita multorum vitas & labores conjungendo omnes ſimul longius progrederemur, quam ſinguli privatim poſſent. Egregie dicta beatoque parenti auro contra cariora, qui miſſis allotriis & ad rem nihil facientibus, quæ vera & bona inclaruerunt in diſcentium uſus contulit, antiqua novis perfecit, illuſtravit & conciliavit, ad praxin vero omnia retulit, unice reſpiciens, quantum à novis inventis pro ſalute ægrorum ſperari vel applicari poſſit; prouti, ſilentibus etiam nobis, norunt qui vel docentem ipſum audiverunt, vel ſcripta ejus legerunt. Utinam omnes ſequerentur! Uberes tamen fructus talium proſtant paſſim; talibus debentur medicæ artis incrementa, de quibus hodie gratulatur ſibi & tantum non ſuperbit. Celebris quondam Tubingæ noſtræ Comicus in theatro exhibuit Julium Redivivum. Quid putatis Hippocratem & Galenum redivivum, vel alium quemcunque è veteribus medicis cum Epimenide evigilantem, dicturos ad moderni ſtatus medici conditionem? Et quid aliud, quam quod mirarentur, quod laudarent viros tam in Univerſitatibus Germaniæ celeberrimos, quam nunquam otioſos Naturæ Curioſos, collectos in Regias Societates Anglos, Gallos, Boruſſos, & quis omnes enarrare valeat? ut iſto ſtudio & fervore Artis Medicæ augmentum promovere velint porro.

Veſtrum igitur eſt, Audd. Philiatri, primo quidem grata mente venerari Præceptorum fidem ac induſtriam; Deinde vero amplam iſtam, quam ſingulari Majorum liberalitate nobis relictam ſupra diximus, hæreditatem poſteris

Ed ella mi rispose: Ben ti sia grato
Ciò che ti piace, e ben ti sia diletto;
Ma non ti sia per questo il cor turbato,
Che quella, che tu dici, ha nome Letto.
Ed io risposi: Dunque, ch'io non l'abbia?
Ed ella: Sì, ma non come tu credi.
Ed io: Dunque, che debbo far di quella?
Ed ella: Dormirvi, e posarvi, se tu vuoli.

CAP. II.

DE MUMIÆ PERSICÆ

Viribus & Uſu Medico.

DE viribus & uſu Medico noſtræ Mumiæ Perſicæ nunc dicendum reſtat. Ex antecedentibus jam cognovimus virtutes huic Medicinæ tribui extraordinarias in conſolidandis vulneribus & fracturis. Verumtamen quicquid garriunt & Inventores & Mercatores hujus Medicinæ, aut fabulam ſapere, aut dolum conſumendi merces recondere in antecedentibus dictum eſt. Interim injurius eſſem in nobilem hanc Medicinam, ſi virtutes proprias, quæ omnino egregiæ ſunt, ex toto denegare vellem. Eſt enim Mumia noſtra Medicamentum balſamicum, quod odor & ſubſtantia bituminoſa probat, & conſequenter etiam Nervinum atque Antiſpasmodicum. Ob contentas particulas oleoſas & ſulphureas temperat humorum acrimoniam & ſudorem commovet, hinc jure meritoque eſt temperans diaphoreticum & egregium ſanguinem coagulatum reſolvens. Ex ut mihi videtur certis poſitis circumſtantiis ſimiles fere virtutes ac balſamus peruvianus, ſuccinum, ambra & ſimilia balſamica præſtat, ſive externe ſive interne adhibeatur.
